PRICE FIVE CENTS.

WEST POINTER WINS NEBRASKA RHODES AWARD

Irving Schimmelpfennig Is Honor Student and Star Athlete.

PLAYS ARMY FOOTBALL

Candidate Receives Special Permission to Study in England.

Irvin R. Schimmelpfennig, of Humphrey, Neb., a senior in the United States military academy at West Point, has been awarded the Rhodes scholarship, which was allocated to Nebraska this year. Metallocated to Nebraska this year. He is the first Rhodes scholar to be chosen from Nebraska in the last five years who has not re-ceived his education at the state

Five applications for the award were made by students of the Uni-versity of Nebraska. The choice was made by a state committee consisting of J. E. Miller, Lincoln, chairman; H. A. Gunderson, Fre-mont; Ralph T. Wilson, Omaha; John G. Madden, Kansas City; and Paul F. Good, Lincoln, secretary.

Appointment Made Sunday. The appointment of Schimmel-fennig was announced Sunday by Dr. Frank Aydelotte, president of Swarthmore college and American secretary of the Rhodes trustees.

Schimmelpfennig played in the first two Army football games this fall, but was not out for the rest of the season because of injuries. He has lettered in track, and has represented the army in several inter-ollegiate boxing matches.

He has taken high scholastic conors at West Point, ranking as a cadet captain, the highest rank in the cadet corps. He will graduate next spring as a second Secures Special Permission.

Special permission was required in order to apply for the appointment and permission has been granted for him to spend the three years at Oxford as a detail on the detached officers list. He will be placed in regular army service at the end of the three years.

mother resides at Humphrey. A melpfennig, is a freshman in the (Continued on Page 3, Col. 3)

COUNCIL PLANS ALL METHODIST BANQUET

Foundation Organizations Support Dinner Open to Students.

Plans for the All Methodist student dinner to be held Tuesday, Dec. 17 in St. Paul's M. E. church, in observance of Wesley Founda-tion night, were discussed at a meeting of the Methodist student ervations have been made for the Bishop D. E. Leete will give the principle address on the evening's program. Dr. F. F. Travis, Lincoln district superintendent, W. C.

ing program.

These Methodist organizations within the foundation are expected to give their support at the ban-quet for the rapid development of a Methodist student social center to care for the activities of Methoto care for the activities of Metho-dist students registered in the uni-versity. They also will probably give a report of their activities in the church. Each group of church representatives is to be responsible for getting out the faculty mem-bers of their church as well as a number of official members who number of official members who are interested in the religious life of students on the campus.

Pan-Hellenic Votes To Stop Publicity

The Pan-Hellenic association of the University of Nebraska decided to discontinue the policy of giving publicity to sorority parties at a meeting held in Ellen Smith hall ast evening. This is a result of newspaper stories concerning such

The reason for this action is because of the following section in the constitution of the organiza-

1. All publicity in Pan-Hellenic affairs is to be given out by chair-

Rhodes Scholar

IRVIN R. SCHIMMELPFENNIG Selected as Rhodes scholar from

PHI TAU THETA WILL

Officers at Recent Dakota Session.

Next annual convention of Phi Tau Theta, Methodist fraternity. will be held in Lincoln with the University of Nebraska chapter acting as host.

A report of the last convention recently held at Vermillion, S. D., will be given at the next meeting of the fraternity which will be held Tuesday evening at the Wesley Foundation parsonage. The annual message was presented at the convention by Dr. Lampe, director of the school of religion at the University of Iowa. His message dealt with the expansion of the fraternity which now has seven chapters. W. C. Fawell, Methodist university pastor was elected national sponsor. Clyde Yost of Nebraska was elected national treasurer. Delegates to the conveitnon from the local chapter were John Le-Mar, Henry Riner and Claude Ro.

Schimmelpfenning is twenty-two years old. He is the son of a Lutheran minister, deceased. His TO PI LAMODA THETA Chairman Plans Lecture on Meeting Members of Communities.

Dr. F. E. Henzlik, chairman of the department of school administration in Teachers college, will talk to the members of Pi Lambda Theta, Thursday at 7:15 p. m., on "Putting Your Best Foot Forward," a discussion of the problems which confront the new teacher in a community in meeting the school board, principal, superintendent and citizens of the town or district.

Pi Lambda Theta is an organizacouncil in the Temple cafeteria tion for upperclass students in Friday noon. Three hundred res-Teachers college, and holds meetings once a month. At each meeting some speaker presents a discussion of some topic of interest to a report of the national convention was given by Genevieve Moritz, president of the society, and at the Fawell, university pastor and representatives from the Methodist student council, Kappa Phi, Phi Tau Delta, and Wesley Players will also be included on the speakof a Man.

STUDENTS WILL TALK AT FORUM MEETINGS

Ruth Hatfield Is First on List: Plans Talk on World Peace.

University students will serve as speakers at the World Forum luncheons for several weeks, according to Meredith Nelson, chair-

Ruth Hatfield will be the first speaker to address the gathering. She will speak at the Wednesday luncheon, on "A Student's Contribution to World Peace." Miss Hat-

She has attended the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. annual conference at Estes park for two years and has made a considerable study of international relations. Miss Hatfield is a decided pacifist. She is a 2. No publicity is to be given to member of the university Y. W. C. sorority functions to which men A. cabinet, having charge of fi-

CHORUS IS TO SING HANDEL'S MESSIAH DEC. 18

Howard Kirkpatrick Directs Famous Oratorio for Second Time.

IMPORT TWO SOLDISTS

Past Years.

University chorus will present Handel's "Messiah" in Grant Memorial hall, Wednesday, Dec. Grant 18, at 10:30 a. m., according to an official statement recently issued by university authorities. All 10 and 11 o'clock classes will be excused to attend, according to T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs. Dean Thompson, in his statement MEET HERE IN 1930 excusing classes, urged all students who possibly could to be present at the concert.

Fawell, Yost Are Elected Prof. Howard Kirkpatrick, of the university school of music, will direct the oratorio. Mr. Stanley Deacon and Mrs. Raymond Havens. soloists from Kansas City, will as-aist in the presentation. This is the second year Prof. Kirkpatrick has directed the "Messiah" on this campus. Previous to that Carrie Jacobs Raymond, former solo or-ganist of the Plymouth Congrega-tional church, and directress of the chorus, conducted the Christmas cantata for thirty-five consecutive years. Her last appearance as directress of the famous musical score was in 1927. She died in 1927 several months after the production of the "Messiah."

> many years and usually always oc- year. casions the annual Christmas con-vocation on the campus. Last year, however, due to a severe influenza epidemic just preceding mas recess.

Players Offer Oscar Wilde's Version of a Modern Good Woman

In their selection of Oscar Wilde's "Lady Windermere's Fan" the University Players are following the general trend toward a revival of interest in the works of that playwright. "Lady Windermere's Fan" which will open Friday at the Temple theater is as the author himself wrote. "The story of a good wo-man." It is full of sparkling goodhumored, novel repartee, abound-ing with wit. The majority of the chaacters seem to take nothing very seriously except amusement. Herbert Yenne, Walter Vogt. Betty Craft and Cornelia Ayers Cantata Is Occasion for leading roles. Mr. Yenne will represent Lord Windermere: Miss Craft, Lady Windermere; Mr. Vogt, Lord Darlington; and Miss Ayers, Miss Erlynne. The rest of the cast will be announced in the near future.

In commenting on the writings of Oscar Wilde, George E. Nathan, dramatic critic of the American Mercury said: "Oscar Wilde has been criticized for being clever but not profound. I criticize Kant for being profound but never clever.

M'GIMSEY SELECTS WOMEN'S RIFLE TEAM

Mary Ann Davis Is Captain: Team Will Practice Twice Weekly.

according to the average of the 227 several months after the pro-uction of the "Messiah."

C. F. McGimsey who is in charge The cantata has been presented of the rifle range. Mary Ann Da-lieve that in the use of a mixed were declared eligible by the war annually at the university for vis is captain of the team for this cast in place of all men, more var-many years and usually always oc-year. the university for vis is captain of the team for this cast in place of all men, more var-ied, better balanced and entertain-plicants will seek admission to the

The team will be composed of Ethelyn Colwell, Mary Cook, Caro-lyn Cooper, Frieda Curtis, Mary Ann Davis, Ruth Ely, Adele Eisler, Cann, Ruth Raber, Virginia Ran-

CHAIRMEN FOR COSTUME PARTY

MARGARET DAY.

KLUB MEMBERS SPRING DRAMAS

Playwrights Must Submit Offerings; Students Are Eligible.

SHOW SET FOR APRIL

Organization Will Not Go On Road; Cast May Be Mixed in Play.

Deadline for the submission of plays to be produced at the Kos-met Klub spring show has been set for the close of the first week following Christmas vacation. This decision was reached at a Kosmet meeting Monday afternoon.

Exact date ond time limit have not been agreed upon yet, the only word from the club relative to this being "toward the close of the first week following vacation." Anyone connected with the university in Klub Breaks Precedents.

The spring show, according to club members, will be produced in Lincoln sometime during the first part of April. Contrary to preceshowing will be confined to a three day run in Lincoln. Another pre-cedent established by the club sevthe Women's Rifle team for 1929-the Women's Rifle team for 1929-1930 for the University of Ne-spring when a mixed cast of both prasks. The members were chosen men and women will be substi-men and women will be substi-

the holidays it was not given until LeNette Knox. Madeline Lebsack, eral years mixed casts were exten-the second week following Christ- Margaret Leomard, Maxine Mc- sively used before that. The first (Continued on Page 3, Col. 3)

ADELE EISLER.

Lady Windermere

BETTY CRAFT

Who will play the title role of "Lady Windermere" in the Univer-sity Players' next production, Lady Windermere's Fan.'

DEKLOTZ DECLARED ELIGIBLE FOR EXAM

Tests for Military Academy Soon.

Leonard A. DeKlotz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph DeKlotz of Lincoln, a senior in the college of endent established in the last few coin, a senior in the college of en-years, the play will not be taken gineering of the university and a on the road this year. Instead its guard, has been designated to take the West Point entrance examinations in March, 1930, for entrance eral years ago will be broken this into the United States military

DeKlotz, who is the only candituted for the usual all male per- date from Nebraska, will take the ing show can be given.

The idea is not a new one for although shows with all male casts though shows with all male casts was valedictorian of his class. He was valedictorian of his class. He entered university at the age of sixteen, having graduated from Lincoln high school in three years. He is a member of Sigma Tau, honorary engineering society.

1,800 See First Offering WHITE ANNOUNCES at St. Paul's.

More than 1,800 people attended the first performance of the reli-gious drama. "St. Claudia," pre-sented by Wesley Players at St. Paul's Methodis t church Sunday evening at 7:45 p. m. Miss Caro-lyn Cooper. '31, Milford, and Rus-sell Lindskog, '31, Lincoln, played the principal roles of Claudia Pro-cula and her husband, Pontius Pilate, respectively.

The play centers about the men-tal struggle through which Claudia and Pilate had to go when Jesus Christ was being tried, convicted and crucified. The theme of the resurrection is very strong in this play and especially in the last act chief counselor, was played by will retain for a period of one Paul Thompson. George Schmidt year. played both the part of Marcus, a Roman centurion, and that of Bar-timeus, who was born blind. Si-

AG COLLEGE CONDUCTS

(Continued on Page 3, Col. 2)

Receive Training in Future Work.

Sixty-two farm boys are en-rolled in the farm operator's course, which is being conducted at the college of agriculture. Twelve of the young men are reg-istered for the two year division. The course started Nov. 25 and will continue until Jan. 25, with the exception of a week for Christmas vacation.

The work is under the direction of H. K. Douthit, who has charge of all short courses, given by the college of agriculture. The farm operator's course is planned for men, who are unable to leave home long enough to take the regular four year course offered by college. The course is expected to equip men for the management of farms in the shortest possible teen years old and have all had a year of farm experience. Instruction is given in animal hand a properties of the prope

COUNCIL MAKES PLANS FOR XMAS PARTY SATURDAY

Affair Is to Be Largest All-University Gathering Yet Staged.

DECIDE ON BAND TODAY

Christmas Theme Will Be Feature Throughout Social Event.

Members of the barb council are preparing to launch the largest all-university party of the season in the colliseum Saturday evening. According to those in charge of the Christmas affair more money and labor will be used in the preparation of the Saturday night party than in any all-university party presented so far on the Nebraska campus, Large amounts of decorative material have been ordered by the any way may submit a play and the writer of the manuscript selected for the show will receive a reward of fifty dollars.

Senior Will Take Entrance of decoration has been worked out and is said to be the most extrawagant scheme that has ever been used in the coliseum. Complete information concerning the type and extent of the decorations will be given in The Daily Ne-braskan during the week.

Council Considers Orchestra.

The orchestra has not been selected for the all-university party, but many offers have been made to the barb council which will consider ther today. Announcement of the dance band will be made in Wednesday morning's Nebraskan. Favors have been ordered by the council. These will be given away at the party according to the usual custom of ali-university parties. The nature of these favors has not been described by the promoters of the party, but they promise that the favors will be in keeping with the general tone of the largest alluniversity party.

Use Entire Floor. The entire coliseum floor will be used during the party and lighting effects will play an important part in costuming the coliseum. All-university parties during the year have been characterized by extensive decorations. Invitations will be mailed out during the week to university students. The invitations will carry SUNDAY dents. The invitations which is being used throughout the party. (Continued on Page 3, Col. 4)

FROSH DEBATE TRIAL

Naval Disarmament Is Topic For Argument; Winner Earns Trophy.

Freshman debate trials have been set for Thursday at 7:30 p. m. in room 126 of Andrew's hall, according to Prof. H. A. White, coach of debate. The trials are to determine the best debater in the freshman class with the purthe freshman class with the pur-pose of developing material for next year's university debating squad. The freshman who wins in The part of Sergius, Pilate's H. Long debate trophy which he

Those trying out will be mon, who had been a leper, was divided into teams, and a series of played by Harold Bates. Eliezer, regular debates will be held with regular debates will be held with either two or three men on a side, depending on the number who appear for the contest. The general subject for the trial "Naval Disarmament." The twelve men to enter the compespeakers will not know what the proposition is until a few minutes BOY'S SHORT COURSE proposition is until a few minutes before the debate nor will they know on which side of the proposition they will talk.

Professor White expects about

Future Farm Operators The public is cordially invited to attend the trials according to Pofessor White. Three Lincoln men, who have previously debated at the university will be selected to act as judges.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

Tuesday, Dec. 10.

Fine Arts convocation, Temple, 11 a. m. University erchestra pro-

Lecture by Dr. J. O. Perrine, Social Sciences auditorium, 7:30 p. m., before A. I. E. E. Candidates for high school and college teaching positions, Teach-ers college 200, 4 p. m.

Wednesday, Dec. 11. A. S. M. E. meets in Mechanical engineering 102, 5 p. m. Report of national delegate.

Faculty Men's club, dinner and meeting, University club, 6 p. m. Candidates for kindergarten, 4 p. m. World Forum, Nebraska hotel, 12 ncon. Ruth Hatfield will speak. Thursday, Dec. 12.

Freshman debate tryouts, Andrews hall 126, 7:30 p. m. Friday, Dec. 13.

Rifle team meets on range at 5 p. m. Previous announcement of Thursday meeting was incorrect.

prospective teachers. At the first meeting of the year man of the Y. M. C. A. committee in charge of World Forum. field is a junior in the college of arts and sciences. Her home is in

BERENIECE HOFFMAN.

EMMA McLAUGHLIN.

2. No publicity is to be given to sorority functions to which men are invited.

3. There chall be no newspaper publicity given to rush parties.

4. No publicity in case of Pan-Hellenic trouble.

This action was not taken because of the breach made by the papers but because of the breach made by the papers but because of the breach made by the papers but because of the fact that this section of the constitution had been overlooked prior to this time.

The committee members for the licity; Miss Adele Elsler, sophonome from Lincoln, and a member of the university I. W. C. A. offices.

The committee members for the licity; Miss Adele Elsler, sophonome from Lincoln, and a member of the university I. W. C. A. offices.

The committee members for the licity; Miss Adele Elsler, sophonome from Lincoln, and a member of the content of the university I. W. C. A. offices.

The committee members for the licity; Miss Adele Elsler, sophonome from Lincoln, and a member of the content of the content

RUTH ROBERTS.