CAMPUS BUSY PREPARING WELCOME FOR DADS AND DEFEAT FOR OKLAHOMANS

Oklahoma Sophomore Squad Is Determined to Upset Huskers Saturday.

BIG SIX FEATURE TILT

Sooner Stock Rises After Its Impressive Showing Against Ames.

By Irwin Ryan.

Determined at all costs to dislodge the Huskers from their leadership in the Big Six title race, Coach Lindsey's Oklahoma Sooners are drilling intensively for the headliner conference clash between the two schools this Saturday in what may prove to be one of the most spirited and closely contested games on the Nebraska schedule.

Inability of the Oklahoma sophomores to adjust themselves readily to varsity competition gave the Sooners an uncertain start this year which resulted in a scoreless tie with Vanderbilt and a loss to Tulsa. However, Coach Lindsey believes that the powerful outfit of first year men has at last found themselves and are prepared to contest the Biblemen bitterly in their attempt to recapture the conference throne.

Trounce Ames Squad.

Emerging victorious over the Iowa Stater's by drowning them in a deluge of scoring power which had heretofore been lacking, the Sooners proved to conference skeptics that they had plenty of power and are to be classed among the best contenders for titular honors.

Fans from the Sooner camp expect much from the superb passing and punting of Bob Dunlap, and hope to be able to show Nebraska some ground gaining with Bill Fansze, Nig Robertson and Raleigh Francis performing behind a capable line.

With this serious and aggressive effort on the part of the Lindseymen to give what they consider to be one of the toughest teams on their roster an upset, a defeat while unlikely, is nevertheless possible.

Have Sophomore Line.

Reports from the Oklahoma camp state that the game promises to be largely a quarrel between Oklahoma's sophomore line, led by the formidable and fighting Cash Gentry, 180 pound tackle, and the smoothly running offensive of the Cornhuskers which has led the Biblemen to a decisive victory in every game so far this year.

As the Husker's goal line still remains uncrossed by opposing teams the contest promises to afford plenty of zip and spirit from each side. As evidenced by the statistics taken from the Iowa State battle Oklahoma had the defensive edge, her forwards throwing Iowa State for 17 1-2 yards in losses to 9 for the Huskers.

This is Coach Dana X. Bible's fifth year as mentor of Nebraska football teams. During this time he has won the Big Six title every year but one, dropping the title to Kansas. Last year an unlucky break spoiled the Huskers' chances of finishing the season unbeaten. A 7 to 6 victory for Minnesota topped such aspirations. With a strong aggregation of veterans back this year he is expected to do big things with the Huskers.

Game Captains

Jack Miller and John Roby are scheduled to lead the Huskers in their coming battle with Coach Lindsey's gridmen here in the memorial stadium next Saturday.

Parents Invited to Inspect Buildings on Campus Saturday.

An array of attractions will greet the fathers and mothers of students visiting the campus on Dad's day, this Saturday. Among them will be a luncheon, party, and a football game.

Buildings on the campus will be open during the morning in order that the parents may be able to actually inspect the university in detail. "I hope that all the out-of-town parents will take the time to go thru the buildings during the morning," stated L. F. Season, operating superintendent of the university. He stated that this would be a good time for them to see the equipment of the university, its advantages and disadvantages.

Guy Chambers, president of the alumni association, former president of the Innocents and now Lincoln attorney will be the main speaker at the Dad's day luncheon which will be held in the Cornhusker hotel at noon. Eddie Jungbluth and his orchestra will play at the luncheon and Dr. Condra will initiate the mothers and fathers into Mu Alpha and Delta Alpha Delta.

"Every student should co-operate in getting his parents to attend the luncheon," stated Woodrow Magee, Innocent in charge of Dad's day. "This is the only time in the year when many fathers have a chance to spend a 'football day' at the university."

Chancellor Burnett and other university officials will attend the luncheon to welcome the Dads, and Mothers Byron Goulding, president of the Innocents society, will preside at the affair. Approximately 300 are expected to attend.

Harold Haynes and his Commanders will play at the Dad's day party at the coliseum in the evening. Haynes and his orchestra recently played a fifteen week engagement at the Oak Ridge ballroom in Chicago. There will be no other university parties in the evening as it is a closed night.

one of the best ball hugging backs on the squad Jack performs end sweeps mixed with line plunges which usually add up the yardage. Miller plays halfback on offense and safety on defense.

John Roby, ex-Nelson high athlete, is the fastest man on the squad. Roby plays either end equally well and is sometimes hauled back for end sweeps. Last year he also performed on Coach Schulte's track team and is expected to accomplish much in the way of track this year. His pet race is the 220 yard dash.

Most pleasure costs money. Some cost so far out of proportion to their worth, that "Dads" sometimes say, "go easy," to sons away at school.

Here's a brand of fun Dad won't complain about, call him by telephone and invite him down for "Dad's Day" and the big game.

Just give the operator your home telephone number and say . . . "I want to reverse the charge"—Dad will take care of the rest.
