

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

THE WEATHER
Cloudy and Colder.

VOL. XXXIII—NO. 67.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, TUESDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1933.

PRICE 5 CENTS.

NEBRASKAN OLD CLOTHES DRIVE LACKS SUPPORT

Few Houses and Individuals Respond to Appeal to Aid Needy.

DEADLINE IS WEDNESDAY

Jennings Asks Participation Of All Organizations in Relief Effort.

Continuing with a marked lack of success, the Daily Nebraskan's drive for old clothes among the organized houses on the campus, will end Wednesday afternoon when students start on the annual trek homeward for Christmas vacation. So far very few contributions have been made, only six organizations having been placed on the honor roll, Phi Mu entering the ranks of donors over the week-end. With an offering of $3.50.

So far the Daily Nebraskan's charity drive for old clothes has been markedly unsuccessful, stated Bernard Jennings, business manager of the paper, Monday. "Altho many promises have been made, few of them have been carried out. Those groups which have promised to cooperate have until Wednesday noon to offer their contributions."

Will Call For Donations.

Any old clothes or other articles which might be useful to Lincoln's needy, and have been discarded may be brought to the Daily Nebraskan office in the basement of University hall, or a Nebraskan representative may be asked to come after them. According to the Social Welfare office, need in Lincoln and Lancaster county is especially great this winter. What with the country entering its fifth winter of the depression, every contribution on the part of students would be of great usefulness.

All Apparel Acceptable.

Any kind of clothing is acceptable, such as old shoes, coats, shirts, dresses, and many other articles of clothing which have been contributed already. It was stated by those conducting the drive that there should be no hesitancy in offering clothes in bad condition, because the Red Cross keeps a mending establishment which makes a business of renovating and repairing clothes.

Name Largest Donor.

The largest contribution made thus far was that given by Alpha Omicron Pi and the first was that given by Kappa Alpha Theta. Many others of the houses planned to get their clothes closets cleaned out by Tuesday morning, and to bring old clothes gathered up to the Nebraskan office sometime during the day.

Tuesday Nebraskan Is Last Before Vacation

Since Christmas vacation begins at noon Wednesday, this morning's issue of The Daily Nebraskan will be the last before the holidays.

CHRISTMAS GREETINGS TO STUDENTS

There are three days of each year that to me might well be designated as "family days," days when the family should gather together and in turn draw a little closer together and to God. These days are Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day and Easter Sunday. On Christmas Day it seems to me that I feel especially stimulated to thoughts of home and of homefolks and to thoughts of the Christ. It is a time for good cheer and for meditation.

T. J. THOMPSON.

AWGWAN DATE CONSIDERED

Humor Magazine to Appear In Latter Part of Next Month.

An issue of the Awgwan, university humor publication, will be published in the last part of January, according to Rosalie Lamme, editor. She stated that the staff would work on the magazine during Christmas vacation.

NAME COMMITTEE TO COOPERATE ON PILLAR PROGRAM

Panhellenic Council Head Appoints Three to Work With Other Groups.

REPRESENT GREEK GROUP

Will Draw Up Petition for Board of Regents Asking for Support of Plan.

With hopes of getting a campus beautification program under way immediately after the Christmas vacation, a committee composed of Carolyn Van Anda, chairman, Ruth Penney and Marjorie Ley was appointed by president of the Panhellenic Council, Martha Hershey, to cooperate with similar committees from other organizations. The committees are to make plans and arrangements for the erection of a number of stone pillars on the campus.

Draw Up Petition.

The two committees are working together to draw up a petition asking the Board of Regents to cooperate in the erection of the pillars now lying idle on the drill field. Heads of the campus organizations who will be asked to sign the petition are: Martha Hershey, president of the Panhellenic Council; John Gephson, president of the Student Council; Byron Goulding, president of the Innocents society; Willa Norris, president of Mortar Boards; and Burt Marvin, head of the Barb council.

Estimate Cost.

The council's plans also call for an estimate of the cost of moving and erecting the pillars by the university.

PLAN YULETIDE THEME FOR SPECIAL VESPERS

Stress Religious Element; Alaire Barkes Will Relate Story.

Annual Christmas vesper services will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock in Ellen Smith Hall. The program which has been planned will take the form of informal devotions and will stress the religious element of Christmas.

Relate Story.

A feature of the service will be a Christmas story, "Where Love Is There God Is Also," by Tolstoy, told by Alaire Barkes, who is in charge of this service. Ending the services will be the recessional, "Silent Night."

ALL CORNHUSKER STUDENT PHOTOS DUE WEDNESDAY

All But Lincoln People Are To Have Pictures In Before Vacation.

PANELS TO BE MADE UP

Sections Twenty-Nine Greek Groups Must Be Complete Prior to Christmas.

Wednesday is the absolute deadline for students who are going home Christmas vacation to have their pictures taken and still be included in the classified part of the junior and senior sections of the Cornhusker. Woodrow Magee, editor of the Cornhusker, warned Monday. Lincoln students and outstate students who remain in Lincoln will have until Christmas to have their pictures taken.

Greek Pictures Due.

Sections of twenty-nine Greek letter organizations must also be completed by Christmas it was announced, as panels for their respective sections will also be made.

BARBS TO START CAGE SCHEDULE AFTER HOLIDAYS

Interclub Council Sponsors Basketball Tilts Between Member Groups.

Immediately after Christmas vacation, clubs of unaffiliated men, which are members of the Interclub council will start the second annual interclub basketball schedule in the coliseum. Last year was the first season in which the council sponsored a schedule of basketball games between the member clubs.

Erickson Is President.

Wilbur Erickson was recently elected president of the Interclub council by representatives from the various clubs in the Barb organization. The vice-president of the organization is Burton Marvin, Alvin Kleebe is secretary, and Cedric Richards is treasurer.

Urges Affiliation.

Erickson urges all Barb men to either organize clubs of ten men each, or apply for entrance into some club as soon as possible. Any unaffiliated man on the campus who is interested in getting in the organization is asked to write his name and address on a slip of paper and place it in the box which is on the bulletin board in the Temple building.

Organized Two Years Ago.

The Interclub council was started two years ago by a committee which was appointed by the Student Council to perform that task. That was in the spring of the 1931-32 school year. Willard Young was named as the first president. In the fall of last school year the organizing went on at a good rate, and by mid-winter there were twenty-five clubs listed. A full intramural basketball schedule was played by about fifteen squads in two leagues, of eight and seven teams.

SPONSOR CHRISTMAS PARTY

Fine Arts Students Guests At Event in Morrill Hall Today.

Members of the Art Club will entertain all students in the Fine Arts department at a Christmas party Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the faculty office.

There will be a program of Christmas solos and readings, after which gifts will be distributed to every member present. Refreshments will be served. Nellie Ferris, Carl Christensen, and Helen Klein are in charge of the arrangements.

THE SEASON'S GREETINGS

Christmas should be a time of joy when we return if possible to the homes, cherishing the memories of father and mother and the friends of youth, happy if these relations are still intimate and unchanged. There is joy in giving to those we love, whether it be of gifts or unselfishly of one's self. The Christmas tide brings with it a spirit of service which will speed the time of Peace on Earth, Goodwill toward men.

May your vacation days be filled with happiness.

THE CHANCELLOR

CAPACITY CROWD ATTENDS MESSIAH HELD ON SUNDAY

Choral Union, Agricultural College Chorus and Symphony Appear.

KIRKPATRICK CONDUCTS

Reception for Guest Singers Follows Presentation: Broadcast Oratorio.

A record crowd of eight thousand people attended the thirty-eighth presentation of the musical oratorio, "The Messiah," Sunday afternoon in the university coliseum. Members of the university choral union and the agricultural college chorus assembled with the Lincoln Symphony orchestra, under the direction of Howard Kirkpatrick of the university school of music for the performance.

Guest Artists Appear.

The guest singers who took solo parts were Miss Velma Lyon, soprano, of Kansas City; Sylvia Cole Diers, contralto, university school of music; Carl Neuman, baritone, of Chicago; and Parvin Witte, tenor, of the university school of music. A reception for members of the chorus and school of music faculty was held in Ellen Smith hall following the concert, when Mr. and Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Chancellor and Mrs. Burnett and the guest soloists received them.

Reserved Section.

Officials estimated about 2,700 people seated on the main floor, and 5,300 in the galleries. A special section of 150 was reserved for a group of prominent Lincoln.

(Continued on Page 4.)

TASSELS, CORN COBS WILL PRESENT SKITS FOR CAGE GAME FANS

Pep Clubs Plan Amusement in Form of Stunts Between Halves of Tilts.

UNDECIDED ON PROGRAM

Joint skits will be staged by the Corn Cobs and Tassels between the halves of the basketball game this year according to arrangements announced by the officers of the organizations. The character of the entertainment has not been decided upon as yet but definite action upon this will be taken by a committee of both groups immediately after the holidays.

The Idea was Initiated by Ann Bunting, president of the women's pep group, and its handling has been left to a committee from the two societies made up of Tom Davies, Roma DeBrown and Fred Nicklas.

Corncobs may secure their season tickets for basketball any time after Christmas vacation by applying for them at the student activities office, according to Henry Kosman, president of the fraternity.

AG CHRISTMAS MIXER IS ATTENDED BY 250

New Low Prices Decried by Ag Executive Board Feature Event.

With a new low price scale in effect for the first time this year 250 students attended the Christmas Ag mixer at the Student Activities building Saturday evening. The new low prices for the event, which were established by the Ag Executive board, are 25 cents for men, and 10 cents for women.

White in Charge.

Howard White was in charge of arrangements for the party, and was assisted by Bill Donohue and Florence Buxman. Special invitations were issued by the committee in charge to Farm Op students.

Extend Special Invitation.

A special invitation has been extended to outstate and foreign students who are unable to go home for the holidays to attend this party. Each student is requested to bring a ten-cent wrapped gift. Admittance will be by identification card.

Ag Vespers Features Theme of Christmas

Regular Ag vespers, to be held today at 12:20 in the Home Economics parlors, features a program carrying as its theme an old-fashioned Christmas. Home Economics students are making all arrangements for this last session before the holidays. Helen Smhra, president, will lead the service. Ruth Carsten has prepared a reading portraying the Yuletide idea. All Ag women students are urged to attend.

GILBERT IN DETROIT PLAY

Dramatics Assistant Case in Production of 'Toure De Monde.'

Lauren Gilbert, assistant in the dramatics department, will play a part in "Tour de Monde," a production of the Bonsteel civic theatre opening Christmas night in Detroit, Mich. He was scheduled to arrive in Detroit yesterday.

Set Dates for Agriculture Week, Costume Party and Registration.

A glance at the official University of Nebraska calendar indicates that the remainder of the present semester has a great deal in store for the students. Tomorrow noon marks the beginning of a vacation period that precedes four weeks of rather strenuous activity, beginning when school starts again on January 3.

Calendar Shows Many Activities Still in Store

January 2 to 5 has been designated as Organized Agriculture week. The following week from noon on Monday, January 8 until noon on Saturday, January 13 resident students will be required to register for the second semester.

Coach White Sets Date for Tryouts on January 11; Will Choose Team.

With the tie result in the freshman debate contest Thursday evening, debate activity closed until the choice of varsity teams for the second semester will be made in the tryout scheduled by Professor H. A. White, debate coach, for Jan. 11.

Foreign Students to Discuss Celebration of Holidays in Other Countries.

A varied program has been announced for the annual Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A. Christmas party to be held Wednesday evening, December 20, at 8 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall.

Plan Varied Program for 'Y' Joint Party

Fatulla Mostofi and Roberto Mario will give talks on how Christmas is celebrated in their home towns and Roma Harrington will give a reading. There will also be group singing of Christmas carols led by Roma Harrington and distribution of gifts by Santa Claus. The remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing and games.

Extend Special Invitation.

A special invitation has been extended to outstate and foreign students who are unable to go home for the holidays to attend this party. Each student is requested to bring a ten-cent wrapped gift. Admittance will be by identification card.

Ag Vespers Features Theme of Christmas

Regular Ag vespers, to be held today at 12:20 in the Home Economics parlors, features a program carrying as its theme an old-fashioned Christmas. Home Economics students are making all arrangements for this last session before the holidays. Helen Smhra, president, will lead the service. Ruth Carsten has prepared a reading portraying the Yuletide idea. All Ag women students are urged to attend.

A. W. S. SECURES SPEAKER

Speaker Is City Librarian; Will Address Members on Value of Field Work.

Miss Lulu Horne, city librarian, will speak at the next meeting of the A. W. S. to be held Monday, Jan. 8, at 4 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall.

THIEL WILL NAME INTERFRATERNITY BALL COMMITTEE

Group Which Will Arrange For February Dance Is All-Senior.

SEVEN WILL BE NAMED

Greek Council to Consider Campus Beautification and Constitution.

Personnel of the Interfraternity Ball committee will be revealed at the regular meeting of the Interfraternity Council in Morrill hall Tuesday night.

DEBATE ACTIVITY ENDS UNTIL NEXT SEMESTER TRIALS

Coach White Sets Date for Tryouts on January 11; Will Choose Team.

Foreign Students to Discuss Celebration of Holidays in Other Countries.

A varied program has been announced for the annual Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A. Christmas party to be held Wednesday evening, December 20, at 8 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall.

Plan Varied Program for 'Y' Joint Party

Fatulla Mostofi and Roberto Mario will give talks on how Christmas is celebrated in their home towns and Roma Harrington will give a reading. There will also be group singing of Christmas carols led by Roma Harrington and distribution of gifts by Santa Claus. The remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing and games.

Extend Special Invitation.

A special invitation has been extended to outstate and foreign students who are unable to go home for the holidays to attend this party. Each student is requested to bring a ten-cent wrapped gift. Admittance will be by identification card.

Ag Vespers Features Theme of Christmas

Regular Ag vespers, to be held today at 12:20 in the Home Economics parlors, features a program carrying as its theme an old-fashioned Christmas. Home Economics students are making all arrangements for this last session before the holidays. Helen Smhra, president, will lead the service. Ruth Carsten has prepared a reading portraying the Yuletide idea. All Ag women students are urged to attend.

Calendar Shows Many Activities Still in Store

January 2 to 5 has been designated as Organized Agriculture week. The following week from noon on Monday, January 8 until noon on Saturday, January 13 resident students will be required to register for the second semester.

Coach White Sets Date for Tryouts on January 11; Will Choose Team.

With the tie result in the freshman debate contest Thursday evening, debate activity closed until the choice of varsity teams for the second semester will be made in the tryout scheduled by Professor H. A. White, debate coach, for Jan. 11.

Foreign Students to Discuss Celebration of Holidays in Other Countries.

A varied program has been announced for the annual Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A. Christmas party to be held Wednesday evening, December 20, at 8 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall.

Plan Varied Program for 'Y' Joint Party

Fatulla Mostofi and Roberto Mario will give talks on how Christmas is celebrated in their home towns and Roma Harrington will give a reading. There will also be group singing of Christmas carols led by Roma Harrington and distribution of gifts by Santa Claus. The remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing and games.

Extend Special Invitation.

A special invitation has been extended to outstate and foreign students who are unable to go home for the holidays to attend this party. Each student is requested to bring a ten-cent wrapped gift. Admittance will be by identification card.

Ag Vespers Features Theme of Christmas

Regular Ag vespers, to be held today at 12:20 in the Home Economics parlors, features a program carrying as its theme an old-fashioned Christmas. Home Economics students are making all arrangements for this last session before the holidays. Helen Smhra, president, will lead the service. Ruth Carsten has prepared a reading portraying the Yuletide idea. All Ag women students are urged to attend.

STATE CWA BOARD GRANTS APPROVAL ON FIELD PROJECT

Start Work on Site of Old Practice Grounds; Form New Cinder Tracks.

SUSPEND STADIUM PLAN

Majority of Money to Be Spent for Labor Under Present Arrangement.

Official notice of the approval of the State CWA board for the new football field project was received Monday by the athletic department according to John K. Selleck, head of that department. Work on the new fields, which will be located just south of the stadium on the site of the old practice grounds, was started immediately. The grant of ten thousand dollars for the work was made by the county CWA board last Friday, after presentation of the plan by Mr. Selleck and Coach D. X. Bible.

Begin Preparations.

Flowing of the old practice field was begun Monday preparatory to grading. From one to two feet of ground will be graded off and used to build up the steep slope down to the cinder track. The three new practice fields will run north and south, and although short in length, they will be of official width.

DEBATE ACTIVITY ENDS UNTIL NEXT SEMESTER TRIALS

Coach White Sets Date for Tryouts on January 11; Will Choose Team.

Foreign Students to Discuss Celebration of Holidays in Other Countries.

A varied program has been announced for the annual Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A. Christmas party to be held Wednesday evening, December 20, at 8 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall.

Plan Varied Program for 'Y' Joint Party

Fatulla Mostofi and Roberto Mario will give talks on how Christmas is celebrated in their home towns and Roma Harrington will give a reading. There will also be group singing of Christmas carols led by Roma Harrington and distribution of gifts by Santa Claus. The remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing and games.

Extend Special Invitation.

A special invitation has been extended to outstate and foreign students who are unable to go home for the holidays to attend this party. Each student is requested to bring a ten-cent wrapped gift. Admittance will be by identification card.

Ag Vespers Features Theme of Christmas

Regular Ag vespers, to be held today at 12:20 in the Home Economics parlors, features a program carrying as its theme an old-fashioned Christmas. Home Economics students are making all arrangements for this last session before the holidays. Helen Smhra, president, will lead the service. Ruth Carsten has prepared a reading portraying the Yuletide idea. All Ag women students are urged to attend.

Calendar Shows Many Activities Still in Store

January 2 to 5 has been designated as Organized Agriculture week. The following week from noon on Monday, January 8 until noon on Saturday, January 13 resident students will be required to register for the second semester.

Coach White Sets Date for Tryouts on January 11; Will Choose Team.

With the tie result in the freshman debate contest Thursday evening, debate activity closed until the choice of varsity teams for the second semester will be made in the tryout scheduled by Professor H. A. White, debate coach, for Jan. 11.

Foreign Students to Discuss Celebration of Holidays in Other Countries.

A varied program has been announced for the annual Y. M. C. A.-Y. W. C. A. Christmas party to be held Wednesday evening, December 20, at 8 o'clock in Ellen Smith hall.

Plan Varied Program for 'Y' Joint Party

Fatulla Mostofi and Roberto Mario will give talks on how Christmas is celebrated in their home towns and Roma Harrington will give a reading. There will also be group singing of Christmas carols led by Roma Harrington and distribution of gifts by Santa Claus. The remainder of the evening will be spent in dancing and games.

Extend Special Invitation.

A special invitation has been extended to outstate and foreign students who are unable to go home for the holidays to attend this party. Each student is requested to bring a ten-cent wrapped gift. Admittance will be by identification card.

Ag Vespers Features Theme of Christmas

Regular Ag vespers, to be held today at 12:20 in the Home Economics parlors, features a program carrying as its theme an old-fashioned Christmas. Home Economics students are making all arrangements for this last session before the holidays. Helen Smhra, president, will lead the service. Ruth Carsten has prepared a reading portraying the Yuletide idea. All Ag women students are urged to attend.

University Studio With Some of Best Modern Equipment Said by Condra To Be One of Finest in United States