BIZAD COLLEGE GETS JOHN AGEE TO GIVE SPEECH

Commercial Club Sponsors Convocation; Is First Of Series.

F. B. SMITH AT HEAD

All Business Students Will Be Dismissed to Hear Graduate Talk.

John Agee, '10, has been secured to speak before a general Bizad convocation to be held Monday at 11 o'clock in social sciences auditorium, according to Frank B. Smith, president of the commercial club which is sponsoring the event. This convocation is the first of a series of such meetings which are being sponsored in the hopes of arousing greater interest and enlightenment in the field of modern business.

Mr. Agee, general manager of the Lincoln Telephone and Telegraph company, spoke last spring at the reunion of the class of 1910. He will be introduced by Dean J. E. LeRossignol, of the college of business administration, and will speak on "Some of the Economic Problems of Today."

All classes in the Bizad college will be excused for the event, according to Dean LeRossignol, who declares that the purpose of this convocation is to acquaint the business students with practical business problems of today.

Mr. Agee attended the University of Nebraska nearly three decades ago where he played a prominent part in campus activities. He was a member of Alpha Theta Chi fraternity.

Advanced students in military science who this summer will attend the Reserve Officers Training camp at Fort Crook will report June 7 instead of June 14, as was previously announced. This year the six weeks' camp will begin the day after commencement instead of a week later as has been the practice in summers previous.

Flowers Appear in Trees Before They Bloom on the Ground, Dr. Pool Says

That spring has actually arrived on Nebraska's campus in the form of not only unusually warm weather but flowers as well, was pointed out by Dr. R. J. Pool, head of the botany department, yesterday. According to Dr. Pool, some of our best known trees have already flowered.

"The flowers of the trees about the campus are just as beautiful and interesting as those on a garden plant," said Dr. Pool, "but they are hardly noticed because of their inconspicuousness. Nevertheless, their colors are as bright as any cultivated tulip. In fact, if they were enlarged to tulip size, we would certainly notice them sooner and become better acquainted with our familiar trees as a consequence.

Elms, Maples First.

"The elms and maples are usually the earliest trees to bloom here," continued Dr. Pool. "The common American silver maple has very beautiful flowers, being of a bright red and yellow color. People are not aware of their blooming until the familiar 'hush'

CORNHUSKER PROGRESSES

Engraving, Other Sections Near Completion on 1931 Yearbook.

Engraving work on the 1931 Cornhusker is entirely completed, and picture proofs have been returned to Kenneth Gammill, editor.

Editor Gammill reports that work on the yearbook is progressing in accordance with previous plans and that it will undoubtedly be ready for distribution during May.

Complete proofs on the junior-senior sections of the annual have been returned from the printers. Color work for the new book is completed, and these pages have been run off by the printers.

HIGH SCHOOLS END DISTRICT TOURNEYS

Champion Debaters Will Visit Campus for State Meet.

With district high school debate tournaments practically completed plans are being made for the annual state tournament to be held in Lincoln, April 16, 17, and 18 under the sponsorship of the Nebraska high school debating league. The question which the students will debate is "Resolved, that all nations should disarm with the exception of that needed for police protection."

Names and pictures of the district tournament winners are to be in the hands of Prof. H. A. White of the university, who is president of the league, by April 6.

This year, single judges will render decisions on the debates. Arrangements for the tournament here are being made through the co-operation of the University of Nebraska extension division.

AG CAMPUS SETS STAGE FOR FAIR RALLY THURSDAY

Delphian Nash Heads Group In Charge of Annual Function.

EXPECT LARGE TURNOUT

Faculty Members Arrange Talks Telling of Fair Plans.

College of agriculture students will gather in ag hall Thursday night of this week for their second rally in behalf of the 1931 Farmer's fair. Myrtle White, fair manager, in announcing the rally is urging all ag students to be present as some important announcements will be made.

Plans for the Thursday rally are being made by Delphian Nash and others of the junior, fair board. Several prominent faculty members are expected to tell the students about the possibilities of the fair this year. The fair board may also put on a skit as they did at the last rally.

Given as big a turnout as for the first rally two weeks ago, the senior fair board believes there will be more interest than ever on the campus in regard to the 1931 show. The auditorium in ag hall was packed for the first rally and as big a turnout is expected Thursday.

Official committee selections for farmer's fair were to have been completed on the ag campus yesterday. Members of the senior fair board made some corrections in the initial announcement of selections.

BURNETT ANNOUNCES NINE $100 AWARDS

Students Wishing to Apply May Obtain Blanks Immediately.

SIX ARE OPEN TO ALL

Availability of nine $100 scholarships to the University of Nebraska for the next academic year has been announced by Edgar A. Burnett, chancellor. Applications should be made at once. Recipients of the scholarships will be announced in May.

One-half of the money will be paid to the students granted the scholarships when they enter the school next fall and the remainder when he enrolls for the second semester next year, unless it is deemed advisable to pay the entire amount in one sum.

Outstanding ability, demonstrated high scholarship, industry and perseverance, and a reasonable promise for the future are factors which the committee awarding the scholarships will be looking for in all undergraduates of the university. One is expressly for students of chemistry or geology. One is also available for engineering students, preferably electrical. One is open to philosophy department students.

These $100 scholarships include: three Henry C. Bostwick scholarships, Edward Long True memorial scholarship, Dr. George Brownman scholarship, W. H. Sawyer scholarship, Jefferson H. Broady scholarship, one scholarship on a Nebraska banker and one scholarship in philosophy offered by a Chicago friend of the university.

WESLEY PLAYERS TO VISIT FRIEND TONIGHT

Methodists Will Present 'A Sacrifice Once Offered.'

"A Sacrifice Once Offered" will be given by Wesley Players, national dramatic organization, at the Methodist church in Friend, Neb., this evening at 7:30 o'clock. This play was to have been presented three weeks ago but on account of bad roads the group was unable to get through.

The story deals with the affairs in the home of the Roman governor in Jerusalem at the time he was considering the case of Jesus. The leading parts are carried by Russell Lindskog as Pontius Pilate and Miss Carolyn Cooper, as Calpurnia, his wife. The rest of the cast is:

Children of Pontius Pilate: Julius, Oliver Kibben; Virginia, Ingeborg Nielsen, and Antonius, Lloyd Watt; Damon, their Greek tutor, Charles Green; Procula, aged slave woman, Mildred Johnson; Claudia, a slave girl, Marjorie Dean; John Mark, a young Jew, Irving Walker; Nathan, Annas' messenger, George Schmidt, and Longinus, a centurion, Norman Peters.

Miss Toy Hurlbut of the Geography department, a former missionary in China, will have charge of the Epworth League meeting and will talk on her experiences in that country.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLANS GIFT TO STUDENT UNION

Organization Offers Money Obtained From Play Receipts.

SCHEDULE PLAY APRIL 4

Tassels in Charge of Sale Offer Duplicate Sum On Project.

Adding to the funds already subscribed towards the erection of a new student building will be the ticket receipts taken in by the dramatic club from the presentation of two original and one commercial play. Besides this an equal amount will be given by the Tassels, girls pep organization. The Tassels have charge of ticket sales for the show.

The purpose of the dramatic club in turning the ticket receipts over to the union fund as that of the Tassels in equaling the amount is to give added impetus toward the movement for creation of a new student center, according to members of each organization.

Schedule Show April 4. The show, which is the culmination of a contest sponsored by the dramatic club, will be held April 4 at 8 o'clock in the Temple theater. The show, according to Jane Wickersham, will be over in time to permit attendants to make the parties on the same night.

BELATED MARCH LION ROARS ACROSS STATE

Severe Blizzard Strikes Western Part of Nebraska.

March weather is not fulfilling the old proverb of coming in like a lion and going out like a lamb. The present month has found a heavy snowfall during the last week.

Snow which started falling Thursday and continued Friday blanketed Lincoln and Nebraska. One of the worst snows in the history of the state hit central and western Nebraska on Thursday and Friday. Zero temperatures and drifts six and eight feet deep prevail in the western part of the state. The lowest temperature registered in Lincoln during the present storm was 20 degrees above at midnight Friday.

A total of .40 of an inch of precipitation has fallen in Lincoln this week end. The precipitation was heavier in central and western parts of the state. Two and one half inches was the greatest amount of snow on the ground in Lincoln. The greatest amount of snow at any one time during the snow which fell March 5, 6, and 7, was four and six-tenths inches.

The total precipitation for the year has been 2.71 inches. This amount is exactly the same as the normal precipitation for the year to date.

NEBRASKA MEN VISIT UNION AT MISSOURI

McCleery and Ramsay Fly On Inspection Trip to Columbia.

IS LATEST TYPE BUILDING

Delayed slightly by poor weather conditions, Ray Ramsay, alumni secretary, and William T. McCleery, president of the Innocents society, took off from the Union airport in Ramsay's plane about noon Saturday for Columbia, Mo., to find out how Missouri students built their new student union building.

Earlier in the day McCleery had reported that it would be impossible for them to fly on account of the weather but when the weather cleared they altered their plans and left. They expect to return this evening.

The Missouri student union building is in process of construction now, and Ramsay and McCleery expect to get some valuable information concerning the manner in which the building was financed. Being the latest building of its kind in the country they also expect to find some new features incorporated in the building which might appeal to Nebraska students in connection with plans for a Nebraska student union building.

Graduate Student Has Library of 500 Volumes With a Total Value of $2,000

By BILL SPEAR. Fred Christensen, graduate student of the university has probably the largest individual library of any person registered at Nebraska. The walls of his small room are completely covered with book shelves groaning under the weight of some five hundred volumes, ranging in value from $1 to $175. Mr. Christensen estimates his library as an investment of approximately $2,000.

Among his more valuable books are "Sketches, New and Old," by Mark Twain. This book is a first edition and believed to be worth $175. Other valuable first editions are: "The Epicurean" by Thomas More and "Captain Stormfeldt's Visit to Heaven," by Mark Twain.

"I also have some books of a more unique character that are quite hard to obtain at the present time," remarked Mr. Christensen as he dragged a heavily bound volume from a high shelf. This is "The Miracles of St.

MARKSMEN ARE VICTORIOUS IN SATURDAY MEET

Nebraska Wins Regional And Valley Titles in Rifle Match.

FIVE TEAMS VISIT HERE

Missouri Takes Special Tilt Held During Afternoon.

Nebraska's rifle team was victorious in both the regional and the Missouri Valley league in the fifth match held on the range in Andrews hall basement Saturday. Teams from the University of Minnesota, University of Missouri, University of Kansas, Washington University at St. Louis, Kansas State Agricultural college besides the University of Nebraska were present for the meet.

A special match fired Saturday afternoon was won by Missouri with Minnesota second, Washington university third, and Nebraska fourth and fifth.

Second in the regional match went to the Kansas Aggies, holder of the title last year. Third place was taken by Missouri, fourth by Minnesota and fifth by Washington. Scores were Nebraska, 1,289; Kansas Aggies, 1,279; Missouri, 1,248; Minnesota, 1,225; and Washington 1,222.

Cups were awarded Nebraska for her victories in each of the matches—regional and Missouri Valley.

In the Missouri Valley league, the Kansas Aggies were second, Missouri was third and Washington fourth.

Y. W. FINISHES PLANS FOR STATIONERY SALE

Money Obtained Will Send Representatives to Estes Park.

The stationery sale which is to be sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. will begin Monday evening when a representative will call at all organized women's houses.

Gertrude Clarke of the conference staff, who has charge of this project believes that the stationery will be bought for gifts as well as for one's personal needs. The paper is of a popular price and names or monograms may be printed on hte sheets and the envelopes.

The money obtained from this sale will be used to send Miss Bernice Miller, Y. W. C. A. secretary, and a delegate to the conferences which will be held at Estes park during the month of June.

D. FELLEMAN AND VOLD WRITE FOR LAW PUBLICATION

The two leading articles in the current number of the Nebraska Law Review were written by Lauritz Vold, professor of law, and David Fellman, instructor in political science. Mr. Vold's article is entitled, "Trust Rec. Security in Financing of Sales." Mr. Fellman is the author of the second of a series of articles he is writing on "Dues Process of Law in Nebraska." In the recent issue of the magazine he discusses the police power.

Two Physical Education Teachers Write Articles

Two members of the staff of the department of physical education for women have written articles which appear this month in professional journals. Miss Miriam Wagner is the author of "Intramurals and Women's Athletic Associations" which is in the March issue of the Research Quarterly of the American Physical Education Association. Miss Kerstin Thorma has written "Folk Dancing in Sweden" published in the March issue of the Journal of Health and Physical Education.

Abhors Text Books.

When asked if many of his books were text books he regarded the reporter with a pained expression and replied: "I have a positive abhorrence for text books and would not buy one if I could possibly help it."

Mr. Christensen's favorite authors are, Mark Twain, Anatole France and Charles Dickens. This seems to be substantiated by the large number of these author's works.

"I seldom keep the same books for a very long time," remarked Christensen as he idly thumbed the yellow leaves of a musty edition. "This may be attributed to a polygamous instinct." "That is, in books," he hastened to qualify. "Out with the old, and in with the new, is my policy."

"Books are my hobby and my only regret is that I do not have more," he concluded.
