IOWA STATE WILL BE REPRESENTED AT CONFERENCE

Accepts Student Council Invitation to Big Six Conclave.

MEET FOR DISCUSSION

Problems Encountered at Various Schools Are Submitted.

Iowa State college is the first school in the Big Six to accept the invitation of the Nebraska Student Council to attend a conference in Lincoln for the discussion of problems mutually encountered by student governing bodies in this region. The conference is to be held April 23.

The conference was suggested by some of the members of the student councils of the various schools at a meeting of the national federation of student governing bodies which met at Toledo, O., last December. Nebraska sent Edwin Faulkner and Julia Simanek as representatives to the meeting and tentative arrangements were made at that time to hold the conference of Big Six representatives in Lincoln.

Iowa State indicated that it would send at least two representatives, and that probably a carload of members of the Iowa school's student governing body would attend. Replies from the other schools which received invitations are expected in the near future.

Topics Suggested.

The Nebraska Student Council has suggested among other topics for discussion at the conference the question of student representation on athletic boards, the problem of finding useful duties for class officers, and the problem of a practicable alignment and recognition of campus factions. These three questions are of particular interest on the Nebraska campus at the present time, and it is hoped that suggestions from other schools and discussion of the problems may aid in their solution.

The complete agenda for the conference cannot be formulated until replies have been received from all the schools which will attend. (Continued on Page 2.)

HOME EC GROUP LISTS OFFICER NOMINATIONS

Girls Hear Miss Parks Tell of Alaskan Schools at Thursday Meeting.

Nominations for officers of the Home Economics association for the coming year were revealed at the March meeting held last Thursday evening, March 10, in the Home Economics parlors.

They are: President, Marion Lynn, Minden; Loretta Borzych, Farwell; vice president, Marguerite Thompson, Winnetoon; Teresa Liebershal, Plattsmouth; secretary, Muriel Moffitt, Lincoln; Valentine Klotz, Lincoln; treasurer, Leona Geiger, Lexington; Arlene Bors, Milligan.

The program was opened by the singing of "The Cornhusker" by the entire group. Katherine Agnew and Leona Geiger accompanied by Beatrice Donaldson sang "Mighty Lak a Rose."

The main speaker was Miss Martha Parks, who has charge of the cafeteria at Ag college. Miss Parks, having spent four years in Fairbanks, Alaska, chose as her topic "College Days in Alaska." She showed photographs taken there and also some typical Eskimo dolls. About fifty persons heard Miss Parks speak.

March 24.—Nebraska vs. University of Kansas at KFOR, Lincoln, at 3:30 p. m. Question 3. Lechlitter and Holtzendorf.

April 2.—College of the Pacific vs. Nebraska at Lincoln. Question 3. Team not yet assigned.

April 7.—Nebraska vs. University of Colorado at Boulder. Question 3. Magee and Fihbaugh.

April 7.—Nebraska vs. University of Denver at Denver. Question 3. Magee and Fihbaugh.

Team named first in each case has affirmative.

Question 1. Compulsory unemployment insurance should be adopted by sovereign states as public protection against the vicissitudes of the machine age.

Question 2. Several states should adopt a policy of compulsory unemployment insurance.

Question 3. Congress should enact legislation providing for centralized control of industry, constitutionally granted.

STANFORD STUDENTS HAVE JOINT CONTROL

Undergraduates Comprise Third of Members On Athletic Board.

Control of athletics at Stanford University is exercised through an athletic board of control, consisting of nine members, equally divided among faculty members, alumni of the university, and students, according to a letter from Robert M. Brown, president of the Associated Students at that institution.

Each member of the council is entitled to one vote of equal validity. There is a student member on each important committee, and every consideration is given to the opinions of the student member. Brown states in his letter.

Two of the three student members are chosen by popular election from the student body, and the third student member of the athletic board of control is the president of the student body. All student members of the board serve for one year.

"We feel that it is important that the three major elements of the college community be given an effective representation," Brown said in his letter. "There is no alumni control, and in turn the students do not abuse their privileges."

SYMPHONY DRIVE IS 'MOST SUCCESSFUL'

More New Members Added Past Week Than Ever, Report Declares.

More new members have been added to the Lincoln Symphony Orchestra association during last week's drive than ever before, according to report released from offices in the Cornhusker hotel Saturday.

Although definite results of the drive have not been compiled, it has been successful and especially so on the university campus, declared Mrs. Carl Fredrick Steckleberg, who has been in charge of the campus campaign. "More new students and more new faculty members have been added to the association than ever before," she said.

Memberships were sold to students at the student activities office during the official symphony week, March 7 to 12, which was designated by Mayor Frank C. Zehrung of Lincoln in a proclamation issued Monday, March 7.

The board of regents decided to sponsor the symphony orchestra as one of the university's activities at a recent meeting, and memberships to students were sold for $2.50 although the regular price is $5.00. Another campaign for student members will be conducted next fall. Only those with memberships will be admitted to the concerts next year, according to Mrs. Steckleberg.

According to the present plan the association will bring several internationally known artists to Lincoln in addition to providing five concerts during the year. Sigrid Onegin, contralto, has been secured to head the list of outside artists.

TEACHERS BUREAU ANNOUNCES FOUR NEW PLACEMENTS

Four new placements have been announced by the department of educational service in the past week. Francis Rezek will teach science and mathematics at Primrose; Marjorie Coy will go to Waterloo to teach the third and fourth grades; Mattie Anderson has been appointed commercial instructor at Mitchell; and J. Marshall Hanna will teach that subject and music at Humboldt.

SPRING AWGWAN PRINTS SECTION OF CAMPUS GORE

Work Of Campus Snoopers Revealed in Comic's New Department.

PRINT MORE COPIES

Sell Out Of Last Issue Requires Ordering of Extra Books.

The "gore section," by campus snoopers, who have out-Winched Walter, is to be the unique feature of the Spring Awgwan that will appear during the latter part of this week. The complete sell out of last month's Awgwan has necessitated the printing of 300 extra copies for the March issue.

The Awgwan will appear with twenty-eight pages this month, which is four more pages than any other edition of the year has contained, says Marvin Robinson, editor. He hopes that the Awgwan will be able to continue with this size and thus compete with the leading campus humor magazines in the country.

A parody on college life and upon picnics is the contribution of J. T. Coffey who has been writing for the Awgwan all year. R. Reeder, writer, an article entitled, "Mush, a Dog Who Died for Tale." Rosaline Pizer writes "A Pen Profile," a short biography of one of the well known campus personages. The number will contain a great deal more art work than in any previous issue.

Outstanding drawings that have appeared in other magazines will likewise appear in this issue. A two day sales campaign is to be staged this week. The extra copies were printed because all of (Continued on Page 3.)

ORCHESTRA TO OMAHA FOR EASTER CONCERT

Sixty-Five Piece Ensemble Will Repeat Program at Joslyn Memorial.

The University of Nebraska orchestra of sixty-five members is to play in afternoon concert in the new Joslyn Memorial at Omaha on Easter Sunday, March 27, it was announced Saturday by Carl F. Steckleberg, who will conduct.

The program in Omaha will be a repetition of the annual winter concert given in St. Paul's church on February 28, which included "The New World Symphony" by Anton Dvorak and "Egmont" overture by Beethoven. The orchestra will play in addition Saint-Saen's wondrous skeleton revelry, "Dance Macabre."

Members of the orchestra are: Anderson, Kenneth; Masters, Frederic; Barnett, Eunice; Mayhew, Garnette; Baly, Vernon; Miles, J. Joyce; Beaman, Berce; Moore, Herbert; Besty, Ed; Mosholder, Jeannette; Berez, Harriet; Mowers, Fred; Brien, John; Olson, Lenora; Cronk, Eleanor; Pattee, Wayne; Davis, Dorothy; Randall, Naomi; Dickinson, Doris; Remboldt, Raymond; Egner, Ella; Robinson, James; Emerson, Ruth; Robertson, Carolyn; Ewing, Glen; Jundsen, Bernice; Geiger, Harry; Sando, Julius; Green, Ernest; Schneider, Keith; Greenhill, Frank; Seaton, Marjorie; Greiss, Lorraine; Simpson, Katharine; Heller, William; Stry, Maude; Hill, Abe; Staus, George; Hill, Ruth; Beckliger, Carleen; Hill, Vallette; Webster, Elizabeth; Holster, William; Wedgwood, Clyde; Holmes, Pearl; Wessner, Grace; Krasky, Grace; Wilcox, Norma; Ledwith, Charles; Wilke, Margaret; Leferdink, Lois; Whitrow, Edna; Lotz, Quinn; Van Sickle, Howard; Lyle, Mack; Selmon, William; Marrow, Winifred; Zatterstrom, Betty.

AG DAIRY CLUB PLANS FOR JUDGING CONTEST

Four Divisions Will Be Provided in Second Annual Event.

The second annual students dairy judging contest for College of Agriculture students will be held on Saturday, April 16, according to an announcement made today by Vic Rediger, president of the varsity dairy club which is sponsoring the event.

It is expected that nearly forty students will enter the contest. Last year thirty-five competed with Rediger winning the grand championship honors.

The initial announcement of the contest indicates that ribbons and other prizes will be awarded in each division of the contest. There will be judging in the Holstein, Jersey, Guernsey and Ayrshire breeds. Four prominent dairymen are expected to judge the event. Reasons will be given on four classes.

Rediger is managing the 1932 contest and will be assisted by Lyle Hodgskin, Harold Beasack and Bill Wagon. This committee will make the final plans for the contest.

Vesper Choir Meeting Scheduled for Monday

A special vesper choir meeting is called for Monday at 5 at Ellen Smith hall. Every active choir member is urged to be present. Practice will begin for the Easter program rehearsal, according to Dorothy Jensen, choir leader.

ANNUAL ART EXHIBIT WILL CLOSE SUNDAY

Display Brought Here by Nebraska Association To Be Removed.

BUY TWO NEW PICTURES

The eleventh hour for viewing the art exhibition of the Nebraska Art association has sounded. The display is to be closed to the public after Sunday afternoon.

The paintings have been hanging in Galleries A and B in Morrill hall since Feb. 12. Many of the prominent living artists in the United States were represented by pictures in this exhibition. There are 131 pictures displayed by seventy-four artists.

Two pictures were purchased by the association this year. It is one of the aims of the institution to acquire at least one picture by an American artist each year. This year the association purchased "Jack and Mrs. Spratt" by Edith Magonigle and "Segoviano" by Rudolph Stoll. The latter is a character study of a typical Viennese merchant.

Another group of works on exhibition were those done by Mrs. Hildreth Meiere called "Group of Studies for Mural Decorations and Mosaics." This includes two large canvas sheets, one consisting of a modern group of girls which was designed for the American Telephone and Telegraph company in New York.

BARB COUNCIL GIVES ST. PATRICK'S PARTY

Eddie Jungbluth Plays for All University Frolic at Coliseum.

Playing beneath a huge green and white canopy in the center of the floor, Eddie Jungbluth and his orchestra last night furnished music for the St. Patrick's All-university party. A capacity crowd danced upon the coliseum floor beneath a ceiling of Irish colored streamers, all of which converged to the center above the orchestra.

A floor show in keeping with the St. Patrick spirit was staged during an intermission in the dancing. This added attraction was directed by Wally Morrow, Lincoln dancer, and featured Eddie Smith, presenting Irish jigs and songs, and interpretations of Russ Colombo. The dancing by Katharine Adams was also a feature of the entertainment.

Green and white streamers formed the ceiling terminated at the center in a canopy whose sides were joined to the four corners of the orchestra platform below by twists of similarly colored paper. The walls were decorated with alternate strips of green and white, Irish shamrocks appearing at various intervals upon the strips. The (Continued on Page 2.)

COEDS WILL VOTE FOR BIG SISTER BOARD NOMINEES

Committee Selects Girls To Fill Positions Next Year.

ELECTION IS WEDNESDAY

All Girls May Vote at Polls on City and Ag Campuses.

Nomination of Delores Deadman and Margaret Upson for president of the Big Sister executive board was announced yesterday by Evelyn West, president of the board, acting in the capacity of chairman of the senior nominating committee. One of them will be elected at the campus wide election Wednesday, and the other will remain a senior member.

Margaret Upson, who is at present vice president of the board, is also a member of the A. W. S. board. She is affiliated with Alpha Omicron Pi. Miss Deadman is a member of the Barb council, and has served as junior member of the board during the past year.

According to the constitution, the board shall consist of twelve members in which group the ratio of sorority and non-sorority members must be equal. The nominating committee, therefore, consisting of senior members of the board, has nominated four sorority and four non-sorority senior women, two of each group to be elected; four candidates for junior memberships from each of the two classes; and two members of the present freshmen class from both categories who will fill sophomore positions next year.

SUNDAY BAND CONCERT IS SECOND OF SEASON

R. O. T. C. Musicians Will Dedicate Number to Sousa's Memory.

The second R. O. T. C. band concert of the season is to be presented this afternoon at the University Coliseum at 3:30 o'clock. The new instruments recently acquired by the band and first introduced to the public at the Nebraska-Creighton game are to be used, according to Director "Billie" Quick. Soloists are to be John E. Shildneck, trumpet, and John O. Milligan, baritone.

One of the numbers "The Stars and Stripes Forever," by Sousa is to be especially dedicated to the memory of the late John Phillip Sousa, famous band leader and composer, says Director Quick. No admission is to be charged.

The program:
Overture, "The Mill on the Chiff," C. C. Reissiger.
Waltz Suite, Gold and Silver, Franz Lehár.
Trumpet Solo, T. H. Rollinson, John Shildneck.
Ballet, Dance of the Hours, Amilcare Ponchielli.
Chicago World's Fair Centennial March, Carl Mader.
On the Road to Mandalay, Oley Speaks.
John O. Milligan.
Nocturne, The Monastery Bell, Lefebvre-Wely.
Medley of American World War Songs, M. L. Lake.
Stars and Stripes Forever March, by John Phillip Sousa. (This number dedicated to the memory of the late John Phillip Sousa.)
The Cornhusker.

METHODIST STUDENTS NAME NEW OFFICERS

Religious Group Council Considers Plans for Spring Party.

Robert Davies of Butte was elected president of the Methodist Student Council at its meeting Friday noon at the Temple theatre. Mildred Williams of Lincoln was chosen vice president, Bernard Malcolm of Lincoln, treasurer; Nora Bubb of Lincoln, secretary, and Rachel Baker of Lincoln, assistant secretary.

Elizabeth Sibley, president of the council, was in charge of the meeting. Plans for the All-Methodist spring party to be held March 18 at St. Paul church were discussed. Committees for the affair will be announced Monday.

The April Fool party to be given under the auspices of the student group of the Council of Religious Welfare by members of all denominations, was announced and plans were formulated to invite Methodist students in all local churches to the affair. Rev. W. C. Fawell, sponsor of the student council, urged the delegates to secure 100 percent attendance at the party.

BELL TO DESCRIBE HOPEWELL CULTURE

Mound Builders Subject Weekly Museum Talk Sunday at 4:15.

"Mound Builders of Wisconsin" will be the subject of the regular Sunday afternoon Nebraska state museum talk today at 4:15 which will be discussed by Earl H. Bell, instructor of anthropology in the department of sociology. The lecture, which will be held in Morrill hall, will be illustrated by many colored slides.

Mr. Bell states there are many and radically different mound-builder cultures and the one he will describe is known as the Hopewell culture which centers about Ohio but which has been traced into Wisconsin. It has definitely been determined to date back to prehistoric periods and from the indications of its specimens it is believed to be among the first of the cultures in this area.

The children's program at 2:30 will consist of an illustrated talk "On Bread and Water," by Miss Marjorie Shanafelt, director of the museum programs, and a film, "Starting Life."

FRESHMAN GROUP TO HEAR Y.W.C.A. HEAD

Marjorie Petersen Will Discuss Functions of Organization.

Marjorie Petersen of Fremont, retiring president of the university Y. W. C. A., will describe the ideals and functions of that organization before the A. W. S. freshman activities group at their regular meeting at 4 o'clock Tuesday in Ellen Smith hall.

Miss Petersen will outline the work of the staffs and explain how membership in those groups may be obtained. In connection with a description of the conference staff, she will speak of the Y. W. C. A. Y. M. C. A. annual conference in Estes park. She will also point out the significance of the Nebraska in China drive which has recently been staged on the campus.

An informal discussion will follow the talk when members of the freshman group may ask Miss Petersen questions concerning the Y. W. C. A.

Miss Beekman, who is president of the fresh organization, will be in charge of the meeting with Pauline McShane, secretary; Margaret Upson, sponsor of the group and member of the A. W. S. board, will introduce the speaker.

Before the meeting members of the group should check in the A. W. S. date slips which they have been assigned to collect, with Jane Axtell, secretary of the A. W. S. board.

On Wednesday noon in the A. W. S. office, the A. W. S. board will meet to make plans for its (Continued on Page 2.)

WOMEN VOTERS LIST DINNER ON MARCH 31

Coed League Members Asked to Attend Candidates Fete at Westminster.

Members of the College League of Women Voters have been invited to attend the candidates dinner to be given by the Lincoln League of Women Voters Mar. 31 at Westminster Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock.

Candidates for the nomination for governor of Nebraska will speak briefly that evening. Between courses at the dinner all other candidates for public office in the spring primary election will be introduced by Mrs. Fleming, president of the Lincoln League. Mrs. H. H. Wheeler will preface the talks with an explanation of the work and ideals of the national organization of the League of Women Voters.

Tickets for the dinner may be secured from members of the Lincoln League or from Berniece Hoffman on the campus.

Professor White, Debating Coach, Dismisses Idea That Interest In College Debating Has Died Down

By HOWARD HOLTZENDORFF.

Students are fed up in their classes on discussions, and contrary to the opinions advanced by some of our prominent students, interest has not died out in intercollegiate debating, but intramural competition should create more interest. These were the assertions of Professor H. A. White, debate coach, in an interview Saturday.

"During the six years that I have been at Nebraska, there has been no lack of interest on the part of the student newspaper. All administrations have given noble support, all that we have claimed, and in some instances possibly more than our merits warranted," he declared.

"In this agitation regarding intramural debates, certain misconceptions have arisen in regard to the program of debating at Nebraska. The impression has gone out that debates have declined in interest and number. Just the reverse in regard to number is, of course, true. In regard to our audiences, I wish to say that in the last four years, we have taken our debates to those

PLAN TO CHANGE PARTIES OFFERS HARD PROBLEMS

Observer Notes Several Difficulties in Way of Realignment.

BLUE SHIRTS ON TOP

Any Alteration Calls for Sacrifice From Major Political Group.

BY THE OBSERVER.

Realignment of campus factions, as proposed by the Committee of Student Spirit from the Innocents society, is a problem which involves immense difficulties. If the movement is successful it will be only because of a marked concession on the part of the Blue Shirt political party.

For two years a spirit of political unrest has been stirring on the campus. If the move to realign factions is successful this unrest will be brought to an end. The Student Council has appointed a committee to investigate the matter. The committee is constituted on a fair basis and should it fail it will undoubtedly not be because it has not tried.

The Blue Shirt majority fraternity faction has been an easy victor in every election during the past two years. The Barbs, solely because of lack of organization, have elected no candidates while the Yellow Jackets have succeeded in getting perhaps one or two candidates elected. Last fall the Barb and Yellow Jacket refusal to file a slate may be, in part, attributed to a feeling of futility. That there is much justification for their claim that class offices, as now constituted, do not mean anything is not to be denied, however.

Blue Shirts Stand Pat. There have been times when Blue Shirt fraternities have been approached by the Yellow Jackets to the end that they "switch." In every case these approaches have been unsuccessful for the particular Blue Shirt fraternities declared they would rather stay with their original faction, despite the fact that their men got nominations at lengthy intervals because of the (Continued on Page 2.)

HONOR INITIATES AT KAPPA PHI BANQUET

Methodist Sorority Holds Annual Affair at Cornhusker.

One hundred twenty-five active and alumnae members of Kappa Phi, Methodist girls club, were seated at the thirteenth annual banquet of the organization Saturday evening at the Cornhusker hotel. New pledges and initiates of the group were guests at the affairs and the patronesses were honored.

Two pledges of the organization expressed their vision of Kappa Phi in toasts. Marian Higbee spoke on "Threading the Loom" and Wilma Butte had as her subject, "The Joy of Weaving." Rachel Baker, representing the active chapter, gave a toast entitled "The Dull Threads and the Bright."

Jane Forney interspersed the toasts with a vocal solo. Miss Margaret Wiener, alumnae advisor to the college chapter, gave a toast on "Watching the Pattern Grow." Mrs. Victor West, speaking for the patronesses, chose as her subject, "The Glow of the Tapestry." Miss Ruby Watters, national secretary-treasurer of Kappa Phi and sponsor of the local group, gave a toast to the group, which she called "New Threads." Bernice Hoffman on the campus.
