Big Six Officials Place Ban on Kansas

FACULTY GROUP FINDS K. U. GUILTY

Subsidizing and Recruiting of Athletes Is Charge Hurlled at Jayhawk School During Meeting in Columbia, Mo., Saturday.

JAMES BAUSCH AND BORELLO HOLD SPOTLIGHT

Kansas Athletic Head Shows Surprise When Informed Of Decision; Dr. W. A. Tarr, Missouri Representative, Brings Charges.

BY THE RAG MAN.

Found guilty on charges of "recruiting and subsidizing" athletes, Kansas university was virtually eliminated from the Big Six conference by faculty representatives of the six members following a long meeting at Columbia, Mo., yesterday. The remaining five in the conference decided to schedule no more games with K. U. Games already contracted for this year will be played.

The verdict read:

"In view of the practices at the University of Kansas in violation of the rule of this conference relating to recruiting and subsidizing athletes, the other five members of this conference decline to schedule any athletic games or contests, not now under contract, with the University of Kansas for this academic year, and no games or contests beyond this year."

Bausch Is Subsidized.

James Bausch, Kansas halfback who received honorable mention on some of the all-American football teams last year, was the "subsidized" athlete. Phil Borello, former Kansas City high school youth, who attended Notre Dame part of last year, was the "recruited" player. While it was said that other cases were considered, Bausch and Borello held the spotlight.

Dr. Forrest C. Allen, director of athletics at the University of Kansas, expressed surprise when informed early yesterday of the action of the Big Six representatives.

Allen Issues Statement.

"I don't even know what charges were made or on what grounds," Allen said. "Possibly Kansas won't want to abide by whatever Big Six ruling they were supposed to have violated."

"Kansas has a year to decide whether or not it wants to remain a member of the Big Six conference."

Tarr Heads Charges.

Action was taken against Kansas after Dr. W. A. Tarr, Missouri representative, charged that Jim Bausch, K. U. star, with professional contracts.

SENNING LEARNS OF BRYAN ESSAY PRIZE

Finance Secretary Finds Unused Fund Twenty Years of Age.

INTEREST ACCUMULATES

Just twenty years ago William Jennings Bryan gave the University of Nebraska a permanent fund large enough so that from its income a $25.00 prize could be given to an undergraduate student every year for an essay on some subject in the field of political science. For twenty years the money was not touched. Prof. John P. Senning, chairman of the department of political science, had never been told of such a gift.

Last spring L. E. Gufferson, finance secretary of the university, informed Dr. Senning about the unused gift, now greatly increased by accumulated interest. As a result this fall the William Jennings Bryan essay contest in political science will be held for the first time.

Senning Appoints Committee.

Announcement of contest preliminaries is made today by a committee from the political science department which Dr. Senning has appointed. Its members are: Prof. Lane Lancaster, Prof. Norman Hill, and H. M. Stoke.

Because the contest award was made possible by the gift of Mr. Bryan the committee felt that this first year it should emphasize the various phases of the public career of the donor. With this in mind it has framed the following subjects on which students may write:

1. The diplomacy of William Jennings Bryan.
  2. Bryan as a political leader.
  3. Bryan's political ideas.
  4. The economic views of William Jennings Bryan.
- The contest will be open to any sophomores, juniors and seniors who have had six hours in political science at the university. Manuscripts must be in the hands of the committee by April 1. Students who are interested should consult some member of the committee at once.

CHURCHES PLAN ALL UNIVERSITY SERVICES TODAY

Denominations Have Special Features With Appeal To Students.

EVENT IS TRADITIONAL

Inter-Church Council and Big Sisters Sponsor Event on Campus.

Invitations have been sent to all university students to attend some church today in observance of All-University Church Sunday. This event is traditional and occurs annually. All churches in the city at making special appeals to students.

Affiliation services will be held in all the churches, whereby students may identify themselves as church members for the school year. Affiliation with churches in the city does not sever the tie with the home church but only serves to make it stronger.

Big Sisters Cooperate.

All-University Church Sunday or Go-To-Church Sunday is actively sponsored by the Big Sister Board and the Inter-church council of the Y. M. C. A. Charlotte Joyce, president of the Big Sister Board, states that three methods will be used in getting every girl to some church Sunday.

All big sisters have been urged to get in touch with their little sisters and take them to church. Sorority mothers are to escort their sorority daughters to a place of worship. Girls not members of organized houses have signed their names on a list in the Y. W. C. A. office in Ellen Smith hall and transportation has been provided for them.

Methodists Arrange Programs.

Nine Methodist churches in the city have arranged special programs, according to Rev. W. C. Fawell, Methodist student pastor, and each one will have affiliation services as the culmination of three weeks of visitation among students by the Methodist student council.

The Presbyterian churches of the city with student groups will observe the day, according to Dean R. Leland, Presbyterian student pastor. They will also have affiliation services.

Baptist Reserve Pews.

Rev. C. H. Walcott, pastor of the First Baptist church, will deliver a sermon on the "Religion of Youth." Special pews are reserved for students and opportunity will be given for affiliation. Rev. James MacPherson of the Second Baptist church, has also extended an invitation to students.

According to Rev. H. Erck, Lutheran student pastor, the Lutheran churches are commemorating the Reformation today also. He stated that some of the churches were holding affiliation and some were not but that all of them had messages of interest to students.

Chancellor's Statement.

The invitation sent out was signed by Chancellor E. A. Burnett. The chancellor's message read as follows: "This invitation to the students of all religious affiliations has my hearty approval. I shall be greatly pleased if the movement results in a marked increase in attendance at all places of worship. This is one of the fine customs that has well become an All-University tradition. Every student is urged to help make it such."

Civil Engineering Graduate Returns

HUSKERS RUN UP 53 TO 7 TOTAL

Montana Gains Lead Early in Game Following 94-Yard Run by DeFrate Who Intercepts Forward Pass; Half Ends 13 to 7 in Scarlet's Favor.

LONG CROSSES GOAL TWICE FOR HIGH SCORE

Marrow, Frahm, Kreizinger, Brown, Perry and Paul Land in Scoring Columns During Afternoon; Long and Frahm Shine in Offense.

BY GUY CRAIG.

Gaining a seven point lead in the opening moments of the game when DeFrate, Montana quarter, raced 94 yards for a touchdown after intercepting a Husker pass, the Montana Bobcats wilted before the Husker attack in the last three quarters and Nebraska won by the lopsided score of 53-7. The lone Montana touchdown came when it appeared that the Nebraska team was bound for a touchdown.

KOSMET CLUB DESIRES INDIVIDUAL SKITS

Such Acts Necessary to Complete Show, Say Club Members.

DEADLINE IS TUESDAY

Individual curtain skits as well as acts by organizations will be welcomed to the Kosmet Klub Thanksgiving Morning revue, according to word released by club members yesterday. Call for skits by fraternities, sororities and other organizations was made last week but nothing was said about individual performances.

According to members of the club these will be needed in the show and people with ideas along these lines should consult with Carl Hahn at the Sigma Nu house, 625 No. 16. Deadline for receiving skits applications has been set for Tuesday at 5 o'clock. This will be strictly enforced according to Hahn and any one wishing to place a skit in the show will have to notify the club before that date.

Plans For Show.

Plans for the show call for a number of acts by organizations interspersed with individual acts. The whole revue will be tied together by an appropriate theme. A well known master of ceremonies will be secured and music is to be furnished by popular orchestras. Kosmet Klub's reviewing committee has been selected and will be announced when it starts its tour of the various acts immediately after the deadline Tuesday. This committee will judge each act and select the best for the morning show.

A committee has been appointed to work out the election of Nebraska sweetheart, to be presented in the revue, and election plans will be announced soon.

FUNERAL OF MRS. DAWSON IS BEING HELD HERE TODAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Fred Dawson, graduate of the university and wife of Fred Dawson, head football coach here from 1921 to 1924, who died at Grand Junction, Colo., will be held in Lincoln today.

Mrs. Dawson, formerly Marguerite Lonam Stott, was prominent in dramatic work at the university several years ago. She took leading parts in productions of the University Players and after her graduation taught in the physical education department. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.
