PRICE 5 CENTS.

HOMECOMING PARTY PLANS

PLAY OFFICIALS ANNOUNCE CAST OF PRODUCTION

Road to Rome Will Open at Temple Theater Week of October 24.

HART JENKS TAKES LEAD

Dorothy Zimmer, Clifton Conway, Herb Yenne, and Lerner Included.

University Players, campus dramatic organization, Thursday an-nounced the cast for their coming production, "The Road to Rome" to be given the week of Oct. 24. Hart Jenks, former Nebraskan, and formerly a Shakespearean player on the New York stage, will take the lead role of Hannibal, leader of the Carthaginian forces. Dorothy Zimmer, who last year played feminine leads in most of he University Players' productions, will take the ingenue lead of Amytis, wife of the Roman dictator. Zolley Lerner, member of the oramatic department, will take the role of Quintus, Fabius Maximus, the Roman dictator. Playing the role of Mago, Hannibal's brother, is Herb Yenne, member of the dramatic department, Mac Posey will take the role of Meta, n Sicilian slave girl, Clifton Con-vay is doing his first major role trs Hasdrubal, leader of Hannibal's cavalry. Other parts in the play have not been announced because of registration troubles.

New Type of Play. 'The Road to Rome" is a type of play that has never appeared lefore in a university theater. This (Continued on Page 2.)

ASSISTANTS FOR YEAR

Kozelka and LeDioyt Name Helpers for Business And Editorial.

FIRST ISSUE RELEASED

Business and editorial assistants on the Cornhusker Countryman, monthly student publication of the Agricultural college, were announced Thursday by Arthur Koz-elka, editor and Glen LeDioyt, business manager. Both Kozelka and LeDioyt were selected by the Ag publication board last spring. On the editorial staff, Bill Ralston, junior from Omaha and member of Alpha Gamma Rho, will serve as assistant editor. Carlyle Hodgkin, junior from Bartley is the new managing editor, Ray Torjis, sophomore from West (Continued on Page 4.)

Business Manager.

Glenn LeDioyt.

Who is the business manager of the Cornbusker Countryman, publication of the college of agriculture. LeDioyt is a member of Farm House fraternity, Innocents society, and president of the Ag Executive Board. His home is it North Platte.

SEEK NATIONAL CONTRACTS

Cornhusker Business Staff Concentrates on Sale Of Advertising.

The annual campaign for national advertising for the Cornhas been keeping Charles Skade, business manager, busy for the past few days, he asserted yesterday afternoon. Several contacts have been and are being made with the users of space provided in the book for national advertising and, he declares, present indi- also a sophomore, cations point to a successful out-advertising sections of days, at least, he said.

Business Manager.

ARTHUR KOZELKA.

The Cornhusker Countryman, monthly magazine of the Agri-cultural college, has as editor this year, Arthur Kozelka, senior in the college, from Cicero, III. The first issue of the periodical will make its appearance on the campus Monday, Oct. 17, Kozelka is a member of Alpha Gamma Rho fraternity.

First Three Days of Month Set for Selection Of Skits.

MANY APPLY FOR WORK

Variety of Entertainment. Talent Keynote of Production.

Skits for the 1932 Kosmet Klub Thanksgiving Morning Revue will e judged on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, Nov. 1, 2, and 3, it was announced yesterday by Jack Thompson, president of the organization. Final selections of acts to be used in the show will be made at that time

All organizations which have applied for skits in the show will present their acts for the production committee to judge. The committee consists of Jack Thompson, (Continued on Page 3.)

SELECT STUDENTS FOR

Group Leaves for Detroit To Enter National Competition.

Selection of members of the university dairy products judging and will announce the winners, team was made late Wednesday Other speakers will be announced just before the squad left Lincoln for Detroit where they are to comnete in the national products judging contest next week.

Dr. P. A. Downs of the dairy department selected Perry Meredith. Farm House; John Rhodes, Farm House; and Marion Mecham as his team members. They left Lincoln Thursday morning. Dr. Downs intended to give the team a number of workouts before competing in Detroit Monday. They probably see Michigan play football Saturday. The national contest this year will again be held in connection with the Dairy Industries Exposition. The dairy and ice cream machinery supplies association is offering prizes to the winning teams and individuals. They include six scholarships, silver cups for the winning teams, and medals to the high individuals in each of the various branches of the contest.

Girls' Pen Group Selects member. Two Sophomores, One Junior for Club.

Three residents of Carrie Belle Raymond hall were voted to membership in Tassels, women's pep organization, at a meeting which was held Thursday afternoon at Ellen Smith hall.

The new representatives are Elaine Woodruff, of Tulsa, Okl., who is a junior in school; Margaret Olson of Avoca, Ia., a sophomore; and Doris Erickson, Stromsburg.

Concerning Tassels members from the new residence hall, Jane The business staff is concentrat- Youngson, president of the pep ing its efforts almost entirely on club, says, "We have decided to book and will be occupied with this hall this year. In the future the phase of their work for a few number of representatives may be increased.

INNOCENTS ASK THAT STUDENTS SUPPORT TEAM

Allaway Says That Team Will Benefit by Large Send-Off Rally.

TASSELS AND COBS LEAD

Thompson and Galleher State Enthusiasm Will Mean Much to Players.

"As everyone knows, the Huskers didn't do any to well last Saturday against Ames, and if the students let up in their rally for the team tonight, the team will justly believe that they have a sunshine student body," says Howard Allaway, editor of the Daily Nebraskan. "However, if everyone turns out for the rally, the team will be greatly benefited by the knowledge that the students are behind them and put everything they have into the game.'

The house to house rally will be started by the Tassels and Corn Cobs at 6 o'clock at the Temple building, instead of 6:30 as pre-viously announced. The march to the station in which the band and the students will join the pep clubs, will start as originally planned, at 6:40. The cheer leaders in full uniform will lead the students in several yells at the station before the train leaves at 7:00.

"Next Saturday sees Nebraska in one of the supreme gridiron tests of the year. The Cornhuskers (Continued on Page 4.)

JONES PLANS ANNUAL BIZAD HONOR BANQUET

Annual Meeting To Award Key.

Plans for the annual honors banhotel, beginning at 6 o'clock.

The annual banquet is sponsored is for the purpose of making va- tivity. rious awards in recognition of Scholastic attainments. One of the presidents of Innocents and principle awards to be given out Mortar Board societies, A. W. S. rious awards in recognition of Bizad college having the highest Daily Nebraskan.

Pierce Jones will be toastmaster, and Dean LeRossignol of the MUSEUM CURATOR Bizad college is on the toast list Other speakers will be announced at a later date.

A special feature of this year's banquet will be an attempt to are invited.

graduates and alumni to become when he enters the office. acquainted. I hope that everyone will make a special effort to at-

CHILD EDUCATION DEPARTMENT CLUB SELECTS OFFICERS

At a meeting of the Childhood Education association Thursday afternoon, the department club of elementary education elected the following officers: president Gladys Zutter; advisory board, Grace Young, junior member; Mil-ored Russell, sophomore member, and Madeline Raymond, freshman Game Captain.

LAWRENCE ELY.

Lawrence Ely, finishing his intercollegiate football career this year as center on the var-sity team will act as game captain for the Minnesota-Nebraska mix at Minneapolis Saturday This is Ely's third year on the Husker team. Last season his name was included by seven sports writers on the All Big Six conference mythical team. He lives at Grand Island.

Presidents of Organizations Seek Replacement for World Forum.

To discuss the possibility of establishing an all-student forum on the campus to replace the former of all student organizations met together on Thursday noon. Meredith Nelson, president of the university Y. M. C. A., led the discus-

The original plan of the World Forum, a luncheon group meeting regularly to be addressed on world affairs by some prominent speaker, Executive Board Sponsors will be retained. The new plant submitted and approved by the Ag body than formerly.

The advisability of appointing again on Oct. 21. or electing a committee of three LEROSSIGNOL TO SPEAK or electing a common this student forum, to be supplemented by a member from the Y. M. C. A. and Block and Bridle club on Nov. 4. quet held by the College of Busi-ness Administration were an Meredith Nelson was named to nounced Thursday by Pierce Jones, draw up such a plan and present 18. board. The banquet will be held on Wednesday, Oct. 26 in the Lindell Wednesday. Upon the action of the council the forum would be changed from a Y. W. C. A.-Y. M. by the Bizad executive board and C. A. activity to an all-student ac-at this time is the William Gold board, Interfraternity and Panhel-Scholarship key, which will be lenic councils, Y. W. C. A., Y. M. given to the ten members of the C. A., Barb council, Student freshmen class of last year in the Council, and the editor of the

POSSESSES SMALL CHINESE THEATER

A novel little day by day hobby territory. Maxine Wullbrant is in curator of the Nebraska State charge of this feature.

Museum, in Morrill hall. It is a on sale next week with Norman in the form of a Chinese theatre, college of business administration slide. There is a different show every day, as Mr. Collins inserts a "The banquet will be well worth new slide appropriate to the day attending," stated Mr. Jones, "and or one reminding him of some will be an opportunity for under- past experience each morning

He collected colored slides from various cities in Europe during his visits there and gathers new ones whenever he sees some scene or object that interests him. Wednesday he displayed a colored braska. photograph of the Christopher Cosoon he will have a slide of the giraffe which has recently been ounted in Morrill hall.

PEPSTERS, NOTICE! All Tassels and Corn Cobs will meet in front of the Temple at 6 o'clock for a house form there at 6:30.

Schoolboy Helps Campus Officer in Bringing Young Culprits to Justice

How the cause of justice was hall of the elephants, and then out furthered Thursday afternoon by a again. fleet-footed schoolboy was related by Officer L. C. Regler, after the winded from the sprint. At this culprits were brought to an ac- juncture, a schoolboy came up and counting for their deeds.

According to the "campus cop's" would lik description of the incident, he fugitives. spotted two grade school youths Regler answered in the affirmapilfering from the automobiles tive and the youth promptly took parked along the wall north of social sciences building. Immedi-Bancroft school grounds in pursuit ately he set out in pursuit and the of the pilferers. A few minutes boys led him a wild chase in one later he again appeared, dragging door of Andrews ball and out an-asked whether the panting officer would like to have him catch the other. They scampered into Mor-rill hall, dashing thru the famed youths were dealt with properly. Itising organization.

ELECTION FILINGS JUNIOR CLASS PRESIDENT

Vernon Filley, Barb-Yellow-Carlyle Sorensen, Blueshirt. SENIOR CLASS PRESIDENT

Arthur Pinkerton, Yellow-jacket-Barb, HONORARY COLONEL Jane Axtell, Helen Baldwin

Grace Nicklas.

Glen LeDioyt, Blueshirt.

ALUMNI OFFICER TO FLY TO MINNEAPOLIS

Ray Ramsey Plans Taking Motion Pictures Of Game.

Ray Ramsay, secretary of the Nebraska Alumni association, plans to fly in his plane to Minneapolis Saturday morning, weather permitting. Ramsay will be accom-Boyd Krewson, Tau Kappa Epsilon, and will return

The purpose of the trip is to take pictures of the Gopher-Husker game, Ramsay stated Thursday. He will take motion pictures for distribution at the end of the season to chapters of the association throughout the United States, Krewson will take "stills" for publication in the Nebraska Alumnus newspaper that is published following each game. Oscar Norling edits the newspaper.

AG EXECUTIVE BOARD SUBMITS EVENT LIST

World Forum group, the presidents Annual Farmer's Formal Is Set for Friday, October 28.

NEW OFFICERS ELECTED

A schedule of Ag college social intervals, but of such a nature executive board which met Wedthat they will be of interest to a nesday evening in the student acgreater portion of the student tivities building. The board will sponsor mixers on Oct. 14 and

The Farmer's Formal which is scheduled for Oct. 28 will be followed by mixers sponsored by the by the Dairy club on Nov 11, and president of the board, Vernon Filley, treasurer, and Prof. F. D. Keim, faculty adviser. The dent of the board is Glen LeDioyt chosen at the first meeting of the club carly this year.

A committee to draft several amendments to the constitution was appointed by LeDioyt and consists of Stewart Ross, chairman; Valentine Klotz, and Marian | cii," he said, "it will, of course, be

PUBLISHES TWO ARTICLES

Jenness Writes Discussions Of Facial Expressions For Magazine.

Dr. Arthur F. Jenness of the dehave a large turnout of alumni is the miniature cinema on the partment of psychology is the au-from Lincoln and the surrounding desk of F. G. Collins assistant recent number of the Journal of General Psychology. One is enti-Tickets for the banquet wil go device for showing lantern slides tled "The Effects of Coaching Subjects in the Recognition of Facial Prucka in charge. The tickets will the back stage of which houses an Expression," and the other is sell at 50 cents. All students in the electric light which illuminates the called "Differences in the Recognition of Facial Expression of Emo-

In the latter, Dr. Jenness demonstrates that women can, on the average, judge facial expressions in photographs better than men The judges were 196 men and 340 women among the students in social psychology at Syracuse university, the University of California, and the University of Ne-

CORN COBS INITIATE SEVEN

Men's Pep Club Takes in Members in Ceremony At Temple.

Seven juniors were initiated at a meeting of the Corn Cobs which was held in the Temple hall Thursday. Those initiated were: Harold Spear, Zeta Beta Tau; Laurence Humphrey, Pi Kappa Alpha; Dee Koehne, Delta Sigma Phi; George Shadbolt, Sigma Nu; Marlo Smith, barb; Lloyd Loomis, Pi Kappa Al-pha, and George Elmborg, Sigma Phi Sigma.

BLOOD ADDRESSES ADVERTISING CLUB

Prof. F. C. Blood, of the business administration college, gave address before the Adrix club at Harmony library in Morrill hall bility of conducting our govern-Thursday evening, following the club dinner. Professor Blood's subject was "Institutional Advertising." con-cerning special applications of advertising methods. The Adrix club is a professional women's adver-

SENIOR HONORARY SPONSORS AFFAIR

Innocents Society Plans Second Annual Celebration For Returning Alumni on Night of Kansas Aggie-Nebraska Football Game.

NAME NORMAN GALLEHER GENERAL CHAIRMAN

Committee in Charge Investigating Possibility of Hiring Out-Of-Town Orchestra; Event To Be For Students as Well as Alums.

Altho homecoming decorations held Saturday night, Oct. 29 in the have been eliminated as an econcoliseum. omy measure thru action of the Innocents society, Homecoming will not be without it observance of the return of University of Nebraska alumni, Jack Thompson, president of the Innocents society, declared Thursday afternoon,

That group will sponsor the second annual homecoming party, to be appointed sophomore "vigilance" committee failed to agree on organization proposals Thursday night, there were no new developments in the movement to enforce frosh cap tradtions.

Self-Appointed "Vigilantes" Make No Progress With Frosh Enforcement.

"Vigilance" leaders, however, declared they will have a declaration clared they will have a declaration STAFF CHANGES MEETING student council approval within the next few days. nesday on any methods of violence in frosh cap enforcement when Jack Thompson, Innocents president, and Philip Brownell, council president, declared no hazing would be countenanced. statements followed closely on the heels of first organization movements by a group of sophomore enthusiasts. Must Meet First.

Clarifying the situation Thursday night when it was found no definite organization steps had been taken despite a meeting of 'vigilantes' at the Sigma submitting any program of enforcement, it would be necessary for the group to adopt a definite

"Before taking any steps in presenting proposed rules to the counnecessary for the sophomores to meet and submit them to the will of their representative group. It was understood that a sopho more from each fraternity house and ten barbs would compose the

vigilance council. ROOSEVELT VICTOR AT PIT

Poll of Students Gives 443 Plurality to New York Governor.

Corresponding to the election oll to be sponsored by the Daily Nebraskan on Oct. 26, students in Pittsburgh gave Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt a plurality of 443 votes in a straw vote held there, according to an INS report Thursday. Tabulations of votes for the five candidates were as follows: Roosevelt, 1,355; Hoover, 912; Thomas, 487; Foster, 96; and Cox-

The Homecoming party tradi-tion was begun by the Innocents society a year ago when a committee headed by Arthur Wolf, Edgar, member of Innocents soclety, sponsored the first affair of this kind. Over 1,000 students and alumni attended the first party a year ago, and that reception assured its establishment as a tradi-

Norman Galleher, vice president of Innocents, has been appointed chairman of the Innocents Homecoming party comimttee. He is to be assisted by Chalmers Graham, in charge of tickets, and Jack Erickson in charge of publicity.

Altho no orchestra has as yet been engaged the Inocents society has announced that it will attempt to get an out-of-town band. The committee is now investigating the possibility of procuring some out-of-town orchestra which will furnish a brand of music described as "red-hot and dancically invigorat-

Because members of the self-tee made it plain that that party was an all-campus affair, open to everyone and instituted as a means of furnishing entertainment and a common meeting place for the "old grads" who reurn to the cam-pus for the K-Aggie game.

Thumbs were turned down Wed- Agricultural College YWCA To Assemble Sunday For Business.

> In place of their regular Thursday meeting, the members of the Agricultural college Y. W. C. A. staff will meet Sunday with Miss Berniece Miller, Y secretary, to discuss regular business.

The members of this staff are Helen Meyers, Lynette Gatten Hazel Ingersoll, Beatrice Donaldson, Alice McDermott, Jean Hamly, Cleo Butler, Frances Duhachek, Zola Monia, Leona Geiger, Helen house, Brownell stated that before Steffensmeyer, Marguerite Thompson, Mildred Tickler, Katharine Rebbe, and Lorraine Brake

DOANE TO ADDRESS MEET

Librarian Goes to Iowa for Regional Gathering as Representative.

Gilbert H. Doane, librarian at the University of Nebraska, is one of the speakers at the regional meeting of the American Library association now being held at Des Moines, Ia. He will speak to the college and schools section, and will also act as toastmaster at the banquet Friday evening. There are five states represented at the meeting, namely: Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Kansas, and Minnesota

Others from the University of Nebraska beside Mr. Doane who are attending the meeting are: Mrs. C. S. Graham, Miss Bolton, Miss Effie Lee McKee, Miss Marie McKee, and Miss Edna C. Noble, who is librarian at the College of Agriculture.

Prof. Aylesworth Declares All Students Should Take Part in Coming Election and Cast Vote

In an interview with Professor L. E. Aylsworth of the political science department, a Daily Nebraskan reporter secured the following information as to the correct method of voting.

cise their right of voting. we have our greatest of all elecrepresentatives in congress, as well ing in cities having registration as state and county officials. All and those living outside such cities. university people whether stu-dents or faculty members should at least 7,000 and having registrafeel obligated to seek to vote and tion are: Omaha, Lincoln, Grand ballot as they can. Now is the Fremont, Norfolk, Beatrice, Kearchance for everyone connected ney, Scottsbluff, and Nebraska with the institutions of higher City. learning and having a better education in politics, to step in and assume their part of the responsi-

Have Liberal Laws. Under the liberal election laws of Nebraska and other states, the blank application must be opportunity to vote without much puble and the expense of going home to cast their ballots is open to practically every student in the university who is or will be twenty-one years old on or before

Students who have been selfsupporting may legally claim Lincoln for their residence and vote Students should take an interest here. Other students residing out in the coming election and exer- in the state or in other states may vote by mail.

The method of voting by mail tion years, choosing the president, in Nebraska differs for those livcast as intelligent and rational a Island, Hastings, North Platte,

> Students living or where no registration of voters is required must write to the county clerk of their home county for a blank application for an voter's ballot, which will be sent out immediately by him. This out as prescribed before a notary public or some other person authorized to administer the oath and (Continued on Page 2.)