McCleery Wins Sigma Delta Chi Cup With Story on K-Aggie Game Pep Riot

Editor's Note: Each semester Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity, makes an award for the best news story written in The Daily Nebraskan during the previous semester.

Responding to calls for pep for the Kansas Aggie-Nebraska game of Saturday, University of Nebraska students conducted an all day rally Friday.

Approximately 1,600 students are thought to have participated at one time or another in the affair.

The day's activities were entirely without organization and as many as five distinct groups were making building to building tours at the same time.

Deans Have Meeting. Deans of the colleges, who had planned to meet Friday afternoon to discuss matters of summer school finance, investigated the uprising.

Some members of the faculty were reported as favoring immediate suppression of the outburst with the aid of police and fire departments.

Rumors to the effect that classes would be held on Friday, Nov. 29, were discounted by Dean Thompson.

Spirit for the game at Manhattan Saturday has been fostered throughout the week by the athletic department and campus organizations.

Small Groups Gather. Small groups congregated in front of Social Sciences, Friday morning. From 8 to 9 o'clock shouts of "rally" filtered through the halls of Social Sciences.

From that time on until noon today nearly all buildings on city campus were in an uproar.

Delta, is a blue shirt candidate for the student council from the dental college. He is also a member of the Corn Cobs.

Senior member, the barb candidate in Stanley Mengler, who is president of the Communion club.

Carl Marold, a yellow jacket and member of Phi Alpha Delta and Walter Huber, Delta Theta Phi blue shirt are the candidates from the law college.

Carl Hahn is affiliated with Sigma Nu, is vice president of the Interfraternity council, a member of Kosmet Klub and Corn Cobs, and has been president of the yellow jacket faction during the current year.
