FRATERNITY BALL ISSUE OF AWGWAN READY ON JAN. 30

Business Staff of Magazine
Will Be Reorganized,
Manager Says.

The Interfraternity Ball issue of the Awgwan will be published January 30, according to Otto Kotouc, business manager. The date of the publication has been set later than usual due to examinations and in order that the incoming freshmen will get a chance to view the magazine on their first day in school.

The cover design for the January number is being drawn by Marjorie Quivey. Several stories and original cartoons will feature the issue. A girl of the month will appear in the magazine as well as the pictures of several prominent sophomores.

Reorganize Staff.

Kotouc stated that the business staff of the Awgwan would be reorganized at the first of next semester. He said that anyone who wishes to work on the business staff should sign up in the office as soon as possible.

The business staff, according to Kotouc, plans to make both a block and individual subscription drive during the first of next semester. Prices will be announced later.

PLAN SPECIAL SECTION FOR TWO PEP GROUPS

Presidents of Organizations
Promise Support at Saturday Game.

"We are out to help the basketball team beat Kansas Aggies," said Robert Pilling, Corn Cobs president, and Jane Youngston, president of the Tassels, Wednesday, "and to put this across" both pep clubs will be in full attendance at the game Saturday.

A special section will be roped off for the Tassels and the Corn Cobs on the east side of the coliseum. Members of both clubs are requested to wear their uniforms and to come early so organization may be completed. These pep clubs will lead the cheering.

Previously the Nebraska spirit has dropped off with the close of football season, but this year with the support of the whole student body, the pep organizations feel they can arouse real enthusiasm during the basketball season.

SIGMA DELTA CHI TO HOLD DINNER MEET

Burlingame Will Address

EXPOSITION GROUP MEETS

Dean Burr of Agricultural College Is Member of Commission.

Nebraska's Century of Progress commission, of which Dean W. W. Burr of the Agricultural college is a member, held its first meeting at the chamber of commerce Wednesday noon. The commission was appointed last year by Governor Bryan to plan the state's exhibition at the international exposition which opens in Chicago June 1.

The governor urged an appropriation of $40,000 for the Nebraska exhibit at the world's fair in his budget recommendations to the state legislature last Friday. The appropriation is to be made with the condition that an additional $40,000 can be raised from private subscription in the state.

Twenty-six prominent Nebraskans were appointed to the commission, half of whom were present at the meeting.

APPLICATIONS FOR PROM COMMITTEE TO CLOSE JAN. 16

Five Men, Six Women to Be Chosen to Arrange
Annual Event.

Junior men and women wishing to file applications for the Junior-Senior Prom committee may do so any time up until Monday, Jan. 16, it was decided by the Student Council Wednesday evening. Five men and six women are to be chosen by the council with one of the women being selected to work with the junior class president as co-chairman of the committee.

The date for the prom, the closing event of the formal season, has been set for Saturday, March 4, but due to a basketball game scheduled for that evening the council may have to change the date to Friday, March 3.

Committees Report.

Reports from various committees were also heard in the student council meeting. It was announced by the Student Forum committee that Kirby Page had been secured to speak at the next meeting to be held, Wednesday, Jan. 25.

It was also reported that answers to the questionnaires sent to other schools concerning the student activities tax plan were coming in regularly, but that not enough had been received to form any definite conclusions.

LEROSSIGNOL HAS STORY PUBLISHED IN TORONTO STAR

The Toronto Star Weekly recently published a story written by Dean J. E. LeRossignol, dean of the College of Business Administration. The story is entitled "The Magic Scythe" and has for its background, the French-Canadian settlements, which are the scenes of so many of his writings, and so familiar to the reading public.

SIGN HUSK O'HARE TO PLAY FOR BALL

Committee Secures Popular
Chicago Orchestra on Contract.

Husk O'Hare and his orchestra will furnish the music for the annual Interfraternity Ball, to be held Saturday, February 4, in the coliseum, Bob Pilling, committee member in charge of music, announced yesterday afternoon.

The band, commonly known as "Husk O'Hare and his Genial Gentlemen of the Air," is at the present time playing an engagement in the ballroom of the Hotel LaSalle in Chicago. For the past several months it has been featured in regular evening broadcasts from a Chicago radio station.

Date Confirmed.

Terms of the contract were agreed upon at a meeting of the committee in charge of the event Tuesday evening, and the contract was made known yesterday when confirmation of the date was insured.

The orchestra, which is a feature attraction of the Music Corporation of America, was finally decided upon after a number of nationally known bands had been considered by the committee. Negotiations were finally completed yesterday when a telegram from Norman Stepe, of the Music Corporation of America, confirmed the date for the engagement.

Tickets for the event will be checked out to members of the Interfraternity Council at the next meeting of that organization, according to Otto Kotouc, member of the committee in charge of the sale of tickets for the event.

DR. CHARLES BEAVEN TO SPEAK AT CONVOCATION

Leader of Federal Council
Of Churches of Christ
To Talk Jan. 17.

Dr. Albert W. Beaven, former preacher at Cornell, Yale, University of Chicago, and Wellesley, will address an all-university convocation at the Temple building, Tuesday, Jan. 17 at 11 o'clock. The convocation will be held under the joint auspices of the convocation committee and the Religious Welfare Council of the university.

Dr. Beaven was recently elected president of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America. Bishop McConnell proceeded him in that position. He is also president of the Colgate-Rochester Seminary at Rochester, N. Y.

He is the author of five books. The best known of these books are "The Fine Art of Living Together" and "Life's Eastern Window."

GIRL INJURES SPINE IN THREE STORY FALL

June Barta Is Unable to Tell How Accident
Happened.

June Barta, freshman in the university, received an injury to her spine when she fell from a third story window at the Phi Mu house early Wednesday morning. She is not in a serious condition, according to Dr. D. C. Hilton, and will be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

Miss Barta, pledge of Phi Mu, did not know how the accident happened except that she fell out when she fell down and opened the window for air. She was found lying on the sidewalk on the east side of the sorority house. She is suffering from a deep laceration of the spine which has caused left leg paralysis. The accident happened at 10:30 p. m. Wednesday.

Applications for Prom Committee Accepted

Applications for positions on the Junior-Senior prom committee must be filed in the Student Activities office by 5 o'clock Monday, Jan. 16. Applicants, either men or women, must be of junior standing and have fulfilled all eligibility requirements for participation in student activities.

Five junior men and six junior women will be selected by the Student Council at its meeting Wednesday, Jan. 18. The junior class president is chairman of the committee. President, Student Council.

UNI PLAYERS PLAN TO PRESENT NEGRO PLAY

Next Production Scheduled
During Some Time in February.

University Players announce that their next production will be "Porgy," drama of negro life, which they will present sometime during February. Du Bose Heyward is the playwright, and this piece of his is generally conceded to be his finest and truest portrayal of negro life.

A cast of sixty characters is called for by this play. The action occurs in the court of a tenement house in Charleston, S. C., the habitation of a colony of negro fishermen. Chief among them is Porgy, who sits begging and dozing in Catfish Row.

Has High Praise.

High praise for the play from New York critics came with its presentation there in 1927 by the Theatre Guild. The Outlook says of it, "Color, motion and music; scenes of dynamic despair and fear, primitive love and hate, a clear expression of African negro life lived as totally separate, untouched things within our own civilization...."

Gilbert Seldes in the Dial remarks, "There are beautiful things in 'Porgy,' beautiful music, attractive settings, bits of action extraordinarily appealing."

CORNHUSKER STAFF TO HOLD DINNER MEETING

Editors to Discuss Sections
Of 1933 Edition of Annual.

The fourth of a series of dinners for members of the 1933 Cornhusker staff will be held tonight at the Sigma Nu house for the editors of the staff. The purpose of this meeting, R. W. Spencer explained, is to discuss the junior, senior, fraternity and sorority sections of the new book.

"Previous dinners of this sort have been held this year for other divisions of the editorial and business staffs and have very successfully effected co-operation of the staff members for the good of the book," the editor pointed out.

Started Last Fall.

The idea of holding these dinners was conceived early last fall with the hope of enabling the Cornhusker heads to get a closer contact with their staffs. "It is evident that good results have been obtained," Spencer said, "and we plan to continue the practice."

Staff members who will be present are: Woodrow Magee and Harold Day, assistant editors; Joe Shramak, organization; Bob
