HONORARY SECURES MEL SNYDER'S BAND TO PLAY AT PARTY

Orchestra Features Owen Sisters in Trio for Entertainment.

Mel Snyder and his Gold Coast orchestra have been selected to play at the Mortar Board party Feb. 24. It was announced yesterday. This fourteen piece orchestra is now playing an engagement at the Muebach hotel in Kansas City. Mel Snyder features the Owen Sisters' trio in his plan of entertainment.

The Gold Coast orchestra will play at the Military ball at South Dakota university following its engagement here. "Mortar Board members have been very fortunate in securing this famous band for their traditional dance," states Gertrude Clarke, who is in charge of arrangements for the dance.

The usual closing hour of 11:30 o'clock for university parties has been extended by the faculty committee of student affairs until 12 o'clock.

DIRECTOR SURVEYS CONVOCATION PLANS

Coloratura Soprano and Symphony Orchestra Will Feature.

School of Music Wednesday afternoon convocations for the month of February were announced Thursday by Director Kirkpatrick. On Feb. 8 Miss Antonine Coniglio, coloratura soprano, will be heard in concert. Miss Coniglio is a graduate of the School of Music and studied with Alma Wagner. She will be accompanied by Genevieve Wilson.

On Feb. 15, the School of Music Symphony orchestra under the direction of Prof. Carl F. Steckelberg will be heard in concert, and Feb. 22, Marvin Witte will be presented with the University Glee club.

These programs are open to the public and will be held in the Temple theater at 4 o'clock in the afternoon.

TEMPLE CAFETERIA EFFECTS PRICE CUT

New Plan Includes Ten Cent Breakfast Menu.

In response to a widespread student demand the Temple cafeteria has reduced prices during the winter. Mrs. Foster, manager of the cafeteria, announced yesterday.

One of the special features of the cafeteria's new policy is the ten cent breakfast plan by which the student may obtain a breakfast consisting of fruit, coffee or hot chocolate, and toast cereal or rolls. Another plan is to provide for lunch a meat or meat substitute for five cents whenever possible.

Mrs. Foster urges the student body to support the cafeteria and states "The more the cafeteria is supported by the students the greater will be the reductions in the future and the greater the amount of student help that can be employed."

Students Must Pay Fees Before Feb. 4

Undergraduate students who have not paid their fees or made satisfactory financial arrangements with the finance secretary's office will be given until Feb. 4 to complete their registration without penalty of late registration fee.

L. E. GUNDERSON,
Finance Secretary.

Pep Organizations, Ban Will Rally Friday Night

RALSTON SELECTED AG CLUB PRESIDENT

Farm House-Alpha Gamma Rho Faction Wins Every Office.

The Farm House-Alpha Gamma Rho coalition swept the college of agriculture election Thursday when all officers in Ag club and publication board were elected from the two houses. The Barb faction failed to win a single election contest.

Bill Ralston, Alpha Gamma Rho, was elected president of the club by an overwhelming majority. Given the support of his own fraternity and that of the Farm House, he polled 44 votes while Vernon Filley, barb candidate, received but 15.

Elton Stewart Ross, Farm House, was swept into the office of vice president of the club, by an even greater majority than Ralston. Norris Enders was his opponent. Ross polled 50 votes, being third high man on the coalition ticket. Enders received but nine votes.

In the race for secretary of the club, Howard White won out with no opposition. He is a member of Farm House fraternity. Both of the Blue Shirt fraternities supported White. He is a sophomore in the college and comes from Tecumseh.

Bill Waldo, Alpha Gamma Rho, won out in the contest for the seat of treasurer of Ag club. He received 45 votes. Ralph Canada was the barb candidate for the office.

In the other election contest, John Lowenstein, Farm House, won without opposition. He received the backing of all three factions on the college of agriculture campus. Lowenstein polled more votes than any other candidate in the election, getting 62 votes.

Miss Orr is giving a series of instructions and it is important that everyone desiring to learn to dance should attend these classes consecutively, the department announced.

LEGISLATURE WILL FINANCE PROBE OF UNIVERSITY COSTS

Five Hundred Dollars Voted To Back Investigation Of Expenses.

Five hundred dollars was voted by the house of representatives yesterday afternoon to cover expenses of the committee investigating the university expenses. The investigation will be made by a joint house and senate committee.

Senator McCarter, president pro tem of the upper wing of the legislature, said that the senate will not add anything to the amount voted by the house for investigation.

Representative R. C. Vance of Milford, in urging the appropriation, said that the committee would need to hire an accountant at the rate of fifteen dollars a day to help in the study. Senator McCarter promised that some of the regular senate employes and stenographers would help in the work of the committee.

Legislative investigation began Wednesday night when the first meeting of the committee was held. Regular meetings will be held on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday evenings to consider evidence brought before the committee.

COACH WHITE CHOOSES DEBATE TRY-OUT DATE

Professor Will Name Local Team Feb. 6 at Controversy.

A debate tryout will be held on Thursday, Feb. 16, to choose a team for local debates during March and April, according to Prof. H. A. White, debate coach. The question for the tryout will be: Resolved, That All Intergovernmental World War Debts Should be Cancelled.

It is undecided whether one or two teams will be chosen in the try-out. If enough students try out two teams will be chosen. The team or teams will be assigned to debates in and around Lincoln. No extensive trips will be planned for them.

N. Y. CRITICS LAUD COMING PRODUCTION

Zolly Lerner Takes Lead When Cast Presents Fourth Play.

Spacious settings, comprising a three-story apartment in Catfish Row in Charleston, South Carolina, are features of the University Player's fourth production of the year, "Porgy," by DuBose Hayward.

Lauded by New York critics as being "electrifying," and "superb," Porgy is a realistic drama of negro life from the first scene where a very real crap game takes place, to the last when the crippled Porgy in his goat cart leaves the Row to find his runaway woman.

"One character stands out," says San Francisco papers in commenting on the production there. "That is the irresistible Porgy, whose role is obviously created for him." Porgy will be played by Lerner.

"DuBose Hayward knows the negro, the reckless gaiety of the race, its superstition, its easy code of morals, its solidarity and loyalty to the race, and its flaming passions."

Student Takes Part.

J. R. Lilliard, a colored student of the university, has the important part of "Sportin' Life" in (Continued on Page 3.)

RALLY WILL BE STAGED

To Start at 7:15 Tonight In Front of Temple Building.

A rally will be staged tonight, in anticipation of the Nebraska-Kansas basketball tilt. The rally will start promptly at 7:15 in front of the Temple building. It will be composed of the band, Tassels, the Corn Cobs and student followers.

From the temple the students will parade down R street to 16th, down sorority and fraternity row and to the coliseum.

"The basketball game tonight is an important one," asserted Robert Pilling, president of the Corn Cobs, "and the fullest co-operation is needed for the support of the team."
