The Daily Nebraskan

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

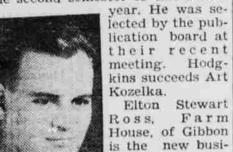

VOL. XXXII-NO. 86.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1933

PRICE 5 CENTS.

HODGKIN NAMED BY PUBLICATION BOARD

Manager for Second Semester.

ness manager for the coming semester. Glen Le Dioyt, Farm House, has been the business manager of the mag-Elton S. Ross. azine for the Courtesy Lincoln past semester.

Farm House, of Dalton, is the incoming circulation manager to succeed Floyd Medlund, Farm House, from Chappell. Two home economics editors were chosen for the coming semester by the publication board. They are Lois Turner of Alliance and Lilian Everton, Alpha Xi Delta, of Crofton. They will both serve as editors for the second semester. Dora Wood, Phi Omega Pi, has been the home economics editor for the past year. The Cornhusker Countryman will continue publication the second semester and Editor Hodgkin plans some novel changes in the publication. He will have announcement of his staff selections within the next few days while Ross is also selecting his assistants on the business side of the publica-

ANNUAL AG ELECTION WILL BE HELD FEB. 2

Ag Club Officers and Pub Board Member to Be Elected.

Ag college students will hold their annual elections Thursday, Feb. 2. Ag club officers and student member of the publication board will be chosen at this time. Vernon Filley and Bill Raston have filed for president of the club; Duke Ross and Norris Enders; vice president; Ralph Canada and Roy Tonjes; treasurer; and How-ard White, secretary are the other candidates. John Lowenstein and Bill Waldo are the two seeking a place on the publication board.

All Ag college students may vote for student member of the publication board, but only members of the Ag club are allowed to vote for officers of the club officers. Because it is the important election of the year, all eligible are urged states Lucille Hendriks, who is in bined frat-charge of membership for the Y. ett house. W. The fee for membership in the Y. W. is $2. Some of the women oldest United States local fraterni-

Must Be Paid by Wednesday In Order to Take Part In Election.

Dr. Suzanne Parsons Called To Lincoln by Death of Her Father.

TO EDIT AG PAPER Dr. Suzanne Parsons, a former Nebraska university student, was called to Lincoln Thursday, Jan. 26, because of the death of her father. At the same time Miss Ross Selected as Business Bessie Noyes, also a former student of the university, was in town. In 1914 both women received their M. A. degrees after taking advanced work in the zoology de-Lyle Hodgkin, senior in the college of agriculture from Lincoln, Miss Noyes later received a Ph. D. in 1917. will edit the Cornhusker Country-man, official Ag publication, for the second semester of this school Parsons became an M. D. Miss bating team lists eight debates, six of which are to be held in Lin-parsons became an M. D. Miss year. He was se-lected by the pub-Los Angeles and Miss Noyes is at debating coach. There is a possilication board at the Rose Polytechnic institute at bility of one or two more debates their recent Terre Haute, Ind.

ozelka. Elton Stewart FRATERNITY OFFICERS APPEAR IN YEAR BOOK

Officers in Section With Activities.

Contrary to custom, fraternity and sorority officers for both se-mesters will be recognized in the class section with all activities which appear in the 1933 Cornhusker. The activities include honorary and professional fraternities, publications, and general campus activities. All officers should leave a card with their name and office in the Cornhusker office or at the photographer's when their pictures are taken.

The editor urges all who classify as Juniors or Seniors to go to the studio in the near future as the deadline is coming soon.

The following 129 Juniors have Cornhusker:

Jean Alden
Henry J. Amen
Le Roy Chas, Askwig
Paul George Aten
Mercedes Augustine
Kathieen Smith Becker
Dolores Sarah Bernhardt
Louise M. Bernhardt
Louise M. Blaser Roy E. Blaser Hejen Gertrude Boehs
Lorraine Brake
Dwight W. Brinton
Anne Catherine Bunting
Gertrude Agnes Carlson
Bianche Carr
Ruth Arline Cherney
Carl J. Christiansen
Mary Jean Clapper
Cornelius B. Collins
Dorothy Cook
Mildred Crayen
Harold E. Day
Mildred Marie Dietz
Donald Duane Dobson
Rosa T. Drath
Dan harles Easterday
Vernon Warnon Filley
Norman M. Flinke
John Morgan Gepson Norman M. Finke
John Morgan Gepson
Lois Daisy Gerard
Susan Gibbs
Gerard Stephen Goggins
Marian E. Goudy
Byron William Goulding
Gerald Stanford Graybiel
Denice Green
Maxweil H. Halderson
Albert S. Hansen Maxwell H. Halderson
Albert S. Hansen
Ione M. Heers
Martha Elizabeth Hershey
Edgar G. Haldleston
Laurence Edmund Humphrey
Emory Clyde Hunt
Alfred C. Jensen
Wm. F. Johnston (Continued on Page 2.)

TWO GROUPS MERGE AT WESLEYAN U

Officers State Merger Was Brought About by Low Finances.

Theta Phi Sigma and Everett, Y. W. FEES MUST BE PAID two Wesleyan social fraternities, Monday evening completed preliminary arrangements for a merger into one fraternity under the name of "The Crescent." The officers of both fraternities agreed that the all girls who are candidates for Nebraska, has presented the instimerger was made largely for economic reasons.

Thursday, the day of election," an alumni group of 900. The combined fraternity will use the Ever-students paid one dollar the first dies. Theta Phi Sigma was founded Co-ed Follies is sponsored each semester and now are asked to pay in 1887 and has maintained an ac- year by the A. W. S. board. This "Place St. Germain des Pres, in 1887 and has maintained an acthe remaining dollar to complete tive organization continually since year it will be given at the Temple Paris," by Louis C. Rosenberg, detheir membership. This remaining that time. It was the first of the fee must be paid by Wednesday, Wesleyan literary societies and o'clock. It will consist of a style tion of the Society of American teachers bureau are requested to Feb. 1 in order to take part in the was known as Theophania. Everett show, stunts by organized groups tetchers, inc.; and "Thru the Willastend as well as those who registered to take part in the was known as Theophania. Everett show, stunts by organized groups to take part in the was known as Theophania. Everett show, stunts by organized groups to take part in the was founded in 1889 as the first and presentation of the best lows," by Robert Nisbet, which Wesleyan men's organization,

FORMER STUDENT IS HERE REVISED SCHEDULE FOR VARSITY DEBATE TEAM LISTS EIGHT CONTESTS

White Says Possibility of Adding More Contests To Schedule.

The revised schedule of the Uni versity of Nebraska varsity deto be added to the schedule later in the season if dates can be arranged with teams desiring a debate with Nebraska.

Four debates are scheduled for February, all of which will be held in Lincoln. On Feb. 3, Morningside college of Sioux City, Ia., will come to Lincoln. On Feb. 7, Ne-braska will debate Drake university of Des Moines, Ia. Missouri Plan Proposes to Include States Teachers college of Maryand on the same date Nebraska

(Continued on Page 2.)

Y. W. C. A. ELECTION ON THURSDAY, FEB. 2

Polls Will Be in Ellen Smith Hall and Home Ec Building.

Election of officers for the Y. W C. A. will be held Thursday, Feb. 2, in Ellen Smith hall from 9 to 5 o'clock, and at the Home Ec buildfor the class section of the 1933 ing on the Ag campus during the same hours. Candidates for presi-dent are Jean Alden and Jane Boos. Jean Alden is a member of the cabinet, chairman of the Ne-braska in China staff, personnel member of the Junior-Senior prom committee and member of the 1933 O'Hara and his orchestra without any distortion," Bob Pilling, memsecretary of the "Y," chairman of system will make the music clear the publicity committee, member and audible over the entire floor of the membership and social staff, of the coliseum." junior member of the A. W. S. board, member of Alpha Lamda Delta, Big Sistor Board and Delta ous for its original and novel ar-Omicron.

Vice-president nominees are will be faithfully reproduced by Ruth Cherney and Martha the amplifier, members of the com-Hershey. Martha Hershey is a member of the "Y" cabinet, chairman of the Industrial staff, chairman of the entertainment committee of the Economic Conference, member of student council and secretary and treasurer of Panhellenic. Ruth Cherney is a cabinet member, chairman of the International and Interracial staff, member of committee for the Swap book shop, member of the Junior-Senior Prom committee and Phi Elaine Fontein and Dorothy Cathers are candidates for secretary. Helen Lutz and Marjorie Smith were nominated for treasurer, Muriel Moffit and Genevive Jeffers are nominees for chairman of the Ag staff of Y. W. C. A.

BOARD PLANS FOR MEETING

Candidates for the Best Dressed Girl Must File Wednesday.

the best dressed girl to be pre-sented at the Co-ed Follies, Feb. includes eighty-six etchings, seven "No money will be taken to complete Y. W. C. A. membership on tive membership of forty-six and the style show are to have their the Gregg collection proper is on applications in by Wednesday, the display in the third floor corridor board announced.

must have the plans for their porarily in Gallery A, of that stunts in by Wednesday also. The building. dressed girl,

Honor Instructor

Courtesy of The Journal. DR. L. A. LUGN.

Dr. L. A. Lugn, assistant professor of geology, received notifi- of the editorial and business staff cation of his election as a fellow were reappointed for the second of the Geological Society of semester. H. Francis Cunningham

AMPLIFYING SYSTEM TO BE USED AT BALL

'Amplifier Will Reproduce Tones Faithfully, Says Pilling.

The amplifying system recently installed in the colliseum will be used at the Interfraternity Ball, ball is one of the features of this Byron Goulding, chairman of the committee in charge of the event, announced yesterday.

The amplifier, a Western Elec-tric product, is the best system now on the market for increasing the volume of tone without distortion in the opinion of John K. Selleck, director of student activities. The amplifier now in the coliseum has never been used at any uni- this issue. versity parties, Selleck said, Cornhusker staff. Jane Boos is ber of the committee, stated. "The

Feature Entertainer.

The orchestra has become famrangements of popular tunes which mittee believe. The orchestra will also feature in its Lincoln appearance Miss Jean Burke, popular enband during its engagement at the LaSalle hotel in Chicago.

Tickets, which are selling for $1.50 per couple, are being sold by members of the Interfraternity Council. Salesmen will probably be given additional tickets in anticipation of an increased demand who filed previously for work on in the next few days, Otto Kotouc, committee member, declared.

GREGG COLLECTION HAS NEW ADDITION

Group of New Etchings Added to School's Collection.

Fourteen new etchings, among which are two prize-winners and one drawn by Lionel Barrymore, have been added to the University of Nebraska's Will C. Gregg collection by the donor.

A. W. S. board will hold a meet-ing on Wednesday Feb. 1 to meet and alumnus of the University of of Morrill hall. The new additions, Organized groups on the campus however, are being exhibited tem-

The two prize winners are

AXTELL SELECTED JANUARY AWGWAN GIRL OF MONTH

Magazine Staff Reappointed to Serve for Second Semester.

Jane Axtell was selected as the Awgwan 'Girl of the Month', and her picture appears in the interfraternity ball issue of the maga-zine, which went on sale Tuesday morning. Sale of the magazine, according to Otto Kotouc, business manager, was large, and booths will be maintained today in Andrews and Social Science halls in order to give all of the students a chance to secure a copy of it.

At a recent meeting of the publication board all of the members will serve as editor while Otto Kotouc will continue his duties as business manager, Roselie Lamma will act as managing editor again this semester.

The pictures of Elva Marie Spies, Kappa Delta, Jean Russell, Chi Omega; Josephine Reirmers, Delta Gamma; Lucille Lampert, Alpha Xi Delta; and Dorothy Cathers, Delta Zeta, who were selected as five outstanding sophomore coeds, also appear in a prominent part of the January issue of the magazine.

"After the Ball is Over," two pages of cartoons by Morris Gordon, portraying scenes in the aftermath of the interfraternity issue. The cover design, by Marjorie Quivey, shows an entrance scene to the ball.

The stories in the magazine are Board Meeting," by Art Wolf, "Rough Cuts" by John T. Coffee. and "When the Cat's Away, the Maestro a Party," by Roland M. Miller. "Fashion Horoscope." by Katherine Howard also appears in

"We are sure that the amplifier will reproduce the music of Husk College and his orchestra without FILE KOSMET SHOW

Deadline on Applications Set for Wednesday, February 15.

Applications for workers for the annual Kosmet Klub spring show will be taken at the office of the tertainer who has been with the Klub in the basement of U hall during the next two weeks, it was announced last night after a meeting of the organization.

The deadline on applications was set for Wednesday, Feb. 15, at 5 o'clock, Jack Thompson, president of the Klub, announced. Students the fall revue need not apply again if they intend to work this spring.

The eligibility of all those applying will be checked with Dean Harper for scholastic standing, the president added. Appointments to the committees which will manage the spring production will be made soon after eligibility has been checked.

Final selection of the play to be used in the spring show will be made as soon as possible. The committee in charge of production is now considering plays submitted to the Klub for consideration. A $50 prize will be awarded to the author of the winning manuscript.

Moritz Urges Teachers Meet Him Wednesday

Nebraska students who plan to make teaching their profession next year are requested to confer with R. D. Moritz, director of the Department of Educational Service of the university, on Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock in Social Science auditorium, Students