BY OLIVER DEWOLF.

Coach Daubert's Iowa State men won the Big Six swimming meet held in the Coliseum pool, on Saturday afternoon with a total of 48 points. Nebraska placed second with 39, Oklahoma third with 23, Kansas U. fourth with 7, and Kansas State, with one lone entrant, failed to tally.

With nine events listed on the program, the Iowa Staters captured five firsts to Nebraska's three. McDonald of Oklahoma scored the Soomers lone first place.

Sammy Amato of Nebraska set a new conference record in the 100 yard free style, clipping two tenths of a second from the record set by McDonald of Oklahoma in 1931. Amato's time for the event was 1:03. McDonald placed third.

The Nebraska 400 yard free style relay team also set a new record when they splintered the time set by the 1931 Iowa State team. The Husker's time was 4:02.3, as compared with 4:12.5, the former record time.

The third record was reset by Frasier of Iowa State in the 440 yard free style. Frasier splashed the yardage for a time of 5:58.2 as compared with his former record of 6:15.

Nebraska Takes Lead.

Nebraska got underway to a flying start with a win in the 400 yard free style relay, but Iowa State forged ahead in the breast stroke, and kept the lead until the diving event, in which Nebraska scored heavily. At that time Rudy Vogeler's men went into the lead with a one point advantage. In the next event, the 220 yard free style, Iowa State iced the meet with a first, third and fourth, to give them a total of 40 points, and in the last event, the 300 yard medley relay again took first honors.

with the Cornhuskers coming in second.

The diving exhibition won by Sutherland of Nebraska, was a pretty duel between Sutherland, and Tuma of Oklahoma. Sutherland held a one point advantage in the required dives, and in the optional, cut the water with a series of pretty dives to give him a total of 128.2. Tuma followed with 115.7. Minor, Nebraska, third with 110.5, and Powell, Nebraska, fourth, with 98.8.

Frasier and Sands, of Iowa State, both former record holders, retained their laurels with wins in their respective events.

A crowd of approximately 250 took in the event. This is the second Big Six conference swimming meet won by Iowa State. Coach Daubert's men taking first honors last year.

GRAPPLERS WIN FROM JAYHAWKS IN FINAL MATCH

Huskies Score Three Falls And Two Decisions to Take Victory.

MEHRINGER GETS FALL

Big Six Champion on Hand To Make Points for Kansas Crew.

Coach Lehman's grapplers closed their season with a 21 to 10 win over Kansas Saturday afternoon at the coliseum. A crowd of 2000 saw the Huskers grab three matches by falls and two by decisions from the Jayhawks.

Well, Nebraska 135 pounder, made his wrestling debut with a fall, pinning Brown with a double reverse arm bar. The time was 8:09. It required only a little over four minutes for Shirley, Scarlet 155 pound veteran, to throw Taylor with half Nelson and body chancery.

Jerry Adam won two falls from Shannon in the 165 pound class. The first fall came in 4:05, the Plattsmouth boy using a body scissors and arm lock. Since he had been given an advantage at the end of the first minute period, Adam was forced to battle for another fall, which he accomplished in two minutes with a body slam. Shannon was knocked out by the force of the fall.

Mehringers Wins. Pete Mehninger, Big Six heavyweight champion, made short work of Corwin Hulbert, pinning the latter in fifty-six seconds. Hulbert was careless in applying a head scissors and his shoulders touched the mat.

Burnett won by a time advantage of 2:05 over Wildemister, 115 pound division, while Ackerman was the victor over Windle, 145 pound matman. Walker, Husker 126 pounder, lost by a fall to Miller in 8:35. Summary: 115 pound: Burnett (N) won decision over Wildemister (K). Time advantage: 2:05. 126 pound: Miller (K) won fall over Walker (N). OMAHA—Led by the sensational Corrie Collin who scored five field goals and two free throws, Creighton university triumphed over Nebraska 47 to 18 Friday night at the Bluejay gym. The second and final game of the charity series will be played at the coliseum Monday night.

Collin had able support from Captain Van Ackeren, forward, and Schmidt, 6 foot 8 inch center, who tallied ten and eleven points respectively. Henrick looked best for the Huskers, registering three from the field and a gift pass, as well as playing a nice floor game.

Coach Schabinger's team jumped into an early lead and led, 29 to 7, at the half way mark. Collin was the sparkplug of a first half assault that found the Huron, S. D., boy contributing twelve points to the score column.

Huskies Off Form.

The Nebraska quint seemed to have left its shooting eye at home, the Huskers being patently off form when it came to hitting the hoop.

Paul Mason held Maurice Van Ackeren to a pair of baskets up to the Husker sophomore's withdrawal early in the second half because of a knee injury.

Twenty-five fouls were called by Referee Ernie Adams, fourteen on Nebraska, eleven on Creighton. The Scarlet cagers made ten of eleven chances via the free throw route.

Heye Lambertus contributed an outstanding performance in the 60-yard low hurdles, winning the event in 6.8 seconds, near record time. Smutny pushed the Gothenburg youth all the way.

Ayres, Nebraska, ran a fine race to win the two mile in 9:57.9, while Storey captured the mile in 4:40.6. SESCO Asher won the 880 after laying behind most of the race. He was clocked in 2:02, leading by ten yards at the tape.

CREIGHTON possesses the smoothest basket quint I have seen all season. Went up with the team Friday night and saw the Huskers take a neat lacing from Coach Schabinger's five. Those boys have speed, and more speed. What's more, they know where the basket is. At least they did Friday night. Van Ackeren, Collin, and Schmidt form a trio of point-getters that would be hard to duplicate anywhere.

THE BLUEJAYS were simply "hot," while Nebraska was woefully off form. Connie Collin, whom Omaha fans term the "Huron Hurricane" just couldn't miss them that first half. He scored twelve points. Collin is good but he knows it, and there are few things more disgusting than a conceited basketball player. Late in the game, Collin staged a little dribbling act, obviously playing to the grand stand.

ORLIN DEAN looked mighty nice in the pole vault at the Nebraska-Kansas State dual Saturday afternoon. He collaborated with Jordan, his K-aggie opponent, to set a new varsity indoor record at 12 feet, 10 7-8 inches, which is getting up there at so early a stage in the season. These same men tied for first place last year at the stadium at 12 feet 6 1-2 inches. Dean is a junior, while this is Jordan's last year.

Dean has a tremendous shoulder pull, and if an ankle which he injured last year doesn't bother him, is likely to go places in the event this spring.

LINCOLN was a mecca for athletes Saturday. There looked to be seventy-five conference tracksters, swimmers, and wrestlers in competition at the stadium and coliseum. The size of the crowds came in for some comment. There must have been close to 300 at the track meet, about 600 at the track meet, and the coliseum pool was packed for the swimming carnival.

Dr. Forrest "Phog" Allen, Kansas athletic director and basketball coach was here as was Nels Metcalf, Iowa State director of athletics.

N CLUB members are displaying an iron "N" insignia which they are wearing on the lapel. Cobe Tomson is president of the organization.
