

LETTERS AWARDED 27 GRIDDERS AT SEASON'S FINISH

Largest Group to Qualify In Many Seasons Says Director Gish.

AWARD FACTORS NAMED

Nine Minor Letters and 21 'B' Team Sweaters Also Issued.

Twenty-seven football men qualified for letters this year, according to Athletic Director Herbert D. Gish. This is the largest group to letter at Nebraska in many seasons, the charity game at Denver giving some an opportunity to add to their playing time.

"Five factors form the basis of award," according to Gish. "Time played, scholarship, service to the team, conduct on and off the field, and athletic ability are all considered. In addition to these requirements, the man must have played 100 minutes and must have participated in three games.

"To be eligible for a minor award, the man must have participated in two games and played less than 100 minutes. In no case is the minutes played made the sole determining factor."

Those receiving major letters are: Jerry Adam, Henry Bauer, Hubert Boswell, Lewis Brown, Bert Durkee, Warren DeBus, Lawrence Ely, Jim Gilbert, Corwin Hulbert, Charles Justice, Robert Joy, Bruce Kilbourne, George Koster, Everett Kreizinger, Bernie Masterson, Norris Nesmith, Gaff O'Brien, Marvin Paul, Harold Petz, Lee Penny, Hugh Pines, George Sauer, Harold Schmitt, Melvin Swanson, Clair Bishop, and Clare Campbell.

Those receiving minor letters are: Robert Manley, Chris Mathis, Jack Miller, John Roby, Carlyle Staab, Harold Holmbeck, Ludwig Gartner, Clarence Nelson, and Warren Scoggins.

Those receiving "B" team numerals are Robert Chase, Marion Scott, Kenneth Lunney, Delmar Bailor, LeRoy Cole, Harry Lefell, John Kerlakodes, Loren Miller, Adam Green, Sterling Wenke, Glenn Jones, Donald Hulbert, Melvin Paul, Frank Mueller, John Yorky, Gerald Barger, Everett Rockhold, Richard Banta, Clair Wilson, Leland Copple, and Jim Milne.

SOONER SEASON HOOP TICKETS SLASHED $1

Season Basketball Tickets Are Reduced in Price, Dispatch Says.

NORMAN, Dec. 14.—Basketball season tickets sold the public to University of Oklahoma games will be cheaper this year, Ben G. Owen, the Sooner athletic director, has decided.

A $1 slash from last year's reduced price for the season ticket was announced today by Owen. The new season ticket will cost but $4 and will admit its purchaser to a reserved seat in the choicest location of the Fieldhouse balcony at each of the eight home games the Sooner cagers play this season. Last year tickets sold for $5.

Owen also pointed out that purchasers of the $7.50 football season ticket last fall may buy the new season basketball duet for only $1.50, as a $2.50 premium for a basketball season ticket is attached to each football season ticket.

"There will be no change in last year's reduced scale on prices to individual games, Owen said. These prices are $1 for box seats, 75 cents for reserved seats, and 50 cents for general admission locations. In 1928, 1929 and 1930 these three types of seat sold for $2, $1.50 and $1 respectively.

Announcement of a new $3 student season athletic ticket, good only for all remaining home athletic contests played by Sooner teams this year, was also made by Owen.

Method Ranks Huskers as Surpassed by Only Four Schools.

Nebraska's 1931 football team ranked high among the other teams in the country according to the rankings made by Azzi Ratem in his system of rating eleven.

Teams who do not play in a regular conference were not rated, thus eliminating eleven like Notre Dame and Pittsburgh. Only conference games are counted.

Utah, Colorado Aggies, Utah Aggies and Colorado U. ranked one, to three, four in the Rockies with North Dakota first in the North Central conference and Temple State grabbing the first championship of the newly formed Border Conference.

The editorial page of Sunday's Daily Nebraskan was more or less overloaded with comment regarding this football situation—all of it favorable to the previously expressed opinion of the Editor.

It seems as if this fight against the country's greatest sport has gone about far enough. Only on one condition should it be continued. If, Mr. Von Seggern, you can give some feasible plan to either replace football or to make a change in the game which will, in your opinion, better it, you will have a right to continue your attack. If not, then it should be stopped.

Up to now the Editor has given a great deal of opinion but no facts. You have named no evil which, in my estimation, warrants a change in the Cornhusker athletic policy. Your claims have been based either upon hearsay or idle chatter.

attacking existing conditions to offer some suggestion or some plan whereby these conditions may be changed. You do not advocate the abolition of football so it is up to you to give something which will make the game and the publicity side of it better.

Another thing, Mr. Von Seggern, regarding your comment upon Dad's Day always being held in conjunction with a football game.

The Azzi Ratem method gives a grade between 52 and 196 for every conference game played. The grade is based upon whether the game was won, lost or tied, the strength of the opponent and, to a limited degree, the difference in score.

AMES CACH SELECTS FIRST GAME LINEUP

Starters Named for Initial Tilt With Brigham Young School of Utah.

AMES, Ia., Dec. 14.—Four veteran Iowa State basketball players will be in the lineup when the Cyclones open their cage schedule here Tuesday night against the highly touted team from Brigham Young university.

Jack Roadcap, captain, and high scorer in the Big Six last year, will team up with Ralph Thomson at the forward posts. Al Heitman, two year veteran at center, will be at the pivot position, and Max Riecke will take his old place at guard.

The Mormons are coming to Iowa State on their second eastern invasion in two years. Last year they bowled over every team they met on their trip with the exception of Michigan State, to whom they lost by one point.

Coach Menze is confident his men are going to break the high scoring spree of the Utah team and refuses to let the scoring records of the Mormons scare him.

He is, however, mindful of the position Brigham Young holds in the west. Known throughout the Rocky Mountain conference area as the "40 points or no pay" system, Coach Ott Romney's style of play produces plenty of scores.

TWO GAMES ON HUSKERS' BOOK THIS WEEK-END

Charley Black Announces First Squad Cut; 17 Remain on Varsity.

MONDAY SESSION HEAVY

Browne's Frosh Teams Give Regulars Trouble in Active Practice.

With two important nonconference games in the offing, Coach Charley Black is taking advantage of last Saturday's disclosures to mould his green material into shape for the rest of the season's games.

Saturday's opener against the stiff competition of South Dakota turned out to be too much for the Huskers, but it gave Coach Black an opportunity to spot the men who will be kept on his varsity squad.

Seventeen players remained after the reduction and were issued varsity equipment. They were:

Forwards: Kenneth Lunney, Walter Henrion, George Sauer, Kurt Lenser, Art Mauch, Frank Crum, Herman Levinson, and Charles Scheinost.

Centers: Wallis Norton, Dawson Wischmeier, and Bob Lackey. Guards: George Koster, Paul Mason, Herbert Hartley, Mutt Davison and Madison Letts.

Monday night's practice was an active one, with the Huskers working on the variable form of a man for man defense that was used against Missouri so well last year.

The two teams on the floor during this period of practice were composed of Henrion, Lunney, Norton, Mason, and Davison on the defensive lineup, and Crum, Scheinost, Lackey, Morley, and Scott taking the offensive.

Frosh Scrimmage Regulars. Coach Brown rounded up two lively teams of freshmen that boistered the regulars considerably in a fast scrimmage. On one division of the varsity were Lenser and Davison, forwards; Letts and Mauch, guards; and Norton, center.

On the other red shirted team were Henrion and Hartley, forwards; Mason and Sauer, guards; and Wischmeier, center. Errors made last Saturday night were brought to light and the correct formations were drilled on.

George Sauer, who is gradually dropping his football tactics, saw much service at the guard position last night and showed up exceptionally well.

Dutch Koster, veteran guard, was kept from scrimmage by an injured finger. While the Husker boosters are meeting the Brigham Young quintet Thursday and the Iowa Hawkeyes Saturday, Koster and Justice, Nebraska's contributions to the West team, will be on their way to encounter the East team in their big charity battle at San Francisco.

BETAS WIN 10-9 IN CLASS A FINAL HOOP TILT WITH S. A. E.'S

A. G. R.'s Defeat Sig Chi's 11-10 for Class B Championship.

Led by a trio of sharpshooters, James Begley, George Wahliquist, and Roger Shall, Beta Theta Pi won over Sigma Alpha Epsilon last night in the final game of class A intramural contests by the close score of 10 to 9.

The game was close and hard fought. The Sig Alphas were leading 9 to 8 with but thirty seconds of play remaining when Begley shot a beautiful arch shot for the deciding points.

The class B championship game was also a thriller, Alpha Gamma Rho defeating Sigma Chi by a close score of 11 to 10. Gerald Schick was the star for Alpha Gamma Rho while Hauthches and Gere led the attack for Sigma Chi.

The two winners, Beta Theta Pi and Alpha Gamma Rho will battle in a curtain raiser for the Nebraska-Brigham Young game Thursday night. The lineups:
