TWO

William T. McCleery

Robert Kelly.

Frances Holyoke

Guy Craig. Evelyn Simpson.

Charles Lawlor.

worman Gallaher

Awgwan suffered.

14

STUDIÖ

306 LIBERTY

5

in thei

Ling and the second sec

OL

alize

ces;

ca kins l an all C

0 F

Philippines, and fifteen from other ist them conduct their own affairs to the greatest possible extent ?" state papers, Had they waited two weeks after New York Plans THE DAILY NEBRASKAN DEBATERS MARE NEW PLANS FOR SEASON would not have heen should to a scandal-Learning Tower Station A. Lindein, Nebraska OFFICIAL STUDENT PUBLICATION UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA Published Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Bunday mornings during the academic year. OLDFATHER WANTS COMIC REINSTATED (Continued from Page 1.) tration. This is to be the topic for high school debates this year. The remainder of the schedule will be arranged later. thirsty publie. 25 Stories High Continued from Page 1.1 NEW YORK CITY (IP)-With the Tower of Learning, or Cathedrai of Learning, at the Uni-versity of Pittsburgh rapidly near-ing completion, and plans being made for the erection of a twentypaper, according to the beliefs of the new publication board member. Student editors should be allowed the maximum of freedom with the minimum of faculty or adminis-Now that the foul odor of that last issue has been wafted away by the breezes of time, THIRTIETH YEAR as second-class matter at the matteffica in brasks, under act of congress. March 1, 1275, clair rate of pastage provided for in section October 3, 1617, Sutherized January 20, 1997 Jestion at the Student Publication Board SUBSCRIPTION RATE Nebraska should take steps to regain her Awgwan, But the initiation of any move to reinstate the university's humor magazine should trative interference, in Oldfather's opinion, provided the editors are capable and know what is going come from interested students. The publicamade for the erection of a twenty-live story educational center here. American education is continually getting more up in the air. The New York educational sky-scraper is to cost about four mil-tion dollars, and will house the board of education and consider-Simila Copy S. ex-th fice University Mail A. fice University Mail A. fice University Mail A. Gas B. Schill, Numhi B. 6882. r Nebraskan ettitor $1.21 a sartiekter tion board cannot make the Awgwan a success. What stuppr has settled over the students on in the world. "I favor the return of the Awgwan," asserted Dr. Oldfather. "I believe that the University of Nebraska has just as much right B 3335 (Jhurnal) of this institution that they allow their humor publication to rest peacefully in its grave? EDITORIAL STAFF Other universities publish entertaining magazines, despite Dr. Oldfather's unappre-Editor-in-chief to a funny sheet as any other campus. Personally I could never Managing Editors able museum space. Elmunt Waits ciative comment on such gazettes. We find it campus. Personally I could deve see anything funny in the college humorous gazettes, but they play a big part in the student life of every campus." "My idea of remedying a diffi-MARQUETTE PLANS MORNING GRID MIX FOR THANKSGIVING hard to believe that the University of Nebras-News Editors ks, with some 6,000 students, is devoid of tal-Eugene Mitchess ent. Those who might make the Awgwan an Hex Wagner outstanding collegiate humor monthly, how-Wamen's Sports Editor culty such as arose with the Awgwain last fall would not be to discontinue the publication of the magazine. The thing to do would ever, seem content to spend their spare time MILWAUREE, WIN. IP. Marquetie university, not satis-fied with having had the distinc-tion of introducing night football to the collegiate midwest last sea-BUSINESS STAFF in moving picture emportums-laughing at Acting Bilkiness Manager will University of Nebraska students Assistant Business Managers be to correct the fault at it's source -the editor. Because one man let material be published which the average person considers indecent is no reason to make the magazine suffer. The thing to do is to elect JACK. Thompson shoulder arms and march to battle for the lib-eration of their funny paper! Or shall we strew willed lilles over a deceased student son, will present another novelty in college football this year when A PRESS ASSOCIATED it stages the Thanksgiving day game with Butler university at 10 body ? clock in the morning. a new editor, I think that should have been done in the case of the Marquette has recorded some o best football turnouts The Nebrass Pres Dr. Oldfather deserves credit for taking the Thanksgiving afternoons, but col-lege althorities believe that even more fans will be able to see the game if it is played in the morn-Awgwan. an interest in student affairs outside the stuffy As concerns the appointment of an editor, and his assistants under the present plan of publication management on this campus, Dr. confines of a lecture room. He is correct in stating that members of the publication board should be more actively concerned with the ing. Members of the Marquette team Awgwan. Oldfather believes that members of the board should take a more acwork of the staffs which they elect. If memare reported to be jubilant as they think of the Thanksgiving dinner they have been denied in the past, which now will be theirs after a well earned shower bath at noon. Collegians who eried when their Awgwan bers of the board had been in touch with the tive interest in what the editor is doing. Informal meetings with the editors of the Nebraskan and Cornwas unceremoniously taken from them last fall Awgwan of last year, they would have foremay have a pleasant surprise awaiting them. seen the occurrence which caused their hasty husker at six week intervals seems to him to be a practical policy. In this way it would be possible for the editor to report to the board as Dr. C. H. Oldfather, new member of the Stuaction. dent Publication board, favors its return. Campus polities play too important a part Enrollment at K. U. Dr. Oldfather does not appreciate the full publications to make selection of staffs by the editor to report to the board as to the progress of members of his staff. Then when the time for se-mester appointments arrives the publication board would be suffi-ciently acquainted with the work of staff members to make meritour Equals Last Year's significance of the Awgwan's removal, we fear. the editor-in-chief a practical plan. True, the Nebraska does have as much right to a humor LAWRENCE, Kas., Sept. 22-Registration at the University of Kansas passed the 4,000 mark near the end of the first week, equaling the registration at the same time last year. The first day editor would suffer for his mistakes in apmagazine as any other college or university. pointments. But some editors might become but her students made a botch of it. reconciled to such torture. Smutty stories included in the last staff appointments. Favor Student Council, Awgwan did not constitute the only reasons We present a final boquet to Dr. Oldfather In conclusion Dr. Oldräther stated his beliefs relative to stu-dent government. He felt that the for its suppression, though they made a had for his interest in student affairs. The univeror two the figures fell somewhat impression on the publication hoard. sity needs faculty members who are willing to give some of their time to the problems which short, but when full registration was under way, this year's figures Polities killed the Awgwan. ran ahead, and then settled even. Thursday evening the figures were exactly at a par with 3,985 registered on corresponding days Student council, under the new ar Scheming student policticians, spotting confront student leaders and the organizations rangement of personnel selection about be given every possible en-couragement by the faculty. He hoped that the sphere of student management of the Awgwan as a feather in which they represent. some embryo activity man's cap, made the ed-itor's job a valuable push ball. Talented writ-ers were directed into blind alleys and the of each year. As in years past, practically every county in the state is repre-sented in the university's enroll-And they sold the School of Music for a control in campus governmental affairs would widen rapidly and that they could be given permis-sion to act almost entirely for The publication board acted unwisely in ment, and in addition to Kansas, Why not charter a bus to bring fraternity thirty-three other states and seven foreign countries have students at suppressing the second issue of last year and themselves. "After all," said Dr. Oldfather, men a block or three to school? That would in discontinuing publication of the humor magazine. If that body deemed the Awgwan "this university is maintained for the good of the students. Why not Kansas university. Largest out-of-state enrollment comes from Missouri, with 367; 75 help the parking problem. unworthy of its position on the campus, a de-The new R. O. T. C. uniforms have slacks ferred suppression would have eliminated from Oklahoma and 29 from Colo-For That House rado. Oregon, Washington, Call-fornia, as well as Vermont and Rhode Island, are among the states represented. searlet publicity which marched boldly into for trousers. The old ones had slack trousers. Party! FOUR MEETINGS and an an and the state of the Start the Sesson Right With FOR FRESHMEN includes twenty-four from the Lenore Burkett Van Kirk JERRY STAFFORD AND HIS Four discussion groups will be TYPEWRITERS VOICE formed at the Freshmen council See us for the Royal portable type-writer, the ideal machine for the student. All makes of machines for rent. All makes of used ma-chines easy payments. NITE CLUB formed at the Presimen countri-meeting to be held in the Y. M. C. A. rooms of the Temple Wednes-day evening at 7 o'clock. The four leaders have been lining up material for some time for their discussions, according to C. D. ORCHESTRA HARMONIOUS DANCE RHYTHM For Dates Call Jerry Stafford Address 1548 "S" Phone B-1821 Nebraska Typewriter Co. Hayes, secretary. William E. Kaplan, Meredith Nelson, Williard Spence and C. D. Hayes will be the leaders of the How to write better - more rapidly, groups. Letters were sent out by Willard Spence yesterday to all freshmen who received "N" books.

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

will be arranged later. Freshman debate tryouts will be held on Dec. 4. Any freshman who did not attend some other college last year will be eligible. More information about frashman debating will be published later. Y. M. C. A. TO HOLD SPECIAL MEETINGS Leroy Cole was made chairman of the special Y. M. C. A. com-mittee organized Sunday evening to promote attendance at the series of Freshmen meetings to be held next week. Harlo Smith is to have observed. Harlo Smith is to heid next week, Harlo Smith is to have charge of publicity. Russell Casement has charge of the ush-ers, and C. F. Grill will be in charge of the music. The meeting was held at the home of C. D. Hayes, at $25 North Twents, fills Twenty-fifth street. AFTER ALL it's a Townsend shotograph that you want.

photograph that you want. POUND-High school honovary scholas-tic pin in front of Law bidg. Owner may have same by celling at the Lost and Pound Dept. Daily Nebras-kan and paying for this ad. LOST-Della Sigma Lambda frater-nity pin Reward. Call Charles C. Bryant. B2326.

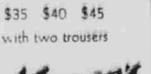

The idea, however, must have been heaven-sent.

They are the smartest thing

$35 $40 $45

118 0

