The Nebraskan
 ,
 SUBSCRINTION RATE
For Nine Weeks 50 cents mailed 25 cents on campus AU REVOIR. I wish to take this opportunity sisted me with The Nebraskan during my term as acting editor. The work has been very interesting and a cordial feeling has been exstent between all members of the staff.
Especially do I wish to mention
Joe Deming, the columnist, who bas helped me fill many a space not only with his delightful column but with news articies as well capabe in a journalistic way og together with occasional headline vriting.
rit ag clas prof. Wakers news tioned. They have done invaluable service to The Nebraskan this summer at the same time getting laboratory experitence of a worth CLIFF F. SANDAHL A NEW ERA?
Today marks the colse of the first season of The Nebraskan, of Sixteen issues have been published, news and advertising have appeared within the columns and been a success?
It is d!fficult for one who has been closely associated with the work to give an evaluation of the hing as a whole. That is a prerothe reader. Whether the venture has come up to the expectations of the readers in general is not for he editor to say-he can only hope bat such is the case.
Perhaps the difficu
making a declaration of what service the newspaper has been to the summer session has been enwhich was inevitable following the liness of Gene S. Robb, who sucessfully launched the endeavor. A change in policies and in ideas will as a rule fol ow with the change of editors kan during the regular terms has proved this. But as a whole recent editors of the student newspaper have been working with the ideals of the university and nothing else constantly before them.
Now, however, comes sad news; sad news to the enterprising students who are interested in the velfare of the university and its student body. On the first page of today's Nebraskan appears an aricle the result of an interview in the executive states that the time for faculty intervention in University of Nebraska's studen newspaper has arrived, Nebraska
Just at the time when Ne newspaper: For the pest several years a new trend has ben no-iced in the policies and managehe consequence has been more student interest in affairs pertaining to the univers. In one respect, though, the plan it will not be welcomed by the dents who have been industriously ngaged in publications activities ange whose hopes for future advancement have been shattered by the many recent "raw" deals that Therefore, the one good thing that may emanate from the faculy supervision is this: It may cause the publication board, composed of members, to take a little more inerest in what is going on in the it will be a pubircation work. University of Nebraska students will forget what has happened wtihin the past few years with regard to appointments on the Cornfind this The Daily. Neb
"Gross incompetence of the student publication board to select staff members journals was widely advertised in its recent selection of a working personnel for the 1931 Cornhusker. students who are in contact the error made by this bungling group. A man who surpassed his rivals by almost twenty points in scholarship and who has, admittedly, worked as diligently on that publication, was dropped from the staff.
board acquainted with the publications over which they hold a the group is conscious of developments; the others scarcely recognize the existence of publications except during meetings of the nefricient group.
That therels ne terest, rather than censorship, by the faculty is readily the faculty is readily seen.
Fortunately, however, appointments on The Daily Nebraskan in ments on The Daily Nebraskan
the past few years have bee
made on the hasis of merit. made on the hasis of merit.
But there is the future t about and if the publication board is to talte the same attitude toward the newspaper as toward the yearthe newspaper as toward the yoarbook, then by all means do something to stir up the faculty interthing to stir up the facuha
eet, even though it ray hay
coupled with supervision.

NIGHT JANITORS.

W ELL, the long gripe session manger at last. So, readers, intelligent and not so intelligent, rejoice or weep, as I hang the sign CLOSED FOR RENOVATION
AND REPAIRS over my last resting place. to frieaving, who sweated with me in the heat and to my enemies who obligingly helped me to fill who obligingly helped me to fill my column with their letters. thank you one and all, and all that sort of tripe.
THERE are certain tried men and true, whom I wish to give attention. First, Marion Whiting. Rag office janitor, whose faithful care of the manger bay and dog Then, cliff Sandah, whose libcranism and criticism have helped me do my stuff twice wechly. Well, Cliff, think of me occasionally after 1've gone on my long exile to the wilds of Pasadena,

PLACEMENT BUREAU GETS POSITIONS FOR 204 NEW TEACHERS

Lost-Bracelet of crystal and STOP AND PLAY!
"A"St.Course
"The Newest In Lincoln' 40th &

$\qquad$
$\qquad$
$\qquad$
$\qquad$

$\qquad$

The Davis School

 ServiceNebraskkis Leading Teachere' Agency Estibtrished 1916 B-4954
635.6 Styart Bldg., Lineoln (Formerly 138 No. 12th St.)

Three Great Educational Days At NEBRASKA STATE FAIR

Friday, Saturday and Sunday-Aug. 29, 30, 31
Teachers and Students Will Enjoy the Exhibits and Programs of These Two Days.

SEE

The Complete Educational Exhibits
The Wonderful Topographical Map Showing Resources of Nebraska The Beautiful New Agriculture Hall The 4-H Boys and Girls with Their Prize Calves and Pigs

All Exhibits in Place Friday
The Program starts Satur
Don't Miss the Quality Fair of 1930

A Senator For Nebraska as well as a Senater From Nebraska

| The election of W. M. Stcbbins to the Uniced States Senate means the services of a senator whose first interest will be Nebraska and her people. He will be willing to counsel with his conbitutents and work in harmony with his fethew representatives, and act on the Lincoln theory that "everybodk knows | more than anybody."  Agriculture being the paramount Industry in Nebraska, M r. Stebbins pledges himself to the support of all policies calculated to bring perma. nent prosperity to agriculture and place it on a parity with manufacturing Industry. |
| :---: | :---: |

The election of W. M. Stebbins means the services of a progressive pepublican who believes in party as well as individual responsibility, who oppeses socialism in whatever guise it presents itself, and who will represent the best
Vote for W. M. STEBBINS 区

