

SOCIETY

Twelve active members of Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, will be honor guests at a dinner at the University club this evening at 6:15 with Miss Amanda Heppner and Miss Elsie Ford Piper as the hostesses. Miss Mabel Lee, an honorary member of Mortar Board, and members of the advisory board will also be present. Orchid and yellow against a black background will be used as the central theme of the decorations. Small yellow chrysanthemums in black bowls will form the center piece and orchid candles in black holders will further the attractiveness of the tables.

Following the dinner a short business meeting will be held which will include a report of the district convention which was held at Minneapolis, Minn., last Saturday and Sunday. The delegates to the convention were Berneice Hoffman, Jean Rathburn and Gwendolyn Hager.

D. U. Mothers' Club Holds Meeting Monday.

The Mothers' club of Delta Upsilon met at the chapter house Monday for a 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon. Table decorations consisted of rose colored chrysanthemums and blue candles. Thirty guests were present. After the business meeting the mothers enjoyed a general inspection of the new house. The hostesses were Mrs. Caroline Phillips, Mrs. L. B.

Ayers, Mrs. Ralph W. Taylor, and Mrs. Pearl J. Andrews. Chaperones Club Meets At Alpha Chi House.

The chaperones club composed of the fraternity and sorority chaperones on the campus, will meet this afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Bishop at the Alpha Chi Omega house. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Emma Holyoke, Mrs. Dora Finch, Mrs. Clara Baker, Mrs. Maude Moore, Mrs. Ezra Pullman, and Mrs. Fannie Schnell.

Delta Gamma Entertains National Vice-President. Mrs. Joseph W. Bingham, national vice president of Delta Gamma, who arrived Monday afternoon from New York City, en route to her home at Palo Alto, Calif., was honor guest at a dinner Monday evening at which the local chapter of Delta Gamma was hostess. White roses and green candles formed the decorative motif of the dinner tables. This evening the alumnae of Delta Gamma will entertain Mrs. Bingham at a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Genevieve Chapin. Mrs. Bingham will leave Wednesday for her home on the Pacific coast.

The Mother's club of Tau Kappa Epsilon will meet at the chapter house this afternoon at 2:30 for a business meeting. Mrs. H. Kirschner will be in charge.

Edward Filton '31, Lincoln, spent the week end at the chapter house. Filton is located at St. Paul, Minn., and is employed by the Eastman Kodak company.

Vera Reiser, Sioux City, spent the week end at the Chi Omega house.

After all, it's a Townsend's photograph that you want.—Adv.

University Graduate In Botany Succumbs

Word has been received by the botany department of the death of Dr. H. J. Cottle, head of the biology department in Sul Ross State college at Alpine, Tex. Dr. Cottle is a graduate of the University of Nebraska, having taken his doctor's degree in botany in 1930.

Cornhusker pictures are now being taken at Hawk's, 1218 O.—Adv.

SEVEN WOMEN TAKEN INTO FROSH HONORARY

Miss Heppner, Miss Perry And Evelyn West Are Honored.

The fall initiation service of Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman honorary scholastic society, was held Saturday morning at Ellen Smith hall with Alice Gaddes, president, in charge. Freshman women and honorary members who attained an average of 90 percent or above in their freshman year in college, were admitted into the organization.

Honorary members initiated were Miss Amanda Heppner, dean of women, Miss Winona Perry, sponsor of the group, and Evelyn West, Motor Board advisor to the society. Other initiates were Ellen Entenman, Helen Irwin, Laura McAllister and Mrs. Alice Pierson.

Following the service there was a luncheon in honor of the newly initiated members at the University club. Miss Heppner told of the high lights of the trip which she took around the world during the past year. She described many of the wonders which she had wit-

SOCIAL CALENDAR

Friday, Nov. 20.
Acacia house party.
Newman club house party.
Phi Delta Theta, fall party at the Cornhusker.
Chi Omega, house dance.
Lambda Gamma, house party.
Saturday, Nov. 21.
Kappa Kappa Gamma, house party.
Delta Sigma Lambda, house party.
Sigma Nu, house party.
Tau Kappa Epsilon, house party.
Alpha Gamma Rho, house party.
Delta Tau Delta, house party.
Beta Theta Pi, house party.
Sigma Alpha Epsilon, house party.

nessed in the near east and in southern Europe. The active chapter of Motor Board sponsors the society.

Sally Seely Conducts Recognition Service

Sally Seely, senior, will conduct recognition services for Vespers at agricultural college Tuesday afternoon at 12:15 in the economics parlors. Miss Seely is chairman of the membership committee.

STUDENTS PLAN PILGRIM DINNER

First Plymouth Church To Sponsor Annual Meeting.

Celebrating the one hundred tenth anniversary of the first Thanksgiving, university students of First Plymouth church are planning the first annual Pilgrim's dinner to be held at the church Friday at 6:30 o'clock. About seventy-five are expected to attend the dinner. The program will center around the events of the first Thanksgiving in November, 1621. The tradition of the Pilgrims has been preserved in the Congregational church, and holds an especially important place in the background of First Plymouth church.

One of the doorsteps in the old home where the Pilgrims held secret meetings in England, before departing for Holland, forms one of the cornerstones of the new church. It is set in the foundation

"Your Drug Store"

Call us when you need drugs quick. Also snappy lunches or a real box of chocolates.

The Owl Pharmacy
148 No. 14th & P. Phone B-1095

for the open court pulpit on the north side of the court. Any university students who are interested are cordially invited to attend the Pilgrim dinner. Reservations may be made by calling the church office, F8778, before Thursday evening. The price is 50 cents.

Boston Transcript: The world owes everybody a living, but to many persons it seems to have declared a moratorium.

PETE'S CONEY ISLAND LUNCH
Curb Service — Free Delivery
1509 O St. B7896

Mogul Barbers
oftener.
127 No. 12

Hotels and Orchestras Cut Prices They Deserve A Full Measure of Your Patronage

The Silver Ball Room
HOTEL LINDELL

Presents

On Wednesday, Friday and Saturday Nites

THE COLLEGE CROWD IS ENJOYING OUR NEWLY DECORATED BALLROOM

The hotels of this city have agreed to a 20% reduction for use of their party rooms. 12 piece orchestras have agreed to play for $100 for all parties.

These people deserve your co-operation during the coming formal season.

13 PIECES

13 PIECES

Wally Marrow

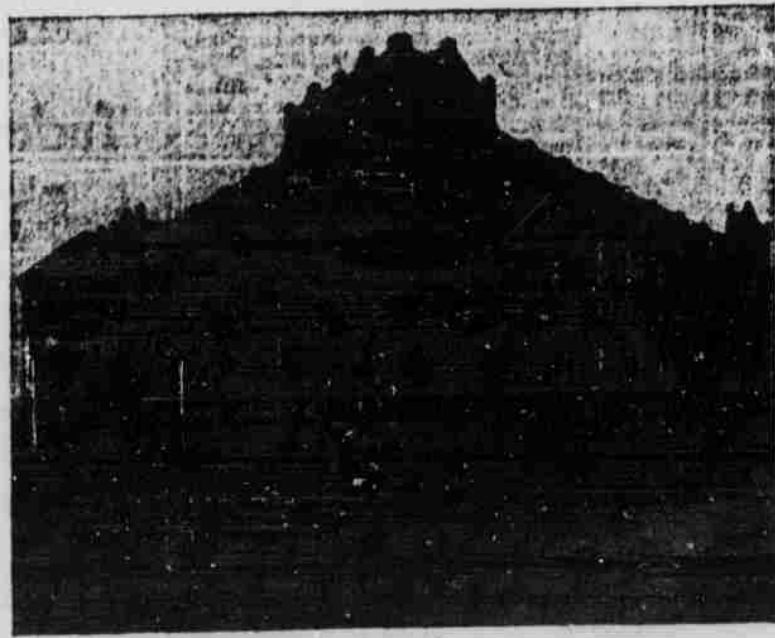

AND HIS ORCHESTRA WITH 13 PIECES

Under Direction of Jimmy Douglass

The band and additional entertainment may be booked as a vaudvil unit.

The finest in professional vocal and dancing entertainment is at your disposal.

Hotel Lincoln

It pleases us to serve the students of the University. When we can co-operate with you we wish to do so.

Your formal will be a great success at the Lincoln "An Eppley Hotel"

EDDIE JUNGBLUTH AND HIS ORCHESTRA.

AFTER ALL

It's The Orchestra That Makes The Affair

HOTEL CORNHUSKER

"Your Social Headquarters" offers you

- The Grand Ballroom for parties of distinction.
- The Tasty Pastry Shop. "Your Daily Rendezvous."
- The Coffee Shop. "Repression" prices.
- The Georgian Room for those delightful Sunday evening dinners with our ensemble.

HOTEL CORNHUSKER

"Under Schimmel Direction"