ARRANGEMENTS COMPLETE FOR MISSOURI RALLY

Materials Come in Through Night for Bonfire as Seniors Guard.

COACHES WILL SPEAK

Corn Cobs Continue Work On Structure for Huge Blaze.

Cornhuskers will display their spirit and their will to win tonight at a gigantic bonfire rally and parade through the downtown streets of Lincoln. The fire will be lighted at 7 o'clock on the drill field and after it burns the entire group will march up town to the Lincoln hotel where the Missouri is stopping.

The coaches of both teams, Dana X. Bible, and Gwynn Henry will be asked to speak as will the captains of both teams. The tradition of the "Husker-Tiger" bell, for which both schools are striving, will be shown. Cheerleader Ralph Rodgers will lead the cheering and songs for the group. The parade through the streets will be led by the Nebraska band.

Seniors Stand Guard.

Work on the building of the bonfire is progressing slowly. Last night the senior class, led by Ken Gammill, class president, watched over the structure. During their night long vigil they added materially to the size of the stack.

The Interfraternity council, according to Fred Grau, president, is urging that every fraternity member and pledge bring boxes and barrels and paper to add to the flames. Almost every business house in the city has consented to contribute and it should be easy to get material for the blaze.

Greatest in History.

Alan Williams, chairman of the innocents' committee in charge of the bonfire, predicts that the bonfire will be the biggest the university has ever known and states that pictures of its burning will be taken by Pathe News cameramen and will be shown throughout the United States.

Corn Cobs will continue their work in building up the structure today with a truck from the university. A great deal more material is needed and all students are urged to lend a hand.

The drill field is to be roped off and only students are to be allowed on it. Corn Cobs and Tassels will be present in a body and will assist in the cheering.

PUBLICATION BOARD POSTPONES MEETING

Group Will Consider Sigma Delta Chi Petition This Evening.

Meeting of the student publication board, scheduled to take up the matter of the reinstatement of the Aegis, a university humor publication, was postponed Thursday until Friday afternoon.

Action on the petition of Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalistic fraternity, to undertake the resumption of publication is expected to be taken at the meeting today. Included in the petition is the plan to secure 1,000 subscriptions, sufficient advertising backing and personnel to assure a competent staff in order that the project will be certain of a favorable installation.

Other routine matters dealing with the Cornhusker and The Daily Nebraskan will be taken up at the meeting.

Alpha Sigs and Thetas to Give Collegiate Interpretation of Coffee Dan's in Kosmet Revue

A collegiate interpretation of the night life at Coffee Dan's will be presented at the Kosmet Klub Thanksgiving Morning revue when the Alpha Sigs and Thetas deliver their airy night club skit.

To all those who have never attended Coffee Dan's Chicago cabaret this act will be something new, and to those who have seen the original Coffee Dan's in his splendor it will still be something new.

Logical deductions indicate that this act may open the way for a new era of undergraduate activity. Hush, the millennium approaches—the Theta chorus will be clad in costumes typical of "blushing brides," thus providing not only entertainment for chattering Phi Psi who whisper that "college girls just don't marry," but also giving them valuable practice in the selection of a nuptial wardrobe.

Vacancies Remain in Candy Sellers' Ranks

Any girls signed to sell for W. A. A. concessions at the Missouri game, who will be unable to attend must notify Berneice Hoffman at once. There are a few vacancies in the group, if any one else would care to sell.

WORK PROGRESSES ON PROOF READING OF FALL NUMBER

The final proofing and other work on the fall number of the Prairie Schooner is progressing rapidly and the latest issue should be off the press within the next few weeks. Professor L. C. Wimberly, editor, members of the staff and of Sigma Upsilon, the honorary literary fraternity that sponsors the magazine, are doing the work.

NEXT PLAYERS SHOW IS COMEDY DRAMA

'Holiday,' Starting at the Temple Nov. 17 Said to Be Clever Play.

"Holiday," an entertaining comedy by Philip Barry, is to be presented by the University Players Nov. 17 to Nov. 22 in the Temple theater. A cast composed of familiar faces and several new ones will present this popular play which is filled with clever lines and abounding in opportunity for bits of good acting.

Two sisters and a brother grow up under the tyranny of a dominating, multi-millionaire father in fashionable New York society. The younger daughter becomes engaged to a young lawyer of no social prominence who is determined not to follow the life outlined for him by his fiancée and her father, but to take the money he has made on the stock market and go off on "holiday" until it gives out and then to come back and do whatever he wishes.

Much Suspense.

The older sister who has been struggling all her life to throw off the fetters of her convention-bound life, sympathizes with Johnny and finally falls in love with him herself. The clash of dominant personalities, each determined that he is right, fills the play with much suspense.

The character of Linda, played by Dorothy Zimmerman, is an outstanding creation. Art Singely plays the part of Johnny Case, the young lawyer engaged to Julia, portrayed by Augusta French.

In the supporting cast, Lucille Cypransen and Paul Thompson fill the parts of Laura Cram and her husband Seton Cram, the distasteful but always-ready-to-help cousins of the family. Harlan G. Easton is the dominating old father and Jerry Mickel plays the part of Ned, the brother, which completely fits the Seton family.

Herbert Yenne and DeLellis Shramek play Nick and Susan Pratt, friends of Linda that cause much of the merriment in the play. Leland Bennett, Edwin Mortenson, and Ethelyn Colwell complete the cast.

BARBOUR PLANS KIWANIS LECTURE ABOUT MUSEUM

Dr. E. H. Barbour of the department of geology of the University of Nebraska will present an illustrated lecture on the museum this noon, at the meeting of Kiwanis club at the chamber of commerce. The Nebraska Wesleyan museum will provide music. The following have been nominated for directors, six to be elected at the annual meeting Nov. 28: Frank C. Grant, Judge E. E. Perry, Rev. Paul Calhoun, E. E. Brackett, Frank Breen, Ed W. Watson, R. J. States, H. C. Mardis, B. F. Preston, C. E. Burt, H. W. Meginnis, E. W. Rowe.

FOUR AG TEAMS TO COMPETE IN K. C.

Nebraska Judging Groups Are to Take Part in Exposition.

Four judging teams from the college of agriculture will compete in contests at the American Royal livestock exposition which begins at Kansas City this week end. They are the senior livestock, grain and two meat judging teams.

The livestock judging squad is composed of John Munn, Cyril Winkler, Howard Raskin, Cliff Traulsen, Merle Whit and Don Facka. The group left Thursday night for Kansas City. Professor W. W. Derrick is the coach.

Following the contests at the American Royal, the livestock judges will return to Lincoln and will begin a four day practice period next Thursday. The first stop will be at Ames, Ia.

LEAVE THURSDAY NIGHT

Greely Leaves to Visit the Largest Horse Importing Company in the Country.

The Thomas E. Wilson farms at Wilson, Ill., will be inspected by the team while on its tour. Wilson is a well known packer and a breeder of short horns.

At Urbana, Ill. some practice work will be done at the University of Illinois. From there the team goes to Chicago to compete in contests at the international livestock exposition which begins on Nov. 29.

FILINGS CLOSE FOR SWEETHEART AT 12 O'CLOCK

Aspirants for Position Must Register By Noon Today.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN

Men Speculate on Identity of Contestants for Kosmet Honor.

Filings for Nebraska sweetheart, honorary position created by University of Nebraska Kosmet Klub, will close at noon today in accordance with a deadline set by club members two weeks ago. All filings are being made to John K. Selleck, in the student activities office.

Selleck could not give the number who had filed up to date yesterday, stating that club members expected more coeds to register their names this morning and that a complete check would be made and released after this noon.

Considerable Interest.

A great deal of interest has been manifested in Nebraska sweetheart ever since filings were called for, according to members of Kosmet Klub. Sororities discussed her in weekly business meetings and decided on candidates, and it is said men all over the campus have been speculating on who will file and what their chances will be.

The sweetheart will be elected by all men of the university at a special election in the Temple on Nov. 20. Sponsored by Kosmet Klub, the ballot will be under the supervision of the student council.

Combinations Probable.

Uglt filings were released, it will be impossible to tell just what combinations will be formed for election purposes. It is thought, however, that sororities with candidates will do considerable log rolling between both organizations of theirs and the opposite sex.

Waite Heads Group.

At the head of the constitution committee is Elmont Waite, 31. This committee will take charge of the printing of the constitution and by-laws of the organization in pamphlet form. It is planned to have the rushing rules incorporated in the printed pamphlet. The committee is also to read thru the constitution and make recommendations on it. The committee members are: L. L. Pospisil, Oscar Humble, Barc Resler, and Ed Westcott are the other members of this committee.

New Plaque Committee.

Dick Devereaux, '32, is head of the new plaque committee which is working on the construction and design of a new plaque for presentation to the high fraternities which have been used in the past are almost irreparable damaged and this committee is working toward the design of a better and more valuable plaque. William Eddy, Guy Craig, and Riel Anderson are the other members of the committee.

A committee composed entirely of the representatives of the professional fraternities was appointed, according to President Grau, to formulate a modification of the rushing rules so as to make them applicable to their specific cases. Wray Russell, '32, is chairman of this committee and Pay Garner, Bud Bailey, L. L. Pospisil, Floyd Wolcott, Oscar Humble, and L. Evers compose the rest of the committee.

NEBRASKA CONTRACTS FOR PITTSBURGH TILTS

Schools Continue Relations Begun in 1921; Two Games Added.

Nebraska will meet Pittsburgh in 1932 and 33 by the terms of a contract which was announced at the athletic office Thursday afternoon. The year the Cornhuskers will go to Pittsburgh for the Thanksgiving day battle, the first time in five years that Nebraska has had a Turkey day classic away from home. The game in '32 has been set for a mid-November date and no definite agreement has been reached as to the date of the '33 game.

When the new contract is completed, seven games will have been played between the two schools. Pittsburgh has always been among the leading schools of the east and every game with Nebraska has been a thriller.

Pitt-Nebraska scores in past games:

1921-Nebraska 10; Pittsburgh 6.
1922-Nebraska 13; Pittsburgh 21.
1923-Nebraska 0; Pittsburgh 8.
1924-Nebraska 0; Pittsburgh 10.
1925-Nebraska 0; Pittsburgh 6.

Dear Alumni and Friends:

It is a pleasure to turn aside from the regular duties of the day and extend a welcome to the friends and alumni of the University. You are indeed welcome.

If the alumni "nose about," they will find that the fine traditions of their day are still being carried forward by the present splendid student generation. And I should say if one may rely on his memory and that of those who knew you, the present student generation is no worse in scholarship, et cetera, than some of you were. In fact some of the older faculty members say that they see in the faces of the present student body the very pictures of some of the alumni.

We are glad you are coming. Our latschstring is out.

Yours sincerely,
T. J. THOMPSON.

NEW COMMITTEES ARE CREATED IN COUNCIL

Grau Announces Five Groups to Help Carry on Work of Greek Body.

Announcement of the appointing of five new committees in Interfraternity council work was made yesterday by Fred Grau, president of the council. The committees are publicity, constitution, scholarship, public, and a committee composed of the representatives of professional fraternities.

Art Wolf, '32, is chairman of the publicity committee, which is to prepare a publicity campaign explaining the rushing rules of the organization. The campaign will be sent out to all newspapers in Nebraska in an effort to acquaint incoming freshmen with the rules so as to facilitate the work of the rushing committee.

The publicity will go out in the month preceding the beginning of school during the coming summer recess. Edwin Faulkner, Clarence Meyer, Robert Venner, and Howard Allaway are the other members of that committee.

Waite Heads Group.

At the head of the constitution committee is Elmont Waite, 31. This committee will take charge of the printing of the constitution and by-laws of the organization in pamphlet form. It is planned to have the rushing rules incorporated in the printed pamphlet. The committee is also to read thru the constitution and make recommendations on it. The committee members are: L. L. Pospisil, Oscar Humble, Barc Resler, and Ed Westcott are the other members of this committee.

Investigation and recommendation of the setting of a suitable minimum prerequisite average for initiation are the duties of the scholarship committee composed of Marvin Von Seggern, '32, chairman, Neal Gomion, Bill Comstock, Maurice Akin, and Richard Bell. Some controversy has been waging over this question in the council this year and the committee was appointed to investigate the question.

New Plaque Committee.

Dick Devereaux, '32, is head of the new plaque committee which is working on the construction and design of a new plaque for presentation to the high fraternities which have been used in the past are almost irreparable damaged and this committee is working toward the design of a better and more valuable plaque. William Eddy, Guy Craig, and Riel Anderson are the other members of the committee.

A banquet was held in the Venetian room of the Lincoln hotel Thursday at 6 o'clock for all those attending the convention. Irwin Frey acting as toastmaster introduced Dr. J. E. Cannaday, president of the standard school of floriculture, Sedalia, Mo., as the main speaker of the evening. Acrobatic stunts by the Danielson twins and a number of dances by Jean Swift furnished the remainder of the program, after which all adjourned to Mr. Frey's residence to attend a party arranged by him.

MISS LILLIAN JOHNSON SPEAKS AT MEETING

'Welfare Work in Nebraska' Is Subject of Talk to Women.

Miss Lillian Johnson, of the department of Public Welfare of Nebraska, spoke at the general meeting of the League of Women Voters, Thursday, on "Welfare Work in Nebraska." There are three legislative steps which should be taken by the state to insure more effective welfare work, according to Miss Johnson.

LIONS CLUB GIVES FOOTBALL LUNCHEON

Lions Club gave its annual luncheon in honor of the university football team Thursday noon at the chamber of commerce. An orchestra played during the meal, and then every player and coach drew a gift from a bag. Hil Frukta introduced the squad members and John Selleck, the coaches, and Coach Bible responded to President Reid's talk about university football.

The first of these is a forming of county commissions under state supervision with committees made up of local representatives; this commission would pay for a social worker to take care of the cases in that community.

The second legislative request is let it be provided that the chief of the bureau be a university graduate, specializing in social sciences, and having, also, five years of experience.

The last request is that a state children's welfare commission be created to act under the Public Welfare commission, and to work up of local representatives; although the department now does all it can to take care of the many children, it is not yet adequate and there are many cases neglected and overlooked.

TASSELS SLATED FOR FRATERNITY SPIRIT CAMPAIGN

Girls' Pep Group to Stage House-to-House Rally This Evening.

MEN ASKED TO BE HOME

Society Will Make Rounds From 5-7; Plan Musical Entertainment.

Tassels, women's pep organization, will hold its annual house-to-house pep rally of the fraternities tonight between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock, according to Betty Wahluquist, president of the group. Members of the organization are asked to meet in front of Ellen Smith hall at 4:45 o'clock this afternoon from where they will proceed to rally at twenty-six fraternities. The entire organization, fifty-four strong, will be present at the pep canvas of the fraternities.

Asked to be Home.

Members of the fraternities are asked to be at home between the hours of 5 and 7 o'clock tonight to receive the rallying coeds and it is the usual thing, according to members of the group, to feed the mob. Miss Ardith Pierce will play a piano solo and Miss Katherine Krueise will play a saxophone solo.

This rally is held once a year at homecoming and is intended to help build up spirit for the Tiger-Husker clash tomorrow. The girls will visit the outlying fraternities first and then will proceed to rally at the houses on fraternity row. After completing their house-to-house pep meeting they will continue to the drill field where they will meet the Corn Cobs and attend the bonfire rally with that group at 7 o'clock.

Any members with cars are asked to bring them to Ellen Smith hall tonight at 4:45 o'clock to assist in getting the Tassels around to the various fraternity houses.

N. U. COLORS SHOWN AT FLOWER EXHIBIT

Coeds Present Scarlet and Cream in Bouquets as Display Feature.

Nebraska coeds presenting the university colors in flowers and showing many of the latest corsages and bouquets, are a feature of the flower style exhibit which is being held each night in the coliseum between 8:30 and 9:30 o'clock as a part of the program offered by the State Flower show. The presentation will end tonight.

In addition to the showing of university colors, two mock wedding processions and presentations of innumerable bouquets are offered in the display.

Second Convention.

The State Flower show, now holding its second convention, has on exhibit in the coliseum flowers of every type, some of which are being shown in Lincoln for the first time. The collection is national in scope, including flowers from thirty different states and from leading growers and disseminators of the country. Outstanding among the flowers which completely cover the entire floor of the coliseum are marvelous exhibits of orchids, camellias, school gardenias, the camellias which are being grown by Frey and Frey are being shown for the first time in Lincoln.

The convention which opened at 1 o'clock Wednesday will end at 10 p. m. tonight, Nov. 14. Each evening there is a one hour musical program from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock. The Burlington band will play tonight, the Demolay and Post Office bands having played Wednesday and Thursday respectively.

A banquet was held in the Venetian room of the Lincoln hotel Thursday at 6 o'clock for all those attending the convention. Irwin Frey acting as toastmaster introduced Dr. J. E. Cannaday, president of the standard school of floriculture, Sedalia, Mo., as the main speaker of the evening. Acrobatic stunts by the Danielson twins and a number of dances by Jean Swift furnished the remainder of the program, after which all adjourned to Mr. Frey's residence to attend a party arranged by him.

Many awards are to be given for winning exhibits which are divided into four classes, A, B, C, and D. The judges are Prof. Walter Balch, Manhattan, Kas., and William Dunman, U. of N.

A great number of people have taken advantage of the presentation of flowers, said to be an education in itself. A small admission fee is charged to the public.

WESLEY PLAYERS REHEARSE TWO RELIGIOUS PLAYS

Rehearsals are now under way for the two new plays being given by Wesley Players this season. The three-act drama, "A Sacrifice Offered" is under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Foresman Dickey of the department of dramatics while Miss Irene Fee, '30, Lincoln has charge of practices for the one act play, "Barrabas."

It is planned to give the opening performance to the later play in a local church about the first Sunday in December while the longer drama will probably be given for the first time out of the city the following Sunday evening.

WOLF HEADS PUBLICITY

Art Wolf, '32, is chairman of the publicity committee, which is to prepare a publicity campaign explaining the rushing rules of the organization. The campaign will be sent out to all newspapers in Nebraska in an effort to acquaint incoming freshmen with the rules so as to facilitate the work of the rushing committee.

The publicity will go out in the month preceding the beginning of school during the coming summer recess. Edwin Faulkner, Clarence Meyer, Robert Venner, and Howard Allaway are the other members of that committee.

PUBLICATION BOARD TO MEET THIS AFTERNOON

The Student Publication Board will meet at 3:30 p. m. today in the reading room of the School of Journalism, University hall 105.

LITERARY SOCIETY PLANS MEETING IN PALLADIAN HALL

Palladian literary society will hold an opening meeting Friday night, in Palladian hall, located in the Temple building. Program will consist of readings a piano solo by Charlotte Peterson, and a vocal solo by Sybil Wiegner.

TURKISH DANCE WILL BE PARTY FEATURE

Male Trio to Present at Third All-University Dance Saturday.

Featuring a Turkish theme, final plans have been made for the third All-University party to be held Saturday, Nov. 15.

The feature of the stage show will be a Turkish dance. This dance will be presented by a male trio. A mystery singer, "the sultan," is to be one of the main attractions. It is whispered that at some time during the dance he will sing a true Turkish love song to a narem. It seems that the song is a chronicle of the wonderful adventures of a lovely maiden who made a journey to Mecca. Allen Williams, chairman of the party committee states that he is considering engaging a Turkish troupe for the "sultan." Having journeyed from the land of the Turks to sing a native melody for the sole amusement of patrons of the party, it is expected that he will be received with great applause.

Decorations.

The coliseum will be decorated with colored streamers and colored lights will be used to increase the effect. For the first time this year confetti and Japanese serpentine will be part of the program. A special pavilion for the foot square dance will be erected. The decorations will be in Turkish style with a fish pond in the center.

The chaperones for the party will be Mr. and Mrs. Warfil, Mr. and Mrs. Case, Mr. and Mrs. Nevin, Professor and Mrs. Mickey and Mrs. Rosequist. An special pavilion for the foot square dance has been constructed. It is built in Turkish style with a fish pond in the center.

Only nine days, or little more than a week remain during which students may get their pictures taken for the 1931 Cornhusker annual.

The number of students who have appeared at Hauck's and Townsend's for yearbook photos during the past two days has materially increased, according to Kenneth Gammill, Cornhusker editor but sufficient studio provisions have been made to accommodate all patrons during the remainder of the period.

The Cornhusker staff will have absolutely no power to arrange appointments for pictures after Nov. 25," asserted Gammill. "This applies to pictures for fraternity and sorority sections as well as for junior and senior divisions of the book."

Contracts with the downtown photographers make it necessary for every student who wishes a place in the yearbook to get a photograph taken within the next nine days. Although the Cornhusker staff is making many appointments, an appointment is not absolutely necessary and Gammill, for usually either Hauck's or Townsend's are able to accommodate any student who wishes a picture.

FUSE OF WEEK END FESTIVITY LIES IN RALLY

DECORATIONS ON LIST

House Displays, Parties, Will Help Entertain Old Grads.

Nebraska today and tomorrow welcomes back its grads of former years in the annual homecoming. Final preparations for the entertainment of the returning grads have been set. Festivities will begin tonight with the annual house decoration contest and the big bonfire rally on the drill field at 7 o'clock. They will wind up tomorrow night with parties by thirty-three fraternities and sororities.

An all-university party in the coliseum tonight, lunches and banquets in the various fraternities and sorority houses tomorrow, and the Missouri football game complete the program outlined for the occasion.

Kennedy Repeats Warning.

George Kennedy, member of the innocents society in charge of the house decoration contest, yesterday repeated his warning that no fraternities or sororities sending their decorations to the coliseum should after noon today will be considered in the contest awards tonight.

Prof. Harry F. Cunningham, head of the department of architecture, Ray Ramsay, secretary of the innocents' society and Mrs. Ellery Davis, former Nebraska student and wife of a prominent Lincoln architect will judge the decorations contest. Kennedy said that a judging tour of the competing houses will be arranged as soon as he has received the names and accounts of all contestants at noon today. Twenty-five dollars is the limit to expense of decorations in the contest.

Giant Bonfire.

The giant Missouri funeral pyre built up this week on the drill field will be lighted at 7 o'clock tonight. The pile is two feet square at the base and fifty feet high. It is to be the biggest bonfire ever used for a rally here.

MISS M'LAUGHLIN WILL LEAD FRESH DISCUSSION GROUP

The freshmen commission group conducted by Emma McLaughlin will discuss the value of college friendship this week. The first meeting was held on Tuesday at 2 and the second meeting was at 4.

Officers of the first group are as follows: Leader, Leon Ketterer; president, Marion Stamp; vice president, Frances Stringfield; secretary, Anne Bunting.

Officers of the second group are: President, Margaret Swenson; vice president, Jane Boose; secretary, Willa Norris.

CALVES SOON TO HAVE NEW HOME ON AG CAMPUS

Calves of the university dairy herd will have new quarters with the completion of the barn being constructed at the college of agriculture. The building is almost finished.

Robb, Candidate for Rhodes Honor, Is Working Toward Masters Degree; Spent Active Four Years on Campus

Editor's Note: This is the fourth of a series of five articles dealing with the activities and scholastic history of the candidates for Rhodes scholarship from Nebraska. The next article will appear in a later issue.

By ART WOLF.

Eugene S. Robb, one of the five candidates for Rhodes scholarship from Nebraska, is actively connected with campus activities and is working toward a master's degree in political science. Robb received his A. B. degree last year in journalism.

He is specializing in the field of international relations. At the present time he is in charge of the University News service which supplies state papers with news of the university.

During his undergraduate years he was active on The Daily Nebraskan, having been the editor of the publication during the last semester of his senior year. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalistic fraternity, and was president of that organization in his senior year.

Awarded Honors.

At the close of his last year, Robb received the Sigma Delta Chi scholarship awarded to the four graduating students in the school of journalism who maintained the highest scholastic average during their first three years of college. He was also elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

Robb played a French horn in the R. O. T. C. band and in the university orchestra during the first four years of his college career. This year he is captain and drum major of the band. He has played with the Lincoln High School orchestra since it was organized four years ago. For one year he was tenor soloist at the Second Presbyterian church and held a similar position at the Grace Lutheran church.

He is a member of Gamma Lambda, honorary band fraternity.

Robb is a Lincoln man, the son of A. J. C. Robb. He is twenty years of age and was born Jan. 9, 1910.
