

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXX—NO. 154.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, TUESDAY, MAY 26, 1931.

PRICE FIVE CENTS

REGENTS DELAY ACTION ON POOL TO AWAIT FUNDS

Chancellor Declares Board Seeks Appropriations by Legislature.

$1 FEE TO BE RETAINED

Student Payment, Cheaper Financing Methods Are Sought.

Possibilities that further delay in the construction of the proposed swimming pool were likely were seen yesterday when Chancellor E. A. Burnett declared that the board of regents of the university would take no further action on the pool until the state legislature had passed an appropriations bill.

When interviewed yesterday, the chancellor declared that the regents would await the meeting of the legislature in the hope of finding a better method of financing the pool than those already proposed.

Seeks Cheaper Way.

He pointed out that if the contractor who built the pool were to take bonds on the university's guarantee of $5,000 per year, it would add to the expense of the structure. He said that the board believed it possible to devise some cheaper way of financing the pool.

Methods previously proposed to the regents have involved a payment of $1 per semester at time of registration, which would net some $4,000 to $6,000 per year. This plan would be retained. In the previous plans, it has been sought to have the regents guarantee $5,000 a year on the basis of the funds to be raised thru the $1 fee and the saving of some $1,500 per year which is now paid out for rent to city pools for swimming classes and pools.

To Retain Fee.

"We feel that if the legislature treats the university well, we may be able to find some better means of financing the pool than to have the contractor take the bonds or any sort of promise to pay," the chancellor declared. "Under present conditions, I do not see how the board of regents can do anything more about the matter than has already been done."

The chancellor pointed out that even tho the university were to finance the pool, it would be paid for by students with the $1 fee.

STUDENTS WILL GIVE RECITALS NEXT WEEK

Thelma Crandall and Letha Rastede to Present Senior Programs.

Two students of Earnest Harrison, Miss Thelma Crandall and Miss Letha Rastede, will give their senior piano recitals within the next week.

Miss Rastede will give her recital Thursday evening in Morrill hall, gallery B, at 8:15 o'clock. Her program includes the following numbers: Prelude and Fugue, B Major; Bach; Fantasy, C Major; Haydn; Sonata, B Major; Schubert; Masques, Debussy; Rhapsody, C Major; Dohnanyi.

Recital numbers by Miss Crandall will be given Sunday, May 31, at 2:30 in the Temple theater. Her program includes a series of pieces—French Suite VI, Allemande, Courante, Sarabande, Menuet I, Menuet II, and Gigue, all of them by Bach; Sonata, in G minor, Andantino, Scherzo, Rondo, by Schumann; Ballade by Debussy; and Sonata, Modere, Mov't de Menuet, Anime, by Ravel.

Both will receive the degree of Bachelor of Fine Arts.

Omicron Nu Banquet To Be Held Tonight

Alumnae of Omicron Nu, home economics honorary, will hold a banquet Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the University club. The actives of the organization will also be present and will have charge of the surprise program.

'Pussy,' Near Victim of Ag Fire, Returns to Animal Husbandrymen; 'Puss,' Other Cat, Is Still Missing

BY GEORGE ROUND.

"Pussy," the cat has returned. "Puss," the other cat, is yet to be found.

Now Pussy and Puss are the two cats who were near victims in the recent fire which nearly destroyed the animal husbandry building upon the college of agriculture campus. The two cats, pride of the animal husbandry attic of the building on the fatal night that the fire drove them from their abode.

Awakened from a deep slumber, the cats were frightened as the blaze danced about them. After a short conference in which no signals were called, Pussy and Puss decided the best thing to do was to find a method or way of getting out of the attic. Looking below at the mob of people watching the firemen attempt to exterminate the fire, Pussy and Puss felt that the distance was too far to jump. But looking back, they saw the blue flames dancing higher in the air each moment. Another huddle and they had decided to jump through the window.

Part Their Ways.

So through the window, Pussy and Puss went. Though they failed to find the landing as soft as it shall be in Paradise perhaps, they alighted safely without the aid of a parachute and proceeded to run from the blaze. Said one cat to the other, "I'll go this way." Said the other, "I'll go this way." Said this way and we will meet over behind the barn." They separated. Those in charge of the animal

(Continued on Page 2.)

New Department Head

PROF. W. L. DEBAUFRE, who will succeed Prof. G. R. Chatburn as head of the department of applied mechanics. Professor DeBaufre was at one time head of the mechanical engineering department.

STUDENTS WILL HEAR BEN BERNIE TONIGHT

Famous Orchestra to Play in Coliseum With Price Set at $1.

PAT KENNEDY SOLOIST

Tonight at 8:30 o'clock the coliseum doors will swing open and several hundred Lincoln residents and college students will dance to Ben Bernie, "the old Maestro," and his sixteen piece recording orchestra. Fresh from an engagement at the new College Inn at the Sherman hotel in Chicago, Bernie and his boys will play at the coliseum for their first Lincoln appearance.

Tickets will continue to be sold at the College bookstore and Ben Simon & Sons until tonight at 6 o'clock when they will be transferred to the coliseum. The same prices of one dollar each will prevail at the door.

Ben Bernie's orchestra, one of the most popular of recording and radio fame, will play in Lincoln full strength, bringing with them Pat Kennedy, soloist. Several of Bernie's new arrangements in music will be given the Lincoln customers. "The Ole Maestro" will be at the helm of the musical organization, so arranged, that the music will be heard over the entire dance floor. Checking facilities will be provided those who attend the party. No decorating is being done due to the high cost of securing the band and the low price of admission set by the local managers.

At 6 o'clock Monday night several hundred tickets had been sold at the two agencies with a few yet to be placed on sale during Tuesday.

THREE FILE FOR EDITOR

Students Seek Chief Post On Publication at Ag College.

The publication board on the agricultural college campus is expected to meet the latter part of this week in a session to select the editor of the Cornhusker Countryman, monthly magazine, for the first semester of the coming year. Prof. R. F. Crawford, head of the agricultural journalism department, is chairman of the board.

When the filing date for applications for the editorship closed last week, Crawford announced three students had applied for the position. The circulation and business manager hold over until next year.

HOUSE STEWARDS ELECT OFFICERS FOR NEXT YEAR

Edwin Faytinger was elected president of the Fraternal Co-operative Buying association for next year at a meeting held Sunday afternoon at the Delta Theta Phi house.

Other new officers are Howard Mixson, vice president, and Larry McDonald, secretary. Names of members of the board of directors will be announced later.

The organization is seeking a treasurer-buyer for next year. The position carries a salary. Applications can be made to Faytinger at the Sigma Chi house.

Nebraska Professor Named To National Committee In World Union.

Prof. N. A. Bengtson, head of the geography department of the University of Nebraska, has been appointed one of a committee of seven of the National Committee of the United States in the International Geographical Union. The appointment is an honor and credit to Professor Bengtson because the most eminent geographers of the world are in the international union.

Some of the other men to be appointed on the committee include Professor Whittlesey, Harvard; Professor Platt, Chicago; and Professor Finch, Wisconsin. The union is an international organization with committees for each country. The members of the committee serve for four years.

The committee will be in charge of and will manage the international congress of the union which will hold in 1933. The site for the congress has not been chosen but it is thought that it may be held in the United States.

Sigma Upsilon Will Meet Sunday Night

Sigma Upsilon, honorary literary society, will meet at 7 o'clock Sunday evening for the final time this year. The meeting will be held at the Tau Kappa Epsilon house.

Important business will be taken up at the meeting, according to officers of the group. Only initiated members will attend the meeting.

(Continued on Page 2.)

EDMONDS BEGINS DISTRIBUTION OF YEARBOOK TODAY

Eight Months Preparation End as Annuals Go From Office.

THEME IS NEW FEATURE

Background of University Is Given; 100 Pages in Student Life.

After eight months of preparation the 1931 Cornhusker, thirty-fourth edition of the University of Nebraska annual, is off the press and distribution will be commenced this morning, according to Ed Edmonds, business manager. Purchasers may obtain their copies at the Cornhusker office in the university hall any time during the day and thru the remainder of the week. It will be necessary to bring receipts along to give in exchange for the book. Edmonds has announced.

A particular theme which predominates thruout the entire issue is a novel feature of the new Cornhusker. It is the first time such a plan has been followed and the theme is one which centers about the historic background of the university. An entirely new art makeup in the arrangement of photographs and type is also one of the markedly striking features of the year book.

Interesting Photography. Peculiar and interesting effects in photography of campus buildings is one of the book's accomplishments. In a series of reproductions done in brown a number of buildings are placed on the page in such a manner that a reactive mood is immediately created within the mind of the reader.

The student life section of the book follows an entirely new plan of development. This section is composed of 100 pages of novel cuts and feature articles with layouts and illustrations by James Pickering. The snapshot section fills 24 pages of the book and in the arrangements of photographic cuts in the sorority and fraternity sections a new plan has been followed. This change in style and (Continued on Page 4.)

DANCING CLASS WILL HOLD LAST MEETING

Success Makes Staff Plan To Continue Project Next Year.

The last social dancing hour will be held Saturday evening from 7:30 to 9 o'clock in the women's gymnasium, it was announced yesterday.

These regular Saturday evening dances have been conducted by the social staff of the Y. W. C. A. and were sponsored by the physical education department. A regular charge of 10 cents has been made in order to buy a radio-phonograph combination which has been used to furnish music for the affairs.

Only a small portion of the cost of the machine remains unpaid, members of the staff said yesterday. It is planned to continue the social dancing classes next year.

BENGTSON IS HONORED BY GEOGRAPHY GROUP

Nebraska Professor Named To National Committee In World Union.

Prof. N. A. Bengtson, head of the geography department of the University of Nebraska, has been appointed one of a committee of seven of the National Committee of the United States in the International Geographical Union. The appointment is an honor and credit to Professor Bengtson because the most eminent geographers of the world are in the international union.

Some of the other men to be appointed on the committee include Professor Whittlesey, Harvard; Professor Platt, Chicago; and Professor Finch, Wisconsin. The union is an international organization with committees for each country. The members of the committee serve for four years.

The committee will be in charge of and will manage the international congress of the union which will hold in 1933. The site for the congress has not been chosen but it is thought that it may be held in the United States.

Sigma Upsilon Will Meet Sunday Night

Sigma Upsilon, honorary literary society, will meet at 7 o'clock Sunday evening for the final time this year. The meeting will be held at the Tau Kappa Epsilon house.

Important business will be taken up at the meeting, according to officers of the group. Only initiated members will attend the meeting.

(Continued on Page 2.)

CRAWFORD BOOK ADOPTED

Pulitzer School Journalism Uses Nebraskan's Text In Class Work.

"The Magazine Article," a book written by Prof. R. P. Crawford, assistant to the chancellor of the university, has been adopted as a text in the Pulitzer School of Journalism at Columbia university, according to word received in Lincoln.

Adoption of a book in this school is considered an unusual endorsement since very few books are used there, owing to the eminence of members of the faculty in various fields of journalism. The book was placed in use this spring in the advanced class of Prof. Walter B. Pitkin, himself an author of note.

100 TAKE PART IN JUDGING CONTESTS

Webster, Lenger, Cox Win In Meats and Grain Competition.

Jay Webster, Dalton; Lea Lenger, Beatrice, and Thomas Cox, Cedar Rapids were declared winners in the annual student meats and grain judging contests held on the college of agriculture campus Saturday. Nearly one hundred students participated in the contests.

Lea Lenger topped high honors in the girls division of the meats judging and identification contest. Ruby Newberry of Lincoln was second, Louis Hornung of Roca, third, and Georgia Wilcox of Scottsbluff, fourth. Miss Lenger was also the high individual in the identification part of the contest while Georgia Wilcox won the judging decision. Miss Wilcox won both the pork and lamb carcass judging while Ruby Newberry was the high scorer in beef carcass judging.

The girls judged five carcasses of meat and identified twenty-five cuts in the contest. In addition to identifying the cuts, the girls were required to describe the table preparation for each. The Lincoln packers and branch houses co-operated in furnishing facilities for the meats contest.

Cox Takes First. In the boys' division of the meats judging contest, Thomas Cox of Cedar Rapids was the high individual scorer. La Vern Gingrich of Fairfield ranked second and C. W. Hickman of Moscow, Idaho, third. The boys judged nine carcasses. George Harrison of Havelock won the beef section, Howard Ratekin of Rulo the pork division and C. W. Hickman the lamb carcass judging. Prof. William J. Loeffel of the animal husbandry department at the college had charge of both divisions of the meats judging and identification contest.

Jay Webster of Dalton copped the Tri-K agronomy club cup when he won high individual honors in the identification and judging contest in grains. Lorenz Bredemeyer was second, Norris Enders third, Paul Lemon fourth, and Lester Prokrap, fifth.

In the identification of common (Continued on Page 2.)

MISS MASON WORKS ON HOME PROBLEMS

Home Economics Instructor Attends Chicago Meeting On Housing Methods.

Miss Mary Nelson, head of the housing and equipment division of the home economics department, attended a meeting of the committee on "Kitchens and Other Centers," held at the Stevens hotel, Chicago, Ill., last Saturday. This committee of which Miss Mason is a member, is a part of the President's Conference on Home Building and Home Ownership.

At this meeting the committee laid plans for its work and assigned individual phases of the work as well as committees to check on investigations already completed, in progress, or which may be set up and completed by November, 1931, when the final results of the committee's work are to be available.

This committee is one of a large number dealing with different phases of home building and home ownership. The persons working chosen from representative sections of the country. Their findings will be brought together in the President's Conference, the exact date of which has not yet been set.

AG VESPERS TO BE HELD TODAY

Ag college vespers will be held today in the home economics parlors, with Marie Hornung in charge. Miss Bernice Miller, secretary of the school Y, will talk on Y. W. C. A. plans for the coming year.

Senior Invitations To Be Distributed

Senior invitations and announcements of graduation are now ready for distribution. It was announced yesterday by Fred Grau, senior president.

The announcements are being distributed at the Co-Op bookstore. It will cost six cents to mail either type of announcement, Grau said. Two cents postage will carry the invitations.

Campus Calendar

Tuesday. Methodist Student council, Temple, 12 o'clock.

Wednesday. A. W. S. board meeting at 12 o'clock at Ellen Smith hall.

Saturday. Social dancing class from 7 until 8:30 o'clock, at the Armory.

RYCKMAN WILL BE INITIATED INTO SIGMA DELTA CHI

Pulitzer Prize Winner to Be Taken Into Local Chapter Thursday.

BANQUET IS PLANNED

Prominent Newspaper Men Of Lincoln and Omaha To Be Guests.

Letter of acceptance to associate membership in Nebraska chapter of Sigma Delta Chi was received yesterday from Charles S. Ryckman, editor of the Fremont Tribune, according to the president of the Nebraska chapter. Ryckman was unanimously voted into associate membership following his winning of the Pulitzer editorial prize.

Ryckman will be taken into the organization at a special initiation Thursday at 3 o'clock, preceding the annual Founders' day banquet in the evening. Plans are being made to have the initiation conducted entirely by alumni members of Sigma Delta Chi. Following the initiation, Ryckman will be formally presented with credentials and an official pin as the high spot of the Founders' banquet.

Invite Prominent Men. Prominent Lincoln and Omaha newspapermen and alumni of Sigma Delta Chi are being invited to the banquet which will be held at the Shrine country club.

A special meeting of Sigma Delta Chi was held in The Nebraskan office late yesterday to complete plans for the initiation and banquet.

Elmont Waite has been placed in charge of transportation, Art Mitchell is taking care of tickets, Gene McKim is heading the committee to invite Lincoln and Omaha pressmen, and Jack Erickson has charge of publicity.

Stories and pictures of the banquet will be forwarded to leading newspaper periodicals over the country and will be carried on the principal wire services.

Admission to the banquet is one dollar.

M'GEACHEN ELECTED TO CAPTAIN RIFLES

Succeeds Gillespie; Other Officers Are Pinkerton, Sawerbrey, Gordon.

Pershing Rifles, at a special meeting held Monday afternoon at Nebraska hall elected James K. McGeachen captain of the organization for next year. McGeachen will succeed Captain Claud Gillespie who led the company in its work this year.

Remaining officers elected were Arthur Pinkerton, first lieutenant, King P. Sawerbrey, second lieutenant, and William E. Gordon, first sergeant.

At five o'clock Thursday afternoon, following government inspection, Pershing Rifles will initiate eight pledges who were selected at a recent tryout. A dinner has been arranged following the initiation ceremony at which time the installation of the new officers will occur.

16 TO TRY BARBERRY ERADICATION WORK

14 Cornhuskers Listed As Summer Workers On Problem.

Fourteen University of Nebraska students and two other state college boys will work over the state as field agents in barberry eradication this summer, according to an announcement made Wednesday evening from the agricultural college by M. E. Yount, assistant leader of barberry eradication in Nebraska.

Men selected for the summer work include Gale Klingman, Harlan Bollman, Phil Taylor, Lawrence Rohrbach, Keene Ludden, Albert Ebers, Glen Feather, Perry Rainey, Sam Stewart, Ralph Bush, Chris Mathis, Jesse Livingston, Ray Hile, Greth Dunn, Arthur Peterson and Walter Marshall. All are from Nebraska, except Taylor and Rohrbach.

Have Four Groups. The field agents will be divided into groups of four as in previous years, Yount says. Lawrence Rohrbach, Glen Feather, Ralph Bush and Ray Hile will be squad leaders.

Work on barberry eradication (Continued on Page 3.)

Accepts Honor

Charles S. Ryckman, Fremont Editor who won the Pulitzer prize for the best newspaper editorial writing in 1930. He has accepted the invitation of Sigma Delta Chi to become an honorary member of the organization. Elaborate plans are being made for the occasion.

PRAIRIE SCHOONER TO HAVE VARIED STORIES

Well Balanced Contents of Articles, Essays and Poems Feature.

GILBERT DOANE WRITES

The Spring issue of the Prairie Schooner magazine which is about ready to come from the press, contains an exceptionally well balanced contents, including short stories, articles, features, essays, and poems.

Among the stories are "Portrait in a Metronomic Mood," by Arista E. Fisher; "Easy Virtue," by Grace Stans Coates; Kelsey Kitchin's "The Inca Road"; "The Meeting," from the pen of George Albee, and Albert Halper's contribution, "The Oldest Brother."

A poem "Small Town" is by Phyllis B. Morden while "Wisdom of Sorts" has been written by Billy B. Cooper. Loren C. Eiseley, a student in the university, has contributed "For a Lost Home" while "Love Song" was composed by Barbara Hollis. "Footblack in a Barber Shop" is by Herbert Henegan. Rosa Z. Marinoni is represented by two poems.

Doane Writes. "Election Night—1885" comes from the pen of Elizabeth W. Cosgrove, while Gilbert H. Doane is represented in this issue of the magazine by an article on "Driving Home from the Office." Librarian Doane has also contributed his "Bibliana" which is a regular feature in the Prairie Schooner.

Another "two timer" is Prof. L. C. Wimberly who has written "Men Without Books" and also, as editor, has contributed the "Ox Cart."

Paul E. Pendleton traveled to the West Virginia mountains for material for his "Wood Hick Lingo." Another sketch is "A Pioneer Woman" from the pen of Russell L. Jackson. The "Crossroads" is the Schooner's challenge to the world that a magazine of the type it is can print poems of worth even if they are not paid for, the editor said.

William F. Thompson is the author of his regular feature "The Dog in the Manger."

MISS VERA RIGDON ACCEPTS POSITION IN DELTA COLLEGE

Miss Vera Rigdon, graduate student working toward her Ph. D. degree in the department of geography, has accepted a position as chairman of the geography department at the Delta Teachers college in Cleveland, Miss. She will begin her new work Sept. 1. During the summer vacation she will teach at the University of Nebraska after which she will conduct a group of advanced geography students on a study tour thru western Europe.

PHI U. O. HONORS SENIORS AT MAY BREAKFAST FETE

The annual May Morning breakfast was given Sunday morning as a farewell to the seniors of Phi Upsilon Omicron at the home of Miss Christine Carlson, 3147 South Fortieth. The twenty-four who attended the affair were seated at one long table on the lawn. Garden flowers were used to decorate the table. After the breakfast the time was spent informally.

Bancroft Suffers Second Attack Of Rare Fungus Infection Which He Contracted in Research Work

OMAHA.—Paul M. Bancroft, '29, instructor in the University of Nebraska medical school, is gravely ill in the university hospital with the second attack of a strange malady, contracted while he was doing research work.

The disease is known as granuloma coccidioides, and generally is fatal. Bancroft was first taken ill with the disease four years ago when he was working at the University of Pennsylvania. He recovered at that time, his recovery being the first in history.

The disease, which is very rare, is caused by a fungus, the coccidioides immitis. It was while working with this fungus that Bancroft first contracted the disease.

Bancroft is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. William D. Bancroft of Lincoln, who said yesterday that his son's present illness is slight as compared with that of four years ago. The Rev. Mr. Bancroft predicted that his son would be up and well within a few days.

The Rev. Mr. Bancroft lives at 1137 North Thirty-third street. He is Baptist pastor.

FACULTY UPHOLDS COUNCIL DECISION ON BARB OUSTING

Approves Disqualification of Non-Greeks for Hand Bill Distribution.

FAVORS REPRESENTATION

Holds Party Is Entitled to Two Council Members by Proportion Rule.

Action of the Student council election committee in throwing out the entire Barb faction slate following the circulation of printed handbills at the recent spring election contrary to election rules, was upheld yesterday afternoon by the faculty committee on student affairs.

The committee took unanimous action in upholding the stand taken by the student group. However, the committee expressed the opinion that the Barb faction was entitled to representation on the Student council in accordance with the vote polled by the Barb group. For that reason, they voted that the faction be given two representatives on the council, to be picked by the Barb council. The committee resolution specified that the representatives to be picked must be persons other than the disqualified candidates.

Resolutions Passed. The resolutions as passed by the committee:

Motion 1. The committee resolves that approval be given the action of the election board of the Student council.

Motion 2. Believing that the non-fraternity students have a right to representation on the Student council in accordance with the vote cast and believing that the present candidates were disqualified by the action of a small group who violated the University senate rules on elections, the committee on student organizations recommends that the vacancies so created be filled by others than the disqualified candidates and that this be done by the Barb faction in accordance with Article 7 of the Student council constitution." Carried.

Hear McGaffin. The committee also heard William McGaffin, as representative of the Student council, present a request for a change in eligibility rules for activities. The committee ruled the discussion until next fall, feeling that further investigation was necessary.

Members of the faculty committee are: Prof. E. F. Schramm, representative of the Interfraternity council; Prof. L. E. Aylsworth, representative of the Barb council; John K. Selleck, director of student activities; T. J. Thompson, dean of student affairs; Miss Elsie Ford Piper, dean of women; Prof. Earl W. Lantz, representative of the Student council; Prof. E. H. Harboush, Prof. Frank E. Henzlik, Prof. Earl S. Fullbrook, Prof. H. P. Davis, Dr. Elda Walker, representative of the PanHellenic council; and Mrs. J. F. Thompson, representative of the A. W. S. board.

4-H CLUB TO BE HOST TO NEBRASKA GROUP

Harlan Bollman Announces Plans for Entertaining 400 Visitors.

The University of Nebraska 4-H club is planning on helping to entertain the 400 Nebraska club members who gather at the agricultural college next week for the annual club week. Harlan Bollman announced preliminary plans for the program this morning.

Bollman says the university club will entertain the rural visitors on Monday evening in the student activities building. A program consisting of music, stunts and games is being planned. In addition L. C. Obryles of Lincoln will appear on the evening program. There is also a possibility that the Perkins family of radio fame at the college may appear as a feature skit of the program. Bollman was conferring with Extension Editor Lux about the Perkins family stunt on Monday evening.

Bancroft Suffers Second Attack Of Rare Fungus Infection Which He Contracted in Research Work

OMAHA.—Paul M. Bancroft, '29, instructor in the University of Nebraska medical school, is gravely ill in the university hospital with the second attack of a strange malady, contracted while he was doing research work.

The disease is known as granuloma coccidioides, and generally is fatal. Bancroft was first taken ill with the disease four years ago when he was working at the University of Pennsylvania. He recovered at that time, his recovery being the first in history.

The disease, which is very rare, is caused by a fungus, the coccidioides immitis. It was while working with this fungus that Bancroft first contracted the disease.

Bancroft is the son of the Rev. and Mrs. William D. Bancroft of Lincoln, who said yesterday that his son's present illness is slight as compared with that of four years ago. The Rev. Mr. Bancroft predicted that his son would be up and well within a few days.

The Rev. Mr. Bancroft lives at 1137 North Thirty-third street. He is Baptist pastor.