

BETA THETA PI COPS WATER POLO TITLE

Defeats Tau Kappa Epsilon 4-2 in Final Match Last Night.

PI K. AS TAKE THIRD

The 1930 intramural championship in water polo was copied by the Beta Theta Pi aquitarians, as a result of their defeat over the Tau Kappa Epsilon sextette, in the final match played at the Y. M. C. A. last night.

The final score was 4-2, the Betas taking the lead in the first few minutes of play when Hall caught the Teke goal guard unaware and scored a throw-goal for the first score of the evening.

Honors for third place go to the Pi Kappa Alphas, as a result of their victory over the Delta Sigma Phis.

The lineup: Beta Theta Pi—Tau Kappa Epsilon Cottrell, Owens, Schott, Lunnay, Schewe, Murray, Yordy, Carrer, Chase, Petersen, Koolen.

ATHLETICS evidently do not overshadow scholarship at the University of Nebraska if incidents of the coming week end may be taken as an indication.

The basketball game with South Dakota this week, originally scheduled for Friday, has been shifted to Saturday night because some of the Huskers have to take their quarter exams Friday.

With Morrie Fisher facing ineligibility because of his grades, it is highly probable that Charley would rather wait a day for a game than have the rest of the squad out because of scholastic difficulties.

FRANK CARRIDEO, quarterback on the Notre Dame team this year and recognized by critics as the greatest football player of 1930, is as versatile as any hero of fiction.

Last spring Frank appeared with Savoldi in a comedy skit which won him quite a bit of notoriety. This year he plans to enter the debating field.

While attending high school he was an All-State guard in basketball and All-State quarterback in football.

WHEN the Kansas Argies come to Nebraska this year, Husker followers will get a chance to watch a "sky-scraping" basketball team in action.

enough lengthy players on the squad to make up a team averaging six feet three inches in height. The tallest member of the squad is H. O. Cronkite, who towers six feet three inches in the air.

COACH Wallace Wade of Alabama will sing his swan song as coach of the Alabama "Crimson Tide" when the Alabamians meet Washington State in the Tournament of Roses at Pasadena, Calif., on New Year's day.

In the course of the last five years, Wade has taken his team to the west coast twice. In 1926 the Tide beat the University of Washington Stanford 7 to 7. This is the third trip and followers of the Alabamians insist the team is better than any previous team to go to the coast.

Wade made his first appearance in the Rose Bowl as a guard on the Brown university team, the foe being Washington State.

BASKETBALL is overshadowed in many schools by the God of College Sports, Football. As soon as the gridiron season draws to a close, students go back into their holes to await the coming of a new campaign.

It is a shame that such a game as basketball should be thrown into the background. There are more action and thrills in one basketball game than in a number of football games.

NEBRASKA, this year, has a basketball team which is capable of winning the Big Six crown if the basketeers are given the right kind of support.

The crowds at the major portion of the games last year never made any noise—unless it was in booing the referee, which is another fault of Nebraska crowds.

KANSAS FLIPPERS SET CLEATS FOR OPENING

Steady Practice Prepares Jayhawkers For First Tilt With Washburn.

LAWRENCE, Kas.—Steady practice in anticipation of the opening of the basketball season is the portion of the Kansas basketball squad under coaching of Dr. F. C. Allen.

For purpose of practice, a "first team" of Bishop and O'Leary, forwards, W. Johnson, center, and Cox and Page, guards—positions they played last year—has been selected; going up against a "second team" of Ransom and Rost, forwards; Filkin, center; and Baker and Schaaque, guards.

Reserves who are being given careful training are Junior Coen and Skinner at forward, Brazil and Kite at guards. Riesen, a new man in the field, is also being given a chance.

The Kansas schedule includes ten conference and eight non-conference games, starting with a non-conference tilt with Washburn at Topeka, Dec. 16, and ending with a game with Creighton here March 3.

An exhibition game with Missouri will be played in Kansas City, Dec. 20, and a series of three games is scheduled with the University of Colorado. Two of the Colorado games will be at Denver, Jan. 2 and 3, and the third at Boulder, Jan. 5.

'BROKEN TOYS' WILL BE STAGED AT PARTY
Special lighting effects and slit crepe paper double arches will decorate the dance floor and the stage. The Christmas motif will be carried out in the decorations that include many small lighted Christmas trees.

Small cotton snowballs will be thrown down on the dancers as the favors. Special favors for the sponsors and a novel presentation of them have been promised by Williams.

CAGERS WILL LEAVE TODAY FOR DAKOTA

Huskers Will Play Opening Game at Vermillion Saturday.

POSTPONEMENT AGREED

Twelve University of Nebraska cagers will leave today for Vermillion, S. D., where the Husker basketball team will meet the University of South Dakota in the opening engagement of the season. The game was originally scheduled for Friday, but due to mid-term examinations, Coach Charley Black and the South Dakota coach agreed to postpone the tilt until Saturday.

The list of men making the trip includes Maclay, Fisher, Davey, Hokuf, Koster, Conklin, Phipps, Mock, Stansberry, Stipsky, Cox and Davison. In case Morris Fisher is unable to make the scholastic grade, Lackey, a center, may be taken in his place.

The probable starting lineup includes Davey, Fisher or Conklin, forwards; Maclay, center; Hokuf and Koster, guards.
