The Ames team completely outclassed the Huskers in every event.

Ray Richards Wins First Professional Wrestling Match

Ray Richards, former Nebraska student and all American football tackle, won his coming out bout as a professional wrestler when he was triumphant in the feature contest of an all wrestling show in Sioux City, Ia., last week. Richards downed Jack McCarthy of Chicago in two straight falls. He threw McCarthy in 12 minutes, 30 seconds with a body scissors and then scored a second fall in 13 minutes 40 seconds with a flying scissors.

Richards comes from Dodge, Neb. He left the university here last spring and has since been playing professional football. He is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

ball and baseball star, first won the award in 1926.

SMUTNY STANDS OUT IN TRACK TRY OUTS

Makes Time of 6 Seconds Flat in 50 Yard Low Hurdles.

LEON CARROLL IS HURT

Smutny's work in the low hurdles featured the tryouts for the Cornhusker cinder men held Saturday afternoon at the stadium in preparation for the annual Kansas Aggie dual meet here Feb. 28. Smutny clicked off two flights of 50 yard low hurdles in six seconds flat, which is fast time for so early in the season. Lambertus, a freshman, was only inches behind the Seward speedster.

Garvey led the field in the mile, running the distance in 4:37.2. England, Truc and Nuereberger finished in the order named.

Leon Carroll had some bad luck when he collided with a hurdle in the 50 yard high. His foot caught in a barrier, carrying it about ten yards before crashing into the next one. Carroll was badly dazed from the impact, and it was found upon examination that he had suffered a pulled tendon in his ankle as a result of the mishap. Smutny and Linus Carroll also tripped on the hurdles in the same race. The race was run over. Willis Lamson won with a time of 6.6.

According to Coach Henry Schulte, the Aggies boast the best track and field team this season that the school has had in years, and so the "Indian" is losing no time in whipping his men into shape. Hugh Rhea and Ralph Rodgers did not compete in the trials. The first three men in each event will probably qualify for the competition against the Aggies next Saturday.

KANSAS U CALLS FOR NOMINATIONS FOR SCHOLARSHIP

LAWRENCE, Kas.—Nominations for the third group of Sumnerfield scholars at the University of Kansas are being received by Prof. Olin Tempin, chairman of the committee. Last of the nominations were due Feb. 21. The committee, considering the sections of the state from which applications come, will select the cities in which the preliminary examinations are to be held March 28.

It is probable, it was said, that examinations will be held again this year in Wichita, Salina, Lawrence, and other cities as was done last year. Nearly 200 high school seniors of last year were nominated for the first examinations, and from these groups fifty were selected for a final examination at the university, and eleven were appointed to scholarships for this year.

Getting Off The Bench

By Leonard Conklin

SOME wit suggested that the bench must be upholstered from the leisurely fashion in which we are getting off. Inasmuch as, herewith, now that we vow to rise not later than June 7 or 9 or whenever the semester is over, if not within a week or so.

Elmer Greenberg, the buxom trainer who sports one of those East-West mackinaws around, has doped out why Iowa State beat Nebraska last week. He says the main difficulty was that the Huskers didn't score enough points. Maybe he's right.

THESE sports writers who have final scores all decided several days or weeks before the contests in questions come off have decreed that K. U. won't be molested by Iowa State or Missouri. They also decided a while back that Nebraska would wallop Missouri and Iowa State and that Kansas would wall on the Huskers in Lawrence. Those things didn't happen and now the Jays are "on the spot" battling with Tiger and Cyclone gunners who were just good enough to shoot two big holes in Nebraska's hoop record.

Art Mauch says that a skier is a lover of snow who puts two sticks on his feet and then slides down a hill on his head.

THIS he-man Hugh Rhea really puts distance between himself and that shot of his. Fifty feet, eight inches, the distance that Rhea threw the lead ball last Thursday before Lincoln business men, is quite a ways considering that only five men are recorded as having thrown the shot over fifty feet in competition. The burly Husker is beautifully built for the event but it must take a healthy desire, a sort of savage joy, to make a man play an all-American brand of football and then left the track weight like Rhea does.

Coach Browne has a freshman basketball squad this year that should guarantee the future of the sport at Nebraska. This Walter Henrich from down in Kansas is so deceptive in his passing and floor work that it is doubtful at times if he knows himself where the ball is going except that it generally gets there as intended. A Lincoln lad named George Sauer is flashy, elusive and a dead eye if permitted to shoot. Lunney, Letts, Mason, Boswell and Bauer all give the varsity plenty of opposition.

WITH varsity baseball about to crawl from beneath the grandstand it is good to see "Boo" Williams back in school ready to bid for his position as a Husker basketball star. "Spike," the other Williams who has played a brilliant shortstop the last two seasons for Nebraska will leave a big hole to be filled in the infield.

Of course women aren't supposed to know much about sports but anyone with as pretentious a cognomen as "Women's Editor," a former news editor and extra special feature writer, ought to be up on her headline remarks. To get down to cases, the perpetrator of "No Man's Land" composed a headline for a crack story the other day. She permitted Jerry Lee to run the hundred yard dash in 5.5 seconds. Now Jerry is a speedy boy but it happened to be fifty yards that he covered in that time rather than one hundred. Just a slight error of about 100 percent, but then, women aren't supposed to know much about sports.

IOWA STATE TO HOLD FLORISTS' ANNUAL COURSE

HUSKER MATMEN ARE BLANKED BY KANSAS AGGIES

Kellogg Squad Goes Down Before the Invincible Patterson Men.

FINAL SCORE IS 34 TO 0

Shirley and Adam Put Up Lively Battles in Two Sessions.

K-Aggies upheld the prestige of Agricultural college wrestling. Saturday night when they trounced the Huskers 34 to 0. Nebraska was outclassed completely by the Aggies, losing five falls and three decision matches.

Shirley lasted for two overtime sessions against Warner, but the experience of the latter stood him in good stead when the going got tough. The match lasted until the final gong, when Warner applied a body scissors and held Shirley on his back long enough to receive the much sought for slap on the back. Shirley was wrestling out of weight, having won his match against Oklahoma in the 155 pound section.

Adam put up a lively battle against Chapman in the light heavy classification, losing by a time advantage of 6 minutes 36 seconds. Adam went under at the end of the first two minutes and stayed there long enough for Chapman to gain an even break at the regulation end of the fracas, and in the extra periods, the K-Aggie grappler continued to put up his advantage.

Coach Patterson of the Aggies has two Big Six champions on his squad, and they disposed of their adversaries in quick order. Fickle, wrestling in the 135 pound class disposed of Larson, Nebraska in 4 minutes fifty seconds. Larson was behind for the first two minutes, but was caught when he attempted to roll out of a dangerous position.

Richardson, Aggies man in the 155 pound class, and an old hand at the game, made short work of Smith, when he dumped him with a full nelson in 2 minutes 10 seconds. Richardson was on the Kansas team three years ago, and was runner-up in the Missouri Valley meet.

Errington, weighty champ of the Big Six was too much for White of Nebraska, who was wrestling his first match for Nebraska. Errington did not have any particular hold with which to hold him down but he merely held him down by main weight and ponderousness.

In the 115 pound classification, Griffith won by forfeit from Heady of Nebraska when the two tried to emulate a head on wreck, with the Nebraskan coming out a decided second in the momentary joust. Heady received a scalp wound that bled profusely, but was cured with a slight application of colloidin.

The Aggies are doped along with Iowa State to have the best chance of coping the championship this year. Patterson is of the opinion that his crew has an edge over the Iowans, but thinks that the championship should prove to be quite a horse race.

Summary:
115 pound: Griffith (KA) won by forfeit over Heady (NS).
125 pound: Fiedel (KA) won by fall over Larson (NS). Half-Nelson and body chancery. 4 min. 50 sec.
135 pound: Tempers (KA) won by decision over Wausler (NS). Time advantage: 9 min. 30 sec.
145 pound: Duse (KA) won by decision over Rees (NS). Time advantage: 4 min. 15 sec.
155 pound: Richardson (KA) won by fall

Goodman to Play in Semi-Finals in Texas Tournament

Johnny Goodman, who attended Nebraska a year or so ago, didn't mind being five down with eighteen to play in the Houston County club's invitation tournament in Texas Friday. The Omaha lad shot three birdies in a row on his last nine and beat out Leonard Atwell of Houston two up.

Goodman's recovery earned a place for him in the 36-hole semi-finals and a chance to cross mashes with W. C. Hunt of Houston. The blond golfer, who is Nebraska's pride and joy in the link sport was forced to give up his school activities at Nebraska because of financial barriers.

K-AGGIES TO INVADE HUSKERLAND TUESDAY

Black's Basketeers Wind Up Season With Two Games at Home.

JAYHAWKS LEAD BIG SIX

After a two day vacation Charley Black put his basketball team back to work Friday afternoon in a vigorous scrimmage with Brown's freshmen and continued the drill Saturday morning stressing breaking plays and goal shooting.

The Kansas Aggie farmers will leave their plows in the field and invade Lincoln Tuesday evening for the next to the last tilt on the Husker schedule for this hoop season. The Sooners from Oklahoma will be here Saturday, Feb. 28, in the final hoop performance.

In recent games the Aggies have been distinctly unsuccessful, the Kansas Jayhawks had no trouble holding to the top rung of the Big Six ladder when they romped on the staters early last week 40 to 26 on the evening after Nebraska's disastrous 42 to 28 drubbing over at Ames. On Thursday the Manhattan club suffered another beating at the hands of St. Louis university to the score of 26 to 15.

Down in Kansas the Cornhuskers defeated the Aggies 57 to 31 in one of the most breathtaking tussles of the year. Immediately afterward reports began to come out about the weakening of the Farmer crew because of Negro and two of his cohorts removal to the hospital with the flu and body injuries.

In the scrimmage Friday evening the Huskers looked as if they had regained some of their old time fire. The freshmen on the floor against Black's varsity included George Sauer, Kenneth Lunney, Walter Henrich, Paul Mason, Madison Letts, Hubert Boswell, Art Hoag, Wally Norton, Henry Bauer, and Charles Armstrong.
