Fahrnbruch and Mathis Lead Goalward Drives for Regular Eleven.

Spectacular dashes by Fred Murray and Jack Miller stole the show from the first string Wednesday as this pair of reserve ball carriers dashed thru for two touchdowns...

Murray, former Omaha Tech star, climaxed an afternoon of powerful offensive drives on the part of the varsity with a great 95-yard run to a touchdown on the first play after the second team entered the fray.

Carlyle Staab and Fred Overstreet ably seconded the fine play of Miller and Murray, Staab looking particularly good on several plays to Bob Joy, one of which was good for twenty-nine yards.

It was an elated Husker coaching staff that watched the exhibition of the second string backs, for the apparent weakness of reserve ball carriers has been a source of worry to Bible and his aides.

While the second eleven enjoyed a big afternoon, the regulars were not far behind, the first stringers scoring two touchdowns and chalking up a net total of 200 yards in thirty-three plays.

Tater Smashes Hard. Tater Fahrnbruch was the big gun in the first Husker march...

Bruce Kilbourne got back into the lineup Wednesday after a rather long layoff and took care of an end position in good shape.

Another Nebraska casualty, Corwin Hulbert reported for duty, but his activities consisted largely of limbering up in a track suit.

If there is any sport fan in Nebraska that has not heard of Ed Weir, freshman football coach and assistant track coach at the University of Nebraska, let him step forward and be recognized.

Ed, a leading figure in Cornhusker athletics for a number of seasons and twice captain of Nebraska football teams, started his career at Superior high school where he was an all-around star in football, basketball and track.

Upon entering university, Weir cause along. Ely missed the try out for point.

Long sprints by Chris Mathis featured the second parade of the first string, the Tecumseh lad plunging over from the 3-yard line on the eleventh play.

Pass defense came in for drill at the beginning of Wednesday's session, as it is understood that the Hawks are preparing to launch an air attack on the Cornhuskers.

Franklin Meier stood out for the second team in batting down the yearling attempts.

Another Nebraska casualty, Corwin Hulbert reported for duty, but his activities consisted largely of limbering up in a track suit.

He shone as a backfield performer in football, was an outstanding center in basketball and an all-around man in track. Weir won the interscholastic pentathlon title and twice captured all event medals in the high hurdles and once won the pole vault in the big state prep meet.

When Dana X. Bible took over the coaching reins at the University of Nebraska, Weir returned to his alma mater as assistant coach. Weir's success with the frosh is not only in his coaching, but his tireless efforts in keeping tabs on how the boys are coming along in their studies.

After leaving the college halls, Weir kept on with his athletics. For several seasons he was player and manager of the Frankford Yellowjackets, professional football team in the National league.

ORGANIZATIONS ABOLISHED

Three of these groups were the Iron Sphinx, so-called Sophomore honorary group, Vikings, occupying a similar position in the ranks of the Junior classmen, and Green Goblin, Freshmen organization.

Of course there is no room or cause for doubt that individuals gain funds in various private enterprises around the campus and in the houses, by selling papers to lazy collegians, selling tickets to unsuspecting people at a higher price than that which they themselves paid for them and in many other ways.

Student organization on the campus of the University of Nebraska is far from being that "loosely-strung mess" which Miss Zoretzkie alleges it is at other schools, and those getting funds from productive labor on the campus are far from being just one happy group of grafters as one might be led to believe upon perusing the story in the Sunday Journal and Star.
