Small Nebraska Delegation Travels To Pittsburgh to View Grid Battle

NEBRASKA ROOTERS IN PITTSBURGH SATURDAY will be greatly in the minority, although quite a few decided to go at the last moment and left in a hurry. We called a meeting of the fraternity and sorority houses yesterday afternoon in an effort to find out who was going, and finally assembled a list of about twenty-five. Most of them are boys.

The Sig Chas will be represented by more than any other house on the campus. Those going are Anthony Kirkpatrick, Bernie McKinney, Orville Hanel, Bill Wilcox, Ralph Becker, and John Hutke. Only two girls are going as far as we could find out yesterday. They are Alice Beckman from the Delta Gamma house and Annie Bunting from the Pi Phi house. Bill Bacon, Glenn Mace, and Jim Eby are the A. T. O. S. Dean Bowen and Lawrence Ely are the Kappa Sig who intend to make the trip. Bob Trout, Sigma Nu, and Edde Lyman, Sig Alpha, are two more who plan to be there. George Murphy and Howard Wheeler, Alpha Sig, and Jack Warner and Walter Nolte, Beta, are going.

BUT FRIDAY AND SATURDAY nights won't be as dull as we thought they'd be, considering the number of parties that were given last week and to celebrate homecoming. There are three dances scheduled for Friday night and four for Saturday.

AT THE LINCOLN country club Friday night, the members of John's daughters will hold their annual fall party. About 200 couples are expected to attend the affair, which will feature carnival decorations.

THE AG TASSELS will give a mixer at the Student Activities building Friday night at 8:30. Professor and Mrs. H. R. Davis and C. E. Rosenquist will be the chaperons.

AND CHAPERONING THE Phi Tau Theta dance at the Wesley foundation Friday will be Reverend and Mrs. W. C. Farwell and Mr. and Mrs. W. Edgar Gates. Paul W. Day is in charge of the arrangements.

ABOUT FIFTY COUPLES are expected to attend the Beta party Saturday night at the chapter house, when an eight-piece orchestra will provide music for dancing. Harley Case, social chairman, is making the plans for the event, which will be chaperoned by Mrs. J. S. Pierce and R. C. Dean.

AND THE PI PHIS expect the same number at their house party Saturday, which the pledges are giving in honor of the actives. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Corey and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Luikart are the chaperons.

The CHI OMEGAS are entertaining Saturday night at a house dance, which is in charge of Marguerite Tramp. Prof. Lloyd D. Teale and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Cole have been selected as chaperons.

SEVERAL OUT OF TOWN guests will be at the Delta party at the house Saturday night, which about forty couples are expected to attend. The chaperons have not yet been announced.

AND THE WEEKEND calendar includes several affairs for mothers, alums and auxiliary members of fraternities and sororities. The luncheon meetings seem to lead in popularity.

A QUILTING BEE and luncheon will be given by the Phi Mu mothers at the chapter house at one o'clock today. Hostesses will be Mrs. W. A. Sain, Mrs. A. L. Lindberg and Mrs. H. A. Johnston.

AND THE MONTHLY business meeting of the Lambda Chi auxiliary will be at the home of Mrs. W. H. Hartwell this afternoon.

AT THE UNIVERSITY club this noon the Kappa Sig alums will

Saturday. Assisting her will be Mrs. Perry Branch, Mrs. Donald Pegler, Mrs. George Proudfit, Mrs. Curry Carroll, Mrs. C. B. Husted, Miss Rowena Bengston, Mrs. Robert Danielson, and Mrs. Richard Spangler.

THE ALLIANCE of A. T. O. will hold a one o'clock luncheon at the chapter house today with Mrs. A. L. Moeller, Mrs. C. A. Carpenter, Mrs. H. H. Foster and Mrs. C. A. Reynolds as hostesses.

PLANS FOR SEVERAL affairs for the active chapter will be made at the luncheon meeting of the Mothers' club at the Kappa house Saturday at 12:30. Mrs. Harry Everett, president, will preside.

PLANNING TO SPEND Saturday and Sunday at their home in Norfolk are June Butler and Helen Mashik, Kappa Delta pledges.

BRIDGE PROVIDED THE entertainment for the alumnae of Gamma Phi, following the business meeting at the home of Mrs. W. A. Fraser last night. Fourteen guests were present, including Miss Dorothea Kind of Crete.

THE PLEDGES of Phi Chi Theta, professional business administration sorority, were entertained last night by the active and alumnae members at a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Archie C. Reed. Decorations were in purple and gold and Thanksgiving colors, and the evening was spent informally. Mrs. J. E. LeRosaing was the honored guest among the twenty-four who attended.

ARRIVING FROM DENVER for a short visit with the Nebraska chapter is Mrs. Helen Stang, Lewis, president of Iowa province of Pi Phi. A formal dinner which was to be given at the chapter house this evening in her honor, has been postponed due to the fact that her train will not be in until late this evening.

THE FIRST AVIATRIX to land a plane in Lincoln, Mrs. Jimmy Kolp, will be entertained Friday afternoon by Mary Virginia Brown, sophomore coed, and her mother at the Cornhusker hotel. Mrs. Kolp arrived here Wednesday with the Goodwill Tour honoring Dr. J. D. Brock who completed his 1461st consecutive daily flight without a mishap.

Coming in a squadron of sixteen planes, under the honorary escort of three military planes, the Texas aviatrix was met by Mrs.

John Burkett, a college classmate, and her niece, Mary Virginia Brown, and entertained at a luncheon given under the auspices of the Lincoln chamber of commerce. After continuing her tour to Kansas City, Mrs. Kolp will fly back to Lincoln with her mother.

Literary Society Announces Pledges. The Delian-Union Literary Society announces the pledging of Miss Joan Becknell, Lincoln; Miss Ruth Kuehn, Murdock; Miss Lilette Jacques, Stanton; Mr. Edwin Rott, St. Paul, and George Barrett, Shelton.

"The idea that girls are an inspiration to do bigger and better things is a hoax," says Frank Michael Percarovich of Gonzaga university.

The home economics classes at Iowa State college are displaying dolls they have costumed in the ruffles and bustles of past centuries.

hold their regular monthly luncheon, when about twenty members will be present. Mr. O. J. King is making the arrangements.

MRS. OLIVE WATSON will entertain the Theta alums at a one o'clock luncheon at her home

Now...in regard to your love life

Many a girl would confess to boredom at resting her shapely head against nothing but the usual plain colored shirts. So Arrow is giving the ladies—and you—a welcome change with a dazzling new assortment of fancy (but not too fancy) shirts. Subdued stripes, neat patterns, small checks and plaids. All Sanforized Shrink—which means no shrinkage—ever!
