After the purposes and doings of each group have been explained, the girls may, if they wish, choose and join the activity in which they are most interested.

NAZIS SEEK PURE RACE

lated and governed by a pure Aryan stock. Anyone applying for a political position in Germany now must furnish proof that his father, mother, grandfather and grandmother on both sides, are Aryan.

"You cannot understand the situation in Germany," continued Pfeiler, "if you do not realize that communism was very close to seizing control of Germany before the arrival of the Nazi regime."

Hitler has accomplished what many before him have tried to do but failed, Pfeiler continued. He has forged and molded the Germans into one nation by doing away with the power of the individual states. Germany is now one uniform empire.

Outcome Uncertain.

Professor Pfeiler refused to make any predictions about the outcome of Hitlerism in Germany. He believes that "the proof of the pudding will be in the eating." And he also thinks that it will take several years before anything definite can be ascertained.

"As Professor Fling, in an interview with a Berlin newspaper, has recently pointed out, it is the re-awakening of nationalism, the turning away from the idea of real international co-operation which can be witnessed today in Germany. The national idea has become stronger not only in Germany but in all countries," Pfeiler stated.

In four countries he has seen evidence of this fact. In France the French people buy only French goods, in England they buy English goods, and in America we are to patronize American industries. World-wide trend toward economic nationalism is now in progress, he believes. From world co-operation we are headed toward "Autarkie," a current German word meaning national self-sufficiency.

Germany Stands Alone.

The Hitler government at first isolated Germany from the world. The stress of military form and display and racial prejudice antagonized all of the nations of the world. This feeling was strengthened by additional false rumors until at the present time Germany stands quite alone, Mr. Pfeiler believes.

The leading men in the government knew little about foreign attitude and psychology, in fact few could speak any language but German, he said. Realizing the inadvisability of this situation, Mr. Pfeiler believes to see signs that Hitler is beginning to change his foreign policy. His first aim is to get equality of arms as an expression of the fact that Germany is to be considered the equal of other nations. "A nation of sixty-five million people cannot be kept down and will not be content to remain a pariah," Professor Pfeiler stated.

Favor Socialism.
Hitler makes a sincere attempt to remove class prejudice and distinction. In this he apparently shows genuine socialism. One method which he has proposed to this end is that every German serve one year in the labor army doing manual labor. Professor Pfeiler reiterated his inability to predict the outcome of the Hitler regime with the exception of the fact that he stated his firm belief that Hitler will remain in power for some time to come.

The new Nazi salute was quite interesting to Dr. Pfeiler. It is a form of greeting required of everyone in Germany. In the courts of law when the judge enters, he raises his right hand in the approved manner and says, "Hail, Hitler." The members of the court rise and reply in the same way. A school teacher, when entering his classrooms, greets the pupils with these words, and they answer in kind. So it is everywhere in the country, although individuals cannot be forced to use it in their private relations.

Professor Pfeiler concluded: "The purpose of the Nazi regime, according to their statement, is to establish a pure racial stock in which everyone shares rights and duties, in which there is social justice, and special privileges for none. In short, the only want as they say: 'Peace, freedom, and bread.'" and a great number of the houses are taking advantage of this offer," he added.

Price is $1.50.

The price for individual subscriptions to the Nebraskan is one dollar and fifty cents for the entire year, while the price for blocks of twenty-five is thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents. Mail subscriptions of the publication sell for two dollars and fifty cents for the year. "Due to a considerable increase in advertising revenue this year, the subscription price has been lowered over the cost in previous years," Jennings declared. "It will cost the students less than one cent an issue, and it is the lowest priced college daily paper in America."

Distribution booths for the Daily Nebraskan will be located in the first floor hall of Social Science hall and in the finance office in Agricultural hall on the college of agriculture campus. Subscribers will be required to present receipts for copies of the paper until they become known at the booths. The booths will be open from 7:45 p. m. until 12:05 p. m. After that time copies must be obtained at the office of the Daily Nebraskan. Numerous subscriptions have already been received from former students in all parts of the country in addition to others scattered through the nation. The Nebraskan maintains a large exchange list with other college papers in order to keep abreast of the events in other schools.

STUDENT OPINION FAVORS COUNCIL REORGANIZATION

should help a lot and can do much to bolster the cause of fraternities in general."

"Whatever reorganization plans may be decided upon," John Gephson, president of the student council, stated, "there must be more work and less politics. I favor the senior-junior plan of representation and believe it will be accepted. The alumni council may help, but I believe the problems it proposes to discuss are not truly interfraternity matters and should be left to the individual fraternities."

President Should Be Delegate.

"The president and junior alternate form of representation seems the best to me," Frank Musgrave, president of Kosmet Klub, said. "The president certainly has the interests of his fraternity at heart, and I believe he should be the delegate. The alumni council is all right, but it should not infringe on the bounds of the Interfraternity Council's work."

"The reorganization of the Interfraternity Council is the first big step toward eliminating corrupt politics on the campus," Lloyd Loomis, secretary of the council, stated. "I believe the senior-junior plan of membership is the best submitted thus far, and if senior men are appointed on committees, politics will most certainly be removed from the council. The alumni council should give approach to general fraternity problems, if fraternities will only bare the facts to it."

Should Eliminate Politics.

"Reorganization of the council and elimination of politics is an excellent idea," Otto Kotouc, member of Innocents declared. "The senior-junior plan seems the most satisfactory to me. I doubt if the alumni council will work as intended; in my opinion, the undergraduates should take care of these matters themselves."

"The fraternity should choose either a senior or junior man as its delegate, but all committee workers of the council should be seniors," Fred Nicklas, council representative, asserted. "The alumni council's intentions are good, I believe, but I am somewhat skeptical as to the results of its work."

Efficient Plan Necessary.

"The plan of reorganization doesn't matter so long as it fulfills the ultimate purpose of forming an efficient organization free from politics," Larry Hall, editor of the Daily Nebraskan, said.
