their respective classes. Alpha Kappa, the local publication of the sorority, was read. Each senior was presented with a silver spoon engraved with the Sigma Kappa initials.

Pirate Party Given By Theta Xi pledges. The members of the Theta Xi fraternity were entertained at a home party Friday evening. The affair was given by the pledges, and was in the form of a Pirate party. About fifty couples were present, including Mr. and Mrs. Roy Calley; Mr. and Mrs. Jess Weyand; and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Luff, all of Lincoln. Entertainment was furnished by Russell Lindskog, and Mrs. Anna Highland, the house mother chaperoned the party.

Alpha Chi Juniors Give Breakfast to Seniors. The Alpha Chi Omega juniors gave a breakfast Saturday morning in honor of the seniors. The theme was that of a beach party and every one wore beach pyjamas. The tables were decorated with bowls of goldfish and colored shells. Various sea foods were served.

One end of the dining room was converted into a stage for the junior's skit. On it were arranged lawn chairs and a large beach umbrella. Awnings were on the inside of the windows, while porch boxes of spirea, irises and tulips were placed on the window sills. The juniors sang the seniors will. Then the prophesy for the seniors was read by a mermaid, Mildred Dole.

A crested five year diary was presented to each senior. The seniors gave the house a floor lamp. Dean T. J. Thompson was a dinner guest at the D. S. L. house on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenton B. Fleming, parents of Geraldine Fleming, '28, gave their annual picnic for Pi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega this morning at 6.30 at the Shrine country club.

150 AG STUDENTS ENJOY PICNIC ON COLLEGE CAMPUS

About 150 college of agriculture students gathered on the ag campus Friday evening for the annual picnic sponsored by the home economics and ag clubs.

During the fore part of the evening the students enjoyed playing numerous games featuring indoor baseball. Later in the evening a lunch was served. The fire in the judging pavilion broke up the picnic soon after 8 o'clock. From 9 until 11:30 o'clock the students enjoyed a free dance in the student activities building. The Persian orchestra played.

FLAMES DESTROY PAVILION ON AG COLLEGE CAMPUS

(Continued from Page 1.) laboratory. There the animal husbandry faculty will have their temporary quarters. The most of the office equipment and records were soiled, it is thought that most of the official records remained intact. Prof. R. R. Thalman reported his records in good condition, while Prof. W. W. Derrick said his pig crop records and other valuable documents were saved. Prof. Gramlich said his records were soiled while Prof. Wm. J. Loeffel could not be reached for a statement. Scales Destroyed.

In addition to the valuable seed lost, the agronomy department lost several scales and other equipment. One scale valued at $300 was a complete loss as were other minor scales and equipment. Chancellor Burnett and Dean W. W. Burr could not be reached Saturday evening for a statement about the fire. It is not known whether they are contemplating building a new structure or repairing the present building. Dean Burr expressed himself as being pleased with the work of the fire department during the disastrous blaze. He also commended the students who helped the firemen in controlling the fire. About 5,000 spectators gathered at the college to witness the fire. Police were stationed at each entrance of the college.
