

KANSAS TRACK SQUAD LEAVES FOR LINCOLN

26 Men Entrain For Annual Big Six Meet Here This Week End.

LIST FORMER RECORDS

LAWRENCE, Kans.—Under the direction of Coach Brutus Hamilton, the University of Kansas track team held its last workout Wednesday before leaving for the Big Six outdoor track and field championship meet which will be held at Lincoln, Neb., Friday and Saturday.

The following 26 men accompanied by Dr. F. C. Allen, Coach Hamilton and Trainer Baumar left by motor car for Lincoln Thursday morning to attend the meet: The men are R. Sichel, L. Sichel, Flick, Kite, Bearles, Young, Fullerton, Black, Coffman, Hodges, Foy, Walton, McKinney, Klauer, Jones, Gridley, Straw, Bondak, Soellner, Hanson, Trueblood, Plumley, Riesen, Bryan, Stover and Kennedy.

Nebraska won the first outdoor meet held in 1929 with 58 1/2 points and Kansas won the title last year with 58 points.

The total scores made by all members of the old Missouri Valley Conference from the years 1908 to 1928 are: Ames, 432 17-20; Drake, 207 4-5; Grinnel, 218 7-12; Kansas, 443 1-10; Missouri, 714 1-4; Nebraska, 651 14-14; Oklahoma, 155 4 1/5 (did not enter until 1920); Kansas State, 216 1-2 (did not enter until 1913) and Washington, 136 1-5.

The scores made by the Big Six teams in the two meets held thus far are:

Ames Kansas K. S. A. C.
1928	41	40 1/2
1930	42	58
	55	98 1/2
	29 1/2	55
	58 1/2	113 1/2
	58 1/2	73
Missouri Nebraska Oklahoma
30	58 1/2	44 1/2
29 1/2	55	26 1/2
	58 1/2	113 1/2
	58 1/2	73

It is an interesting fact to note that in the old Missouri Valley days, the track meet in 1914 admitted outside schools to participate and the three winners were: Chicago 44 2-3, Stanford 35, Colorado 15. And the total points scored by the entire strictly conference teams was 55. Nebraska scored 13 1/2 of those and Kansas and Missouri each scored 12 points.

HUSKERS, WASHINGTON SPLIT IN TENNIS DUAL

Final Tally Shows 3-3 Tie; Five Of Six Clashes Go Full Route.

The University of Nebraska and Washington university of St. Louis split even in a dual tennis match played Thursday afternoon on the Lincoln tennis club courts. The final tally showing a 3-3 tie.

A feature of the match was the fact that five of the six clashes went the full three-set route. Paul Mahood's defeat by Tietjen being the lone singles match to be decided in two sets. Mahood did not display his usual steady form and was put down by a 6-3, 6-3 score.

The Huskers came back strong, however, when Milo Cameron and Harold Sherman came thru with victories, Cameron beating Steibemko 5-7, 6-4, 6-4, while Sherman nipped out Wiese in another hard fought battle by a count of 6-4, 4-6, 6-4. Bob Mario of Nebraska lost the final singles match to Schneider, 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

It was necessary for Nebraska to score a clean sweep in the doubles matches to chalk up a victory over the invaders, but the Huskers were not quite equal to the task.

The undefeated duo of Sherman-Cameron defeated Wiese-Schneider 6-3, 5-7, 6-3, but Mahood and Mario lost to Tietjen and Steibemko in a bitterly contested match 6-3, 6-8, 7-5.

The Huskers are scheduled to go up against the Iowa State net team on the Lincoln courts at 10 o'clock Saturday morning.

Summary:
Tietjen (W) defeated Mahood (N) 6-3, 6-3.
Cameron (N) defeated Steibemko (W) 5-7, 6-4, 6-4.
Sherman (N) defeated Wiese (W) 6-4, 4-6, 6-4.
Schneider (W) defeated Mario (N) 6-4, 4-6, 6-3.

Doubles: Sherman-Cameron (N) defeated Wiese-Schneider (W) 6-3, 5-7, 6-3.
Tietjen-Steibemko (W) defeated Mahood-Mario (N) 6-3, 6-8, 7-5.

WILL COMPETE IN HURDLES HERE

RAYMOND FLICK

Raymond Flick, University of Kansas sophomore, may boost Jayhawker points in the high and low hurdles in the Big Six meet at Lincoln, this week end. Flick has been placing in the high hurdles at all the big meets this year. He chased in Hager of Iowa State and Sentman of Illinois in the Drake relays high. He is not as fast as his teammate, Bernard Gridley, in the lows, but it is believed he may have a chance to place four or five in the conference lows.

Flick fulfills the inferences of his name flickering over the barriers in a speedy dependable fashion on that is threatening to any more sensational performers who may happen to falter along the way.

SOONER-MISSOURI BASEBALL SERIES AWAITS DECISION

NORMAN. (Special.). The proposed Oklahoma-Missouri baseball series for the 1931 "Big Six" championship is hanging fire pending a conference between Ben G. Owen, the Sooner director of athletics, and Chester L. Brewer, the Missouri director, at Lincoln, Neb. Friday or Saturday.

Fact that such a series would keep Sooner players out of school on the eve of their final examinations is causing Director Owen to frown upon the scheme. The series could not possibly be played this week end as Bus Mills, crack Sooner center-fielder, will be in Lincoln throwing the javelin for the Sooner track team.

Oklahoma and Missouri tied for the championship with six games won and one lost. The two teams did not meet this year, a series between them scheduled at Norman April 24 and 25 being rained out.

HUSKERS WILL CLOSE YEAR THIS WEEK END

Games Set Today, Saturday On Landis Field With Jayhawk Nine.

The curtain games of the home baseball season will be played at 4 o'clock this afternoon and 10 o'clock Saturday morning on Landis field when Browne's Huskers cross bats with baseball men from the University of Kansas.

The final series of the spring will come off when Nebraska jaunts down to Manhattan next Tuesday and Wednesday for two diamond contests with the Kansas Aggies.

All this week Coach Browne has been drilling his first string nine on batting and hitting with goodly portions of practice on base running and sliding.

The Husker lineup for tomorrow Henry Armatis pitching to "Boo" Williams; Russ Snygg, first base; Jake Maser, second base; Charles Davison, third base; Louis Brown, short stop; Kotah, Smitih, Rosenberg in the outfield.

The Cornhuskers have been blanked in the win column so far this year the several games have gone to extra innings or been won by opposition late in the game. Coach Browne hopes to change the luck of his nine by the recent shift in lineup and intensive hitting drill.

Prof. R. P. Crawford Gives Students Dinner

Prof. R. P. Crawford, head of the agricultural journalism department, entertained students majoring in his department at a 6:30 dinner at the University Club Thursday evening. Each year Crawford gives the dinner for his students. Problems of agricultural journalism were talked over.

Good Job is Good Luck.
"However, those members of the graduating class who are fortunate enough to secure work with a worth-while company will be in a highly advantageous position, for when the clouds of depression rise, and it is inevitable that will in the near future, the worth of the employee will raise likewise," he asserted.

One student, more pessimistic than others, summed up his impending vacation thusly. "Huh, if it hadn't been for Chesterfield's publicity campaign, I probably wouldn't even be able to smoke this summer."
