At the close of the style show, feature of the Coed Follies in Temple Theater this evening, Jane Axtell, president of A. W. S. board, will present Nebraska's Best-dressed girl chosen at a meeting of the board yesterday noon. The identity of the girl and the manner of her presentation will be kept a secret until the program this evening.

The honor will go to one of the following university women: Eleanor Jones, Florence Panter, Jane Youngson, Cathleen Long, Martha Hershey, Leontine Larson, Alyce Widman, Evelyn Frundell, Priscilla Eiche, Jane Steele, Gerayne Crawford, Genevieve Boslaugh, Francis Stringfield, Carianne Felter, and Jane Von Segern.

Groups Present Stunts.

The stage will be in the form of two fashion books from which the models will appear wearing garments from Gold and Company. Stunts and curtain acts from Delta Gamma, Delta Delta Delta, Gamma Phi Beta, Carrie Belle Raymond Hall, Chi Omega and the Alpha Phi trio will be additional features of the evening's entertainment.

Eleanor Dixon has acted as general chairman of the affair and has been assisted by Jane Boos. (Continued on Page 2.)

GLEE CLUB PRESENTS MUSICAL CONVOCATION

Prof. Parvin Witte Directs Program Vocal Numbers Wednesday.

The sixteenth musical convocation of the university school of music, which was held Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, in the Temple theater, presented the University of Nebraska Glee Club, under the direction of Prof. Parvin Witte.

The program opened with a group of three selections by the glee club, "Listen Lovely Maid," Evans; "Bells at Eventide" from Rachmaninoff's Prelude in C sharp minor, and "Come Again, Sweet Love," Dowland. The glee club was assisted in its next number, "Serenade," Romberg, from "The Student Prince," by Morris Poaster, Russell Gilman, Alfred Reider, and Ernest Gore as soloists.

Quartet Gives Numbers.

The quartet consisting of Russell Gilman, first tenor, Kenneth Fulscher, second tenor, Alfred Reider, baritone, and Ernest Gore, bass, next presented "Swing Along!" Cook, "Secrets," Smith, and "Short'nin' Bread," Wolfe.

Morris Poaster sang as solos, "O Sleep Why Dost Thou Leave Me?", Handel, and "Mountains," Rasbach.

In concluding the program, the glee club sang another group of numbers, which included "Chorus of Departing Pilgrims," and "Chorus of Returning Pilgrims," from Wagner's Tannhauser, "Slavonic Dance," Dvorak-McLeod, "The Builder," Cadman, and "My Native Land," Forsyth.

AWGWAN TO APPEAR ON CAMPUS FRIDAY

Four Colored Old Fashioned Valentine Covers by Gordon Is Used.

Featured with a special four color cover of an old fashioned valentine by Morris Gordon, the February issue of the Awgwan will make its appearance on the campus Friday.

Having as its theme the Valentine motive, the girl-of-the-month has been selected from the standpoint of all around beauty, according to H. Francis Cunningham, jr., editor of the Awgwan.

Another feature of this issue of the Awgwan will be the pictures of six girls, irrespective of affiliation, who were chosen by a mixed committee, and were judged by the beauty of the individual photographs.

Novelty to Appear.

A novelty has been inserted in the February Awgwan, where the results of the election of the twelve most prominent men as to which girls have the best figure, face, hair, voice, personality, will be recorded.

Chuck and Phyllis have struck a snag in the upgrade to love in Neil McFarland's third story concerning the trials and tribulations of two freshmen who believe themselves in love.

Husker Campus Has Unusual Girl in Jane Youngson, Prom Girl Candidate

Editor's Note: This is the first of a series of three interviews with the candidates for the Prom girl, one of whom will be presented at the Junior-Senior Prom.

When the German star, Marlene Dietrich, arrived in America, critics cried, "—glamorous, exotic, intellectual, and exciting," in one breath. Frequently one sees pictures of such a woman in art galleries, or on magazine covers but seldom do we find the living example of this rare combination. The Husker campus has the unusual. She's charming. She's intelligent. She's exotic. She's one of the best dressed women on the Nebraska campus. She's Jane Youngson, one of the candidates for Prom girl.

Last summer Jane went to Hollywood, the port of beautiful women—where fascinating, shallow blondes and unattractive, learned blondes come and go. It certainly isn't unusual when an ordinary woman visits Hollywood but when one so entirely different as Jane passes through she doesn't have to view the homes of stars from the top of sight seeing buses or read in the current movie magazines at just what kind of parties the actors and actresses are entertained. She was entertained at parties given by Wallace Beery and other stars of equal universal importance.

Jane Plans Career.

Jane is very interested in the business world and intends to be a business woman in some large concern some day. Although she isn't a musician she is seriously planning on taking piano lessons next year. Nothing like being versatile, she believes. Jane is one of the few persons who believes in

ARGUERS TO MEET MISSOURI SCHOOLS IN RADIO CONTEST

Husker Debaters to Uphold Affirmative Side World War Debt Question.

Nebraska debate teams will meet St. Louis university and Missouri Normal college of Marysville in radio debates, Thursday, Feb. 23, on the question: Resolved: That the Inter-Allied World War Debts and Reparations Should Be Cancelled.

A team composed of Charles W. Steadman and Harvey H. Hillman will argue the affirmative side of the question against the St. Louis team over station KFAB from 3:15 to 4 o'clock. Each speaker will be allowed six minutes for a constructive speech and four minutes for a rebuttal.

EDITOR WILL DEDICATE CORNHUSKER TO DADS

Each of Seven Sections to Appropriately Convey Idea to Students.

The 1933 Cornhusker will be dedicated to "Dad", according to word from R. W. Spencer, editor of the year book, yesterday.

The dedication, which will appear in the forward section of the book, will be appropriately written up conveying the idea to the students, as well as the dads. The dedication will be featured throughout the division pages of the seven divisions of the annual.

"This sort of dedication, to my knowledge, is the first of its kind in any publication of this sort," declared Spencer.

Spencer felt that this new idea would greatly add to the attractiveness of the Cornhusker.

GEOLOGISTS HEAR FIELDLER

Fifty Attend Luncheon by Sigma Gamma Epsilon At Grand Hotel.

Dr. Albert G. Fieldler, of the water research branch of the United States Geology Survey, gave a short talk at a luncheon sponsored by Sigma Gamma Epsilon, honorary geology fraternity, at the Grand Hotel, yesterday noon.

The meeting, which was attended by over fifty students and faculty members of geology department, also heard Mr. H. O. Williams, hydraulic engineer for the Edgar Johnson Co. of St. Paul, Mr. Williams spoke on some of the water resource problems in this country and abroad.

The luncheon was in charge of F. W. Johnson, president of Sigma Gamma Epsilon.

HISTORY INSTRUCTOR TO GIVE ADDRESSES

Roy E. Cochran, Professional Institute President, Leaves On Minnesota Trip.

Roy E. Cochran, associate professor of American History, left Lincoln last night for a trip to Minneapolis, Saint Paul, and Duluth, Minnesota.

Mr. Cochran, in his capacity as national president of the American Inter-professional Institute, will address the chapters of that organization located in those cities. Thursday night he will speak before a joint meeting of the Minneapolis and Saint Paul chapters, and Friday he is to go to Duluth to address the chapter there.

Both of these speeches will be on "The United States in its World Setting." Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning Mr. Cochran will spend in Minneapolis in a session of the executive council of the Institute, at which time plans will be made for the national convention to be held in November.

KLUB PLEASED WITH INTEREST EVIDENCED AT KOSMET TRYOUTS

Over Forty Seek Parts in The Spring Production Given Annually.

"New interest was clearly evidenced in at least one campus activity by the number of students that tried out on the Kosmet Klub tryout program Tuesday night. The Klub was more than satisfied with the talent which was shown." Jack Thompson, president of Kosmet Klub stated yesterday.

With over forty trying out for parts in the Kosmet Klub's annual spring production, "The Bar Nothing Ranch," Klub officials were pleased with the high calibre of talent which reported.

Because many wishing to try for parts in the show were taken up with the Intrafraternity council meeting and a cappella choir concert, another and final tryout has been scheduled for Sunday, according to Jack Thompson.

"The cast for 'The Bar Nothing Ranch,' will be chosen as soon as the committee can meet and discuss the tryouts, as well as check the eligibility of those desiring parts, in the dean's office," said Thompson. No selections for the choruses or the cast will be made until after Sunday.

The committee which will choose the cast is composed of Herb Yenne, author and director of "The Bar Nothing Ranch," Ralph Ireland, chorus director, and Jack Thompson, president of Kosmet Klub.

TICKET SALES SHOW CROWD TO ATTEND HONORARY'S PARTY

Snyder and His Ostrestra, With Owens Sisters, Will Play.

Checkup on early sales of tickets for the second annual Mortar Board party to be held in the Coliseum, Friday night, Feb. 24, indicates that a large crowd will be in attendance.

Mel Snyder and his Gold Coast orchestra of Chicago, which features the Owens sisters trio, will furnish the entertainment. Snyder and his band have to their credit, among others, engagements at the Kit Kat Club in London, Coat of Arms, Biarritz; Moulin Rouge, New York, and the Drake hotel in Chicago.

The band comes direct to Lincoln on an engagement at the famous Muehlebach hotel in Kansas City, Mo. The Owens Sisters have recently been featured on the Fox West Coast Theaters circuit, where they have attained great popularity.

Tickets may still be obtained from members of Mortar Board, Alpha Delta Lambda, and Tassels, and all girls are urged to secure ducats at once.

Proceeds from the party will go to increase the Mortar Board scholarship fund by $100, for which reason, decorations for this year's party have been omitted. Any additional receipts realized will be applied to the fund for permanent decorations for the coliseum, which is now nearing the required amount.

UNIVERSITY PLAYERS WILL SHOW 'CAMILLE'

Augusta French, Theodore Diers, Clifton Conoway In Leading Roles.

Leads for the new production of the University Players, "Camille," as announced yesterday by Miss Alice Howell, director, will be taken by Miss Augusta French, as Camille; Mr. Theodore Diers will take the part of Monsieur Duval, and Clifton Conoway will play Armand. Both Miss French and Mr. Conoway are students in the university, while Mr. Diers is a member of the school of music faculty.

The fifth production to be presented this year by the University Players was written by Dumas. The play will be presented by the university dramatic organization the week starting March 6, at the Temple theater.

The plot of "Camille" centers around the romantic love story of Armand and Camille. The story hinges on the efforts of Monsieur Duval's attempts to break up the romance between his daughter and Armand.

The play is now being run at two of the leading theaters on Broadway. Miss Le Gallienne, famous stage actress of international fame, is taking the leading role of Camille at the Civic Repertory theater, while Miss Lillian Gish and company are running at another prominent Broadway theater.

"Camille" was made famous by Miss Sara Bernhardt, famous Parisian actress, whose portrayal of the lead is regarded as the best by many prominent critics.
