

TRACKSTERS TRY OUT FOR TEXAS RELAY TRIP

Guy Craig's Broad Jump of 23 Feet Features Performances.

BILL OSSIAN FALTERS

Track tryouts Friday to ascertain who will represent Nebraska at the Texas Relays next weekend found Guy Craig, former Tekamah athlete, doing the feature work with a broad jump of 23 feet. The Texas trip will be the first outdoor competition for the Nebraska squad this season and tryouts were to have been held outside but cold weather forced Schulte's men to take refuge inside the stadium.

With Cobe Tomson, Big Six broad jump champion, not competing, Craig captured first in that event. The other places went to Heger and Gray who cleared 22 feet 7-4 inches and 22 feet 6-4 inches, respectively.

Willis Lamson and George Sautney split honors in the 60 yard hurdles. Lamson captured his specialty, the high, in 7.9 seconds ahead of Petz and Thompson. Sautney beat out Lamson over the low in 7.6 seconds.

Publroit turned in 51.8 for the quarter mile. Mays did 53.1, Rodgers 53.5, and Currier 53.6. Wesley True headed Casford to be caught at 2 minutes 4.5 seconds in the half mile. Garvey ran three-quarters of a mile in 4 minutes 36.4 seconds ahead of Neurenberger, Etherton and Seger.

Claude Rowley shoved the shot 42 feet 6 inches as compared with Steve Hokuf's 41 feet 5 inches. Hugh Rhea was unable to perform Friday but had several 45 foot heaves to his credit on Thursday.

A real upset occurred in the pole vault when Bill Ossian, Big Six conference champion, knocked the cross bar off at both 11 feet 6 inches and 11 feet 8 inches. Don Krause cleared the latter height.

In the 220 run Saturday afternoon, Eller, Stephen, Petz, Ostergaard, and Rodgers finished in the order named. The time of the winner was 22-2-10 seconds.

Benbrook won the high jump, clearing the bar at 5 feet, 11-1-2 inches. Pierce won second, and Krause, Meldrum, Cook, Azorin and Bevard tied for third.

Coach Schulte indicated that he was not satisfied with the marks recorded and that another tryout would be held before the Texas trip was begun.

PACKA WINS STOCK JUDGING CONTEST

EXPLORATION PARTY MAKES DISCOVERIES

Pottery, Bone Implements Found Indicating Old Indian Village. The first of the explorations to be made in Nebraska for evidences of early inhabitants has netted finds in the way of implements of early Indian tribes along the Missouri river. Dr. W. D. Strong, professor of anthropology, E. E. Blackman, curator of the state historical society, Dr. R. E. Reynolds, Dr. G. H. Gilmore, and J. E. Gilmore of Murray, Neb., Carl Schult and R. R. Reed of the Morrill hall staff, were the principals in an exploration party that visited Rock Bluff, along the Missouri river last weekend, near the sector explored by R. Stearns in 1915.

JAW OF MAMMOTH IS PLACED ON DISPLAY

Large Bone of Prehistoric Elephant Prepared for Morrill Hall. The great jaw of the shovel-tusked elephant, Amebelodon fricki which was found by A. S. Keith, farmer residing near Freedom in Frontier county, and secured on the Morrill hall geological expedition of 1927, has been mounted and will be on exhibition the first of the week in Morrill hall.

Discovery of the jaw evidences that Nebraska was the homeland of some of the largest of prehistoric mammals. The shovel-tusked jaw is nearly seven feet long, and as far as known, is the most massive and largest lower jaw of any land mammal known. The Nebraska specimen is the only one of its kind, according to Dr. E. H. Barbour, curator of the museum.

HISTORY SOCIETY GETS UNIQUE COPY OF OLD DOCUMENT

Officials of the state historical society have been called upon to identify a unique copy of the Declaration of Independence owned by Dr. W. A. Goslee of Auburn. The document and signatures are printed on a large piece of linen. Portraits of Jefferson, Washington and Adams, seals of the thirteen colonies, and a pictorial history of the revolutionary period form a decorative border to the text matter. The specimen was brought west by Dr. Goslee's father in 1858 and other than that no history of the cloth is known.
