BY BURT MARVIN. Irwin Ryan, the regular writer of this column, is on the sick list

Quite a number of Daily Ne-braskan readers (are there?) have sent in their guesses on the results of six major midwest football games which are to be held this Saturday afternoon, Of course, the guesses can't be adjudged good or bad as yet. It is urged that many more persons get in the money, so to speak, by sending in their surmisals as to the scores of the five

Although Nebraska has the sutake the the gritty Sooner one, a line that is much better than the one that Letter. held Nebraska touchdownless at Norman last November, Of course you can turn the thing around too, and say that Oklahoma hasn't yet faced a running attack as ruthless as Nebraska's, and that the Ne-braska offensive this year is said to be even better than last.

Three Yards In Five Downs. Oklahoma deserved to vanquish lowa State by the same three touchdown margin scored by Nebraska the preceding Saturday However the first fumbled punt of Bill Pansze's varsity career left Iowa State the ball on the Oklahoma 3-yard line and although the Cyclones failed to put it over in four downs. Oklahoma was offside on the fourth and on a fifth trial Iowa State wormed the ball an inch across the touchdown stripe.

Realizing that football figures frequently do lie and that the payoff is on the final score, nevertheiess an interesting comparison of the Nebraska and Oklahoma teams is seen in the figures each compiled against Iowa State. With the exception of punt returns, in which Bill Pansze's 127 yards in seven trials considerably cutstripped Nebraska's efforts, the Cornhuskers have the better offensive showing.
