MALE STUDENTS BALLOT TUESDAY ON SWEETHEART

Student Council Supervises Vote on Kosmet Klub Honor Girl.

ELECTION IS IN TEMPLE

Outcome to Be Kept Secret Until Presentation During Revue.

Following the strictest eligibility requirements as described by university authorities, Kosmet Klub will bring Nebraska Sweetheart fillings to a close at 12 o'clock noon, Saturday. Junior and sophomore girls only are eligible for this honor, according to a new ruling made by Kosmet Klub this year.

Tuesday, Oct. 20, has been set as the election date of the sweetheart. Polls will open in the Temple station at 9 o'clock and remain in operation until 5 that afternoon. The entire election, including the counting of ballots, will be closely supervised by the student council. Only male students may vote for the sweetheart.

Many Skits Submitted.

Twenty-three acts, the largest number in the history of Kosmet, have been submitted to the club for the morning revue in which the Nebraska sweetheart will be announced and crowned. A wealth of material is represented in these acts, according to Kosmet Klub members, and the eight or nine best will be selected for show.

Reviewing of the acts will commence Monday evening. Each organization or individual having an act will be called and notified of the time of review. A special committee of Kosmet Klub members has been chosen to judge all the acts and to pick the best for the show. These men, who will be announced in this paper later, are all qualified from past experience and individual talents to judge and criticize the acts, according to officers of Kosmet Klub.

Will Review Acts.

As a result of fairness will be exercised in reviewing and selecting the acts, the officers say.

The fillings for sweetheart will be announced in the Sunday edition of this newspaper. From advance information, Kosmet Klub has predicted the filling of several of the most representative women students on the campus. A number of the best and most powerful sororities at Nebraska will bid for honors, it is claimed. This will all be made public after the fillings, in the Sunday paper.

OVER HUNDRED GIRLS ATTEND HOME EC TEA

Miss Margaret Fedde Talks To Group Thursday In First Meet.

Over one hundred girls attended the first tea of the school year held by the Home Economics Association in the home economics building on the agricultural college campus Thursday afternoon. The association plans more teas later in the year.

Miss Margaret Fedde, head of the home economics department, welcomed the girls to the tea in a short talk. Helen Hengstler gave a piano solo and Lorraine Brake rendered a vocal solo. Those in the receiving line included Carolyn White, Hazel Benson, Ruthalyn Holloway and Miss Caroline Ruby. Marian Lynn, chairman of the social committee, was in general charge of the tea. Valentine Klotz headed the publicity committee while Bernice Preston was chairman of the program committee. Hazel Benson is president of the association.

Hill Says America Shows Desire to Cooperate With League of Nations

By JACK ERICKSON
Editors Note: This is the second of a series of articles of faculty opinions on current political and economic questions. Today's article follows an interview with Dr. Norman L. Hill, associate professor of political science. It is on:

The Sino-Japanese Affair, as seen by Norman L. Hill, Ph. D.

From an American viewpoint an important angle of the Japanese-Chinese trouble in Manchuria is that the United States has signified its desire to cooperate with the League of Nations Council in effecting an agreement between two foreign warring nations. That is the opinion of Professor Norman L. Hill of the political science department.

Another important consideration, according to Professor Hill, is that it shows that United States interest in far eastern politics is still as alive as ever.

"For some years this country has occasionally taken part in questions arising out of politics in the far east," explained Professor Hill. "We were instrumental in restoring Shantung to China and we have also been closely connected with the progress of the open-door policy there."

As concerns the question of international relations which has arisen out of the Manchurian complication, Professor Hill had the following to say:

THIEVES ROB FRATERNITY

Phi Kappa Psi House Is Entered Thursday Morning; Many Articles Lost.

Thieves entered the Phi Kappa Psi house at 1546 S. Thursday morning about 3:30 o'clock and stole many valuable articles. The theft was discovered about 7 o'clock Thursday morning by William McEachron, who immediately spread the alarm to the other members of the house. After a check of missing articles the police were called.

It was discovered in the checkup that $20.00 in cash, a wrist watch, two new suits of clothes, and numerous other articles were missing. Police are investigating the case.

AWGWAN BLOCKS MUST BE TAKEN BY NEXT TUESDAY

Sigma Delta Chi Declares Discount Goes Off On That Date.

HOUSES NOT SUPPORTING

Journalism Society Asserts More Subscriptions Are Necessary.

Members of Sigma Delta Chi, men's professional journalism society, met last night at the Sigma Phi Sigma house where plans for the year's activities were discussed and the following resolution was adopted:

All fraternities or sororities wishing to take a block of subscription to the Awgwan must signify their intentions by eight o'clock Tuesday evening, October 20, if they wish to get the 10 percent cash discount.

The group, meeting under the leadership of William McGiffin, of Peak, president, emphasized that fraternity and sorority support of the humor magazine through subscriptions has been poor. It appeared that a wider subscription list would be necessary if the magazine is to continue publication. The first issue of the Awgwan, "Celebrity Number" will go on sale on the campus next Wednesday under Sigma Delta Chi sponsorship.

YEAR BOOK CONTINUES URGE PICTURES TAKEN

Detrick Says Photographs Must Be Paid for At Studio.

Cornhusker officials are seeking to impress upon the minds of the students that all individual pictures for the year book are wanted at once. This includes the pictures of all juniors and seniors and the members of fraternities and sororities.

There seems to be some misunderstanding among the students in regard to paying for the pictures. The price, $4.50 for junior and senior pictures to be used also in the fraternity or sorority sections; $4.00 for junior or senior pictures; and $1.50 for fraternity or sorority pictures, is to be paid to the photographer when the picture is taken.

Response to the efforts of the Cornhusker staff to get these pictures taken has been fair, although it has not been what was expected. The responsibility of getting the pictures taken rests individually with each student but the Cornhusker is doing everything possible to include everyone, say the editors.

SOCIAL DANCING CLASSES BEGIN FRIDAY EVENING

A social dancing class will be held at the woman's gymnasium Friday night from 7 to 8:30 o'clock. This gives a chance for all freshmen to learn to dance. The charge is ten cents. Miss Caroline White of the Y. W. C. A. social staff will be in charge, and the members of the physical education staff will be the teachers.

Due to the success of the dancing classes last year Y. W. C. A. are sponsoring the dances again this year. All who are interested are invited to come.

Kosmet Klub Will Close Sweetheart Filings Saturday

All applicants for Nebraska Sweetheart must be either Juniors or Sophomores in the university so that they may return the following year to preside at the Kosmet Klub Revue as the queen. The deadline for filing has been set at Saturday noon and the election will be held Tuesday at the Temple building under the supervision of the student council. Arthur Pinkerton and James Douglas are co-chairmen of the Kosmet committee on the selection of the Nebraska Sweetheart. Only male students may vote.

RHODES SCHOLARSHIP CANDIDATES.

Eugene Robb, Victor Seymour, Walter Huber, Henry Gund. These four men together with Russel W. Bartels whose picture does not appear here, were selected yesterday as the University of Nebraska candidates in this state for the Rhodes scholarship.

SIXTETEN REPORT FOR FIRST TRYOUTS OF HUSKER GLEE CLUB

Director Announces Second Chance for Aspirants Tonight at 7:30.

Sixteen students were present at the first of a series of two tryouts for membership in the University Glee Club, held last night in the school of music. The last tryout will be held tonight at seven-thirty. All those who wish to try out should call the school of music for an appointment. Harold Hollingsworth, director of the club, stated. The glee club is to be re-organized again this fall after two years of inactivity.

It is planned to select a glee club of about twenty-four men, Hollingsworth said. Rehearsals for the club will be held three or four times a week. The time will be set after the group is organized and a time suitable to all can be agreed upon.

Membership in the glee club should interest anyone who likes to sing. Hollingsworth declared. "Radio station KFAB plans to broadcast the programs of the group as soon as it is well organized." (Continued on Page 2.)

TODAY MARKS ANNUAL FALL ROOTER'S EVENT

Several Hundred Farmers to Attend Annual Show On Ag Campus.

BURR GIVES WELCOME

Several hundred Nebraska farmers are expected at the agricultural college today for the annual fall Rooter's Day. Prof. William J. Loeffel, who is in general charge of the program, announced Thursday night that the original program remained intact with but one minor exception.

Exhibition of experimental livestock is expected to be one of the main attractions for the visitors. Experiments have been run with sheep, cattle and hogs at the college and the results will be announced today. Other cattle and sheep which will go on test soon will also be on exhibition.

Prof. H. J. Gramlich, head of the animal husbandry department, is scheduled to preside over the Friday program. Ed Janike is the first speaker on the morning program and is followed by E. B. Lewis. Others on the morning program include Prof. H. C. Filley, Dr. S. W. Alford, Prof. M. A. Alexander and Prof. R. R. Thalman.

Dean Burr of the agricultural college will start the afternoon program off with a welcome to the visitors. W. W. Derrick is to tell of his experiences over the state in hog lot sanitation while M. L. Baker will tell about experiments conducted at the North Platte station. Prof. William J. Loeffel and Prof. H. J. Gramlich also appear on the afternoon program.

GRAD LEAVES FOR PANAMA

Captain Turner, '24, Or- dered to Report for Duty In Canal Zone.

Captain James H. Turner, who graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1924 with A. B. and Doctor of Medicine degrees, has been ordered to report to the governor of the Panama Canal Zone for immediate duty. After graduating from Nebraska Captain Turner enrolled for further studies in the Army Medical School, from which he graduated in 1929.

Captain Turner was relieved from duty at Fort Sam Houston, Texas, and his new orders call for a departure from New York City on or about December 11 when he will board an army transport bound for the Canal Zone.

ABANDON BONFIRE PLAN

Innocents Say No Place Available for Usual Ceremony.

There will be no Homecoming bonfire this year according to an announcement made by the Innocents society yesterday. All available places where a bonfire might be staged are too far from the campus and the old drill field is being converted into a new mall and grass has been sown. This is the first time in a number of years that the old bonfire tradition has not been carried out and other plans are being made by the Innocents society.

HUSKER DAIRY TEAM VICTOR AT ST. LOUIS

Nebraska Judges First in National Show; Bush High Man.

SPEAK OVER RADIO NET

The University of Nebraska dairy judging team won the collegiate judging contest held in St. Louis this week in connection with the National Dairy show, according to word received Thursday by Prof. H. P. Davis. Twenty-three teams competed in the contest.

Dale Bush, member of the Nebraska team, was the high ranking individual in the contest. He scored 1,431 points out of a possible 1,600 points to carry away top honors in the contest. Victor Rediger and Jay Pierson were the other members of the team. Ellis Hutchinson served as alternate.

The Cornhusker team ranked third on Guernsey's third on Jerseys, fifth on Ayrshire and eight on Holsteins. Prof. R. F. Morgan of the dairy department coached the team. After winning the contest, the Nebraska judges spoke over the NBC network Thursday morning.

RIFLES MEET WITH NEW-PLEDGED MEN

Company Formed at Session Of Drill Honorary Thursday.

With the actives and the newly pledged men assembled for the first time, Pershing Rifles occupied most of the meeting last night with organization of the company. All non-commissioned officers were appointed and the squads were then organized.

First Sergeant William Gordon emphasized the importance of regular attendance. He said that every member must have an excuse for every absence to be presented in writing to Captain Scott, advisor of the company. After three unexcused absences the member is to be dropped from the group.

The first sergeant also announced that both members and pledges are to appear in full uniform at every meeting. Both attendance and appearance in uniform will count toward the Pershing Rifles cup, awarded every spring to the man who has been judged to have done the most for the company.

WOLF REPORTS MARROW, BECK BANDS SIGNED

Two Orchestras to Play Homecoming Dance In Coliseum.

REVUE IS SCHEDULED

Cobs Say Party Tickets Are Selling Fast at Dollar.

Two bands, those of Wally Marrow and Leo Beck, playing alternately from opposite ends of the Coliseum, will be one of the biggest features of the Alumni student Homecoming party as planned by the Innocents society, according to Art Wolf, chairman.

Wally Marrow, with his unit of band and review, will open the party. After playing for twenty minutes, Leo Beck with his enlarged band will continue for the same length of time. After Marrow has finished his third interval of playing, he will arrange the entire unit for the presentation of his review which will last approximately thirty minutes. During the time of preparation, Leo Beck will continue with the dancing program.

Douglass Leads Band.

In endeavoring to give to Lincoln and especially university students, something entirely new, Marrow has recently organized a twelve piece band and a novelty review of 15. The band is being directed by Jimmy Douglass, who has just returned from Europe, where he has been conducting a band from the east. Douglass, university student and member of the Kosmet Klub, is a graduate of the Chicago Conservatory of Music.

This band and review is being organized in such a way to obtain unified results in the presentation of novelties. Marrow, in discussing the merits of his band, said, "After returning from the east where I have been studying combined" (Continued on Page 2.)

HUMOR MAGAZINE TO APPEAR NEXT WEEK

Awgwan Will Go on Sale Wednesday; Cover Causes Delay.

START NOVEMBER ISSUE

After a delay of a few days, the Awgwan, student humor publication, will be placed on sale next Wednesday morning. Failure of the cover to arrive from the engravers in New York in time for binding the magazine this week makes it necessary for this change in date of publication.

Copies will be offered for sale in Social science hall, Teachers college, and at stands about the campus. The Co-op Book Store will also have copies for sale.

Herbert Johnson, one of the country's leading political cartoonists, has furnished a drawing for this issue. This is one of the few cartoons he has done for outside magazines since he has been drawing for the Saturday Evening Post. His cartoons appear every week in that magazine.

Lynn J. Montross, a former Nebraska university student, has written "How to Escape Graduation With Dignity" for the first number of the Awgwan. He writes short stories for College Humor. This is the first time he has ever written unpaid material. For sentimental reasons he has decided to write for the Awgwan. "My first contribution to literature was an alleged joke, timidly submitted to the Awgwan when I was a student." (Continued on Page 2.)

PROFESSORS MAKE STUDY OF NATIVE GRASSES IN AREA

Professors J. E. Weaver and T. J. Fitzpatrick have completed an extensive study of the more important native grasses over an area of 8,500 square miles, centering about Lincoln. The territory studied includes portions of six states, and the research has been in progress for four summers. This paper will appear in The Botanical Gazette early in the spring.

Journalism Instructors Judge Writing Contests

Gayle C. Walker, director of the School of Journalism; Lawrence Pike and S. B. Gass, instructors in the school, acted as judges in seven events of the contests of the South Dakota high school press association meeting held this week. The judging of all the entries was completed yesterday.

Pep Band Tryouts Scheduled Monday

Tryouts and first rehearsal of the Cornet band will be held Monday night at 7:30 in room 203 of the Temple building. All members of the organization who play orchestral instruments are requested to be present, according to Leo Skalski, chairman of the band committee.

Kosmet Show Queen.

Audrey Gregory. Miss Gregory was selected by male students last year as Nebraska sweetheart and this year will reign as queen of the court of Kosmet. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta.

BOARD TO NAME NEW NEBRASKAN EDITOR MONDAY

Successor to Von Seggern Will Begin Duties On Tuesday.

APPLICATIONS CLOSED

Incumbent Forced to Leave School Because of Ill Health.

The publication board will meet Monday afternoon to choose the new editor of the Daily Nebraskan. An announcement has been made that the new editor will begin his tenure of office Tuesday afternoon, and will begin work immediately in the editing of the paper. It has not been revealed how many applicants have been made for the position which was left vacant by the resignation of Boyd Von Seggern who was forced to (Continued on Page 2.)

DEBATE GROUP VOTES AGAINST COLOR BAR

Delta Sigma Rho Opposes National Rule Banning Colored Men.

By a vote of five to four, Delta Sigma Rho last night went on record as favoring the removal of the color bar in their organization. Previous to this time a national ruling has made it impossible for the forensic group to take in colored men, but this action removes that bar.

The organization also decided to sponsor the annual Freshman debate again this year. This event will be held in the near future. Members will also aid in pushing the international debate to be held here with Turkish debaters. Carl J. Merrill heads a committee in charge of the arrangements along this line.

Edwin Faulkner was appointed chairman of a special group to investigate the possibility of having an intramural debate tournament on some live campus question.

Walter Huber, president of the group, stated after the meeting last night that he believed the organization would take a greater part in campus activities than in previous years. "It has always been more or less of a key-granting group, but in the future we plan to take over certain duties in our field," he said.

Daily Nebraskan Starts Campaign for More and Better Singing of Songs

Editor's Note: This is the first of a series on Nebraska songs, their origin, and their history. In this manner, the Nebraskan hopes to acquaint the students with all of the school songs.

BY JEAN SPEISER.

Gather 'round, Cornhuskers; Half of us don't know the words to one or two of our school songs, and very few of us have heard how these songs came to be. What with the depression and all, we can sing while we're waiting for it to lift and we might start in on those we do know, and polish up on the others.

Nebraska songs aren't half sung and a little group practicing might help a good deal. Nebraska songs could hold their own with those of any other college if they were made to sound like something, so let's brush up on those lyrics that are dragged out of seclusion just long enough to receive a weak and very uncertain response, and give them the support they merit.

"There is No Place Like Nebraska." That is the title of Nebraska's most popular song. Students sing it. Grads sing it. And even some folks who never come closer to going to college than the portals of the Memorial stadium sing and love it. It is a song with a philosophy, and Cornhuskers with that spirit of loyalty which characterizes Nebraskans the world over raise their voices to

FIVE SELECTED CANDIDATES FOR RHODES PRIZES

Choice Goes to Bartels, Huber, Gund, Robb and Seymour.

REPRESENT NEBRASKA

Five Will Appear Before State Board Dec. 5 For Tests.

Five students of the university were selected to be considered by the state board of selection for the 1932 Rhodes scholarships. Dr. C. H. Oldfather, chairman of the university Rhodes scholarship committee, and Chancellor E. A. Burnett announced yesterday.

Those selected by the university committee are: Russell W. Bartels, Wayne, senior in law college; Walter O. Huber, Irvington, senior in law college; Henry Gund, '30, Blue Hill; Eugene Robb, '30, Lincoln; and Victor B. Seymour, Lincoln, graduate student.

Bartels attended Wayne teachers college and received an A. B. degree from that school in 1927. Robb received his A. B. degree from Nebraska in 1930. While not in school this year, he took graduate work last year and has since been connected with the editorial department of the Lincoln Star.

Victor Seymour received his A. B. degree from Nebraska last year and has done graduate work for the past two years. Huber attended the University of Omaha for two years. He secured his A. B. degree from Nebraska in 1930. Gund received his A. B. degree from Nebraska in 1930 and is now living in New York City.

Thirty-two Available.

Thirty-two scholarships are assigned annually to the United States. For the election, the states are grouped into eight districts of six states each. There is competition in every state, and in every state a committee of selection will nominate from the candidates applying to it the two best men to appear before the district committee. Each district committee will then select from the twelve candidates four men who will represent their states as Rhodes scholars at Oxford university.

To be eligible for this scholarship, a candidate must be a male citizen of the United States, unmarried, and between the ages of nineteen and twenty-five. In addition he must have completed at least two years in some college or university. Candidates may apply either from the state in which they (Continued on Page 2.)

BAPTISTS SCHEDULE ALL-STUDENT AFFAIR

Dr. J. A. Cooper to Present Leading Address at Church Banquet.

Plans are being made for an all student banquet for Baptists Friday evening, Oct. 23, at the First Baptist church, 14th and K Sts. Dr. J. A. Cooper, of the Missionary Board of Co-operation, New York City, will be the main speaker. Toasts will be given by several students which will be followed by Dr. Cooper's topic, "Just Imagine."

Tickets for this affair, in which all the Baptist churches of the city are co-operating, will be on sale until Wednesday evening, Oct. 21. The price is 40c and all students are invited. Tickets may be obtained from Everett Brockhold, Joe Dennison, Dale Thomas, Herbert Holmes, Marjorie Compton, Jeanette Cassaday, and Theodosia Summers, or by leaving word at the Baptist student house, 1440 Q St., telephone B-4862.
