

GRIDDERS SENT THROUGH STIFF DRILL BY BIBLE

Cornhuskers Polish Up Weak Spots Which Were Seen Saturday.

PASSES GET ATTENTION

Five Tossers Flip Pigskin To Hokuf and Prucka During Workout.

Coach Bible worked his men hard in practice last night checking up on weak spots which were prominent in Saturday's scrimmage. Passing and kicking were the order of the day with the former holding the spotlight.

Young, Rowley, Long, Holbert and Ely alternated on the passing end with Prucka and Hokuf receiving. The huskers showed a big improvement over last Saturday in the phase of the game.

Holbert, Ely and Mathis, the three sophomores on the varsity squad showed up well in practice tonight.

Lineup. The first scrimmage of the year with the freshmen will be held tonight at 4:00 o'clock. The probable starting lineup for the varsity will be:

- Ends: Hokuf and Prucka.
 - Tackles: Rhea and Broadstone or Kroger.
 - Guards: Koster and Greenberg or Justice.
 - Center: Ely.
 - Quarterback: Mathis.
 - Halfbacks: Kreisinger and Young.
 - Fullback: Frahm.
- When the varsity and freshmen gridsters tangle on Stadium sod Saturday afternoon, the game will be run off in regular big league style. Present plans announced by the athletic department call for the appearance of a cadet band of eighty pieces and the official cheer leaders at the stadium while the varsity-fresh game is in progress.

To Charge Admission. An admission charge of 25 cents will be made for the game, the proceeds being turned over to the band to finance the organization on its trips to games away from home. The trouble with the plan which was followed in previous years is that it results in too much confusion with passing the hat, feathers and what not befudding any person who wishes to contribute to the cause.

If the gate at the Saturday game comes up to expectations, it is understood the band plans to set aside a share of the fund to help finance a band trip to the Pittsburgh game in 1931. As there were more than 5,000 people at the intra-varsity scrimmage last week, there is every reason to believe the band should make some money, officials said today.

Student Football Tickets to Go on Sale on Saturday

Arrangements have been completed for the sale of student athletic tickets, which will get under way Thursday morning with the receipt of reservations at the office of John K. Selleck in the University coliseum.

Tickets to the student section will be $9 with a charge of $9.50 for the cheer section, the latter being located in the center of the east stadium stands.

The drawing for positions in the student section will be conducted on the same plan as last season, and will be made Saturday afternoon. The tickets will be assigned Monday.

Student groups may purchase their tickets in blocks, provided they bring student identification cards for the entire number of students purchasing the tickets, Mr. Selleck said.

Monday instead of Sunday was discussed, but was thought impossible because of the university restrictions to rushing on freshmen day.

Chairman Russell and his committee were given a vote of thanks for their work in carrying out work of filling and checking all the names and dates in compliance with the new rules.

In addition to the discussion of the operation of the rules and plans for their possible changes for next year, Russell explained the rules for rushing during the year. No record of dates with rushes during the year need be turned in to the council, but the names of all men pledged must be immediately given to the council.

Before the meeting of the judiciary committee of the council next Saturday to decide on all complaints of violations of the rushing rules all offenders will be notified and given a chance to defend themselves at the hearing. Mr. Russell said that it would be to the advantage of the offenders whether fraternity or pledge to appear if requested to do so.

Mr. Russell gave an idea of the amount of work of the committee when he said that 617 rushes had dates filed with the council and that some of these rushes had dates with as many as twelve different fraternities.

In addition to the discussion of rushing, all the houses presented the names of their representatives and alternates to the council for the year. It was decided that the council will hold regular meeting in Morrill hall, room nine, every third Tuesday evening. A fine is imposed for fraternities not present at the meetings. These fines constitute the financial support of the council.

The fraternities were reminded of the council rule forbidding any Lincoln high school students from being entertained in the house during the year.

SELLECK ANNOUNCES PLANS OF PROGRAMS

Widely Known Writers to Contribute to 'Tales of Cornhuskers.'

Several widely known sports writers and prominent university students will write for this season's "Tales of the Cornhuskers," official football programs which will be issued for every game on the home schedule including the freshmen game, John K. Selleck announced today. John Bentley of The Journal, Cy Sherman of The Star, Gregg McBride and Bill McCleery, president of the Innocents, will be among the contributors.

Plans for all of the issues are well under way and indications are that the programs will be superior to those of previous years, according to Jim Lewis, editor of the publication. Lewis is looking over some syndicated material including cartoons by such artists as John Heid, Jr., and articles by nationally known writers which may be suitable for use in the programs. The cover designs for the various issues are expected to be unusual this year. George Koschke, a former member of the Cornhusker wrestling team, has drawn a modernistic design for the first program cover of the Texas A. and M. game. This first book contains two full page pictures of the Texas team and three of the Nebraska squad.

The cover planned for the Pittsburgh game will be dedicated to the University band. Oz Black has drawn a very unusual cover to be used on the Missouri program. The cartoon is along the line of a pictorial map. An airplane view of the stadium will be used on the cover of the Kansas Aggie program.

The Corn Cobs will handle the sale of the programs as usual this year and the profits will be divided between the Cobs, the N club, and the athletic department. Last year 35,000 programs were sold.

Nebraska's Pictures In Traveling Exhibit

Two of the paintings recently purchased for the Hall collection are to be included in a traveling exhibition of paintings from the Powell collection at Washington, D. C. They are to be shown in all of the important museums of the country.

W. A. A. INVITES ALL WOMEN TO ENTER SPORTS

Miss McDonald States That No Qualifications Are Necessary.

EVERY GIRL ELIGIBLE

Intramural Program Is to Begin Soon; Points Will Be Given.

Women's athletic association through the medium of the intramural office and its director, Miss Clarice McDonald, issued an invitation yesterday to all girls who, though not members of organized groups, are interested in the sports program as planned for 1930.

"No restrictions," said Miss McDonald, "are set down in determining intramural participants. The W. A. A. organization counts its success by the increase in number of girls who look part one year as set over against those who participated the year previous. The organization is altogether a growing one and one whose all-embracing program will hold some interest for every girl.

Every Girl Eligible.

"Those girls who are new to the school, or who find more time this year to give to extra-curricular activities, but are not members of organized groups are particularly urged to come into the intramural office and be signed up a member of some already recognized independent group; and of course, we are looking forward to seeing all the old girls out again.

"I should like," she continued, "to set aside the prevalent misconception that only those girls who are proficient in the sports should sign up. In a sense, we are all novices, we do hope that no one will allow a real interest in a sport to be misplaced by the fear that she is not an experienced player."

The sports program will begin in a few days with the speedball tournament which is under the direction of Jean Whitney. Other sports including soccer, hockey, basketball, bowling, Nebraska ball, and deck and paddle tennis will be included in the winter sports program.

Points Will Be Awarded.

Points are given to each group for each girl who comes out for a sport, and additional points are added to the total of which ever group places first, second or third in each tournament. A silver loving cup and a plaque are given to the group totaling highest and second highest number of points. Awards are also given to the winner of each major sport.

Individual awards which take the form of letters are given to those junior or senior girls who, in the opinion of the W. A. A. organization and its adviser, have shown themselves to be really interested in the activities it sponsors.

STUNT SECTION TICKETS GO ON SALE THURSDAY

(Continued from Page 1.) Williams pointed out, "but we hope to make sitting in the section and participation in the stunts a real privilege. Arrangements are being made and will be announced on several days for special privileges for these students."

The old fashioned waiting line at the office of John Selleck on the morning of the opening of the ticket sale has been eliminated by the drawing system inaugurated last year. Organizations or individuals can put in their orders Thursday and take their chances in the draw.

If past years are any indication, according to Mr. Selleck, there will be at least 200 students on the waiting list for the cheering section. The fact that cheering section tickets are in the center of the field make them especially desirable, he pointed out. Students on the waiting list will get seats vacated by those who fail to see that their seats are occupied at the games.

The athletic tickets in the cheering section as well as to the remainder of the stadium can be exchanged at the end of the season for season tickets entitling students to admission to other seats.

Oregon Voters to Ballot On Government Plan

PORTLAND, Ore.—(IP)—A constitutional amendment designed to completely change the machinery of administration of this state is to be voted upon by the voters in November.

The amendment, if passed, will institute the cabinet form of government instead of the present board of control, which has made the governors of the state mere figureheads in the past.

TWO sophomore athletes are rating quite a bit of consideration for Don X. Bible and his staff in an effort to fill the gaps in the Husker backfield and line. Chris Mathis, 145 pounds of fight and speed from Tecumseh, has been getting the nod quite regularly at the signal calling post on the first string and seems to have a slight advantage over Manley, Marrow and Brown. Ely, at center, is the other sophomore who has been working regularly with the varsity. McPherson and Campbell are giving him plenty of argument with their Maasiam practically out of the picture. A great deal of the Huskers' showing for the year will depend upon the development and showing made by these two sophomores.

TEXAS AGS TO MEET SOUTHWESTERN TEAM

First Foes of Cornhuskers To Get Taste of Fire This Saturday.

COACH SLASHES SQUAD

COLLEGE STATION, Texas.—Their pre-season training grind of two weeks behind them, the Texas Aggie gridsters of Coach Matty Bell entered into the more intensive work of preparing for the opening game of their 1930 schedule with Southwestern university at Kyle field this Saturday. The next week the Aggies journey to Lincoln, Neb., to meet the Cornhuskers in one of the feature inter-sectional games of the week.

Work of the past week has done much to smooth out the ragged edges of the team play of the Aggie eleven and Coach Bell expects to have a well functioning team to face the Corsairs Saturday. The squad has been reduced to fifty-five candidates to allow a greater amount of time to be laid on team play during the week preceding the contest.

No lineup announced.

Although no lineup has been indicated by Coach Bell it is likely that the starting lineup Saturday will find either Harr, Stiteler or Aston at quarter. Captain Floyd will probably be at fullback and the halfbacks will be chosen from Woodman, Austin, Phillips and Aston.

The line will likely be as follows: Ends, Adrain Tracy and McFadden with Malone and Scheer in reserve; tackles, Magrill, Marshall and Moulden; guards, Van Zandt or Breedlove, and Christian or Guman; center, Ox Abbey.

It is likely, in the event that the game is decidedly in favor of the Aggies, that Coach Bell will give a large number of his charges opportunity to prove their mettle under fire.

third baseman came running home and slid across the plate in a cloud of dust. Now the question is, did the run she scored count for her opponents? Ah well—we must all learn and experience is a wonderful teacher, if we can take the word of the unfortunate third baseman.

A FEW DAYS ago John Bentley, in his "I May Be Wrong" column, ventured a guess as to the probable starting backfield for Nebraska in the Nebraska-Texas Aggie game. Since it is no cardinal sin to guess and it is a lot of fun to say "I told you so" if the prophecy should happen to come through—here is another guess. Mathis, Young, Frahm and Paul will compose the secondary defense when Nebraska lines up Oct. 4. All four of these men have looked good in early season workouts and would make a fast, hard hitting crew. It's just a guess, John.
