

SOCIETY.

Greeks Plan Formals For Coming Week End

A number of social events for university students have been planned for the coming week. On Sunday, the Sigma Chi's will hold a banquet in observance of the fiftieth anniversary of their founding, and the University Players will attend a tea. The Kappa Sigma's have scheduled a formal Friday night, and the Alpha Omicron Pi's have planned one for Saturday night, both to be held at the Cornhusker. The all-university party will also be held in the coliseum Saturday night.

Beck to Play at Party.

Leo Beck and his orchestra will play for the all-university party to be held in the coliseum Saturday evening. The party is being sponsored by the Barb council. Burton Marvin is chairman of the orchestra committee, Wilbur Erickson, the ticket committee; Graham Howe, the publicity; Hughine Legge, the chaperones, and Vernon Filley, the decorations.

Kappa Sig's Plan Dance.

The Kappa Sigma formal, which is to be given at the Cornhusker Friday night, will be chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. Harold Stoke, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hallett, and the house-mother, Mrs. Chauncey Palmer Smith. Eddie Jungbluth's orchestra will play.

Alpha O's to Entertain.

Chaperones for the Alpha Omicron Pi formal have not yet been selected. The party will be held Saturday evening at the Cornhusker, with Eddie Jungbluth's orchestra playing.

Fraternity Holds Dinner.

Yale Holland of Omaha will act as toastmaster at the banquet to be given Sunday evening by Sigma Phi in honor of the fiftieth anniversary of its founding. The banquet, which about 100 active and alumnae members are expected to attend, will be held in the Georgian room of the Cornhusker at 6:30.

Speakers of the evening will be George Spurlock, of York, Judge Harry Landis of Seward, Paul Chaney, assistant attorney general of Nebraska, Dr. James C. Nate, grand historian of Denver, Colo., Fred Armstrong, jr., grand praetor, St. Louis, Mo., Glen Fordyce, chief executive of the Boy Scouts of America, of Iowa City, Ia., and Ralph Rodgers, consul of the Nebraska chapter.

Skade Heads Pi K. A.'s.

Charles Skade has been elected president of Pi Kappa Alpha. Other officers will be: Ward Snow, vice president, and Elbert Smith, house manager.

Alumnae Meet in Omaha.

A group of Lincoln alumnae of Kappa Alpha Theta motored to Omaha Saturday to be guests of the Omaha alumnae for the sixty-third annual founders' day luncheon.

A Cast of 57

Players and Singers Presents "PORGY"

A play of primitive negro life in the south, with a large chorus of negro singers.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS

40c Adm. Tickets in Temple Lobby ALL THIS WEEK

Interclub Council Meet

There is to be an interclub council meeting Monday evening at 7:30 in Delian-Union hall, Temple building. All members are urged to be present since it is very important, and necessary that they be there.

eon at the home of Mrs. E. J. Phelps, jr.

Delta Sigma Phi Elects.

Delta Sigma Phi will be headed during the coming year by Paul Mason. Vice president will be Clair Wilson; treasurer, Ernest Deming; sergeant-at-arms, Orval Walla; historian, Frank Mueller, and secretary, Dee Kohne.

Gamma Phi Alumnae Meet.

Gamma Phi Beta alumnae met for luncheon at the chapter house Saturday. Miss Belle Farman and Miss Rowena Depue were hostesses.

GREEKS CELEBRATE LOCAL ANNIVERSARY

Many Alumni Return in Honor of Fiftieth Year Founded.

Active and alumnae members of Sigma Chi will celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the local chapter with a church service Sunday morning and banquet that evening.

The church service will be held at St. Matthews Episcopal church, 24th and Seward, at 11 o'clock, with Dean Francis R. Lee, Sigma Chi alumnae of Roanoke college, Salem, Virginia, officiating. Dr. Charles C. Nate of Denver will assist Dean Lee in the services. The offertory solo will be sung by Merritt Wells, Hastings, Sigma Chi pledge.

About 100 are expected to attend the banquet to be held in the Georgian room of the Hotel Cornhusker at 6:30 Sunday evening. Yale Holland of Omaha will preside as toastmaster.

Other speakers of the evening will be George Spurlock of York, Judge Harry Landis of Seward, Paul Chaney, assistant attorney general of Nebraska, Dr. Charles C. Nate, grand historian, of Denver, Colo., Fred Armstrong jr., grand praetor, St. Louis, Mo., Glen Fordyce, chief executive of the Boy Scouts of America, Iowa City, Ia., and Ralph Rodgers, consul of the Nebraska chapter.

You get more for your books at Long's.—Adv.

Second Term Students Eligible for Y.W. Work

All second semester freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors are eligible for work on Y. W. C. A. staffs. Those who are interested in the different staffs may make their choice and sign up in Miss Miller's office in Ellen Smith hall starting Jan. 6.

Chairman Speaks on Elementary Schools

Dr. Charles Fordyce, chairman of the department of educational psychology and measurement, recently addressed the teachers of Lancaster county on "Some problems in the Elementary School." The subject grew out of an educational survey recently made by Doctor Fordyce in Lancaster county.

EDITOR USES UNIQUE PLAN IN CORNHUSKER

Personalized Student Art Work to Appear Before Each Section.

"Personalized student art work will be used on the subdivision pages before the minor divisions of the 1933 Cornhusker," according to Ralph Spencer, editor of the yearbook. "This idea is new and unique as it has never been used in any previous issue of the book."

A picture of the individual prominent in the activity represented by the minor division will appear on the subdivision sheet before the section. Marjorie Quivey, art editor of the annual, is drawing the portraits.

Pinkerton Heads Seniors.

The sheet before the senior division of the classes section in the book will have an etching of Art Pinkerton, president of the senior class, and the sheet before the junior section will carry a picture of Vernon Filley, junior class president. Roscoe Kroger, cadet colonel, will appear on the page before the military section.

Norman Galleher, president of the Interfraternity council, and Elizabeth Barber, president of the Pan-Hellenic council, will represent the fraternity and sorority sections respectively. Gayle C. Walker, director of the school of journalism and secretary of the publications board, will be portrayed on the title page of the publications section.

Two Represent Sports.

Miss Mabel Lee, director of women's athletics, and Rudy Vogeler, director of men's athletics, have been selected to represent men's and women's athletics. Activities on the campus will be personified by Prof. E. F. Schramm, advisor to the Interfraternity council.

University of Nebraska School of Music.

The fourteenth musical convocation will be presented Wednesday at 4 p. m., at the Temple theater by Antonine Coniglio, soprano, with Genevieve Wilson at the piano. The program: Haydn, "Die Seejungfer"; Schumann, "Du bist wie eine Blume"; Mendelssohn, "Auf Flügeln des Gesanges"; Meyerbeer, "Ombra Leggera"; Gesang; "Dinorah"; Dvorak, "Songs My Mother Taught Me"; Rachmaninoff, "In the Silence of the Night"; Strauss, "Voce di Primavera"; Weaver, "Moon Market"; Campbell-Tipton, "A Spirit Flower"; La Farge, "Come Unto These Yellow Sands"; Homer, "The House That Jack Built."

The weekly student recitals will be resumed Thursday at 4 p. m. The radio program Tuesday at 2:30 will be given by Carl Frederic Steckelberg, professor of violin. He will play the following suggested numbers for the state high school music contests: Roff's "Cavatine"; "Romance" from the "Second Concerto" by DeBeriot; "Meditation" by Massenet.

Herbert Schmidt will appear in a piano recital Sunday at Joslyn Memorial in Omaha.

Mr. Chenoweth's "In a Japanese Garden" was a feature of a presentation last week at Rox's new radio music hall in New York City. Friday, Mr. Chenoweth presented the following students in a studio organ recital: Winifred Byland, Josephine Waddell, Helen Jalliffe, Louise Lyman and Eugene Ellsworth.

Antonine Coniglio, graduate student with Alma Wagner, aided by Genevieve Wilson gave program at Beatrice Wednesday for the Corn Grove Annual club. Ruth Holmes, student with Alma Wagner, sang for the interchurch council party Tuesday night.

Thomas male quartet gave a program Saturday evening for the Y. W. C. A. - Y. M. C. A. group. They will also sing Sunday evening for First Christian and United Presbyterian churches. Lester Rom-bough, bass, will sing for East Lincoln Evangelical church service. Mary Hall Thomas went to Adams Friday to select those who will participate from high school in the Mudecas contest.

Miss Ethel Owen, instructor violin, gave a recital in York Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. W. W. Buckley. Mrs. R. C. Smith formerly of York was at the piano. Hazel Pricke student with Miss Owen, played a group of solos at the home of Mrs. J. S. Hedgecock Thursday afternoon.

STUDENT WILL SELL SELF Offers to Work Five Years For $3,000 to Finish College.

TEXARKANA, Tex. (CNS). Virtually placing himself on an auction block, a student of Texarkana Junior college who signed only his initials this week offered five years of his services to any bidder who would give him $3,000 to complete his educational career at the University of Texas.

The successful bidder would be pledged the five years services following his graduation. The student is said to be an honor scholar at Texarkana Junior college, a member of the student council and a football player. He hopes to become a lawyer.

Official Bulletin

RIFLE TEAMS.

The schedule for record firing for the varsity first and second teams and the freshman teams is from 1 to 4 p. m. Monday, Wednesday or Friday of next week. The record must be fired at one of the above times.

COMMERCIAL CLUB.

The Girls Commercial club will have their pictures taken at the campus studio Wednesday at 12 o'clock.

PANHELLENIC COUNCIL.

There will be a meeting of the Panhellenic council in Ellen Smith hall Monday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

All girls are asked to watch the Daily Nebraskan for announcements concerning the Big Sister board penny carnival.

The social dancing class sponsored by the Y. W. C. A. will meet Friday evening at 7 o'clock at the Armory.

EXTENSION OFFERS ECONOMIC COURSES

Reed Announces Four Sections With or Without Credit.

Four college courses in economics are now available for home study by citizens of Nebraska thru the medium of correspondence instruction, according to an announcement Saturday by the extension division of the University of Nebraska. These courses are:

Economics 3x, an introduction to economics and commerce designed to give the student a knowledge of the structure and functions of economic institutions. Economics 11x, a study of the basic facts and principles of economic life and their application to private and public welfare. Economics 12x, an extended study of of course 11x, and Economics 103x, a study of money in banking, covering all associated topics including price levels, rates of exchange, monetary systems and control of the value of money, the federal reserve system and so on.

These courses are open to all, and may be taken either for or without credit, according to Prof. A. A. Reed, director of the university extension division.

Y. M. COMMITTEES NAMED

To Nominate Candidates for Executive Offices of Association.

Nominating committees for the naming of candidates for executive offices of the university Young Men's Christian Association have been chosen, according to a statement by C. D. Hayes, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

The committee for the city campus has as chairman Dr. W. H. Morton. Meredith Nelson, Joseph La Naster and Robert Davies comprise the remainder of the committee. Professor C. E. Rosenquist has the office of chairman of the Agricultural college committee with Milan Austin, Glen Heady, Don Pilger and Abram Epp completing the membership.

The election will be held the first week in March, at which time officers will be chosen from candidates selected by the nominating committees.

You get more for your books in Long's Trade Slips. Try them. Ad.

35c

5 COURSE DINNER

- Fruit Cocktail
- Chicken Noodle Soup
- Choice of—
- Young Roast Turkey
- Young Roast Capon
- T-Bone Steak
- Two Lamb Chops
- Two Pork Chops
- Pork Tenderloin
- Combination Salad
- Asparagus Tips
- Shoe String or Mashed Potatoes
- Tea, Coffee, Milk
- Dessert

Choice of Pies or Ice Cream

BOYDEN'S Pharmacy

H. A. REED, Mgr. 13 & P Phone 67037

DANCING TONIGHT

Dance Sunday Nite where the University crowd goes. Good floor, good crowd, good music — therefore a good time for all. Come out tonight.

PLA-MOR

Admission 25c Per Person

Dancing Free

FLORENCE GARDNER

PRESENTS

SPONSORED BY THE

LINCOLN WOMAN'S CLUB

LAWRENCE TIBBETT

WORLD'S FOREMOST BARITONE

IN CONCERT

MONDAY---APRIL 3

U. of N. COLISEUM

EVERY SEAT RESERVED—$1.00 plus Gov. Tax 10c

A few choice box seats $3.00 plus tax and $2.00 plus tax

These tickets are available from members of the Lincoln Woman's club starting Monday, Feb. 6. Reservations will be filled in the order of receipt of these tickets by Florence Gardner, Hotel Cornhusker.

STUART

20,000,000 people await her glorious voice every night! And now you can see her in a REAL Show!

KATE SMITH

"Hello Everybody!"

KEEN UNITS ADDED

2 Seall Shows!

LINCOLN

Powell and His Red-Hot Love Affairs! Here's a Tip... He's Never Been Better!

WILLIAM POWELL

"Lawyer Man"

with JOAN BLONDELL SHEILA TERRY CLAIRE DODD HELEN VINSON