IT'S going to be mighty hard to keep Heye Lambertus from running the dash events for Nebras ka this spring in addition to his low hurdles specialty. The Gothenburg sophomore sprinted the cen-tury in 9.8 seconds Thursday afternoon to reveal that his 5.4 performance in the 50 at the KCAC indoor carnival was no flash in the pan. A yard behind Heye at the finish was George Smutny and Harold Petz, Husker three year veterans. They tied for second. Jerry Lee started the race but withdrew at the halfway mark when a thigh muscle began to rebell. A slight wind aided the runners, but the soft condition of the track rather equalized this advan-

Huskers Will Not Meet Jays In Dual Cinder Meet This Spring.

Nebraska will not meet the University of Kansas in a dual track meet this spring, the athletic office announced Thursday. Inability to get together on a date for the compet was responsible. Nebraska outhorities preferred a date in May, but a conflict prevented Kansas' acceptance. The only alternative was an April 16 date, considered by the Huskers as too early in the season for strenuous competition.

A questionnaire at Syracuse has revealed that sophomore women prefer ambitious men to other Ambition, however, was undefined.

You'll surely welcome Kellogg's Rice Krispies these mornings. Delicious, toasted rice bubbles that are so crisp they crackle in milk or cream. What could be more refreshing-or so much of a change from the heavy, hot dishes of winter!

And truth to tell, we don't need so many heavy, hot foods in this age of steam-heated houses and closed automobiles, Cold weather just isn't what it used to be. That's why red flannels and bed warmers have disappeared-and why crisp, delicious cereals are becoming more and more popular.

Kellogg's Rice Krispies are rich in energy, easy to digest. Great for a bed-time snack. Drop in at your favorite restaurant tonight and just try them.
