BEGIN CAMPAIGN TO SELL STAMPS FOR HOMECOMING

Associated Women Students Undertake Sale of 'N' Stamps.

WILL CANVASS HOUSES
Evelyn Simpson, Chairman of Sale, Asks All to Purchase.

In an effort to stimulate spirit and arouse enthusiasm among both students and alumnae for homecoming on Oct. 24 the A. W. S. board is now promoting its annual concerted sales campaign of the traditional "N" stamps. The "N" stamps are to be placed on all literature going thru the mails, especially to alumnae, to make homecoming a success.

The annual campaign got under way last week when all freshmen representatives of various sororities began to canvass business houses in the name of the Associated Women Students board. The board has reported that the merchants are co-operating with it and that they have been supporting the campaign in such a manner as to indicate that they are as anxious for an enthusiastic homecoming as are the students.

The board, in its campaign, has placed one active member in every sorority. This member is to manage the stamp sales in her respective house.

Will Canvass Houses.

Fraternities, as well as sororities, will be canvassed if the program is successful.

WILL PRESENT TALKS ON FOREIGN AFFAIRS

Dr. J. Wm. Terry Makes His First Appearance Tomorrow.

Speaking to members of the faculty and student body on matters of world political prominence, Dr. J. William Terry, managing editor of the League of Nations Chronicle, and active in political affairs throughout the country, will be in Lincoln this week.

"Russia and the League of Nations" will be the subject of his talk given in connection with the World Forum and will be related with the series of discussions now held at the meetings of this organization. This series was started two weeks ago and four meetings remain after the Wednesday talk.

His first appearance will be at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, when he will meet with the upper class commission in Ellen Smith hall. There will be room for visitors desiring to hear his talk.

At 5 o'clock, Dr. Terry will speak at the meeting of the Y. W. C. A. on Gandhi.

Tassels Will Meet Thursday Evening

The regular meeting of Tassels has been changed from tonight to Thursday evening at 7:30 at Ellen Smith hall on account of the Pan-Hellenic banquet this evening, according to Juliette Deetkin.

BENGSTON GOES ON TOUR

Geography Head Scheduled Speak in Minnesota, North Dakota.

Dr. Nels A. Bengtson, chairman of the department of geography, will leave Tuesday to address four groups in Minnesota and North Dakota on the topic, "The Old and the New in Caribbean America." He will speak Wednesday at the State Teachers college at Moorhead, Minn., and to the State Teachers college at Valley City and at Mayville, N. D., Thursday. An additional talk on "The Contribution of Geography to High School Science" will be given before the Minnesota State Teachers association at Crookston Friday. Dr. Bengtson will return to Lincoln a week from today.

AWGWAN TO APPEAR ON CAMPUS LATE IN WEEK, EDITOR SAYS

Material for First Issue Being Printed Now; Cover Received.

The first issue of the Awgwan for the 1931-32 school year will appear on the campus the last of this week, Marvin Robinson, editor, announced yesterday. The cover, designed by James Pickering, was received from the engravers in New York the last of the week and the rest of the magazine is being printed now.

There are many special features in this number, including the work of some famous authors and artists according to Robinson. The last contribution, received Monday morning, is a cartoon by Herbert Johnson, who with Ding, of the Des Moines Register, is rated as one of the best political cartoonists in this country.

Johnson, who is now drawing for the Saturday Evening Post, is a University of Nebraska graduate, and has gained a wide reputation throughout this country with his unusual cartoons.

Another of the features of this number is a story by an author

SKIT DEADLINE APPROACHES ON MORNING REVUE

Acts Must Be Submitted To Kosmet by Five O'clock Today.

JUDGES REVIEW WORK
Final Selections for Show Will Be Effected Later.

This afternoon at 5 o'clock is the deadline for submission of skits for the Kosmet Klub morning revue. According to club members, a number of skits have been presented but there is still room for a few more.

Anyone wishing to submit an act for the show, which is to be presented Saturday morning, Nov. 7, may see a representative of Kosmet Klub in the club rooms, west side of the Annex building, between 2 and 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Kosmet Klub will hold a special meeting at 5 o'clock tonight to review the skits which have been submitted. All organizations and individuals who have entered acts are requested by the club to begin rehearsing at once so as to get them in shape for the Kosmet Klub judging committee.

Commence Judging.
Judging of the acts will commence either this evening or tomorrow. Some of the organizations have been practicing their acts ever since submitting them a week or so ago. These will be in good enough shape so that the judges can view them at once and form an opinion of their merit.

All acts will be seen by the Kosmet judges and the best chosen for the morning revue. Eight or nine acts will be selected to make up the show which is to run about two hours.

The judges expect to finish their reviewing work by the end of this week, if possible, in order to give

JOURNALISM GROUP PLANS FOR ANNUAL PUBLICATIONS MEET

Theta Sigma Phi Sponsors Dinner at University Club This Month.

The annual Journalism dinner sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi, women's honorary journalism sorority, will be held Thursday, Oct. 29, at the University club, according to announcement made by Roseline Pizer, president of that organization.

The dinner which has come to be a tradition in the school of journalism, is given chiefly for students in that school but is open to all who are interested.

Prof. Gayle C. Walker, director of the school of Journalism, says of the banquet: "I heartily approve the plan of Theta Sigma Phi for the annual journalism dinner. The occasion furnishes opportunity for publications workers, members of the school of journalism, and others interested in various phases of journalistic work to make new friendships and to renew old ones, and to gather in festive spirit for

Feature Writer Dwells on Virtues Of Slickers, Ponchos, Raincoats, As Steam Heat Inspires Reflection

BY IDA HOZENOZZLE.

I sit at my typewriter and absorb the stolid comforting warmth of a steam heated room. It sort of envelopes and walls me in. It is very pleasant and soothing to my cold shivering limbs. It has a reflective influence—I am moved to rant on at leisure.

People walk past my window. Most of them are wearing rain coats of some size, shape or form—all sizes, all shapes, all forms. Some of them are wearing thick silk raincoats, some of them are wearing cloth rain proofs, some of them are wearing heavy shiny trench coats, and some of them—quite a number of them—sail by in glistening yellow slickers.

There is much to be said in favor of thick silk raincoats. They are thick and they are silk. They are exquisitely lined, and they cling in sophisticated folds to one's body. They look elegant, and remote, and quite desirable. They are thick and silk, and they cost anywhere from twenty to thirty dollars.

There is quite a lot to be said in favor of cloth rain proofs. They are trim and snooty looking. They are business like and conservative. They are snug and fitted. They

EDIT NATIONAL MAGAZINE

Wesley Players in Charge October Issue of 'Footlights.'

The October issue of "Footlights," national publication of Wesley Players, will be issued by the local chapter about Oct. 15, according to George Dunn, '32, who is associate editor. He is being assisted by Lloyd Watt, '33, Livingston.

This number will include an article on religious drama by Prof. F. A. Stoff, of the University Department of English. Reports from the various chapters, and a message from the president of the organization will complete the contents.

FRESHMAN GROUP CHOOSES OFFICERS; OUTLINES PROGRAM

Alice Geddes Is President; Misses Becker, Lyon, McLeese Elected.

Members of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshmen scholastic honorary for women chartered on this campus last year by Mortar Board society, have met to elect new officers and plan a definite program for the year. This program begins with a fall initiation of those freshmen women who made an average of 90 percent both semesters of last year.

New officers are: President, Alice Geddes; vice president, Kathleen Becker; secretary, Evelyn Lyon; treasurer, Doris McLeese; and faculty advisor, Miss Winona Perry. A delegate to the national convention which is being held this year at DePauw university, Greencastle, Ind., Oct. 30 and 31, will be appointed within the week.

Chartered Last Year.

The Nebraska chapter of Alpha Lambda Delta was chartered last year by active members of Mortar Board who sponsor the organization. Eligibility is based entirely on scholarship and all freshmen women who attain a 90 percent average for the first semester of (Continued on page three.)

FIVE STUDENTS MAKE REQUESTS OF COMMITTEE

Rhodes Scholarship Group Takes Applications for Scholarship.

CHAIRMAN GIVES NAMES

Bartels, Huber, Seymore, Kube, Gund File With Dr. Oldfather.

Five students of the university applied for the Rhodes scholarships this year according to Dr. C. H. Oldfather, chairman of the University Rhodes Scholarship committee. They are Russell V. Bartels, Wayne; Walter Huber, Irvington; Harold Kube, Buffalo, Wyo.; Victor Seymore, Lincoln; and Henry Gund, Blue Hill.

This year the forty-eight states will be divided into eight districts of six states each. The university is allowed to select five applicants whose names are then submitted to the state committee. The state committee is allowed to nominate two men to appear before the district committee. The district committee will select from the twelve candidates appearing before them the best four to represent their states at Oxford. A state may then receive two scholarships or none, in accordance with the merits of the candidates. Rhodes scholars elected in December 1931 will enter Oxford in October, 1932.

Must Be Men.

In order to be eligible for these scholarships the applicant must be a male citizen of the United States and unmarried between the (Continued on Page 3.)

PANHELLENIC GROUP FOR LOWER RENTALS

Vote to Appoint Committee To Work for Cheaper Ballroom Rates.

The Pan-Hellenic council voted to appoint a joint committee to act with a committee from the Interfraternity council in an attempt to get the prices of orchestras and rental on local hotel ballrooms lowered, at their meeting Monday afternoon in Ellen Smith hall. The organization agreed to act according to the report of the committee, according to Julia Simanek, president of the council.

The committee will be appointed in the near future and will make its report at the next council meeting to be held the first Monday in November, stated Miss Simanek.

Miss Simanek and Elizabeth Barber, secretary of the council, were elected delegates to the national convention of Pan-Hellenic to be held in St. Louis, Mo., from Oct. 27 to 30, the week end of the Missouri-Nebraska football game. This is the first time that active (Continued on Page 3.)
