Huskers Given Best Chance To Upset Defending Jayhawk Team.

Big Six schools with the exception of Missouri are under the wire with entries for the annual conference track and field championships to be held Friday and Saturday on Memorial stadium track. Herb Gish, director of athletics, expects a report from the Tiger school Thursday morning. Listed among the 130 athletes inches which he set last spring. Melvin Thornhill, also of Kansas, is record holder in the discus with toss of 155 feet 11 inches, and Milton Ehrlich, elongated K-Aggie star high jumped 6 feet 3 5-8 inches last year for a record.

Besides the above trio, the Jay-hawkers will present two event champions in Capt. Joe Klaner, a man, dash man, and Bernard Gridley, who ran the 220 lows in 23 seconds State. last spring with a stiff wind at his back. Labertew of Iowa State is defending champion in the 880.

While a large crew of veterans is returning for another try at con-ference records, there are two sophomoes whom dopesters say will have a big hand in any record breaking that occurs. Glenn Cunningham, sensational K. U. distance star, is counted on to establish new marks in the half and mile events, while Heye Lambertus of Nebraska may be able to better 23.3 in the 220 low hurdles. Cunningham will be shooting at the 880 mark of 1:56 and a mile record
