AWGWAN HAS NEW CHAMPION

STUDENT COUNCIL WILL DEAL WITH RALLY QUESTION

First Meeting to Be Held Wednesday; Committees Will Be Named.

HAS NEW RESPONSIBILITY

Group Given Control of All Pep Demonstrations; Hahn Has Plan.

The Student council will hold its first meeting on Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in University hall 111. Bob Kelly, president, announced Monday.

Disposal of the rally question, according to Kelly, will be the principal matter of business at the initial meeting. Committee appointments will be announced and plans will be made for the coming year, he said.

To Handle Rallies.

Acting on recommendation of a faculty rally committee the university senate last spring gave the Student council full responsibility for conducting rallies. Any organization seeking to stage a rally or any kind of a pep demonstration is obliged, by the senate ruling, to get permission from the Student council.

Carl Hahn, member of the Innocent society, has announced that he will be present at the first Student council meeting to outline a plan for rallies and to ask, on behalf of the Innocent society, for authority to go ahead with the plans.

First Meeting Held.

The meeting Wednesday will be the first one of the Student council elected by proportional representation. Three factions are represented on the group, blue shirts and yellow jackets. Although the blue shirt faction is still the strongest on the council it no longer controls a majority of the membership.

For the first time in years non-fraternity students will be represented on the council. Their representatives are Alan Williams, Lucille Ledwith and Ruth Jenkins. Other members of the council are Bill McCleery, Katherine Williams, Bob Kelly, Minnie Nemechek, Esther Gaylord, Miriam Wiggenhorn, Fred Grau, Kenneth Gamble, Don MacLay, Edwin Faulkner, Gretchen Fee, Julia Simanek, Dale Parker, Boyd Von Seggern, Marvin Von Seggern, Paula Eastwood, Tyler Ryan, Walter Huber, Joe Hunt, William McGaffin and Florenz Hopfer.

Officers Listed.

Officers of the council are Bob Kelly, president; Katherine Williams, vice president; Bill McCleery, treasurer, and Minnie Nemechek, secretary. All of the officers are holdovers from last year's council.

The levy on all student activities authorized by the board of regents will materially aid the council in the opinion of Kelly. It will permit, he stated, the Nebraska Student council to reaffiliate with the National Student Federation of America. The local council has been suspended several years because of nonpayment of dues.

MANY REGISTER FOR EXTENSION COURSES

242 Sign Up During June; 100 Students Added in July.

The University of Nebraska extension division has finished a summer of record registrations and members of its staff are now preparing for first semester night classes.

During June, 242 registrations were added to the correspondence students list and during July over a hundred additional registrants were recorded. Registration figures for the months of August and September have not yet been totaled but present indications point to a sizeable gain over registrations a year ago for the same periods, according to A. A. Reed, extension director.

Night class registrations for the 1929-30 school year totaled 1092. The number of night class students will in all probability be even greater this year, according to Professor Reed.

Ushers Wanted for Marine Band Concert

Men, who wish to usher at the United States Marine band concert, to be given in the coliseum, Sept. 25, should report to John K. Sellenck in the student activities office in the coliseum any time today. Men are not required to wear R. O. T. C. uniforms. All male students are eligible. The ushers will be given no pay, other than the opportunity to hear the concert.

HELEN McANULTY IS TO SPEAK AT VESPERS MEETING

Five o'clock vesper services under the direction of the University of Nebraska Y. W. C. A., will be resumed at Ellen Smith hall this afternoon. Initial services are in charge of Evelyn West who is vespers chairman on the cabinet for the coming year.

Helen McAnulty, president of Y. W. C. A., will be the speaker of the afternoon, and a musical program has been arranged by Aileen Nealey.

The university branch of the Y. W. C. A., carries on much the same sort of activity as is carried on by high school groups interested in the work. Miss Bernice Miller, newly appointed general secretary, has an office in Ellen Smith where she is at home to all girls at any time.

Members of the vesper choir are requested to meet in the choir preceding the service tonight.

PARKING SITUATION IS BECOMING ACUTE

Officer Regler Experiences Difficulties in Saving Faculty's Space.

Thirty-two student automobiles were found parked in the space reserved for faculty cars and tagged by Officer Regler Monday morning. About the same number of offenders were detected in the afternoon. The highest number, according to Officer Regler, which has been found parked south of the former drill field on other days has been fifty.

The officer declared that the parking problem is worse than last year. He stated that the students of the University of Nebraska were becoming persistent law violators. The second offenders of the parking regulations are sent to the police station. Officer Regler indicated that if this policy did not get better results, something more drastic would be done.

QUICK MAKES CHOICE OF BAND APPLICANTS

Many Musicians Try Out for Organization; 62 Old Men Return.

Twenty-five new men have been chosen to membership in the R. O. T. C. band according to the list released by Billy Quick, director, following the tryout of sixty candidates last week.

Since sixty-two old band members are back this year, the number of new men admitted must necessarily be small. Mr. Quick regrets that all the excellent material that presented itself could not be used, but says that the instrumentation of the band had to be considered first.

All band members are requested to draw their uniforms at once before the arrival of the new regular R. O. T. C. service uniforms.

The following new men have been chosen and are requested to report for practice Tuesday at 5 o'clock in the Temple theater, room 203:

- Clarinets.
Ben Franklin, Julesburg, Colo.; Palmer Nye, Seward, Ia.; Kenneth Miltel, Lincoln; Frank Pipsi, Humbolt.
- Trumpets.

INSTRUCTION FOR YELL KINGS WILL BEGIN TOMORROW

Prospective Cheer Leaders To Be Given Lessons in Voice and Stunts.

WINKLER IS IN CHARGE

New Plan Is Sponsored by Innocents; Yenne and Vogler Teachers.

Prospective cheer leaders will have their first class at Nebraska's new yell school this afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rudolph Vogler and Herbert Yenne, instructors, announced Monday.

The aspirant cheer leaders will meet with Vogler and Yenne at Vogler's office in the coliseum at 4 o'clock, and will have a two-hour workout. The schedule for the rest of the week: Wednesday 4 to 5, Thursday 4:30 to 6, Friday 4 to 5, Saturday morning.

Innocents Sponsor School

The school is a new idea, sponsored by the Innocents society. In it, prospective cheer leaders will be given instruction in drama, voice, and how to handle crowds by Herbert Yenne of the dramatic department, while Rudolph Vogler will instruct them in athletic stunts.

According to Cy Winkler, who has been assigned to supervise the school by the Innocents, the experiment is one which has proved successful at many other schools on the west coast. "It is the hope of the Innocents that cheer leaders who are better equipped to handle crowds and get wholehearted cooperation from the students will be developed by the school," Winkler said today. "It is co-operation which counts in cheering, and it takes a well trained yell leader to get it."

Aspirants Workout Saturday

Aspirants for the positions this year will show their wares for the first time Saturday afternoon at the annual freshman-varsity football classic. However, the new leaders will not be selected at that date.

Eligibility requirements for the cheer leading jobs are the same as requirements in all other activities, Winkler said today. Students must have at least twenty-seven hours work in this school the two preceding semesters.

Those who wish to try out for the positions have been asked to notify Winkler at B-6953.

LINCOLN BAPTISTS TO HOLD STUDENT RECEPTION FRIDAY

The Baptist churches of Lincoln will hold special student receptions at 8 o'clock next Friday evening. The churches extending this courtesy are the First Baptist at Fourteenth and K, the Second Baptist at Twenty-eighth and S, and Temple church at Twenty-seventh and Holdrege.

A special tea for Baptist girls at the university will be given from 3 to 5 p. m., Saturday afternoon, Sept. 27, at the Baptist house, 1440 Q street.

The First and Second Baptist churches also extend cordial invitation to all students to attend the usual Sunday services, and classes for students only, at 12 o'clock and 9:45 a. m., respectively.

BUREAU PLACES 35 FORMER STUDENTS

Sealock Announces Names of Teachers in Out State Schools.

New Board Member

Courtesy of The Journal. Prof. C. H. OLDFATHER, Professor Oldfather is a newly appointed member of the student publication board. He favors the reestablishment of the Awgwan and a policy of allowing the editors of the various publications to select the members of their staffs, subject to the approval of the publication board.

MISS OPAL WRIGHT DIES OF MENINGITIS

Graduate Succumbs Sunday; Was Active in Players' Circles.

Miss Opal Wright, '29, former student of the University of Nebraska, died early Sunday morning from an unusual case of spinal meningitis at her home in Kenard, Neb. Miss Wright had been suffering for the past week and a half from the attack and had been unconscious several days before her death.

Prominent in university circles, she was president of Alpha Delta Theta, social sorority, a member of the Tassels, University Players for two years, Dramatic Honorary society, and of the National Collegiate Players. Miss Wright was graduated from Teachers' college in 1929 and for the past year had been teaching in Mapleton high school, Iowa.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 3 o'clock in Kenard.

DECREASE OF 300 IN ENROLLMENT IS SHOWN BY REPORT

Registration so far this year has dropped approximately 300 behind last year's figures for the same period, according to latest information from the registrar's office. Totals from the medical college at Omaha and from the agricultural college campus revealed a total which falls 282 short of the number recorded last fall during the same period.

Registration from the graduate college will probably swell the final number and equal last year's total, however, officials in the graduate college stated. Last year graduate students registered at the same time as did other students.

This year, very few of the graduates have registered, as the time limit for the graduate college registration was shifted to Oct. 4.

At the medical college, 329 had registered at noon Saturday, as compared with 317 last year. The total university registration Saturday noon was 5,261, as compared with 5,543 for last fall. The late graduate enrollment will probably make up most of this difference, officials believed.

Professor Raysor New Chairman of English Department, Has Won Many Distinctions and Published Books

By BOYD VON SEGGERN. Succeeding Dean L. A. Sherman as chairman of the English department, Professor T. M. Raysor has taken up his duties as a new member of the university faculty.

Until a year ago his position had been held, for over a generation, by Dean Sherman. During the past year the department was controlled by a committee composed of Professor L. E. Gags as chairman and Professors R. D. Scott and Louise Pound.

Taking charge of a graduate class which is studying poets of the Romantic movement and instructing in a course of Shakespearean plays, Professor Raysor began his work at the University of Nebraska this fall.

Comes From Washington. Information filed at the office of Dean Hicks of the college of Arts and Sciences reveals the experience of Professor Raysor. He has for the past number of years been professor of English at Washington State college.

Other institutions at which he has taught are Allen academy at Bryan, Texas; A. and M. college, Texas and the University of Minnesota where he was assistant professor of English.

An unusual accumulation of distinctive honors have come down upon the shoulders of this new member in the English department.

Securing highest honors in English at Harvard, Professor Raysor became a member of Phi Beta Kappa, secured the Kirkland and Weld scholarships, and won the Sheldon fellowship. He received his A. B. degree at Harvard in 1917 and his masters degree at Harvard university in 1920. He obtained his Ph. D. degree in 1922. In 1926 he won the Guggenheim fellowship.

Has Command of Languages. Reading French, German and Latin, Professor Raysor has cultivated an extremely flexible touch in the literary craft. He has published various articles in the learned journals, among them being "Fragments on Aesthetics by Coleridge," "Thoreau's Love Story," "The Downfall of the Three Unities," and "Coleridge and Asra."

GREEK COUNCIL WILL HOLD FIRST MEETING

Rushing Complaints Head Calendar for Discussion Tonight.

GROUP WITHHOLDS NEWS

Complaints of violations of the new rushing rules put in force this fall by the Interfraternity council will be heard at the first meeting of the council in Morrill hall tonight. Although no information will be given out concerning violations until the complaints have been heard by the judiciary committee of the council which will meet Saturday afternoon, the council has let it be understood that the prescribed penalties will be fully enforced against all violators.

All complaints are to be presented in writing by the representative of the complaining fraternity at the council meeting tonight. No information will be given out yesterday by Wray Russell, council rushing committee chairman, as to whether any complaints had been received up to that time. He said that all information would be withheld until after Saturday's meeting of the judiciary committee. Following the judiciary committee's meeting a full statement of violations and penalties will be issued.

The routine work of organization for the year and the appointment of various committees will constitute much of the business of the meeting. The interfraternity ball committee will be appointed to make plans for the annual Greek dance.

All fraternities were requested by Charles Lawlor, secretary of the council, to choose their council representatives and alternates at their Monday night meetings, so that all the regular fraternity representatives could attend tonight's meeting.

DEBATERS MAKE NEW PLANS FOR SEASON

Trials for English Debate Set for Oct. 2; Two To Be Chosen.

At a meeting in University hall 106 on Monday under the sponsorship of Professor White plans were drawn up for the 1930-31 debating season. Many old debaters of last year including Frank B. Morrison, Alan G. Williams, Walter G. Huber, Carl Marold, Earl C. Fishbaugh, James H. Anderson, Reginald Miller, Lloyd C. Pospisil, Theodore R. Felder and John P. McKnight were present at the meeting.

It was decided that the tryouts would be held at 7:30 p. m. Oct. 2. Two men will be chosen from the contestants by three judges from off the campus to compete in the international debate to be held with the English team on Oct. 24. Two of the three English debaters will be from Liverpool university and the other one from St. John's college, Oxford.

Last year twenty-three men tried out and about the same number are expected out this season. Material for the tryouts may be obtained in the library on the reserve shelf.

As in previous years Nebraska will debate a great deal before various local and state conventions. Some of these debates will be broadcast over the radio. The first contest will be before the State Teacher's convention at Omaha on Oct. 31 when two Nebraska men will debate two Creighton university men on the subject of arbitrage.

OLDFATHER WANTS COMIC REINSTATED

Newly Appointed Member of Publication Board Favors Humorous Magazine's Return; Believes Funny Sheet Has Place on Campus.

WOULD SELECT STAFFS IN DIFFERENT MANNER

Recommends That Faculty Supervisors Pick Editors And That They Choose Their Assistants With Approval of Governing Body.

The return of the Awgwan, closer contact between the publication board and student editors, and a new method of selecting the Nebraska and Cornhusker staffs, is advocated by Dr. C. H. Oldfather, newly appointed member of the student publication board. Dr. Oldfather will succeed Dr. R. J. Pool who served for a year as temporary member of the board, following the death of Dean Carl C. Engberg, a year ago.

Dr. Oldfather, who acts with James Lawrence, Director Gayle C. Walker, and Prof. H. E. Bradford in the faculty supervision of student publications believes that more responsibility in staff selections should rest with the editor than does at the present time.

Positions Still Open

On Year Book Staffs. Applications are being taken for positions on the editorial and business staff of the Cornhusker. Inquire at Cornhusker office in basement of University hall. No experience necessary.

QUARTET TRYOUT IS SCHEDULED TONIGHT

Several Male Groups Will Be Used Over KFAB States Dirks.

Tryouts for male radio quartets will be continued at KFAB studios in the Cornhusker hotel at 7 o'clock tonight, according to Dietrich Dirks, '24, manager of the station. Many excellent voices were discovered in the tryouts held last Wednesday. Dirks reported, but results on the whole were not quite satisfactory, due to the small number that were heard.

Several good quartets composed of university men, to be used on KFAB programs, and on trips over the state, is the ultimate aim of the studio officials, Dirks said. "We hope to have four or five quartets, each group singing similar collections of songs, so that we may combine the voices and have a men's chorus of sixteen voices. The groups will give local programs, as well as do radio work and make several trips."

The tryouts are conducted in the same manner as for regular glee club or quartet applicants, except that the men are asked to sing through a microphone. The voices are judged for tonal quality from a loudspeaker in a nearby room.

Dirks asked that all university men wishing to try out for places in the quartets call the studio today so that he might know how many to expect for the auditions scheduled for 7 o'clock tonight. He also wishes all men who were heard last week to appear tonight in order to try some new music.

It is believed, according to Dirks, that the new radio chorus will take the place of the discontinued university glee club. The latter venture was abandoned when officials could not secure appropriations for expenses, and student members were being forced to stand a part of the trip deficits.

HISTORICAL GROUP EDITS VOLUME ON VARIOUS SUBJECTS

The Nebraska State Historical society has just completed Volume XXI of its regular book series, the last of which appeared in 1922. The book was edited by Addison E. Sheldon who is superintendent and historian of the society.

An account has been written by N. C. Abbott who is president of the society about the origin of the name Lincoln with various histories of places which bear that name.

Much has been written about the various Indian tribes of Nebraska but the most complete report appears of the Otoe tribe by Major Green of Beatrice. Major Green was Indian agent to the tribe in 1860. The first official report of this tribe was made by Lewis and Clark on their trip up the Missouri river.

A map drawn by Lieutenant Woodbury of the Grand Island region in the year 1847 is shown in the back of the book. The society had to send to Washington, D. C., for this and thus it appears in print for the first time.

The Nebraska History magazine has expanded from a thin pamphlet of thirty-two pages to an average quarterly book of nearly one hundred pages. This volume which is just off the press will be mailed to all members of the society next week.
