BUREAU SECURES PART TIME WORK FOR APPLICANTS

Employment Found for Many Students This Year Says J. D. Epp.

EXPECT TO PLACE MORE

Men Find Novel Ways to Save, Tho Turn Down Jobs for Board.

The student employment situation on the campus is good, according to word from the student employment bureau Tuesday. Students placed in part time positions so far this year greatly exceed the number last year, and prospects are growing brighter, J. D. Epp, of the bureau, stated.

"Indeed, it may be said that 'good times' for the student who needs work are just around the corner," Mr. Epp continued. "The bureau has approximately 100 applications on file, and prospects for filling these applications are bright."

Bureau Anxious to Help.

The purpose of the bureau is to assist students, men new to the campus in particular, to find employment. "If any student needs work, he will find this bureau ready and anxious to help him," Mr. Epp stressed. "The more fellows we help, the happier we are."

YEAR BOOK PICTURES ARE NOW BEING TAKEN

Student Photos for Class, Greek Sections Come In Rapidly.

PRICES ARE REDUCED

The business of photographing students for the 1933 Cornhusker is well under way, according to Ralph Spencer, editor of the year book.

Pictures for the fraternity and sorority sections have been coming in rapidly. The juniors and seniors are also taking advantage of the opportunity to get their pictures before the rush starts at the studios.

Spencer stated that he believed that the reduction in prices was partly responsible for the good start. The junior and senior pictures are priced at $3.50, with an additional twenty-five cent charge if the picture is to be used also in the fraternity or sorority sections.

Snapshots of Professors.

Gerry Crawford, Kappa Delta, is in charge of a new feature of the book this year. She is taking snapshots of favorite professors, which will appear on the inside margins of the feature section.

The photographing of organizations will start today with the inter-fraternity council picture. Other groups will be scheduled for pictures and notified when their turn comes.

John Lewenstein and Gerald Mott from Warren Methodist Episcopal are the chairman of the food committee and Epworth Methodist Episcopal, under the direction of Erma Sims and Lyle Hodgkins, will plan the decorating. The reception committee is headed by Bob Davis.

City Furnishes Free Brake Test Service

Beginning Tuesday and lasting all this week, a free brake-testing service for the automobiles of all University of Nebraska students is being conducted by the city of Lincoln.

"I heartily endorse and encourage these tests," said Dean T. J. Thompson in making the announcement. "Any student desiring to have his automobile brakes tested can do so free of charge by merely driving to the testing grounds southwest of the city campus on 'R' st."

Receipt and Identification Card Necessary for Seat Choice.

Tickets for the coming University Players' productions have arrived and may now be reserved at the University Players' office in the Temple. Receipt slips and identification cards must be presented in order to receive tickets. Only one players' ticket may be purchased on one identification card.

"Very few seats are left on the lower floor of the Temple theatre," said Charles Hoff, business manager of the players yesterday. "However, we have quite a few seats in the balcony which are really good. They may be reserved now."

FIRE CHIEF GIVES STUDENTS ADVICE ON SAFETY MOVES

Stresses Need of Keeping Basements and Attics Cleaned Out.

In connection with the National Fire Prevention campaign being held this week, Chief Louis Hansen of the Lincoln fire department gives a few pointers which may concern students of the university.

Chief Hansen's first suggestion is in regard to cleanliness around the organization houses and university buildings. "Attics and storerooms," he said "should be cleaned regularly, and basements should be kept clean at all times. Sometimes papers and rubbish collect in these places and they should be kept cleaned out."

"Around fraternity houses we find there are too many electricians; and drop cords and electric appliances are hung in an improper manner. When any wiring is to be done, call a competent electrician."

"Proper escapes should be provided for all fraternity and sorority houses, especially for dormitories, which are located on the third floors, in case of fire."

"Fire drills are very valuable as an aid in emptying a building especially in the older buildings which are not fire proof. If any student sees anything which he believes is a fire hazard he should report it to Mr. Seaton, operating superintendent."

"Cigaretts are another cause of fire which should be warned against. Students should not throw them, and drop cords and electric where they will fall in trash or dead grass."

The Lincoln firemen have made very few runs to university buildings in the past. "In case there is a fire on the campus," continued (Continued on Page 2.)

DENVER U PAPER SCOOPS DAILIES

The Clarion Discloses Criminal Negligence Of Officer.

DENVER, (CNS). What was described as a "scoop" over daily papers this week was claimed by The Clarion at Denver university as the result of disclosures pointing to criminal negligence on the part of a police officer involved in a traffic accident.

The Clarion revealed that an officer, traveling at "an excessive rate of speed in a car without brakes," but said to have been attempting to trail fugitives from the state industrial school, had crashed into a group of bystanders, severely injuring Herbert Hart, freshman.

Editors of The Clarion, first paper to print this version of the story, branded the incident as "unprecedented criminal negligence." At first it had been thought that the automobile which struck Hart was driven by the fugitives, who were blamed for five other accidents. It was at the scene of one of these wrecks that Hart, while attempting to aid persons already injured, was struck.

AWGWAN STARTS 'GIRL OF MONTH' PORTRAIT SERIES

To Feature Prominent Coeds And 'Pretty Pledges' in Picture Section.

EX-EDITORS CONTRIBUTE

Bill McCleery and Art Wolf Write Comic Stories For Magazine.

Featuring "The Girl of the Month," a page devoted to a portrait and brief appreciation of one of the outstanding girls on the campus, the October issue of the Awgwan will appear on the stands early next week, it was announced by H. Francis Cunningham, editor of the publication.

An increase in student interest in the magazine has been shown, according to Cunningham, by the fact that an abundance of worthwhile material was submitted for publication. Much of the material submitted will be used in the coming issues of the magazine, allowing for as great a variety of content as possible.

Another innovation in the October issue is a page carrying photographs of six of the prettiest pledges among the sororities on the campus, chosen by the respective groups. Both this and the page on the "Girl of the Month" will be continued in future issues, the editor stated.

Outstanding among the list of contributors to the latest issue are two ex-editors of the Daily Nebraskan. Bill McCleery, in contrast with his previous efforts, writes a story entitled "Chambermaids I Have Loved, Or You've Made Your Bed—Now Don't Lie Out of It." Art Wolf, also a former Nebraskan editor, writes "All-American Lover," a new slant on the football romance.

The October issue of the magazine carries the largest advertising space of any Awgwan within the past few years, according to an announcement from the business department of the publication.

The majority vote gave the presidency to Howard L. Holtzendorff of Lincoln. Harlin Borin was chosen vice president of the class. Raymond Wicker will act as secretary and treasurer and eGorge Piper is the new sergeant at arms.

This year a song leader was chosen whose duty is to teach the new class the official songs. Herman S. Rosenblatt of Omaha was chosen for this position.

Adams of Lincoln, member of Phi Kappa Alpha and Phi Delta Phi, honorary legal fraternity. Kenneth C. Sutherland of Fremont, Theta Chi and Phi Delta Phi is the new vice president. The secretary-treasurer is John H. Keriakader of Lincoln who is a member of Phi Alpha Delta, legal fraternity. The new song leader of the juniors is Ralph Rodgers, Sigma Chi.

ELY FOUND INELIGIBLE FOR ATHLETIC BOARD

Lacks Sufficient Credit Hours for Senior Class Rank.

Because of an inadequate number of credit hours to be classified as a senior student, Lawrence Ely, elected by the "N" club last Tuesday to the athletic board, has been declared ineligible by the office of the dean of student affairs.

The two student representatives on the board must both be seniors, according to the plan passed by the board of regents.

A new election will be held some time in the near future, according to Steve Hokuf, president of the "N" club.

"The election was apparently the result of a misunderstanding," declared Hokuf. "I thought I made it clear at the meeting that ninety credit hours were required for the office."

HOME COMING STAMP SALE BEGINS FRIDAY UNDER A.W.S. CHARGE

Three Girls of Each Group Chosen for Salesmen in Lincoln.

SELLERS MEET TUESDAY

Set Total Goal of 25,000 Stamps in Two Weeks' Campaign.

Nebraska homecoming stamps will go on sale Friday, Oct. 14. The A. W. S. board each year sponsors the sale of these stamps which are to be used as envelope seals and sent over the state to advertise Nebraska's annual homecoming celebration and to promote the desire for a statewide participation in this event. The stamps are expected to play a larger part this year than ever before because of the absence of the usual fraternity and sorority house decorations.

The sales and distribution of Nebraska stamps are to be handled by two freshmen and one upper-classman representatives from each sorority. The freshmen are to canvass the downtown districts, attempting to sell Lincoln merchants in large lots, giving them special rates of $3.50 for 500 stamps, $6.50 for 1,000 stamps, $11.50 for 2,000 stamps and $18.00 for 3,000. The upper-classman representatives will handle the sales in their own (Continued on Page 2.)

EVILS OF GOVERNMENT LISTED BY MILLIKAN

Head California Institute Of Technology Urges Student Help.

Pasadena, Calif. (CNS). Three major evils are threatening representative government in the United States, Dr. Robert A. Millikan, noted scientist and head of the California Institute of Technology, told students of the college last week.

In his first address of the year before the student body, he enumerated the evils as follows:

1. Lawlessness—"There are more holdups in Los Angeles in a month than occur in Paris in a year."

2. Selfish minorities seeking to enrich themselves at the expense of the taxpayers.
3. The "demagoguery of the metropolitan press."

"My own generation," he declared, "was convinced that democratic government was a foregone success, but now these tendencies I have named cast considerable doubt as to whether our government can succeed."

He did not refer directly to the American Legion, but asserted, in referring to "selfish minorities," that one of these "at Portland recently aimed a dagger at the heart of American life."

He urged the students to help in bringing about readjustments, which will adapt the government to changed conditions.

PLANS ESTES CONFERENCE

Regional Council Discusses 1933 Gathering of Y.W.C.A. Group.

Tentative plans for the 1933 conference of the Rocky Mountain region of the Y. W. C. A. were discussed at the meeting of the representatives from the Nebraska area, which closed Sunday afternoon after a two day session in Lincoln. The conference for which plans are being made, is held every summer in June at Estes Park and is attended by representatives from Kansas, Colorado, and Nebraska.

Sunday morning the Council discussed the aims of the work for the year and the methods by which it is to be carried on. A series of questionnaires will be used to ascertain how closely the associations are following the program and how the year's work is being accomplished.

GEPSON TAKES UP DEBATE OFFER OF DEMOCRAT CLUB

Four Members of Political Groups Will Discuss G.O.P. Policies.

WHITE TO BE CHAIRMAN

Schedule Meeting for Day Before Daily Paper Straw Vote.

In reply to the challenge set forth yesterday by Howard Holtzendorff, chairman of the student democratic club, John Gepson, president of the student republican club, accepted the invitation for a debate on the relative merits of the two political parties.

Members of both organizations will engage in a debate Tuesday, October 25, the day before the Daily Nebraskan presidential straw vote. The debate will be held in the Social Science auditorium at three o'clock.

The question, which was discussed by members of both organizations and worded by Prof. H. A. White, head debate coach, reads as follows: "Resolved, that the major policies of the Republican party in the last twelve years have been inconsistent with sound principles of government."

Donald Shirley and Howard Holtzendorff will uphold the affirmative side of the question for the democratic club, while John Gepson and Woodrow Magee will defend the negative for the republicans. Professor White will be chairman of the debate.

Following is the letter Gepson sent to Holtzendorff:

Mr. Howard Holtzendorff, Chairman, Student Young People's Democratic Clubs of Nebraska

My Dear Mr. Holtzendorff: In answer to your letter of October 11, I wish to say that we appreciate the fair-minded attitude which you take in arousing interest in national politics on the campus. With regard to your challenge to the (Continued on Page 3.)

MEREDITH CONTINUES PETITION CIRCULATION

Asks Return of Baseball as Varsity Sport for University.

FRATERNITIES HELPING

Actual gathering of petitions asking the athletic board and the chancellor to reinstate baseball into the varsity athletic program at the University of Nebraska will be finished by this week end, P. W. Merewit, Farm House, instigator of the movement to return baseball to the campus, announced Tuesday night.

Elliott Ross and other students on both campuses are scheduled to help Meredith finish up the campaign for the return of the national pastime into the varsity program. Most fraternity houses on the campus now have the petitions and are being asked to get as many signers as possible within the next few days.

"Despite the fact that present economic conditions both at school and out are not the best in the world, we are going forward with the campaign," Meredith declares. "If we can absolutely prove to the athletic board that baseball is needed in the athletic program, I believe we will produce some results. Other sports now on the program are no more self supporting than baseball would be."

"There seems to be some discouragement to the plan because there is no playing field near the campus but even tho it is not within a few blocks walk, it should be possible to fix up the college of agriculture diamond for play temporarily. Temporary bleachers could be erected and the diamond put in good shape with little capital outlay."

FLEISHER URGES CULTURE

Philanthropist Asks That Aesthetics Rank With Athletics.

Establishment of cultural activities on an equal basis with athletics was urged by Samuel S. Fleisher, Philadelphia philanthropist, before the Federation of Women's clubs at a meeting prior to the opening of the state convention. He spoke on "Playgrounds of the Soul," an A's-associated Press dispatch Tuesday said.

"Our modern educational system," he declared, "stresses athletics at the expense of culture. The establishment of cultural activities such as painting, sculpture, literature, drawing, music and dancing, on an equal basis with athletics, is what we need."

PROFESSOR TRIES TO CLARIFY HIS LATE CHALLENGE

Dr. Steinmetz, Psychologist, Explains His Statement To Non-Daters.

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (CNS).

Caught between a cross-fire of praise and criticism, Prof. Harry C. Steinmetz of the San Diego State college psychology department this week sought to clarify his recent challenge to non-daters.

In an editorial appearing in The State College Aztec, he had urged timid souls to "make yourself attractive to the opposite sex, do a little flirting and get a date." This was to be accomplished by displaying the paper in such a manner that the editorial would show, the gesture to be interpreted as "a welcome to become acquainted."

Although no very positive results were noted following the publication of the editorial, many complimented it as a move in the right direction, while others condemned it as "blatant" and "misdirected."

Meanwhile, one student suggested, through The Aztec, that the psychology department offer confidential advice to those seeking counsel in such matters, including the compilation of a list of inexpensive entertainments other than free lectures, and "aid in problems pertaining to lack of clothing, transportation and other material difficulties."

Amplifying his position, Professor Steinmetz declared:

"Back of my recent exuberant counsel to the individual lies much reading and thought upon the dys-

Selleck Leads Card Stunts Since the Departure of Jimmy Lewis From Staff look at the color of the card that is designated.

"It is very simple to do this, and it makes a very impressive sight to those on the other side of the stadium," said Mr. Selleck, "but a few of the students in the silent cheering section, have a tendency to spoil it by turning up the wrong color of a card. Anyone can keep track of the stunts and put up the right card if he wishes to." If the students in the cheering section would all do their part in the stunt, a successful stunt would be easily achieved, he asserted.

"The most spectacular and complicated stunt will be put on at the Missouri game, which will be held Thanksgiving day. It will be a turkey shown in three colors. A flag of United States will be shown on Armistic day at the Pittsburgh game," stated Mr. Selleck.

Cards on Seats.

Before the game, cards are laid on the seats, and with the signal of the cheer leader, who calls out the number of the stunt, the students

KLUB ANNOUNCES ENTRY DATE FOR '32 REVUE SKITS

Sets Thanksgiving Morning For Show; Acts In by October 19.

PLAN VARIED PROGRAM

All Organized Houses May Submit Entertainment To Committee.

Applications for skits for the annual Kosmet Klub Fall revue, which has been set for Thursday, November 24, will be received at the club headquarters from October 12 to 19, it was announced late yesterday by Jack Thompson, president of Kosmet Klub.

Presentation of the revue on Thanksgiving morning, a tradition established by the Klub in past years, marks a return to the former custom after a departure from the tradition last year. The Nebraska-Missouri football game will be played in Lincoln Thanksgiving afternoon.

Applications for skits will be received at the Klub headquarters, room 8 in the basement of U hall, starting today. The deadline has been set for October 19, Wednesday afternoon, at five o'clock. Members of the Klub will be at the club rooms at all hours to receive applications.

Applications for workers for the revue will be received in the Klub rooms at the same time, Thompson announced. Those wishing to assist in the production of the show are required to fill out application blanks at the office stating their hours available for work, and type of work they are interested in.

Tentative plans for the revue call for a greater number of shorter skits, allowing the greatest possible variety of talent and entertainment. A time limit, depending upon the interest and entertainment value of the skit, will be set later.

"We plan to offer as varied a program as possible this year," Thompson stated. "An attempt will be made to cut the time limit as low as possible without injuring the value of the act and to present as many acts as possible. We are anxious to get as many groups represented on the program as the time will permit."

Any organized group of students on the campus is eligible to enter a skit for the revue. Some time will be allowed for the organizations to work up their ideas, and each skit will be judged by members of the Klub at a date to be announced later.

Applications for workers will be taken until Wednesday, October 19, at five o'clock, also. At that time the permanent staffs for the revue will be appointed, and announcement of the committees will be made shortly after.
