Henrion Plays Fine Floor Game at Center Position for Nebraska; Referee Quigley Calls Twenty Fouls in Rough Court Battle.

By JOE MILLER.

The losing final had the Indian sign on the Huskers and the Blackmen were forced to gulp down a 33 to 32 defeat at the hands of Coach Menze's Iowa State five last night at the coliseum.

Nebraska, behind 18 to 11 at the half, rallied strongly in the final period and with thirty seconds to go were but one point behind. The Cyclone flippers passed the ball around in a successful stall to clinch victory.

What at first promised to be the slowest tilt seen at the coliseum this season developed in the second half into a thrilling, rip-snorting exhibition of basketball, with the Cornhuskers outfighting and outscoring the Ames crew.

High scoring honors for the fray went to Thomson, lanky Iowa State forward who shoved in a quartet of field goals and a pair of free throws. Captain Roadcap registered nine points to take runner-up position, before leaving the game on personals.

Lenser, Henrion, and Davison led the Scarlet attack in the second half bombardment, the Cyclone defense cracking wide open to permit the Huskers to score 21 points.

"Mutt" Davison, guard, signaled his return to the team by playing a dandy defensive game in addition to tying with Lenser for Husker high point honors with six points. Henrion delivered with his usual fine floor game.

Twenty fouls were called by Referee Quigley during the melee, ten on each team. Five of these came in the first three minutes of play, each squad cashing in on a single point.

Coach Charley Black started with his sophomore lineup but they could make no headway against the Cyclone defense the first half. Mauch, Lenser, Henrion, and Davison went in and things began to pick up for the Huskers. Plainly

FROM THE PRESS BOX

SINCE it seems to be an old custom for the sports editor to write a column, I humbly bow to tradition. However it is against my better judgment. The plan is for the column to appear daily, and my only hope is that it will be possible to find something really interesting to write every day.

NOW, as for the name of the column—well, I haven't been able to think of any better that is not already used. At first I thought of starting a contest and offering five dollars ($5.00) for the best name submitted. Perhaps I'd better do that yet!

YOU can't tell Rudy Vogeler that a coach's life is just a bed of roses. The Husker swimming mentor is doing a Gloomy Gil Dobbie these days what with eleven of his tank men either sick or ineligible and the first meet of the season slated for Saturday with Washburn.

IT LOOKS as if Bernie Bierman, new Minnesota coach is trying to steal a march on other schools including Nebraska by starting spring grid practice today. But the boys aren't going to freeze because Minnesota possesses a great indoor practice field. Dirt, too. The Huskers play the Gophers Oct. 15 at Minneapolis.

HARRY FRISCH, all-state full-back from Omaha Tech, has enrolled at Nebraska for the second semester. Frisch, a World-Herald honor selection is a three letter man, lettering in basketball and baseball in addition to the grid sport.

WITH the beginning of the second semester, Henry Schulte and his track stars commence getting in shape for the season's indoor meets. Schulte was quite non-committal, but he finally admitted that the Huskers would have a good track team this spring. Only he said, "pretty good."

JERRY LEE, Husker sprinter, set a new kind of record Saturday. As a means of limbering up muscles, Schulte had his men climb a stout rope suspended from a concrete beam in the stadium. Lee made the 18 or 20 feet in 6.7 seconds.

HAROLD FRAHM, former Nebraska halfback of a season ago has enrolled for the new semester. Harold has finished his competition at Nebraska, but wants to get a diploma.

ALTHO the basketball team has won but one conference victory they have shown one thing that augurs for future success. And that is fight, with double emphasis. Inexperienced and unpolished as yet, the Scarlet cagers give all they have, and that's something! Monday night, Nebraska takes on the Iowa State Cyclones at the coliseum. This is the time that the Huskers trimmed at the start of the season. Let's hope they can do it again.

Nebraska Alumnus Gets Job. Word has been received by Prof. E. F. Schramm that Paul Philipp, '29, has accepted a position as petroleum engineer with the firm, Torrey, Fralich and Simmons, Bradford, Pa., consulting engineers and geologists.

Coll-Agri-Fun Committee Promises 'Big Time' at Annual Ag Festival

BY ARTHUR KOZELKA. "Where is the wandering Coll-Agri-Fun Committee" asked Boyd Von Seggern in an editorial appearing in the Cornhusker Countryman last year. No one answered the query. But things are different this year.

This year's committee is not wandering. . . in fact it has organized one of the best shows that has ever been put on in the college activities building. A rehearsal last Wednesday evening proves it.

The fifty dollar cash prizes have stimulated the students and competition will be keen. Delphian Nash, senior in the college of agriculture, learning that the deadline was last Wednesday night, crashed the rehearsal and, in his characteristic aggressive manner announced before the committee and faculty representatives, "The Y. M. C. A. needs money and I am here to tell you that we are going to put on a rodeo stunt that will reap the first prize of twenty-five dollars." To make matters more humorous on Coll-Agri-Fun night, which is scheduled for Feb. 12, the committee has selected Rueben Hecht for master of ceremonies. Hecht hasn't received national recognition as yet. . . probably because he hasn't endorsed any cigars, but he is funny. And what better quality could a master of ceremonies possess?

"Colored Surgery" is a ten minute skit in which Bill Allington and Glen Burton are the principal characters. In this stunt, Allington, a sick person, seeks the advice and aid of Dr. Burton. "Doc" Burton insists on an operation. It is one of the black faced comedies on the program.

The spirit of Coll-Agri-Fun is so announced on the ag campus

BIG BILL TILDEN WILL PLAY HERE AGAIN IN MARCH

Famous Tennis Star Slated To Play Irish Pro in Coliseum.

Bill Tilden, famous tennis star, and his troupe of three professional racket wielders will play at the university coliseum March 10, according to a recent announcement by the athletic department. It will be Tilden's second appearance in Lincoln, the former Davis cup star playing here last April.

Alberi Burke, Irish pro champion, and two German stars, Nusslein and Nafick, are the players listed on the Tilden roster this year. Although no definite information has been received, it is expected that Burke will oppose Big Bill in the feature singles match of the evening, with Nusslein and Nafick teaming up for the second singles encounter. A doubles match will also be on the program.

Popular prices will prevail for both students and the general public, according to John K. Sellock, business manager of athletics. Reserved seats were priced at $1.50 for last year's matches, $1 for general admission ticket, with student rates of 50 cents and $1.

A crowd of about 2,500 witnessed Tilden's smashing straight set victory last week over Karol Kozelka, the Czech pro. Emmet Pare, young Chicagoan, and Bobby Sellers, California netter, completed the Tilden party.

RIFLE TEAM SET TO MEET CREIGHTON U.

Tentative Schedules Made Public by Military Department.

WILL CHOOSE 13 MEN

A tentative meet with Creighton university rifle team has been arranged for by the military department for Thursday, Feb. 4. The meet will be held in Omaha. A meet with the Union Pacific Rifle League has been scheduled for Feb. 9 at Omaha.

Thirteen men will be chosen from a squad of 43 for the Omaha trip. Nine men will represent the Cornhuskers when they meet the Union Pacific team. The Fort Crook team will come to Lincoln for a match some time in the middle of this month. All of them will be "shoulder-to-shoulder" matches.

The Nebraska team is engaging in a series of postal matches this week against squads of Rose Polytechnical, Kemper Military, Depauw, Presbyterian college and the University of Maryland.

Corps area matches are also being conducted this week. There are 23 schools in this corps area.

Fresh Must Report To Win Cage Awards

Freshmen who expect to earn their basketball numeral must report at least three times per week until the end of the season.

W. H. BROWNE, Freshman Coach.

Nebraska finished in fourth place last year. Trips of the rifle team are financed by proceeds from the military ball. The trip to Omaha will be made in private automobiles.

WRESTLING COACH HAS ONLY FOUR VETERANS

Shirley, Adam, Heady and Smith Are Lettermen Returning.

SOONER MEET SATURDAY

Four veterans furnish the nucleus around which Coach Joe Lehman must build the Nebraska wrestling team this season. Don Shirley, 155 pounder, and Jerry Adam, 165 pounder, are the major letter winners returning, while Glenn Heady, 115 pounder, and E. H. Smith, 145 pounder, are the only minor lettermen back for another fling at the grappling sport.

Since the Huskers have not been tested under fire, their ability is more or less of an unknown quantity at this time. Coach Lehman was deprived of a chance to get a line on his men when the initial meet of the season with Kansas on Jan. 23 was postponed. Lehman hopes to reschedule the Jayhawk outfit later, probably in March.

Tryouts are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday to determine the personnel of the squad that will meet the undefeated Oklahoma Sooners Saturday at Norman. The Oklahoma team vanquished Kansas 24 to 3 and Missouri 21 to 8 in their first two starts.

The Scarlet wrestlers will display their wares at home Feb. 13 against Missouri. Then come matches with Kansas State Feb. 20 at Manhattan and Iowa State at Ames on Feb. 26.

The schedule: Feb. 6—Oklahoma at Norman. Feb. 13—Missouri at Lincoln. Feb. 20—Kansas State at Manhattan. Feb. 26—Iowa State at Ames.

SWIM MENTOR FACES LACK OF TANKSTERS

Sickness, Ineligibility Claim Eleven Men From Squad.

FIRST MEET SATURDAY

With sickness and ineligibility rendering eleven of his varsity swimmers hors de combat, Coach Rudy Vogeler is facing a desperate situation in preparing for Saturday's opening meet with Washburn college at the coliseum pool.

Krause, Waldo, Powell, and Gavin, all lettermen, are included in the list of cripples, while the remainder are sophomore prospects and reserves from last year. Clark Powell, diver and relay man has been absent from practice for a month with a leg infection, while Gavin did not return to school this year. Waldo and Krause are ineligible.

Oddo, breast stroke, and Rood, back stroke submitted to appendix operations during vacation and are definitely out of competition this season.

Elliott, Masterson, Thomas, Eastertday, and Yang have been battling the flu and sinus trouble, but are expected to be in shape for the Washburn meet Saturday.

Six dual meets in addition to the Big Six conference meet here Mar. 5 have been carded for the Husker matadors. Only two of these are with conference foes, Iowa State and Kansas State.

The schedule: Feb. 6—Washburn here. Feb. 8—Drake or Grinnell away. Feb. 9—Iowa State at Ames. Feb. 13—Kansas State at Manhattan (tentative). Feb. 22—Grinnell at Lincoln. Feb. 27—Washburn at Topeka. Mar. 5—Big Six meet at Lincoln.

College Students Honest: Iowa Union Cashes Bad Checks

AMES, Ia., Feb. 1.—Iowa State college students are so honest that it's likely to cost the Memorial Union, student activities headquarters, money.

"It's this way," explains Harold Pride, alumni secretary and manager of the Union. "Students can be trusted. When they ask us to cash checks, we know they have bank accounts to back them up. And because we know that to be true, we've been stuck with bad checks several times by plausible young men who professed to be students but who turned out to be artists instead."

Consequently, cashiers at the Union have been instructed to be very sure of the identity of "students" who bring checks to them.
