COACH BIBLE makes no pretense about it. The Husker grid mentor regards the football situation for next year as extremely rosy, what with the finest array of backfield talent greeting him since he has been here on Nebraska.

Of course, much may happen between now and September. Ineligibility will be right in there taking its toll, in addition to injuries, men failing to return to school, et cetera.

Chief worries are at quarterback and the ends. And they may be erased when equipment is checked out in the fall.

Steve Hokuf will be used where he will be of most service to the team. This from Bible Saturday. The pronouncement doesn't even begin to satisfy those who have been wondering just what position the husky Crete blonde would play on the 1932 Husker football edition.

And Steve will get a shot at calling signals, too. If the backs measure up to expectations, Hokuf will probably be used at his old position at end. Then again, if the ball luggers don't come through, Steven may be stationed at tailback. It's your turn to guess!

GOLDUST TWINS, Sauer and O'Brien have left the hospital. Sauer returned to Lincoln Friday afternoon and expects to resume his studies Monday. O'Brien is remaining in Omaha. He will drop out of school this semester, but will be eligible for football if he removes some conditions. Which will be done, Gail says.

Sauer is propelling himself about with the aid of crutches. When asked about his ankle, George replied: "It doesn't hurt nearly as much as it looks." The ankle is badly swollen and wrapped so extensively that it looks as if George had been through a war. He probably has.

Kenneth Sutherland, Big Six champion will compete in the Intercollegiate Swimming Championships to be held at Ann Arbor, Michigan, March 25. Kenny will enter the high board diving event. Following the Michigan meet, the Fremont boys plans to go on to Annapolis, Maryland for the National Gymnastic meet.

Husker Wrestler Entered in the Midwest A. A. U. Meet Withdraws.

Don Shirley, University of Nebraska wrestler who entered the Midwest A. A. U. meet at Fort Dodge, Ia., forfeited in the semifinal round of the tournament after disposing of his first two opponents. Cecil Ackerman and Ross Luff of Nebraska were also entered in the tournament, both losing their second matches after winning one.

PAIRINGS DRAWN FOR HIGH SCHOOL BASKET TOURNEY

Black Announces Brackets For State Basketball Championships.

TWO CLASSES ENTERED

Sixteen Teams Listed in Each Group; Crete Looks Best.

Pairings in classes A and B for the state high school basketball tourney were announced Saturday by Walter L. Black, secretary of the Nebraska High School Athletic association. The prep championships will be staged at the Coliseum starting Thursday afternoon, finishing with the finals Saturday night.

Although Grand Island and Stuart are coming to the tournament undefeated, the dope bucket favors Coach "Pop" Klein's Crete Cardinals to go through to the finals. Crete meets Neligh in the first round. Coach Roy Mandery's Grand Island quint goes up against McCook in what should be a tight battle. Stuart, presenting a veteran team this year takes on Hastings high.

Sidney and Columbus are bracketed together in an initial round tussle, while Kearney plays West Point. Remaining first round games find York competing against Pierce, Waverly versus Mitchell and Plattsmouth against North Platte.

Class B tilts offer plenty of competition with Sprague-Martell meeting Mascot, Benedict against Schubert, Newport encountering Big Springs, and Bladen playing Arlington. Oakdale plays Dalton, the fast Hickman five is paired with Craig, Stockham meets Sumner, while the strong Mead outfit is scheduled to play Grand.

Pairings in class A are: Sidney vs. Columbus, Grand Island vs. McCook, Hastings vs. Stuart, York vs. Pierce, Waverly vs. Mitchell, Plattsmouth vs. North Platte, Crete vs. Neligh. Class B pairings are: Sprague-Martell vs. Mascot, Benedict vs. Schubert, Newport vs. Big Springs.

Frosh Age Limits at Badger School Vary by 25 Years

A span of a quarter of a century exists between the ages of the youngest and oldest freshmen students enrolled in the University of Wisconsin this year, according to figures recently compiled by Miss Annie B. Kirch, university statistician.

The youngest student enrolled in the university is a girl fourteen years of age, the figures show, while the two oldest freshmen are a man and a woman, each thirty-nine years old.

That women gain educational proficiency at an earlier age than men seems to be indicated by the figures which show that a majority of all freshmen students between the ages of fourteen and seventeen, exclusive, are women, while in the age group of eighteen and above, the men are in the majority. Of the total of 1,497 freshmen enrolled, only one, a girl, is fifteen years old, while there are twenty women and only eleven men sixteen years of age in the class, and 175 women and 160 men seventeen years of age.

Bladen vs. Arlington, Oakdale vs. Dalton, Craig vs. Hickman, Stockham vs. Sumner, Mead vs. Grand.

PICK CHAMPIONS IN WRESTLING TOURNEY

Winners of All University Meet and Runners Up Receive Medals.

Champions in each class of the all-university wrestling meet which ended Saturday won by falls in the final matches. Winner and runner-up in each division will receive medals, silver for first place and bronze for second.

Paul Schmidt defeated Victor Hildebrand in a nip and tuck battle in the 118 pound class, while Sheff Katskee beat Spiers to cop laurels in the 120 pound division. Shiefen, 135 pounder, threw Carter in the finals, with Tomish pinning Evans in the 148 pound group.

Bracket was too good for Sellentine in the 155 pound class, while Eaton took Webster in the 168. Don Hulbert had no competition in the 178 pound bracket. Dutch Schueter and Morris Bristol contested for titular honors in the heavyweight, with Schueter winning by a fall after an exciting tussle.
