BARBS PLAN LAST COLISEUM AFFAIR FOR THIS SEASON

Rest of Parties to Be Held On Ag College Campus.

Plans of the Barb Council for future all-university parties indicate that the party Saturday will be the last one to be held in the Coliseum this year. The remainder will take place in the Student Activities building on the campus of the college of agriculture, according to Jack Coupland, chairman of the council.

The council announced that decorations will be less extensive than those for previous parties. The balcony will be draped with red and white banners, and there will be no decoration overhead. Proceeds from the party will go to the fund for permanent coliseum decorations.

Burton Marvin, chairman of the orchestra committee stated that Leo Beck and his eleven piece orchestra will furnish music for the affair.

Committees for arrangement, appointed by Coupland, are tickets, Wilbur Erickson, chairman, Marjorie Filley and Marlo Smith; publicity, Graham Howe, chairman, Burton Marvin and Beulah Persell; decorations, Vernon Filley, chairman, Frank Simmons and Beulah Persell; chaperones, Hughine Legge, chairman, Marjorie Filley and Marjorie Dean and poster advertising, Harry West.

TEACHER FEATURES SYMPHONY CONCERT

Carl Steckelberg Is Soloist At Music Affair Sunday.

Carl F. Steckelberg, professor at the University School of Music, was the featured soloist at a concert given by the Lincoln symphony orchestra yesterday afternoon at the Stuart theater.

Mr. Steckelberg played as his solo, the brilliant "Concerto for the Violin No. 2," by Wieniawski. Following an enthusiastic ovation Mr. Steckelberg offered as an encore, Joseph Achron's transcription of Mendelssohn's "On Wings of Song," and the "Serenade," by Franz Lehár.

An interesting and novel note was struck when Mr. Steckelberg used the original score of Wieniawski. The soloist, in explaining the variation, said that he used his father's interpretation, since he was a close friend of Wieniawski.

ARCHITECTS EXHIBIT WORK

Will Be on Display at Joslyn Memorial This Month.

Work done by the students of architecture during the past year will be on exhibit in Gallery J of Joslyn Memorial at Omaha during the month of February. The work was assembled at the request of Prof. Paul H. Grumann, formerly director of the School of Fine Arts here and now director of the Memorial.

Prof. Harry F. Cunningham, chairman of the department of architecture, will speak Sunday, Feb. 5, at the Memorial on the subject of "Taste."

Students Are Asked To Call for Books

Students are requested to call for their unsold books at the Swap Shop between 11:30 and 1:30 and between 3:30 and 5:30 any day this week.

AG SKITS ARE SUBMITTED

Approximately Twelve Plays Are Turned In for Coll-Agri-Fun.

More than a dozen skits have been turned in to the Coll-Agri-Fun executive committee for consideration, according to Chairman Mark Hackman. Tuesday is the deadline for skits to be entered. All skits will be examined, and the committee will announce a tryout date very soon.

Both Farm House and Alpha Gamma Rho are preparing skits for the coming show. Other important groups contending for a place on the program are the Farm Operators Short Course, ag college boarding club, ag college chorus, the students Y. M. C. A., and the Cornhusker Countryman staff.

SECTIONS OF ANNUAL CLOSE THIS SATURDAY

Fraternity and Sorority Divisions of Yearbook To Be Finished.

Fraternity and sorority sections of the 1933 Cornhusker will be closed next Saturday, Feb. 11, at both Hauck's and Townsend's studios, Ralph Spencer, editor of the yearbook announced Monday.

He advised all fraternities and sororities to insist that their members have pictures taken for their section in the annual by Saturday. In the majority of houses there is a fine which usually amounts to the price of having them taken for members and pledges who do not have their pictures in the Cornhusker.

Spencer stated that at the present time 677 pictures have been taken for the fraternity section and 591 for the sorority section. "These figures," he said, "represent a great majority of the Greek letter students but there are still a few students who wait until the last minute. I want to impress upon them that pictures will not be accepted after Saturday."

ENGINEERS PLAN TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING FEB. 25

The second annual Nebraska Engineers roundup has been planned for Feb. 25 at Omaha. This movement was started last year at the University of Nebraska under the sponsorship of Dean O. J. Ferguson of the College of Engineering, who is serving on the program committee.

STUDY GROUPS TO MEET

Y. W. C. A. Discussions Held By Students Every Friday.

Study groups, sponsored by Miss Bernice Miller secretary of the Y. W. C. A., meet every Friday from 3 to 4 o'clock or every Sunday from 9 to 10:30 o'clock. "A Study of the Life of Jesus" is the main topic taken up in fourteen sessions. The theme for this week is "Principles for Living." All university girls are invited to attend.

BIG SISTER BOARD TO SPONSOR FIRST 'PENNY CARNIVAL'

Affair Will Be Held Next Saturday in Grant Memorial Hall.

Grant Memorial hall will be the seat of a new tradition to be established on the Nebraska campus next Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 p. m. with the advent of the first "Penny Carnival," which will be sponsored by the Big Sister Board.

A stage show—with novelty acts and dancing—presented from 3 to 4 o'clock is to be one of the feature attractions. This will be given by the members of the various Hobby clubs. The walls of the Armory will be surrounded with booths housing mysteries and all other attractions characteristic of a true carnival.

Deloris Deadman, the president of the Big Sister Board, is general chairman of the affair. Margaret Medlar will take charge of the money exchange at the door. The "den of horrors" is under the supervision of Lucile Reilly with Alice Beekman and Louise Perry and assistants. Lucile Reilly will also take care of the stage show. The fortune telling and puppet show will be handled by Ruth Cherny. Margaret Chevront will be in charge of the "fish pond," and Margaret Reedy will manage the "trip around the world" booth, and have charge of the pictures. Dorothy Charleson will sponsor dancing, and Denice Greene will draw caricatures. The Tassels will sell balloons.

NEBRASKANS REACH FOR FLANNELS AS COLD WAVE HITS

Blair Predicts Continued Cold for Thirty-Six Hours.

Br-rr-rr-rr-rr! Nebraska joes and coeds are shivering and scurrying around the campus. Hats, caps, books and other paraphernalia are clutched grimly by the students, as Ole Man Winter makes his official 1933 debut here riding high on a wintry blast from Canada and the northwest.

Little Johnnie Groundhog certainly didn't miss his bearings when he climbed back in his hole predicting six more weeks of winter, in spite of the mild "california" weather which Nebraskans have been enjoying since the first of the year.

Cold Wave Will Continue.

According to the predictions of Thomas Blair, the official meteorologist.

Stanford Abolishes Traditional Bonfire

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal. (CNS). For reasons of economy, the student executive committee this week announced it had abolished the traditional "big game" bonfire, which annually was set off just before the Stanford-California football clash. The last bonfire cost $785.

EIGHT SKITS TURNED IN

Acts to Be Shown Between Episodes at Coed Follies.

Eight skits have been turned in to be presented Friday evening at the Co-ed Follies. Gamma Phi Beta, Chi Omega, Raymond hall, Kappa Delta, Alpha Delta Theta, Delta Delta Delta, Alpha Chi Omega and Delta Gamma are the groups which have turned in skits. One other skit has been received, but the name of the organization was omitted. As soon as this name is turned in, the committee will judge the plans.

Margaret Upson, Margaret Buol, and Calista Cooper compose the committee which will decide upon the skits. The numbers are to be presented between episodes in the style show at the follies.

KOSMET KLUB PLAY WILL BE ANNOUNCED

Committee to Meet With Professor to Read Manuscripts.

Selection of the play to be used in the annual Kosmet Klub spring show, which will probably be presented the last part of April, will be announced within a short time, Jack Thompson, president of the Klub, announced yesterday.

The committee selected by the Klub to read the plays submitted for consideration will meet with Prof. E. F. Schramm, faculty adviser to the organization, this afternoon to read some of the manuscripts submitted, Thompson said.

The committee will decide upon the play to be used and will then decide whether a mixed cast or an all male cast will be used in the show, according to members of the Klub. Work on the show will start as soon as possible.

The first call for applications for workers for the show was made last week by the Klub. Applications are to be turned in to Dick Moran in the office of the Daily Nebraskan any afternoon. Those who applied for work on the fall show need not apply again, Thompson said.

CUNNINGHAM WILL SPEAK

Professor Will Give Talk at L'Alliance Francaise Meeting.

"National Character of the French People," will be the subject of the talk which will be given by Prof. Harry Cunningham of the architecture department following a dinner of L'Alliance Francaise this evening at the Cornhusker hotel. About forty persons are expected to attend the affair, and Michael Ginsburg, president, will preside. The meeting is open to all persons who are interested.

Y. W. C. A. TO HOLD A MEETING TO SET UP NEW CABINET

A cabinet setting-up conference of the Y. W. C. A. will be held Friday and Saturday Feb. 10 and 11 at the city Y. W. C. A. On Friday meetings will be held from 4 to 9:30 o'clock and on Saturday from 9 to 12 o'clock. This conference is held to install the new cabinet. Plans for the meeting will be announced later in the week.

Technocracy Impresses A Student at Antioch

NEW YORK. (CNS). Technocracy made a distinct impression on Valeska Becker, journalism student at Antioch college.

After listening attentively to a lecture sponsored by the First Humanist Society on "Technocracy's Electric Dollars," she dropped the following note in the collection plate when it was passed:

"My contribution (I have no money) is twenty kilowatts of my energy in working for humanism." Her offer was accepted.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS PRESENTING 'PORGY' OPENS AT TEMPLE

Forty-Eight Persons Take Part in Portraying the Life of Negro.

Playing to a fairly large audience, the University Players gave their fourth drama of the year, "Porgy," by DuBose Hayward on Monday night. The play was directed by Miss H. Alice Howell.

A well balanced performance, "Porgy" showed many spots of especial dramatic importance, while comedy prevailed in many other scenes. The entire cast of twenty-four, plus a chorus of twenty-four and seven children all did good work, while the singing of the chorus aided by solos by Dorothy Dean, Evelyn Johnson and William Molden gave the whole production an element of life that few shows express.

Lilliard Does Good Work.

W. Zolley Lerner did his usual fine work, approaching altho not equalling his performance last year in Emperor Jones. Francis Brandt gave a characterization better than he has ever done before, while Dorothy Zoellner played her role to the fullest. Exceptionally fine work was done by J. R. Lilliard, in his double role of Sportin' Life and Lawyer Frazier. Armand Hunter gave a good character role, while Al Tiffany and Nora Osborne also did good work.

"Porgy" is the story of the negroes in Charleston, South Carolina.

Y.W.C.A. SWAP SHOP FOUND SUCCESSFUL

Plan to Continue the Idea Summer Session and Fall Term.

The swap shop was successful, and the practice will be continued for the summer session and next fall, according to Miss Bernice Miller, secretary of the Y. W. C. A., which sponsored the enterprise.

Although definite figures are not yet available, the organization made enough money to pay for the installing of shelves and furnishing the room in the Temple, which the shop will continue to use, Miss Miller declared.

Students may obtain checks for books which were sold this week. If they wish they may also get books which they left there and were not sold, or these may be left with the committee in charge of the shop until it reopens in the summer.

"The enterprise seems to meet with the approval of the students, and as long as it makes operating expenses, it will be continued," stated Miss Miller.

SANDERSON TO BE MAIN SPEAKER AT NU-MED BANQUET

Dr. D. D. Sanderson of Lincoln will be the main speaker at the Nu Med banquet scheduled for Wednesday evening, Feb. 8, according to an announcement made yesterday by Dave Meyers, president of the organization. The banquet will be held at 6 o'clock in the Grand Hotel.

Hunt Will Continue Lecture at Vespers

Rev. Ray Hunt, pastor of the Christian church will continue his lecture on "Love and Marriage" at vespers this evening. "Marriage Vow and What It Means" is the subject for this session. The vesper choir will sing. Gertrude Clarke will preside.

Chorus Features Current Production

One of the features of the current production of the University Players, "Porgy," is the chorus of thirty colored singers of Lincoln. William Molden, soloist, was the winner of the state high school contest in the low voice group in 1931.

Zolley Lerner plays the part of Porgy. More than fifty persons, including the chorus, are employed in the presentation of this show.
