Baseball Team Remains in Losing List as Season Near's Finish.

HURLERS DO GOOD WORK

Missouri and Oklahoma Are On Top of Heap; K. U. To Visit Hurlers.

With the elimination to the 18th-best team, Clark State College, out of the Big Eight, baseball is now down to nine teams. The Husker hurlers have had little chance this season to play against teams with winning records, except for the two contests against K. U. on Friday and Saturday. Last season the K. U. team, which was in the top three in the nation, was not at home against any team with a winning record.

The three games against K. U. have been close, and the Huskers have captured his third game in a row from Sigma, which has been losing one to the other in the Big Eight.

The game against the K. U. on Friday was a close one, and the Huskers were down 1-0 after seven innings. However, Sigma came back to score three runs in the eighth inning, and the Huskers were able to take the lead 4-3. Sigma then came back to score two runs in the ninth inning, but the Huskers were able to hold on for a 6-4 victory.

The game against the Delta on Saturday was a closer one, and the Huskers were down 2-0 after seven innings. However, Sigma came back to score three runs in the eighth inning, and the Huskers were able to take the lead 5-3. Sigma then came back to score two runs in the ninth inning, but the Huskers were able to hold on for a 7-5 victory.
