MILITARY BALL WILL OPEN FORMAL SEASON

Sig Nus Follow Closely With Pig Dinner at Cornhusker.

Formal season on this campus opens Friday evening with the Military ball and the presentation of the honorary colonel. Slatz Randall and his Brunswick recording orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for this annual affair. All of the arrangements for the ball are under the supervision of the military department.

Following closely the opening of the formal season the Sigma Nus are scheduling their yearly "Pig" dinner for Saturday night at the Cornhusker while Phi Kappa is entertaining at a formal party at the Lincoln the same evening.

Pledges Give Smoker.
 Pledges of Alpha Tau Omega entertained the active chapter at an informal smoker Tuesday evening Nov. 22. A short impromptu program was given at the close of the evening.

Phi Mu Alum Weds.
 Mr. and Mrs. Martin L. Pedersen announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Lois, to Dr. Knute O. Broady of Lincoln. The wedding will take place Dec. 28 at the home of the bride's parents. Miss Pedersen is a graduate of the University of Nebraska from where she received her master of arts degree in 1932. She is a member of Phi Mu sorority and Mortar Board.

Plan 'Pig' Dinner.
 The initial formal affair on the campus after the opening of the season by the Military ball will be the traditional pig dinner of Sigma Nu fraternity Saturday evening at the Cornhusker hotel. Ray Frerichs, president of the fraternity, will conduct the dedicatory service after the presentation of the pig. Floral decorations will be used on the tables and there will be dancing between courses of the dinner. Chaperones will be Dean and Mrs. J. E. Rossignol, Mrs. Clara Skiles Prouty and Mrs. Lola Hood. Following the dinner the guests will go to the ball room where 200 couples have been bidden to a formal dance. Fred Nicklas is in charge of the arrangements.

Clarke-Skade.
 One of the most interesting engagement announcements of the year was made Monday evening when Gertrude Clarke, Alpha Xi Delta of LaGrange Illinois, and Clarke Skade, Pi Kappa Alpha of Lexington, passed the candy and cigars.

Miss Clarke is chairman of the vocational guidance committee and has charge of vespers. She is a member of Mortar Board, women's honorary. "Chuck" is business manager of the Cornhusker, was a member of the Junior-Senior prom committee last year, served on the Inter-fraternity council and was admitted to the Innocents' society last spring.

Tri Deltas Give Tea.
 Miss Grace Spacht, Baptist student secretary of the University of Nebraska entertained at an annual informal party Saturday evening, for the students who remained here during the holidays and for the Lincoln Baptist students. Thirty-five guests attended. Refreshments were served late in the evening.

Formal Is Announced.
 Three hundred couples will attend the Phi Kappa formal Saturday evening at the Lincoln hotel. Among the chaperones will be Col. and Mrs. F. A. Kidwell and Miss Lydia McMahon, the house-mother. Richard Blankenship is in charge of the arrangements.

Will Attend Ball.
 Virginia Ann Shrimpton of Ainsworth is to be the guest of Barbara Spoerry at the home of Capt. and Mrs. C. W. Spoerry, until after the Military ball. Miss Shrimpton is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and a member of Delta Delta Delta.

Honoring Mrs. Amy Parmelee of Champlaign, Ill., members of the Delta Delta Delta gave a tea Saturday from 3 to 5 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Arthur L. Smith. Two hundred guests called during the receiving hours.

Gamma Phi Beta Mother's club will meet Tuesday at the chapter house. Mrs. A. D. Eigenbrodt and Mrs. H. E. Anderson are the hostesses.

Phi Gamma Delta Mother's club will meet Thursday with Mrs. P. L. Yost.

DEBATERS TO DISCUSS UTILITIES REGULATION

still tentative. The question for the first semester will be: Resolved; that the federal government should enact legislation to provide for the federal control of electric power utilities. The team taking the affirmative side of this question will make a trip through Iowa Dec. 13 and 14. The team will debate the University of Iowa at Iowa City at 9 a. m. Dec. 13 and this debate will be broadcast over station WSUI. That evening the team will debate Coe college at Cedar Rapids.

The negative team at the same time will make a trip through Kansas and Arkansas. There will be a radio debate with Kansas State college at Manhattan on Dec. 13 at 10 p. m. which will be broadcast by station KSAC. There will be another debate with the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville on the following day. This debate will be published in the 1933 number of the University Debater's annual.

The tentative plans for the second semester call for debates with local institutions on the question of the cancellation of the inter-allied war debts. The proposed schedule includes debates with Cotner college and Missouri Normal college at Marysville, with which Nebraska will also have two home debates on Feb. 23.

The University of Wyoming will come to Lincoln on March 20 and 21, and the University of South Dakota will meet Nebraska in Omaha March 31. Iowa State college will come to Lincoln for a debate at a date not yet decided. Nebraska will enter a team in a tournament among several of the middle western schools to be held in Iowa City on March 1.

LIFE'S little ups and downs don't mean a thing to a true Shredded Wheat fan. He can take it! And so can you, if you get the energy that's packed away in these 100% whole wheat, 100% good to eat, biscuits!

Shove a couple overboard into a nice bowl of milk or cream. In Shredded Wheat all the energy elements that smart old Nature put into wheat are right in those golden-brown biscuits. And note that flavor! Quick, waiter, we want more!

When you see Niagara Falls on the package, you KNOW you have Shredded Wheat.
