PRICE FIVE CENTS

STUDENT COUNCIL VOTES $300 FOR DROUTH AID FUND

Entire Proceeds From Prom To Be Donated to Use For Charity.

HEAR CONFERENCE PLAN

Faulkner to Name Official Delegates to Conclave From Nebraska.

Approximately $300, the pro-ceeds for the 1932 Junior-Senior prom, will be turned over to prom, will be turned over to charity for the relief of the drouth-stricken area, it was decided at the meeting of the Student council last night.

William Devereaux, co-chairman of the Junior-Senior prom committee, made a detailed report of the expenditures and receipts of the committee. The council voted to turn the entire amount over to charity for drouth relief.

Announcement of the plans for the Student council conference, to be held Saturday, April 30, was made by Philip Brownell, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the meeting. He announced that five of the schools in the Big Six would send two official delegates each to the conference.

Two delegates from the Nebraska Student council to officially represent the council at the meeting Saturday will be appointed by President Faulkner within the next few days. Delegates from the schools are expected to arrive in Lincoln some time Friday afternoon or evening.

The conference will start Satur day morning at 9 o'clock in gallery A of Morrill hall. At that time the various topics and questions proposed by the council will be taken up and discussed by the delegates. A banquet for the dele-rates has been planned for Saturday evening at the University club. The Nebraska council will be host to the delegates at the dinner, and Dean and Mrs. T. J. Thompson (Continued on Page 2.)

BARB COUNCIL OPENS FILINGS FOR MEMBERS

New Group to Be Elected by Unaffiliated Students On May 10.

The Barb council Wednesday announced filings are open for the Barb council for next year. Eleven members will be elected to next year's council at a campus election of barb students by will include three freshmen, three sophomores, three juniors, and two Australian ballot. These eleven seniors who intend to enter the Graduate college next year.

To be eligible for membership the candidate must be a bona fide member of the class which he proposes to represent. Regular university rules shall govern in determining a candidate's class. Candidates must also be "active" according to regular university rules. Only students other than members of social fraternities or sororities may file as candidates. The Barb council election will be held on the same day as the general spring campus election, May Filings close at 5 o'clock on Friday just prior to the day of election, Exact facts will be announced All filings shall be made at the Student Activities office.

College League Will

Hold Banquet Thursday The College League will hold its annual banquet Thursday, April 28 at 6:15 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall. Mrs. J. P. Senning will address the group. Mrs. E. L. Hinman and Mrs. Ellery Davis will also give short talks.

TO GIVE MUSIC PROGRAM SEE

Recital at 4 O'clock Thursday.

the following program to be given by students in recital hall, room 208, School of Music building at 4

TO BE REVIEWED

Order Issued for Parade of R. O. T. C. Unit Friday

As part of the annual R. O. T. C. inspection, which will begin this port and co-operation the present morning at 9 o'clock, the cadet barb movement could never have regiment will form for a retreat parade on Friday. April 29, accord- a machine which may eventually ing to a general order issued by the military department. All cadets are to attend unless properly excused.

Each battalion will form in battalion areas as follows: The headquarters company will form on the dents represent in themselves the right of the first battalion with its right resting on 12th st. The first they have not even scratched the battalion will form on the road in front of the Coliseum in line fac-ing south. The right of the bat-dormant in Barb ranks for the last ing south. The right of the bat-talion will rest on the headquarters three years. There are 3,480 men on the walk in front of Nebraska ly 2,194 are barbs. If the new or-hall in line facing west. The right of the battalion will rest on the road north of Nebraska hall. The (Continued on Page 3.) third battalion will form on the line facing west, The right of the battalion will rest on the walk near the north end of the Stadium.

the regiment will form on the parade ground in line of battalions in line of close columns facing north. Calls will be sounded as follows: First call at 1:15, assembly at 1:25, battalion adjutant's call at spection today will start off with a conference and explanation of the method of inspection. The (Continued on Page 3.)

WAN WILL HAVE William McGaffin, a member of the committee in charge of arrangements for the party. The party is being sponsored by the innicents society and Mortar Editor Asks That Material to 8:30, McGaffin stated. It will Be Turned In at Once; Is Special Number.

Day, Marvin Robinson announced yesterday. "Because the Ivy Day number will be out earlier than usual, material for it will have to be brought in at once," he said.

large amount of material from the last two issues of the humor magazine have been reprinted by several other college comics in their exchange issues. The Utah Humbug will use the dancing girl cover that appeared on the April (Continued on Page 3.)

Bereniece Hoffman and Jane Axtell, Nebraska delegates tainment for the evening. to the Western Intercollegiate Conference of Associated Women Students, returned to the campus Wednesday morning. The conference, which was held at Corvallis, Ore., from April 20 to April 22, was attended by a junior and a senior delegate Theta Sigma Phi to Honor from every college west of the Mississippi. The delegates are

One of the interesting features with each other for an entire eveat many of the schools.

Commendation was given the Nebraska organization for their excellently devised point system for women's activities. braska delegates were asked to gates of bringing the sorority and help other schools in making out non-sorority girls closer together their point systems and many dele-

Dy Students in recital hall, foom 208, School of Music building at 4 o'clock Thursday afternoon:
Ruffell, I Hold Her Hand; Beethoven, First Song from 'The Distant Beloved!' Neil Dearinger, voice, (Mrs. Polley).
Brahms, Bailade, G minor, Op. 118; John Erickson, piano; (Mr. Schmidt).
Saiter, The Crysanthemum: Saiter, The Dandellon; Saiter, Morning-Giories; Della Kolling, voice; (Mr. Steckleberg).
Bach-Tausig, Toccata and Fugue; Eugene Ellsworth, piano; (Mr. Harrison).
Woodman, An Open Eecret; Dell'Acqua, Chanson Provincale; Marcella Laux, voice; (Mrs. Wagner).
Chopin, Scherzo, Op. 39; Chariotte Peterson Perry, piano; (Miss Klinker).
Lachner-Bassford, My Faith Looks Up to Thee; Viola Curry, Gerald O. Mott, voice duet; (Mrs. Thomas).
Dvorak-Kreisler, Indian Lament; Schubert, The Bee; Doris Dickinson, violin; (Miss Collen).
Bach Grant Us to Do With Zeal; Burleigh, Little Mother of Mine; Viola Curry, Cara Grunkemeyer, Marforie McAllister, Gerald Mott, Victor McAllister, Howard O. Miller, Lester Rumbaugh, voice septet; (Mrs. Thomas).

At 1:15 O'clock.

The second battalion will form time. Of this number approximate-

At regimental adjutant's call

Robinson pointed out that a party will be a success. It will be a courtesy to the returning alumni who will want some sort of enter-BANQUET DATE CHANGED expected to attend.

Seniors and Initiates

Monday, May 2. Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalistic sorority, because its banquet date conflicts with the "Rag Banquet," has changed its plans and will hold its annual dinner honoring new initiates and graduating seniors on Monday,

May 2, at the University club. Preceding the banquet Margaret Edgerton, Frances Morgan, Caroline Van Anda, Jean Speiser, Hilda Hull, Roberts Christenson, Irma Randall and Mary Sutton will be initiated. At the banquet the initiates will be called on for speeches. Toastmistress for the affair will be Harriet Ray. Guests will be Frances Wing and Margaret Tinley. Table decorations will be in lavendar, gold and green the colors of the organization

Historical Association Program for Thursday 10:00 A. M.

THE MISSISSIPPI RIVER. Venetian Room, Lincoln Hotel Chairman: Addison E. Sheldon, superintendent Nebraska State Historical society. ames Willing's Raid Down the Mississippi in 1778—Kathryn T. Abbey, Florida State Col-lege for Women.

New Orleans Trader and the A New Orleans Trader and the Free Navigation of the Mississippi River—J. A. James, Northwestern university.
Steamboating in the Upper Mississippi Fur Trade—William J. Petersen, State Historical society of Iowa.

12:00 Noon. JOINT LUNCHEON

CONFERENCE. With Lincoln Chamber of Commerce, 11th and P streets Chairman: Frank D. Tomson, vice-president, Lincoln Chamber of Commerce.

George Washington and the West - Dr. Louise Phelps Kellogg, president Mississippi Valley Historical association, 1930-31.

2:15 P. M. THE GREAT PLAINS. Venetian Room, Lincoln Hotel Chairman: Louis Pelzer, Uni-versity of Iowa.

Outlaws and Vigilantes of the Southern Plains-Carl C. Rister, University of Oklahoma. Horace Greeley and the West— Earle D. Ross, Iowa State college.

The Nature of the Historical Problems of the Plains—Wal-ter P. Webb, University of Texas.

Discussion led by Ernest S. Osgood, University of Minne-

Reception by Chancellor and Mrs. Burnett, Morrill Hall, 14th and U Sts. 6:30 P. M. DINNER.

Tendered by the University of Nebraska. University Club, 13th and P Streets Chairman: Dean John D. Hicks,

University of Nebraska. Welcome-Dr. E. A. Burnett, Chancellor of the University of Nebraska. hrough Indian Eyes-the White Man in War and Peace

as Seen by the Plains Indian, 1850-1876 — Stanley Vestal (W. S. Campbell), University of Oklahoma. 8:00 P. M.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS. Venetian Room, Lincoln Hotel Chairman: Charles W. Rams-dell, University of Texas. American Civilization Comes to the Old Northwest-Beverley W. Bond, Jr., University of Cincinnati, president of the association.

DEBATE SEMI-FINALS SCHEDULED THURSDAY

Affimative Against Alpha Sigs. Betas.

FINAL ROUND ON MAY 3

Campus arguers will have their about half an hour from 8 o'clock next to last chance at splitting infinitives and dangling particiconsist of acts from the fall show pals, when intramural debate goes into the semi-final round of the elimination tournament Thursday Richard Devereaux, president of evening. One judge will be chosen Kosmet Klub, is working on the selection of the best acts from the revue presented last November to officiate at the contests.

Delta Sigma Lambda will take the affirmative against the nega-Belles" which was presented last live team of Alpha Sigma Phi. The Delta Upsilon affirmatives will meet the Beta Theta Pi negatives

Both debates will take place at Tickets for the party, which are the beselling for one dollar, are selling teams. the houses of the affirmative

Delta Sigma Lambda, a veteran of three debates, having defeated Kappa Sigma, Phi Alpha Delta and Phi Sigma Kappa, has had more experience than any of the other teams. The other teams, with the exception of Beta Theta mediately following the entertain- Pi who won one debate by forfeit, are veterans of two contests. The finals of the scheduled elimination contest will be run off in the fraternity of the team taking the negative stand and three judges will decide the winner of the 1932 intramural debate contest. The judges for the contests have been chosen by Prof. H. A. White, var-

CAMPUS CALENDAR

(Continued on Page 4.)

Thursday. Glider Club, 7:30, M. E. 207. Sophomore commission installation, Ellen Smith hall, 5 o'clock. Scabbard and Blade, Nebraska hall, 5 o'clock.

Glee Club, 5:00, Morrill hall. Pershing Rifles, spring party at the Cornhusker hotel.

Students Must Make Dinner Reservations

Any students who desire to attend the banquet sponsored by the Student council for delegates to the Big Six conference of student representatives must make reservations with Eleanor Dixon by Friday evening. Tickets for the dinner are $1.00. Representatives from various campus organizations are invited to be present if they desire to get any information from the delegates.

FORMER COWBOY ON CONVOCATION PROGRAM TODAY

Romance of Cow Country to Be Subject of Address By Dr. Dale.

IS HISTORIAN OF NOTE

Oklahoma Professor Here For Mississippi Valley Group Meeting.

Dr. E. E. Dale, former cowboy and rancher and now a professor of history and chairman of his department at the University of Oklahoma, will speak at the last convocation of the year at the lactory convocation of the year at the Temple theater at 11 o'clock Thursday morning. The subject that the ex-cowboy will lecture on is "The Romance of the Cow Besides being a lecturer, distinguished for his wit and interesting tales, Dr. Dale is the author of several books and articles. The Oklahoman was a ranger and cowboy from 1896 to 1901. His latest book that has recently been published is "The Rise and Fall of the Cattle Range Industry." Dr. Dale is in Lincoln in connection with the meeting of the Mississippi Valley Historical society which is convening in Lincoln April 28 to 30, and is one of the scheduled speakers for the convention. Many of the members of the society are expected to attend the Thursday morning convoca-

Tells of West. The lecture of Professor Dale will deal with the rise and fall of the cattle range industry and will concern itself in particular with interesting and entertaining experiences of the west. Professor Dale, according to John D. Hicks who has heard him lecture a number of times, is almost a professional humorist.

Dean H. H. Foster and Prof. M. H. Merrill, of the Law school, were associated with Professor (Continued on Page 3.)

THREE JUDGES NAMED FOR FRATERNITY SING

H. Compton, Miss Robbins, Wilbur Chenoweth Are To Pick Winner.

KOSMET KLUB SPONSORS

Wilbur Chenoweth, Homer Compton and Edith Lucile Robbins were respondence with the delegates announced as the judges for the in-D. S. L.'s, D. U.'s to Take terfraternity Ivy day sing by Dick Devereaux, president of the Kos- (Continued on Page 3) met Klub that is sponsoring the contest, yesterday.

Fraternities that have signed up for the annual sing are: Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Tau Delta, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Sigma Nu, Kappa Sigma, Delta Upsilon, Beta Theta Pi and Sigma

The Kosmet Klub cup will be the trophy that the Greeks will be singing for. The Greek "sirens" will croon two songs and the judges will award the loving cup to the winner.

Beta Theta Pi will attempt to make it three straight wins this Ivy day as they have won for the past two years. Delta Tau Delta and Alpha Theta Chi are the only other fraternities that have ever von the sing two times in a row. No Number Limit.

Last year for the first time no specification was made as to the number of men a fraternity might enter in the contest. The Kosmet Klub plans to carry out the same this year, according to the plan president

Ivy day was held on April 30 last year but will be held on May 5 this year, due to other arrangements The fraternities will sing in alphabetical order. The organizations will have until noon, April 30 to sign up for the sing. A silver cup will be presented to the fraternity winning first place. Second and third places will be reorganized. According to the present plans the Ivy day sing will be held at 9 o'clock on the morning of

The sorority sing will take place (Continued on Page 4.)

AG CLUB NAMES COMMITTEE

Three Appointed to Arrange Annual Picnic With Home Ec Club.

The Ag club met Wednesday evening and appointed a committee to take charge of the Ag Club-Home Ec picnic to be held Friday, May 13. The picnic which is an annual event on the Ag college campus will be held on the campus and will be followed by a dance in the student activities building.

The committee appointed will serve jointly with a committee to be appointed by the Home Ec club. Duke Ross is chairman and Neil Smith and Ray Murray will serve with him.

The secretary of the club re po ted in regard to the medals which the clab purchased which were given at the annual Ag hon-ors convocation to members of the judging teams.

SPRING CONCERT MAY 17

Maurice Dumesnil, French Pianist, Secured for

Music Program. The University Choral Union has planned definitely the date of its spring concert for May 17 in the Temple. The concert will feature Maurice Dumesnil, eminent French pianist, Mr. Dumesnil has played all over this country and ning of the concert will be Debus sy's compositions.

The ticket sale according to Professor Kirkpatrick will be under the direction of the Delta

Europe and is also an orchestral director. His speciality on the eve-

Omicron, musical sorority. Another spring concert is planned Thursday evening May 19, in Grant Memorial hall at which the Choral Union will appear assisted by the university school of music orchestra. It is possible that Mr. Dumesnil may direct the orchestra that evening.

BANQUET TO END SESSIONS OF BIG

Delegates to Be Guests of Nebraska Council at University Club.

banquet at the University club Saturday evening followed by a short informal session in which the conclusions of the day's discussion will be presented will close the conference of Big Six student council representatives which convenes in gallery A of Morrill hall, Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, according to additional plans announced Wednesday.

Beside the official delegates to the conference elected by the student governing bodies of Kansas Kansas State college, Iowa State college, Missouri and Nebraska, all members of the Nebraska Student council and other interested students will attend the conference. Representatives of various campus organizations are invited to attend the banquet in the evening by the committee in charge. Four major topics are listed on the program for discussion. The conference, convening at 9 o'clock Saturday morning, will be in session until noon, and will reconvene at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. No specified times have been assigned to the discussion topics. Each topic will be given as much time as the interest in the question warrants so that the problem may receive as thorough treatment as possible. Politics Arouse Interest. "The topic which has apparently aroused the most universal interest is the one slated for first consideration concerning campus politics and political factions," de-clared Phil Brownell, chairman of the conference committee.

WILL HONOR SENIOR GIRL ON AG CAMPUS

from the various schools indicates

Goddess of Agriculture, Six Attendants to Be Chosen Next Week.

The Goddess of Agriculture for the 1932 Farmers Fair will be elected by girls enrolled in the College of Agriculture Wednesday and Thursday of next week, according to announcement made Wednesday by Lea Lenger, who is in gen-eral charge of the election. Miss Lenger is being assisted by Helen Hengstler and Frances Duhachek. Senior girls in the college who meet the scholastic requirements are eligible for the honors. Seven girls will be elected, the one with the highest number of votes be- are asked to submit their pledge coming the Goddess. The re- fees to Reginald Porter, secretary ure will be presented to College of noon. Agriculture students on Friday, amounts to the club are also re-(Continued on Page 3.)

MEET FOR THREE DAY CONFERENCE

City and University Hosts To Mississippi Valley Association.

MANY PAPERS PREPARED

Program Starts Thursday; to Open Memorial Room in Morrill Hall.

Approximately 150 or 200 visitors from all parts of the country are expected to attend the twentyfifth annual meeting of the Mississippi Valley Historical association, which will start this morning. The meeting will last from Thursday to Saturday, April 28, 29 and 30. Headquarters for the convention will be the Lincoln hotel. Dr. J. L. Sellers, associate professor of history, is chairman of the local committee on arrangements for the meeting. The members of the committee are Governor and Mrs. Charles W. Bryan, Chancellor and Mrs. E. A. Burnett, Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Sheldon, Mayor Frank C. Zehrung, Dean John D. Hicks, John E. Miller, Mark W. Woods, J. C. Seacrest, Frank D. Throop, Mrs. C. S. Paine, Prof. R. C. Cochran and Dr. C. H. Oldfather. The program for the meeting Thursday will be held in the Lin-coln hotel Venetian room and will start with a discussion group on the Mississippi river led by Addison E. Sheldon, superintendent of the Nebraska State Historical so-ciety. Kathrun T. Abbey of the Florida State college for women will talk on "James Willing's Raid Down the Mississippi in 1778." Many Papers Listed. J. A. James, instructor at Northwestern university, will talk on "A New Orleans Trader and the Free Navigation of the Mississippi River." Concluding the session will be a discussion of steamboating in the upper Mississippi fur trade, led by William J. Petersen of the State Historical Society of Iowa.

At noon a joint luncheon conference with the Lincoln chamber of commerce will be held at the chamber dining room. The chair-man of the meeting will be Frank

(Continued on Page 3.) JUDGING COMPETITION TO START THURSDAY

Winners of All Contests to Be Announced at Banquet Friday Evening.

Judging contests in the annual agriculture judging competition at the agricultural college for vocational agriculture high school students will start Thursday morning. Prof. C. C. Minteer, chairman of the contests committee, announced Wednesday that nearly thirty teams are registered. The contests will be held Thursday and all day Friday. The dairy cattle contest started off at 7:30 this morning. Other contests being held today include woodwork, grain judging and identification, poultry judging, dairy products. An egg show along with the publis speaking contest for Future Farmers of America are other features of the contests today. The boys finished up their work Friday morning contests livestock judging, testing, grain grading, egg grading and forge work. Winners in all contests will be announced Friday evening at the annual banquet held at the Lincoln chamber of

Dramatic Club Pledges

Asked to Submit Fees All pledges of the Dramatic club maining six will act as attendants. and treasurer, at the Cornbusker The 1932 Goddess of Agricul-office by 5 o'clock Friday after-ire will be presented to College of noon. Others who may owe quested to submit them by Friday.

Mrs. C. S. Paine, Wife of Founder Of Mississippi Valley Historical Association, Describes Its Growth

Editor's note: This is the first of two articles on the history of the Mississippi Valley Historical society that have been obtained by The Daily Nebraskan.

"The Mississippi Valley Historical society was founded in October, 1907, by seven men who responded to an invitation issued by Clarence S. Paine, secretary and superintendent of the Nebraska Historical society," was the information furnished by Mrs. C. S. Paine, wife of the founder of the society and secretary of the Mississippi Valley Historical society since the death of her husband in 1916. "The seven men that responded manent organization was perto the invitation were W. S. Bell of Montana, George Martin of Kansas, Francis A. Sampson of Missouri, Benjamin F. Shambaugh of Iowa City, Edgar R. Harlan of Des Moines and Warren Uphon of St. Paul, Minn., and Clarence S.

fected.

Paine of Nebraska. "The plan for research and study of middle western history was discussed and a temporary organization was formed at the first meeting. The same group of men met in December of the same year at Madison, Wis., at the time of the meeting of the American Historical association and a per-

"Interest in the organization was immediately expressed by historians,, writers and students in all historical societies and in colleges and universities. The Mississippi Valley association has grown from seven men in 1907, twenty-five years ago, to 1,200 at the present time.

Three Types Interested.

"There are three types of people interested in this work. First, there are the trained historical students, second, there are the ger eral historical workers, and last, courtesy committee there. that were revealed in the meet- has one of the best enforced sysings and discussions, according to tems of enforcing women's rules of all the schools represented. braska was the only school represented that had no tag dances. Other delegates expressed amazement and pity that couples at this o'clock in a number of schools to school were obligated to dance 2:30 as the deadline for coeds at > hour of 12:30, Some of the constructive work which was done at the convention The Ne- was to present plans to the dele-

(Continued on Page 2.)

School of Music Announces

The School of Music announces company.

1:30, and regimental adjutant's call on signal. The order of events for the in-

The next issue of the Awgwan, which will be the Ivy Day number, will be published soon after Ivy

Any material pertinent to Ivy Day activities and things of interest at this time of the year will be welcomed by the Awgwan staff for this special number.

Bereniece Hoffman, Jane Axtell, Nebraska Coeds, Back From A.W.S. Convention Held at Oregon State

A. W. S. on every campus. Miss gates sought copies of the system Axtell served as a member of the used here. 12:30 Closing Hour.

It was also found that Nebraska of all the schools represented. Women's rules and penalties differed in the different schools. Closing hours varied from 11 California. In this case Nebraska ning. Program dances were used seemed to belong to the majority that have a compulsory closing

(Continued on Page 4.)

OF TURNOVER IN CAMPUS POLITICS

Observer Finds Dynamite in

Embryo Organization of Barb Students.

CONTROL LARGE VOTE

Two-Thirds of Men Students

On Campus Are Not in Greek Houses.

BY THE OBSERVER.

mite in the new barb organization which was placed on its own feet with the election of officers, Tuesday evening. If the present group of barb representatives develop the movement there are strong possi-bilities that they will give the fraternal factions more than a race for the money.

Yesterday a non-affiliated student asked: "Now that the fraternities seem to have succeeded in starting a new Barb council, why don't the barbs take steps toward creating a new Interfraternity

The frame of mind of this par-ticular student is hard to understand. In reality what fraternities been launched), is to set in motion

Small Nucleus.

At Tuesday's meeting six barb representatives reported that they had formed clubs of ten or more non-affiliated students. These stusmall nucleus of sixty votes but surface of the immense reservoir

students enrolled at the present

(Continued on Page 3.)

WITH IVY DAY PARTY

Acts and Music From Year's

Shows Will Be Given

To Entertain.

TICKETS SELLING FAST

Entertainment for the Ivy day party will be furnished by acts and numbers supplied by Kosmet Klub, t was announced yesterday by

The entertainment will last for and spring musical comedy. Sevand from the spring show "Jingle week in Lincoln. Several of the most popular tunes from the show fast, according to members of the committee. The pasteboards for the event are being handled by members of Tassels, the Interfraternity council, and the Barb

Dancing will last from 8:30 im-ment to 11:30. The party will be held in the coliseum. A large crowd of both students and alumni returning for the annual roundup is party on as large a scale as pos-sible," McGaffin stated yesterday.

"It will be difficult to arrange for everything, but we feel that the

We want to establish the will be presented.

Tickets Going Fast.

eral numbers will be offered.

society.

council.

injure them politically.

have done, (for without their sup-

council?

There is much potential dyna-