

THOMPSON TO SPEAK IN LINCOLN CHURCH

Series of Addresses to Be Given by Lecturer of Convocation.

Dr. William Oxley Thompson, president emeritus of Ohio State university, who will lecture at the university convocation at the Temple Feb. 23, will spend a week in Lincoln and give a series of lectures at the First Presbyterian church which is sponsoring his trip to Nebraska, according to Dr. H. C. Kock, who has charge of the publicity for the convocation.

Dr. Thompson will give two lectures Sunday, Feb. 23, two Monday, Feb. 24, and five evening lectures during the intervening week. Feb. 23 his topics will be "The Universal in Christianity" and "The Challenge of Christianity." The general title of his talks during the week will be "Modern Thinking on Great Themes" including "Concerning God" Feb. 24; "Concerning Jesus" Feb. 25; "Concerning the Church" Feb. 26; "Concerning Morals" Feb. 27; and "Concerning Social Reforms" Feb. 28.

Guest of Avery. While in Lincoln, Dr. Thompson will be the guest of Dr. Samuel Avery, chancellor emeritus of the university. A great friendship has existed between the two educators since the time when each was head of his respective school.

The following is a letter sent to Dr. Kock by Chancellor Burnett on learning that Dr. Thompson would appear as a convocation speaker here: Dr. H. C. Kock, The University, My dear Dr. Kock: I am very happy to learn that Dr. W. O. Thompson is to be in the city for a series of public meetings in the near future.

Dr. Thompson is one of the most inspiring men I have known. As president of Ohio State university he was a national figure. His interest in young men and women is deep and profound, and his philosophy of life has an appeal in it which few men can command.

I hope every student of the University will hear him while he is in Lincoln. Very sincerely yours, E. A. BURNETT, Chancellor.

Probation Week Abolition Relieves Nebraska Freshmen of Many Worries

"Those days are gone forever," lamented one upperclassman to another, referring to the traditional "hell week." "Thank heaven for that," exclaimed a passing freshman who happened to get in on the remarks. "And it is true that neither one will have to worry about the terrors of probation this year."

Starting this year, those 400 odd prospective initiates into the Greek letter organizations on the Nebraska campus will not have to endure the various mild pranks of the upperclassmen that they have heretofore been subjected to. They will not have to scrub the front steps of the fraternity houses with a tooth brush, they will not have to creep down dark alleys in search of green cats with pink eyes, nor will they have to accept every passerby to find out his name, address, occupation and the name of his first wife. They will have no way of knowing the thoughts of a man dropped out of an automobile ten miles from town at midnight and told to report back at the house at 12:15.

The wild and perturbing tales of "hell week" in the past do not cause the apprehension that they used to in the ranks of the freshmen. No longer do they have to carry cigarettes for every active, no longer do they have to shine from ten to twenty pairs of shoes before retiring, no longer do they have to stand watch on the roof of the house with a shotgun, calling out each quarter hour with the gusto of the old town criers. All such things were made a part of the past by the resolution adopted by the student council last spring abolishing probation. This year's pledge group is the first to enjoy the new ruling.

This does not mean, however, that paddling will be discontinued. It will still be used as an incentive to new men delinquent in their studies, or men breaking rules within the house. Paddling is not considered as a part of the old probation period. So far no suitable substitute has been found for probation. Each fraternity now makes all arrangements for its own initiation. Penalties for the violation of the ruling as set forth by the interfraternity council will be the suspension of the fraternity involved for one semester. Because of the fact that the University of Nebraska is the first large educational institution in the middle west to adopt such a ruling it will be interesting to watch its outcome.

Members of the Lincoln Lions club will meet this noon at the Nebraska stadium, where they will be given an opportunity to view new track stars of the university this year. A number of new men, most of them freshmen, and a few older ones will give the club members a sample of what to expect of Nebraska in track next year. Luncheon is to be served at the stadium.

Those who will give exhibitions are: Sprints: Lee, Snow, Roby, Steffen. High jump: Lee, Roby, Bevard, Wurgler. Broad jump: Lee, Wurgler, Roby. Javelin: Bevard. One lap race: Ostergaard, Mays, White. Hurdles: Linus Carrol, Leon Carrol, and White.

Eugene Vigo, district representative for the National Aluminate company of Chicago will give a lecture on "Modern Methods of Water Conditioning" in the lecture room of Chemistry hall, Thursday evening, Feb. 13, at 7:30 o'clock. Mr. Vigo will augment his talk with a short film relative to the subject.

The lecture and film will deal mainly with the methods of testing water for its undesirable constituents, the interpretation of the results of these tests, the methods of correcting them and the methods of checking the efficiency of the reaction. All engineers especially interested in power plants and water works are invited to attend.

After the lecture the chemical engineers will hold their first meeting of the semester. Reorganization of the group will be discussed and a new constitution will be proposed.

HUSKER TRACK MEN WILL MEET BENGALS

Eller Returning to Form; Currier to Run 440; Ossian is Out.

Nebraska's 1930 track squad will get their first taste of conference competition when the Huskers journey to Missouri to engage the Bengals in a dual meet in the new Missouri field house Saturday night. From the basis of comparative showings in the K. C. A. C. Nebraska would seem to have the advantage on paper, but the trouble about track meets is that figures often lie. The Tigers have been handicapped by the late completion of their field house, having had only about three weeks of practice.

Schulte sent his candidates through a series of tryouts the early part of the week in an attempt to determine the entries in the meet. Harry Eller began to show that he is returning to form when he nosed out Smutney in the 50 yard dash in 5.7 seconds. Eller has been slow to round into conditions and this is the best showing he had made this year. Hege and Stefan finished in the order named behind the leaders. In the 440 Currier, letter man from last year, finished in the lead with Miller, Mays, Sifkins and White finishing close behind.

Berl turned in the best record in the pole vault when he cleared 11 feet. Bill Ossian, who finished in a tie for second at the meet last Saturday, did not compete. In the broad jumps, GKray turned in the prize effort of the evening when he leaped 22 feet to lead Craig and Hege by several inches. Craig's best jump was 21 feet 2 inches, while Hege got 21 feet 11 inches. Cobb, Tomson, Big Six record holder, did not compete, but will represent the Huskers in this event at Columbia.

Slayton Pierce led the high jumpers when he cleared 5 feet 10 1/2 inches. Jackson, Krause and Azarin went out at 5 feet 6 inches. Schulte has not definitely decided upon the men to make the trip yet, but this list will be announced late Thursday afternoon.

AMES CONTINUES CHASE TO TITLE. AMES, Iowa.—Iowa State college wrestlers will continue their struggle for a second Big Six conference title this week when they meet Kansas State at Manhattan Saturday and Oklahoma at Norman Monday. Oklahoma has won two dual meets, is tied with Iowa State for first place, and both teams are undefeated.

Ames Coach May Alter Lineup for Drake Mix

AMES, Ia.—Dick Wilcox, reserve forward, may start at a guard position for Iowa State college in the basketball game with Drake at Des Moines Wednesday, according to Coach Louis Menze.

Wilcox has exhibited a clever brand of floor play all season and may be chosen in place of Kieko for the Bulldog encounter. If he continues well in practice, no other changes appear likely in the Cyclone lineup.

Eighteen is the ideal age for university matriculation, according to a survey conducted at the University of Syracuse. Students at that institution believe that matriculation at the earlier age keeps men from activities and prevents them from enjoying college.

Clag dancing is given at the U. C. extension division.

TRI DELTS, POPS WIN IN BASKET CONTEST Defeat Alpha Delta Theta And I.X.L. Teams in Wednesday's Games. PLAY IN WOMEN'S GYM Speedy floor work and clever plays executed with good team cooperation won for Delta Delta Delta a victory over the Alpha Delta Theta basket ball team by a 19 to 15 score Wednesday. Phi Omega Pi decisively defeated the I. X. L. team with a score of 22 to 8. Both games were played in the women's gymnasium last evening at 5 o'clock. The Tri Delt-Alpha Delt Theta game was a nip and tuck battle to the last whistle. Good passing and general floor work by Katherine Allen, running center, and accurate basket shooting by the two Tri Delt forwards, Margaret Cook and Grace Koch, were responsible for the final leading point. Marie Havlicek, a forward on the opposing team played a good game. Phi Omega Pi's playing was featured by excellent team work, and although the game as a whole was not as speedy as the previous one, their win indicated a decidedly superior brand of basket ball to that of their opponents. Oda Vermillion, forward, was the outstanding player on the winner's team. The schedule for the rest of the week is as follows: Thursday. Bancroft 5-6. I. X. L. vs. Sigma Eta Chi. Delta Gamma vs. Gamma Phi Beta. Women's Gymnasium 7-8. Phi Mu vs. Pi Beta Phi. Alpha Delta Pi vs. Kappa Delta. Friday. Bancroft 5-6. Delta Zeta vs. Alpha Delta Theta. Chi Omega vs. Kappa Kappa Gamma. Cornhusker May Try Ticker Suggestion Stock is going down. The Nebraska has suggested a ticker. A wonderful suggestion and one that will be followed as soon as possible although we insist that there be a three minute limit. Nevertheless, there are still two senior and two junior spaces left in the panels of that section. Students are urged to take advantage of these spaces immediately since the time is quite limited.
