

TUESDAY'S AERIAL WORK LOOKS GOOD

Last Night Is First Time Biblemen Display Worthy Overhead Practice; Long, Young Are Used on Throwing End; Hokuf, Prucka Receive.

INJURY JINX MOVES INTO NEBRASKA QUARTERS

Kroger, Stansberry, Paul, Rowley Laid Up and Will Be on Sidelines; Panthers Arrive Saturday; Prucka Is Captain for Game.

Nebraska's passing attack will undoubtedly play an important part in the game Saturday with Pittsburgh. Practice Tuesday night was the first time this season that the Cornhuskers have shown an aerial attack worthy of notice.

Long and Young were the only backs used on the passing end, while Hokuf and Prucka were receiving the majority of the tosses.

Two Full Teams.

Coach D. X. Bible sent two full teams into a scrimmage against Pittsburgh plays used by the frosh. The A team was composed of Hokuf and Prucka, ends; Rhea and Broadstone, tackles; Koester and Greenberg, guards; and Ely, center with a backfield made up of Mathis at quarter, Frahn and Kreitzinger, halfbacks; and Long and Young alternating at the full-back position.

The B team included Bokenkroger and Byrnes, ends; Hulbert and Eno, tackles; Gartner and Campbell, guards; McPherson, center; with a backfield composed of Packer and Perry, halfbacks; Uelson, fullback; and Staab and Brown alternating at quarter.

Scrimmage Frosh.

Both teams scrimmaged two frosh eleven working on a defense against the Pittsburgh line and passing attack.

An injury jinx seems to have moved into the Cornhusker camp the last week. Kroger will be out of the B team tackle position for some time due to an injury received while riding a motorcycle Sunday. Stansberry, a back recently moved up to the varsity squad from the Nubbins, will be out because of a broken toe received when he fell over a curbing in front of his house.

On Sidelines.

Paul and Rowley will probably be on the sidelines when Nebraska takes the field Saturday. Paul is nursing a sprained ankle while Rowley's injury consists of a bad shoulder.

The Pittsburgh Panthers will not arrive in Lincoln until Saturday morning. The team will practice Thursday in Chicago and Friday in Omaha, leaving the latter city the morning of the game.

Prucka, varsity end, will be game captain Saturday.

OKLAHOMA MAY GAIN LEAD IN CONFERENCE

Kansas Will Play Penn and Give Sooners Chance to Get Ahead.

NORMAN, Okl.—With a chance this week to gain undisputed leadership in the Big Six, Oklahoma rested its forces the early part of the week in preparation for the invasion of the Iowa State Cyclone camp. With Kansas playing the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia the Sooners have a chance to go into the lead in the Big Six race if they can defeat Iowa State.

Anticipating a stiff resistance from Iowa State, the Sooners found cheer in the performance of Guy Warren, midget halfback, who has been out of the game a week with injuries. Warren ran signals with the first string and looked as if he would be in good shape for this week's game.

The Iowa State varsity is also pointing for the battle and the first workouts of the week found them perfecting new plays while the reserves scrimmaged. With no injuries reported following the Kansas game, Iowa coaches sought to keep the slate clean as they announced the varsity would have only one scrimmage this week.

MISSOURIANS GET SET FOR K-AGGIE BATTLE SATURDAY

COLUMBIA, Mo.—Missouri university grid men turned to field work with a new zest Tuesday, jubilant over their first victory of the year last week against Drake. The squad was sent through light workouts the first part of the week.

The Aggies, smarting from defeats at the hands of Oklahoma and Kansas, will be out to win their first conference victory. Missouri has won but one game out of four starts in their pre-conference competition for the Bengals and Gwin Henry's men will have to play real football to win.

Missouri and the Kansas Aggies have played fourteen games, Missouri winning seven, the Aggies four and three of the games being tied.

New Brunswick, N. J.—(IP)—In his annual report, Dr. Walter T. Marvin dean of the college of arts and sciences at Rutgers university, asked an increase in faculty salaries to permit university professors to "meet the ordinary requirements for simple, dignified living."

CLASSIFIED WANT ADS.

Let me do your typing for you. McDonald, B 1548.

LOST—Brown leather purse in Temple. Thursday. Finder, call L 5286.

THE HAPCK STUDIO, 1216 O Street. 2291. Distinctive photographs.

AFTER ALL IT'S A TOWNSEND photograph that you want.

HELP WANTED—Opportunity for a young man or woman open to the right person. Cosmopolitan Company wants ambitious person to sell rugs. Good commission. Easy money. See Business Manager, Daily Nebraskan.

K. U. BENDS EFFORTS TOWARD PENN GAME

Jayhawks Will Not Allow Athletic Scandal to Spoil Next Trial.

LAWRENCE, Kas.—Kansas university, although involved in a battle with Big Six officials, is bending every effort toward the Pennsylvania game this week end.

Walter Thiele, a Lawrence lawyer, is conducting an investigation of the athletic conditions in the Jayhawks institute and questioned individual members of the squad the first part of the week.

Thiele refused to reveal the purpose of his private conference with members of the squad but will soon make a report to Dr. Forrest C. Allen, director of the school's athletic department. Upon his findings Kansas authorities will base a decision as to the eligibility of James Bausch.

While debate over the eligibility of Big Jim disturbed Kansas football circles, Coach Bill Hargiss has been sending his team through heavy workouts just as though nothing had happened in preparation for the game this week end. It is not known whether or not Bausch will be used in the eastern game.

SEATTLE TRADITIONS RECEIVE STIFF BLOW

Washington Professor Says Football Spirit Should Play Small Part.

SEATTLE, Wash.—Traditions received a stiff blow here recently when Dr. William Savery, head of the University of Washington department of philosophy, spoke at a meeting of Purple Shield, underclassmen's honorary.

The college football spirit and traditions, which are a part of modern university life, stunt the growth of individuality, Doctor Savery told members of the underclassmen's group. These things should play only a small part in the life of the college student, Dr. Savery believes.

"The true college spirit consists of only a diligent search for cultural knowledge," Dr. Savery said. Entering freshmen who maintained a high scholastic standing in high school were present at the meeting and heard the condemnation of traditions.

Two of the traditions on the University of Washington campus are the wearing of green caps by freshmen and restricting of the wearing of corduroy trousers to juniors and seniors. Sophomores have rebelled against the latter rule.

CHI OMEGA WINS SPEEDBALL GAME FROM THETA, 8-3

Chi Omega won her second speedball game in the women's intramural tournament when she trounced the Kappa Alpha Theta team by a score of 8-3.

Virginia Pollard, captain of the Chi O team, distinguished herself by making the first goal. The Theta's due to their ignorance of the game permitted her to complete a pass to Eleanor Dixon which resulted in a touchdown which made the score 5-0.

Ann McCloud of the Theta team kicked the ball through the goal for their only score of the game. Arlene Thomas, of the Chi O's then kicked a high ball through the goal posts, completing the scoring for both teams. Virginia Thornton and Nina Samuelson also were outstanding players at the guard position for the Chi Omega's who by virtue of their win are advanced to the semi-finals of the speedball tournament.

Provisions for the founding of a college were left in a will of the late Mayor Anthony M. Ruffo, Jr., of Atlantic City, who was killed in an automobile accident. The mayor had hoped to establish the college in his lifetime.

A LETTER OF IMPORTANCE

Some writing papers are so distinctive in quality and correct in style that they command instant attention.

will give your letters that unmistakable refinement so valued by women who appreciate the little niceties of social life. It is a paper of quality, yet inexpensive.

The new styles are now on display here

Tucker - Shean STATIONERS 1123 O ST.

GOLD & CO.

Lincoln's Busy Store—Corner 11th & O Sts.—"The Best for Less"—S. & H. Green Stamps Are An Added Saving!

Gold's Fashion Rule CAMPUS NIGHT LIFE Sketches From a Campus Party

Time: First "gala night" on campus.
Place: A palm-circled ballroom.
Oh Marj, I'm limp... watch that heavenly gleaming Freshman over there gazing up at Jack... I happen to know he lost his fraternity pin at the laundry but that dress makes her waistline look like a thread... he's already snared and helpless... and that gorgeous thing Peg has on... it's sky-blue satin and that skirt would make Marie Antoinette jealous... she's talking to ducky Prof. and her grade's practically made... and did she tell you she got that stunning frock from GOLD'S—KAMPUS KORNER!

These Frocks and a complete formal wardrobe are assembled in Gold's Kampus Korner for your choosing now.

November Ushers In The Military The Season of Ball, Dec. 5th FORMALITY

Whether your love of romances prompts you to choose clothes inspired by the colorful French courts of the early nineteenth century... or turns your favor to the classic simplicity of the Grecian... whatever your particular preference, it will be found in the new collection of formal fashions in Gold's Kampus Korner.

It will be impossible for the eved of taste not to look her best for the evening fashions are more becoming than they have been for years... choose early... the ball is December 5... make your selections now.

You'll Find Beautiful FROCKS Wanted Fabrics, Lovely Colorings, New Modes

$15 +++ $25 to 39.50

IN GOLD'S KAMPUS KORNER—Third Floor.