TWO

The Daily Nebraskan Station A, Lincoln, Nebraska OFFICIAL STUDENT PUBLICATION UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

> Associated Collegiate Press

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice in Lincoln, Nebraska, under act of congress, March 3, 1879, and at special rate of postaage provided for in section 1103, act of October 3, 1917, authorized January 20, 1922. THIRTY.THIRD YEAR

Published Tuesday, wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Sunday mornings during the academic year. SUBSCRIPTION RATE

51.50 a year Single Copy 5 cents $1.50 a semister 52.50 a year mailed $1.60 a semister mailed Under direction of the Student Publication Board. Editorial Office-University Hall 4. Business Office-University Hall 4A. Telephones-Day: B-6591; Nighti B-6682, B-3333 (Journal) Ask for Nebraskan editor. EDITORIAL STAFF presented an interesting picture in the flux of the past few years, and student editors thruout the country have not hesitated to label changes that have taken place as evidence of a somewhat remarkable shift of attitudes within that vague thing "the student mind." A serious outlook, and a growing ability to penetrate to "realities" are cited to explain such things as more student interest in world affairs and governmental policies.

.....Editor-in-chief Laurence Hall .. Managing Editors Violet Cross Bruce Nicoli News Editors Jack Fischer Burten Marvin Jack Flächer Margaret Thiele Virginia Selleck Society Editor Sports Editor Irwin Ryan BUSINESS STAFF Business Manager Bernard Jennings Assistant Business Managers George Holyoke Dick Schmidt Wilbur Erickson

Hodge-Podge For Sunday.

The evidences of the changed attitude, however, are not confined to students themselves. While college editors turn their attention to the gravity of economic and political theory-and they have been doing that a great deal more in the last two years than ever before-there are also educators who hail the coming of a new age of promise to the campi of America. It is said, for example, that social problems clubs and similar organizations have grown in importance in the scheme of undergraduate life. The efforts to set up such organizations has certainly been rather intensified, and both students and faculty members have given serious attention to the various vocational enterprises that are so freely classified as signs of a change in the American collegiate scene.

It is not to be denied that to the individuals concerned the aims actually represent the highest kind of objectives. The fallacy does not lie there, but rather in pointing to the increased interest of students in government as an indication of educa- hand, you campus fans!

ENGINEER'S BUST

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

tional and mental advancement. There has been a HUNT SPEAKS SUNDAY change, in other words, but it is not the far-reaching shift of ideals so much as it is the manifestation ON SOUTHERN ISLANDS LET us examine, for a moment, the activity within the student bodies that is said to be representative of a new era of achievement. That activity Pictures of South Sea Isles takes a number of forms-some of which include Are Prepared by Omaha departmental clubs, discussion groups, committees, professional fraternities, and so on-but thru it all Lieutenant-Commander.

KIRSCH EXHIBITS PRINTS

As the first of a series of Sunday fine arts programs to be given during the fall and winter at Morrill hall on the university campus, Lieutenant-Commander R. H. Hunt of Omaha will today present an illustrated lecture on Samoa and South Sca islands. Slides which he will show were prepared by himself while in that region. Sponsored jointly by the Lincoln Camera club and the university fine arts department, the program will also mark the opening of an exhibition of the work done by the club. More than twenty members of the group are expected to place their pictures in gallery B of Mor-rill hall, where they will remain for a month, opening today, Nov

Prints Will Be Shown.

19.

F. Dwight Kirsch, chairman of the department of fine arts, hopes to have more than a hundred prints ready for the public to inspect. For the most part, the photographs are pictorial, describ-ing in black and white intimate details of nature, not ordinarily noticed as being unusual. In the exhibit Mr. Kirsch, well known for his work in photography, will show several of his prints: the tassels on a corn stalk, the cables of a bridge, blown asnd in the sandhills.

Recognition of Russia by U. S. Commended by Several Professors on Campus, Altho Complications Feared. (Continued from Page 1.)

tablish more binding far eastern relations. Prof. Hill also stated that the pact would bring about a better international understanding, but would carry no far-reaching results. President Roosevelt's selection of William C. Bullitt, member of the state department and regarded as an authority on the Russian question, aroused considerable comment among the university faculty. Both Hill and Senning de clared the president's appointment as a good one, and very satisfactory.

Stoke-It Was Needed.

"On the whole the pact creates the opportunity to re-establish relations that should have been re-established long since," declared Dr. Harold Stoke, Political Science instructor. "I do not feel that the move will create any immediate increase in trade, because the pure recognition of Russia is not significant enough to establish confidence of American business men in Plus-sian goods." Dr. Stoke declared however that the move will not "The "rah-rah" spirit, usually tend to clarify the situation as far Arndt-May Be Disappointing.

ARISTOTLE. I WAS the pupil of Plato," said Aristotle. "And my pupil was Alexander the Great, tamer of horses and men. Learning was my life when I was on earth, and I established my Lyceum in Athens-a university it might be called." "What was it like?" I asked

cation available, Bob Funk, sales manager of the directory, stated. hir My students determined their "Remaining copies, with the ex-ception of a few left in various rules themselves," said Aristotle, "and they elected, every ten days, bookstores and newstands in town, one of their number to supervise will be placed on sale in fraternity and sorority houses on the campus the school." "Well," I said, "then student because of numerous requests for copies of the directory," Funk said. Bernard Jennings, business mangovernment is nothing new." Aristotle went on: "I spoke to them of many things. Mathemat-ics, and philosophy, biology, and the natural sciences. We discussed ager of the directory, expressed satisfaction with the way the sale of the book went. He attributed these things at our meals and as we walked near the athletic field." "Athletics in your school?" asked in surprise.

"Assuredly," he replied. "As habit should be cultivated before reason, so the body should come before the mind. Early in their lives all boys should be handed over to the trainer to attain proper habit of body. The wrestling mas-ter should share with the teacher of philosophy." "But athletics may be overdone,

I said. "Yes," Aristotle agreed. "But I am speaking of athletic training for every student, and not for the few who do not need it, as I am told is the practice today." "You know, then, of the football racket?" I asked. "Yes." he said. "I have heard how these new athletic enthusiasms have made the university coaches better known than chancellors. I have heard how proportionately more money is spent athletics than on any legitimate university activity. I have heard now no university in the country has the courage to place athletics where they belong." "For a ghost," I told hom, "you are wonderfully well informed. All these things are true."

"But nevertheless," he said. "athletics should not be neglected. I and my assistants compiled data on the knowledge of the world volenough to fill four hundred umes, but we never neglected the cultivation of the human body.

"I am surprised at your stress on physical education," I said. "You should not be," said Aris-

"A mind without a body is totle. nothing

"That is true," I said.

Reinhardt Praises Arkansas School Commonwealth Col lege, in Its Effort to Prepare Students for Social Work. (Continued from Page 1.)

but possessing very modest means Students and teachers, working together, produce a large part of their living, the only cash expense

POOR SALESMANSHIP.

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1933

On the main bulletin board in hall is an announcement card as tioned All Ag Convocation. The card is fixed with removable as on which to print the name of speaker, the place and time of the convocation. It was made, appe Saturday's checkup on the sales of the Student Directory revealed whenever the committee wished announce a new convocation. What makes that announcem card worthy of comment is that is crude, unsightly, unattractive ineffective and unexcusable. East cially are all these acquisiti true when one considers that the card might be left there all semis-ter, or perhaps all year.

The new faculty student com cations committee hope to win th favor of the students with the s ries of convocations they expect sponsor. Why not make a favor able first impression by having a attractive and pleasing announ ment card-especially when i same card is to be used all year. From another point of view, th bulletin board always looks new enough at best. Why not then, f this new organization's annount ments, have a pleasing poster, o that is attractively designed as carefully lettered. It could even be considerable smaller than the on that is there, and thus conserve space. Attractively designed, the committee's announce card would gain more attention by its appearance than it does now by its size-and the impression would be ar more favorable.

Parents and Friends Will Be Entertained Sunday Afternoon.

HOLD OPEN HOUSE

On Hand.

the fact that there are still almost three hundred copies of the publi-

the success of the campaign to the lower price and expressed the opin-ion that all of the remaining copies would be sold in a short time. No more will be printed after the present supply is sold, he said. Over fifty-five salesmen will handle the sale of directories in their houses. Funk stated.

BAPTIST STUDENTS

Open house for the Baptist student group, their parents and friends, will be held at the Baptist Student House, Sunday afternoon, calling hours from 3 to 5 p. m. Mr. Scott Whitnah and Miss June Elrod, president and secretary cf the Baptist, Alumnae association, will meet the guests.

In the receiving line will be Mrs. Fred Williams, Mr. H. J. Theobald, secretary and president of the Nebraska Baptist Student council; Miss Grace Spacht, student secre-tary; Misses Norma Wilson, Lois Ogle, Florence Guthri and Mr. Vaughn Shaner, president of the young people's groups of the four one churches. Mrs. H. J. Theobald, Mrs. A. R. Congdon, Mrs. A. H. Webb and Mrs. T. H. Boggess will pour dur-ing the afternoon, assisted in the serving by Misses Gertrude Fountain, Alethea Anderson, Elizabeth Cornell, Sybl Apgar, Ruth Cheney, Delores Davison, Clair Rhodes, Helen McGaughey and Mary Mc-

BURNETT DENIES GRANTING SPECIAL ROTC PRIVILEGES

(Continued from Page 1.)

cused from military work are given an affirmation form which high school graduates, who, after they are required to sign before graduating, went to farming intheir case will be given final con- stead of to college sideration, it was explained. This They are an active gang on the campus, take part in Coll-Agri

One other fatal defect that asnouncement card possesses. Across the bottom it reads "Everyone is urged to attend." Now the mothtile thing on earth is to "me anybody to do anything. People anybody to do anything. People don't like to be urged to do things; they want to do what they please The way to success: Make the stydents "want" to go to convoc tions. Then no urging will be netessary. And the way to do this is to have good programs and to be sure that every student knows how good the program will be, and to be sure that every student is in-vited to attend.

Far better than to say "Every one is urged to attend" would be b say "You are invited to attend," o "We hope you'll enjoy the pro-gram." or "We prepared the program; you are the judge" or " you like the program, tell us" of just to say "We welcome everyjust to say

WELCOME FARM OPS.

Monday Ag campus will be in vaded by some 75 or more young men who have got the corn shucking done back home and are going to school for a few months before time to start farming in the spin. Those young men will take the courses initiated four or five year ago as the Farm Operators Short Course From most every point of view that one might consider, these win ter courses have real marit. They are a good thing for the college. In the first place, it is a high class of fellows who take the course. Many, perhaps even most of them, are

Fun, turn out for all the mixers, church parties, and have a num-

own. They keep part of the faculty acquire some polish. Controversia is the question whether, fifty year

gone to the Farm Operators Short Course.

But no one will question the these boys will take home will them much that will make them better citizens of their communi-

crude when they first come to Af campus-no cruder, of course, than most of us are when we first appear on the campus -but crust nevertheless. But witness the transformation that comes in two short winters. Line 'em up and take a picture when they arrive and then take another when the graduate. There is a real picture for you of the value of such a course-of the value of all real education, as a matter of fact ties. Pienty of them are

For the good of American students 4 Trend it is to be hoped that Dr. Hutchi-son sees the future clearly.-Syra-Explained. Dr. Ralph C. Hutchison, presi- cue Daily Orange. dent of Washington and Jefferson college, told the annual convention Decline of The "Rah-Rah."

of the New Jersey Teachers asso-ciation that college education, which has been so long a "racket" Plans are being completed for has now reached the end of its the "Engineers' Bust" to be held cycle and that, in the future, quality in graduates will be demanded.

but common on the campuses of cerned, serving, rather, to increase the nation's greatest institutions of higher learning a few years and

+ Contemporary Comment +

of the social conditions of a period.

there runs a thread of interest in affairs beyond the confines of a local campus. In most cases this interest seems to center about government, particularly as governmental policies may influence the professions or vocations, either directly or otherordinated, in these undergraduate groups, to interest in the way government will effect the affairs of the individual professions and vocations. The story of the rise of that interest is both complex and interesting, but the point here is that students, in revealing such an interest, also reveal that they are concerned chiefly with nothing more profound than their own material betterment. And while that is not remarkable, perhaps-shows that student interest in government is merely an outgrowth of the

NEBRASKA'S football team doesn't need to feel urday afternoon. The Cornhusker glory, while somewhat dimmed by the defeat at the claws of the Panther, a worthy opponent for any football team, still shines brightly enough to credit upon the Panther Hollow Saturday afternoon played a wonderful game. Not once did they quit. They were fighting against tremendous disadvantages, some of which were a heavier team, their own desires to remain unbeaten. Pitt's desire to remove a team from that class, the legend of Panther Hollow, but deserved to win. They exhibited a brand of football superior to that displayed by the Huskers. But a defeat at the hands of Pittsburgh should be neither shameful nor discouraging for a great Ne-

There can be little doubt but that Pittsburgh

The players who took part in the struggle in ashamed of its performance in Pittsburgh Sat-

Interest in government itself seems to be subbraska team played a great game. Give them a economic stress of a social period. In reality then, the "student mind"-hailed as having taken an unprecedented turn to seriousness -is probably no nearer to actual maturity than it ever was. What is seen as an improvement in think-COLLEGES and universities of the country have ing is probably only direction of thought at an earlier age toward specialized vocational interesis. And ultimately that may very well prove equally inter-wise.

esting to observe.

school and its team.

they still put up a good battle.

Returning

Unbowed.

evening, Nov. 22, at corner of 22nd and J st.

Arrange Dinner Followed by

Program: Richard Bulger

In Charge of Program.

FORM PLANS FOR

There will be a dinner followed by a very interesting program, ac-cording to Richard Bulger who is in charge of plans for the program. Free transportation will be pro-vided for those who wish it, and are urged to meet at the north entrance of the Mechanical Engineering building at about 5:10 p. m.

Is Annual Affair.

This annual affair is sponsored by the Engineers' Executive Board for the purpose of a general get together for all students entered the Engineering college. All in: engineering students are urged to attend this dinner and become better acquainted with their fellow students and their professors.

PATTERSON TALKS TO BAPTIST CLASS RIFLE CLUB CONTINUES

Discussion Will Be on "Early Egyptian Religion''; Hold Worship Service.

"Early Egyptian Religions" is the subject Dr. C. H. Patterson will discuss in the university class at the First Bapilist church, 14th and K sts., Sunday morning. This class meets from 12 noon to 12:50 p. m. Mr. Joseph Dennison will conduct the worship service. At 6 p. m. the social half-hour will be held with Miss Charlotte members. English, Miss Dorothy Countryman and Jack Spoerry in charge of refreshments. Mr. Ward Gray, boy's work director of the city Y. M. C. A., will lead the concluding discussion on the subject of "Friendships Between Men and Women" at 6:30 p. m. Mr. Vaughn Shaner will give the news flashes, and Mr. Robert Burdick will lead the devotionals.

All young people are cordially invited to both of these meetings. club.

GERMANS TAKING COURSES Two European Registrants Listed for Extension

Subjects.

Two students living In Germany the have recently been aded to the tion. Fr the discussion group considering ence courses under the University Nebraska extension depart-nt. Mrs. M. H. Herbrick, a ment. Conditions." graduate of the university in 1929, ther now living in Stuttgart, has sub-Conditions," was led by President H. G. James of South Dakota, forscribed for work in history; while Miss Merle Seybolt, also of Stuttmerly dean of the University of gart, will take an economics Nebraska college of arts and course. Miss Seybolt plans to re- sciences. turn to the United States and the university for the second semester. Reed Departs for

There are twenty-five different religious faiths represented on the campus of the University of Alsbama.

To the student now in a univernigner learning 5:30, in the Hi-Y building at the sity who will not be graduated for has returned where it belongs-to the high schools, according to J. G. three years. Dr. two. OF Hutchison's words warrant consid- Quick, for eighteen years registrar erable thought. In plain English at the University of Pittsburgh. Ion expressed by Karl M. Findt member of the department of ecohe told the teachers that in the future the mere fact that a person the depression has done much to nomics. holds a college diploma will not be make all individuals serious, he be- will bring about increased trade Heves that one of the main causes sufficient to get him a job or a is the changed attitude of parents. position. He must have more and

When a father considers the outspecial qualifications. ay of some $300 now he expects That might be interpreted to mean that the student now in col- the son and daughter on whom it lege must maintain an average betis expended to make good," deter than the majority of his class clares the Pitt registrar. For that matter, mother and dad if he expects to get any sort of a always have expected son or or make any sort of a position, mark in this world. For, says Dr. daughter to "come through" in col-Hutchison, there are enough just lege. It is probable that the blame for the irresponsible jazz age college graduates. Another change that will come should rest squarely on the younger will be the emphasis on personal generation, and at the same time integrity. Pointing toward student the reason for the more serious operated publications, dances and attitude at the present time must Dr. Hutchison declared be nothing other than the awakened them were run purely for responsibilities in the students the like. many of them were run purely for the "spolls." Such goings-on will themselves, soon be of the past, he declared. -Ir

-Indiana Daily Student.

Saturday for Chicago where he will meet with other members of the executive committee of the North Central association of colleges and secondary schools.

DRIVE FOR ENROLMENT CHINESE EDUCATOR Men Interested in Activity TALKS AT VESPERS Report to Sergeant C. F. McGimsey. The university rifle club will Speaker Is Miss Fang Wu, sponsor a membership drive the President of Ginling week of Nov. 20, 1933 to extend

College at Nanking.

All interested in this activity are Miss Yi Fang Wu, president of arged to report to Sergeant C. F. McGimsey at the Andrews Hall Ginling college, Nanking, China, range any afternoon from 1 to 4 and educational leader of internap. m. and Tuesday and Thursday tional fame, will address the Y. W. mornings from 9 to 12 p. m. where C. A. vespers Tuesday, November the tryouts will be conducted. 21

Following this period of instruc-tional practice, the military de-Miss Wu, who is one of the foremost educators in China, will be presented by Arlene Bors, chairpartment is sponsoring a rifle man of Nebraska in China staff of the Y. W. C. A. Special music will be presented at the service by match among the new members. after which the victors will be presented with medals offered by the

their enrollment to one hundred

Adjustments

Eunice Bingham, who will play "Air for G String," accompanied CHANCELLOR RETURNS by Ardeth Pierce. A string trio, FROM CONVENTIONS OF composed of Eunice Bingham, Garnet Maynew, and Ardeth Pierce will play the meditation music COLLEGES IN CHICAGO (Continued from Page 1.) was given to further adjustments prior to the service.

in economic conditions in order to protect as far as possible the sal-aries of professors and to insure REHEARSALS HE REHEARSALS HELD the best possible type of instruc-

(Continued from Page 1.) Friday Chancellor Burnett led show. The nine acts in this year's show, representing fourteen cam-Extension Activities to Meet New The group on "Fur-ments to Economic pus organizations, and selected from twenty-two applications, comprise one of the most entertaining and original shows ever presented by the klub, in the opin-ion of members of the production. Tickets for the show, which are selling for fifty cents thru salesmen on the campus, went on sale the middle of last week. The work-Chicago Meeting ers will start an intensive sales ars ago From an economists point view the move is not particularly significant, according to the opinion expressed by Karl M. Arndt.

"Recognition of Russia relations only if we are willing to buy heavily from them or make large loans on generous terms," he said. Arndt added that there seems to be strong opposition to both heavy imports or unlimited credit, and expected trade benefits may prove disappointing.

Prof. J. E. Sellers, member of the department of History declared that Russian recognition would remove many of the differences between the United States and Russia. He also felt that the move would make an indelible impression upon the world's diplomatic channels.

Fling-Germany Isolated. "While I was opposed to the rec-ognition of Russia until Germany withdrew from the league, at that time I felt that Germany was attempting to build up arma-ments for another World war. The recognition of Russia by the United States isolates Germany," declared Dr. F. M. Fling, member of the history department, and well known authority on European History.

Professor Fling felt, however, that the appointment of William Bullitt as ambassador to Russia was astonishing, feeling that he had no particular qualifications which fitted him for the important position.

Dr. J. M. Reinhardt, member of the department of sociology, and Dr. Nels A. Bengston, chairman of the Geography department, both declared that they feit the move a beneficial one. Dr. Reinhardt declared that recognition of Russia would, in a measure, prevent the spread of communism in the

Jnited States. Dr. Bengston felt that the selec-tion of Bullitt was a good one. He also declared that the move should improve international relations.

Included in Miami university's sixty-eight colleges and universi-ties in the United States.

entrance requirements, and since its classes are solely of a pracof ticable nature, no degrees are granted.

The courta are divided into curricula for two years work, the first year course being intended to familiarize the student with the world of labor thought and the second to provide for training for some particular field of labor leadership. Typical courses include labor orientation, historical materialism, proletarian literature marxism, imperialism, farm prob-lems, and labor problems, Attendance at classes is optional and academic standards are enforced by the students themselves thru a discipline committee.

Instructors are Young

All instructors in the college are young men and women, Lucien

Koch, M. A., Wisconsin '31, director, being only 26. The other eight members of the faculty, non of whom have ever received any pay for their services aside from sub sistence and a small commissary account, include persons trained in some of the country's leading universities and having wide ex perience in fields of labor leadership. Several of them are regular contributors to newspapers and magazines thruout the country.

NEGOTIATIONS FOR OREGON GAME ARE BEING CONDUCTED

(Continued from Page 1.) play Oregon in the season's last game, according to a canvass con-ducted by Coach Bible before the game Saturday. Coach Bible favored the combat regardless of the outcome at Pittsburgh.

The possibility of a post season game for Nebraska at Chicago playing an eastern team in a chartilt faded when negotiations itv with Oregon reached a degree of certainty Saturday.

Oregon State Strong.

In view of Oregon's victory over the powerful Fordham Rams, the combat at Lincoln will be a potent test of Nebraska's intersectional strength. For Coach Lon Stiner, the game will assume homecoming captain of the 1925 Husker team. and former assistant coach here.

District Ordnance Officer Declares Any Man Can Develop Into Crack Shot

mentally fit to enter the army of him instructions as to the proper the United States can develop him- form for the various positions, and then let him utilize his own initiaself into a creck shot," remarked tive in developing his accuracy.

Colonel Whelen was a member ordnance officer, at his visit to of the United States infantry rifle the rifle range in Andrew's Hall team for seven years and since then has been engaged in writing books on marksmanship as well as being accepted as an international critic on ammunition and firearms in the most prominent rifle circles was entertained by the rifle club of the world. His ingenuity led to under the auspices of Major C. A. the development of the present sling and sighting contrivances on the present government rifles.

form reads as follows: "I wish to state and affirm herein that I conscientiously obber of social activities of their ject to the principles of military science instruction and beg to be excused from participation in the busy instructing them and assistsame;

ing with their outside activities. and in these times of unemploy-ment, that in itself is a virtue. "I fully understand that if my request is granted a notation 'ex-They make teaching and assisting jobs for some of the upperclass men in college, and that, too, helps. In two ways the courses are worthwhile for the boys: They pick up some information: they cused on account of conscientious objections' will be placed on my permanent record on file with the registrar; and

"I further understand that I am required to acquire credit in physical education in lieu of the military science requirement. from now, these boys will be any better farmers, any richer in lands and hogs and cattle for having

Plan Works Well.

As it now operates, believes Chancellor Burnett, the plan works very well. It has served, in his belief, to separate the real conscientious objectors from those who are inclined to rebel against any sort of requirements and more especially those who seek to get out of military instruction because of the compulsory feature.

"Of those asking to be excused from military training. I am in-formed that by far the larger number of those who at first believe they are conscientious objectors find after an explanation of the purposes of military instruction that they are not conscientious objectors, but are in fact seeking to avoid a task that has been set for them," he said.

R. O. T. C. Since 1917.

Most of the farm operators are Military training has been offeralready farming at home. As sool as the course ends in the spring. ed at the University of Nebraska they will dash off home to put is since its early days, the federal grants specifically mentioning that type of training. Since 1917 the to Lincoln to school, they will be type of training. Since 1917 the work has been carried on as a part called upon to handle responsib jobs in the community, preside at of the Reserve Officers Training Corps work. The chancellor ex-plained that while the federal rules meetings, serve on committees, and all that sort of thing. They will a more useful to their communities, have been modified to some extent that it is still the opinion of the majority of the board of regents and more of a satisfaction b themselves. that such training should be re-But all that will come in good time. For now, the boys are here quired at the University of Nebrasand Ag college welcomes them and hopes they will enjoy every day in ka. The local R. O. T. C. unit now operates under the National Defense act which establishes a small standing army and a trained reserve rather than a large expens-SCHOLARSHIP AWARDS ive standing army. Eastern Schools Strict.

The Nebraska liberal attitude was contrasted by the chancellor

"I am making this application because I object to military training on grounds of religion and conscience; in other words I am a con-scientious objector and I have such deep convictions on this matter that I use that term to mean that I will refuse to enter military service in case the United States engages in offensive war against an-other nation, and that I shall accept such penalty as the United States government may impose for such refusal. If the United States should be attacked by a foreign nation and should engage in defensive war. I understand that since am a conscientious objector. I shall refuse to assist in the defense of the United States at that time, and

Following the music convocation Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Temple theater the anual Pan-Hellenic scholarship awards will be preserved and a prewill be presented. Pins will be presented to one sophomore, one jun-ior, and one senior as a reward for the records they made last year

WILL BE PRESENTED

Panhellenic Rewards for

High Scholastic Standing

Given Wednesday.

in scholarship. The design for the pin, a lamp of learning, was originated by Professor Alexander. These pins, pre-sented to one member of each of the three classes listed above, are Chicago Meeting ers will start an intensive sales sey. Director A. A. Reed of the university extension division left son, business manager of the klub. sorority or non-sorority girls.

"Any man who is physically and | ested in the art of shooting, give student body are 129 students from aspects, in view of his record as

TODAY AT STUART

Colonel Townsend Whelen, district Friday afternoon, Nov. 17.

The colonel addressed the rifle club and inspected the rifle teams, giving each man a few hints to improve his marksmanship. He Speer and Sergeant C. F. McGimsev.

Further Approval.