

SCHULTEMEN WIN DUAL MEET FROM SOONERS FRIDAY

Relay Team Cops Last Event To Give Huskers Edge Of Four Points.

RAIN SLOWS UP TIME

Oklahoma Strong in Field; Nebraska Runners Win Most Places.

Coming from behind to win the mile relay, the final event of the meet, the Nebraska tracksters edged out the invading Oklahoma cindermen 67 1-3 to 63 2-3 in a thrilling dual Friday afternoon on the Memorial stadium track.

With Coach John Jacobs' men leading by a 63 2-3 to 62 1-3 margin and the relay still on the program, it was left to England, Storey, Ostergard and Rodgers to clinch victory for the Scarlet and keep the dual record spotless.

England, Nebraska, and Mell, Oklahoma, ran almost a dead heat in the leadoff lap, but a poor exchange of the baton and some fine running by Abbott of Oklahoma almost spelled defeat for the Huskers. Abbott had a twenty-five yard lead on Storey when Bob Ostergard took the stick, but "Osty" came thru with a wonderful change to give Ralph Rodgers, Nebraska anchor man a few yards leeway. The plucky Rodgers, competing against Hewett, Sooner sophomore flash, who had won the 440 individual earlier in the afternoon, managed to hold the pole when challenged on the final curve, to hit the tape a couple of strides ahead of the Oklahoma man. Asher Wins 880, Mile.

Altho Heye Lambertus won individual honors with three firsts in the 100 yard dash, 220, and 220 low hurdles, it was Sescio Asher who turned in the best performance. Asher copped the mile in 4:26.8, 880 in 1:58.7. Storey was second to the Scottabluft runner in the mile, while Bus Moore, Oklahoma's conference mile champion was forced to accept a third. As predicted before the meet, Coach Schulte's team piled up a big margin in the running events, scoring fifty-three points, while the Sooners were the big noise in the field events, collecting 39 2-3 to Nebraska's 14 1-3.

Showers which fell intermittently during the afternoon prevented better performances, especially in the pole vault, where the runaway was slow and heavy.

The feature event of the meet program, a 440 yard relay between the weight men of each club, was won by Oklahoma in 46 seconds. Hippo Howell, Gilles, Marks and Janz competed for the Sooners, while Rhea, Masterson, Jones and Penney ran for Nebraska. Summary:

Mile: Won by Asher (O); second, Storey (N); third, Moore (O). Time 4:26.8. 880: Won by Hewett (O); second, Rodgers (N); third, Ostergard (N). Time 1:58.7. 220: Won by Lambertus (N); second, Smutny (N); third, Panzse (O). Time 10.1. 100 yard high: Won by Linus Carroll (N); second, Hill (O); third, Dohman (N). Time 15.9.

OKLAHOMA NETTERS BEAT NEBRASKA 6-0

Huskers Lose Opening Dual Against Sooners on Coliseum Boards.

PLAY KANSAS TUESDAY

The University of Nebraska tennis team opened its Big Six season rather lamely Saturday, dropping a 6-0 decision to the powerful Oklahoma netters. The matches were played in the university coliseum because of the rain.

Although the Husker representatives played well and fought stubbornly, their inexperience proved too much of a handicap against the seasoned Sooner veterans. It was the final dual of the season for the Oklahomaans.

Wilbur Haegen, ranking player of the Husker squad, offered spirited opposition to Charlie Davis, Oklahoma star, before losing 6-4, 6-1. Haegen led 3-1 in the first set, but Davis started rifling his shots to the corners to pull out with the set. The Sooner ace used a smashing volleying game in the final set.

Elery Davis gave Sessions a warm argument in one of the singles encounters, finally succumbing under a 6-3, 6-4 score. Robert Mario could not get started against McPhail, the latter triumphing 6-3, 6-1.

Joe Miller went down 6-4, 6-2 before Shoftall after an interesting battle.

In the doubles, Mario and Wentworth Fling bowed 6-3, 6-4 to McPhail and Sessions, while the Oklahoma duo of Davis and Shoftall had little trouble with Haegen and Davis, winning 6-2, 6-2.

Tuesday, the Huskers meet the University of Kansas team captained by Junior Coen, national ranking player. The matches will be played at the Lincoln Tennis club courts. Summary:

Davis (O) defeated Haegen (N) 6-4, 6-1.
Sessions (O) defeated Davis (N) 6-3, 6-1.
McPhail (O) defeated Mario (N) 6-3, 6-1.
Shoftall (O) defeated Miller (N) 6-4, 6-2.
Davis-Shoftall (O) defeated Mario-Fling (N) 6-2, 6-4.

from Beatrice, was the recipient of the O. J. Fee award, presented by Dean O. J. Ferguson. About 100 attended.

Gerald Briggs, Lincoln senior; John H. Hutchings, junior of Falls City; William F. Johnston, Beaver City; John Hossack, Sutherland junior; Lyle W. Mabbott, Wayne senior; and Willard J. Dann were announced by D. H. Harkness as winners of the Blue Print key awards.

Prof. O. E. Edison awarded the Sigma Tau freshman medal to Verner Schomaker, Nebawka.

Hutchings will edit the Blue Print, official engineering college magazine, next year, according to an announcement by Harkness. Johnston and Charles DeVore, junior of Lincoln, will be managing editors. Hossack is the new business manager. Advertising management will be taken by Hugh Gray, Beatrice freshman.

S. L. Jameson presented the Sigma Tau picture which this year is a likeness of Thomas Edison, to be hung in the Mechanical Engineering building. Prof. E. E. Brackett announced that the A. S. A. E. award would be given later. Judge Bayard H. Paine was main speaker. Ray Ramsay presided as toastmaster. Speeches were given by Willard Dann, R. F. Ferguson, John Adair, and Judge Dean Foster of the law college. The Sledge, annual scandal sheet, made its yearly appearance containing "inside slants" on all the engineering students.
