

CAMPUSOCIETY

FOR THOSE WHO WILL REMAIN in Lincoln, Wednesday evening will offer as much as the average weekend in the way of entertainment. Both of the downtown hotels will be used for the first time this season for mid-week social functions of university interest and a third event of the evening will be a formal dinner dance and house party. It looks as though there won't be many out-of-town students staying here over the holidays, but the gap will be partially filled by the many who are returning for a short visit before resuming their school work in other parts of the country. From the time most of you read this until the last class is over at ten minutes to twelve on Wednesday, is approximately 101,000 seconds, so start counting them off now. Those who do go to class Wednesday morning will be anxiously watching the clock and anticipating the busy two weeks ahead of them.

ONE OF THE two formal dinners which are scheduled for Wednesday night is that of the Sig Alphas, which will be given at the Cornhusker hotel, following the annual dinner at the chapter house. Forty-five are expected at the dinner, which will feature decorations in seasonal colors. Chaperons for the dance are Mr. and Mrs. Karl Arndt, Professor and Mrs. Clifford Hicks, Mrs. E. W. Nelson, and Mrs. Hal Minor. Four hundred couples have been invited.

THE OTHER is the Sigma Chi dinner dance at the Lincoln to which fifty couples have been bidden. Mrs. Cora Bentley, Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Condra, and Dr. and Mrs. Harry Flansburg will be the chaperons, and Duncan Sowles is in charge of the arrangements. Christmas colors are to be used in the decorations.

AND AT the house the same evening the Phi Deltis will entertain at a 7:30 dinner dance, for which Don Horning is making the arrangements. Col. and Mrs. W. H. Curry, Mrs. Dora K. Finch, and Mr. J. B. Harley are to be the chaperons.

SEVERAL FAMILIAR faces will be seen around Lincoln for the holidays when quite a number of grads and others will have their own homecoming for a short time. Ed Sichel and Bill Irons, now attending Harvard business college, will arrive on Friday, as will Jane and Virginia Foster, Genevieve Smith, and Roger Wilkerson, who are going to Northwestern. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Faulkner, Jr., arrive the same day from Philadelphia. Hal Miles, who has been at Michigan is home now, and returning soon from the same places are Kathryn Murray and Bonita Ivins, Elizabeth Leland, studying at Western Reserve in Cleveland, and her sister, Dorothy, who is a librarian in Brooklyn, will arrive the latter part of the week.

HERE'S SOMETHING that should be of interest to most everybody in Lincoln as well as in the university. Jane Rehlender, Delta Gamma, and Drew De Vriendt A. T. O. are making plans for their marriage which will take place some time in February. Gossip says that Jane has a lovely new square cut diamond ring, which was supposed to have been a Christmas present... just a little early.

AND ANOTHER thing we hear that Carolyn Van Anda is wearing a sweetheart pin, (not out), but what and whose is a secret.

THIS WEEK is to be crowded with social activity for Harriette Love and Elizabeth Pancoast whose marriage will be solemnized during the holidays. These holiday weddings are furnishing an added incentive for the gay events which always crowd the Christmas season, and there will be ready made festive atmosphere to add zest to these prouptial events.

Today Miss Mary Edwards Sumner will entertain at her home in honor of Elizabeth Pancoast, whose maid of honor she is to be. On Wednesday Jane Steele will give a tea at her home for both brides-to-be. Miss Margaret Beardsley will give a luncheon and shower for Miss Pancoast on Thursday and Tyler O'Conner will be hostess at a tea on the same day for Harriette Love, whose maid of honor she is to be. Friday Miss Love will be honored at a luncheon given by Miss Mary Lauer, and Miss Elizabeth Shearer will entertain for Miss Pancoast at a luncheon and kitchen shower. Saturday, Miss Love's bridesmaids will attend a luncheon at the Love home, and on Christmas day, Miss Mary George will honor Miss Love at a tea at her home. Miss Mary Updike will give a dinner for Miss Pancoast's bridal party on the 26th, and on the following evening, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pancoast will give a prouptial dinner for their daughter and the bridal party. It looks like a busy vacation for Omahans and particularly for the college set.

AND IN LINCOLN Miss Ruth Holmes, who will be married Christmas day to William Tempel, plans to spend a busy week. On Tuesday she will be honored at an evening party at the home of Mrs. C. J. Rouzee. Wednesday noon Mrs. Arthur Perry will entertain four guests at a 1 o'clock luncheon and glassware shower for Miss Holmes. Wednesday evening she will be entertained at the home of Miss Kathryn Simpson, who will be assisted by Miss Althea Sheidt and Miss Eileen Story. Thursday Miss Frances Kingsley, Miss Marlain Paul, and Miss Evelyn Stowell, will honor Miss Holmes at a buffet supper and linen shower at the Kingsley home. On Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Holmes will entertain at a prouptial dinner at their home for Miss Holmes, Mr. Tempel, and the wedding party.

THE MARRIAGE of Margaretta Finch, Sigma Kappa and graduate of the class of 1932, to Gerald C. Ernst of Kansas City will take place in Lincoln on December 30. The announcement of the wedding was made Sunday by her mother, Mrs. Clara Finch.

TWO MORE parties honoring Miss Jean Field and Donald Scott, who will be married on December 27, are listed on the calendar for this coming Friday and Sunday. On Friday Mrs. S. S. Rogers and her daughters, Elizabeth and Mrs. Meredith Darlington of Fairbury, will honor the bride-to-be with a shower at their home. And on Sunday the parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Scott, will entertain at a prouptial supper at their home. Guests will present the couple with kitchenware articles, which will be placed around a Christmas tree.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fullager entertained eleven guests in honor of the couple Sunday at their home. Pink and green, the color motif, was carried out in the nut cups, place cards, and menu. The afternoon was spent informally.

AND STILL another couple is planning to be married during the holidays. This time it will be Elizabeth Barber, Alpha Phi, and Howard Mixson, Lambda Chi Alpha from Omaha, both graduates of last year, who announced their engagement and approaching marriage Sunday. The couple will live in Colerain, Minnesota, where Mr. Mixson is assigned to a civilian conservation corps camp.

LAST FRIDAY evening Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Ashton entertained at a party announcing the marriage to their daughter, Alice, to Kenneth Reed of Campbell. The ceremony took place at Seward on Oct. 25, with Miss Janet Ashton, sister of the bride as maid of honor, and Leland Coppel, cousin of the groom, best man. Mr. Reed is a graduate of the university and a member of Farm House and Alpha Zeta.

A RECENT marriage of interest in Omaha was that of Miss Florence Binkley to Dick Devereaux, which took place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Central United Presbyterian church. Mrs. Devereaux was a Pi Phi here and Mr. Devereaux was a member of ATO. Miss Imo Doris Wells was the maid of honor, and William Devereaux was best man. The bridesmaids were Miriam Kissinger and Miss Betty Kimberly, and Edward Binkley and George Kennedy were the ushers. Following the ceremony there was a reception at the home of the bride's parents. After a short wedding trip the couple will be at home in St. Paul, Minn.

NEWS OF another out-of-town marriage was only recently received. On Oct. 28 in Indianapolis Miss Letta Bell Roder of Lincoln was married to Everett E. Westbrook of Lincoln at the Northside Methodist church. Mr. Westbrook formerly attended the university, and after a temporary residence in Fort Wayne he will bring his bride back to Lincoln where they will make their home. Mrs. Westbrook was entertained Sunday morning at a 10:30 breakfast at the home of Miss Marguerite Phillips, and Mrs. Bernard Warren recently gave a kitchen shower in her honor. She will leave for Fort Wayne on Dec. 21.

DURING THE holidays Miss Frances Pothast will be married to

Roy Williams Hinze, who is a graduate of the college of pharmacy at the university.

TYING A quilt and mending toys was the entertainment for the Alpha Delta Theta alumnae last night when they were entertained by Mrs. Frances Drath, with Miss Katherine Klapp assisting. The affair was a Christmas party and the decorations were in red and white.

TONIGHT at the chapter house the Kappa Sigs will have their annual alumni banquet, which will be attended by about sixty. Following the dinner, the actives and alumni will have a combined Christmas party.

IN COMMEMORATION of the founding of the Nebraska chapter of Sigma Alpha Mu, Hymen Rosenberg was host to active and alumni of the fraternity at a dinner Sunday night at the Cornhusker. Mr. Rosenberg was the first president of the chapter, and ten charter members of the group were present. Brief talks were given by Al Batt, president of the Omaha alumni, and Max Blazer.

CHRISTMAS GIFTS were presented to twenty children from Tabitha home at a party Monday afternoon at the Alpha Gamma Rho house. And the A G R's are planning to entertain about thirty alumni at the annual Christmas banquet tonight at the chapter house.

SEASONAL COLORS and decorations were used at the Campus club dinner last night at the University club, when about forty-five members of the group heard Miss Marjorie Shanafelt of the museum department speak on "The Old Christmas Rituals and Customs." Following the dinner the club formally presented a gift to the University hospital.

DISCUSS NEW PLEDGES

Sigma Delta Chi to Plan Awgwan Advertising Campaign.

Members of Sigma Delta Chi, journalistic professional and honorary fraternity, are planning a general session for immediately after the Christmas holidays. According to Dick Moran, president of the organization, arrangements will be made for the initiation of about eight pledges. Their names will be announced at a later date. The journalistic fraternity will also aid in planning a definite advertising campaign for the Awgwan, humor publication on the campus.

ARRANGE FOR INITIATION

Theta Sigma Phi to Hold Literary Meeting in January.

Tentative plans have been made by Theta Sigma Phi, national journalistic honorary for women, to hold initiation soon after the Christmas holidays. No definite date has been set for the initiation, but it will probably take place on January 11 and will be held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Pike, president of the alumni chapter. In conjunction with initiation plans are being made for a literary meeting to be held the same evening.

THIEL WILL NAME INTERFRATERNITY BALL COMMITTEE

(Continued from Page 1.) given to junior men in past years but following drastic revision of the council's membership, will be filled by seniors only this year. The change was one of several designed to remove politics from the council. Meeting Will Be Short. Thiel stated that while the meeting will be comparatively short and the announcement of the ball committee will be the major business, the reports of committees on campus beautification and revision of the council constitution and rushing will also be discussed. The campus beautification committee which is endeavoring to secure aid from the regents on the council's proposal to have a number of stone pillars erected on the mall, is preparing specifications for the project which will be presented tonight. Elton Ross is chairman of the committee.

REQUEST PERMISSION TO PUBLISH ARTICLE

Oxford Professor Desires to Reprint Story Taken From 'Prairie Schooner.'

The "Prairie Schooner" magazine has again been honored by Edward J. O'Brien of Oxford England thru his request to reprint "Crossroads Woman" in the forthcoming edition of his annual anthology "The Best Sport Stories." Written by Howard McKinley Corning, "Crossroads Woman" was proofread by "Prairie Schooner," Editor L. C. Wimberly, professor of English at the university, and first published as one of the leading stories in the 1933 winter issue of the Nebraska magazine.

Mr. Corning was born near Bennett, Neb., and is now living in Oregon. He writes both prose and poetry. His two volumes of poetry are "Those People," and "The Mountain in the Sky." Several of his poems are included in the 1932 edition of "The New Poetry."

The total amount of money received by the Indiana Daily Student in its annual Christmas cheer charity fund drive up to Friday, Dec. 14 was $233.39.

BARBS TO START CAGE SCHEDULE AFTER HOLIDAYS

(Continued from Page 1.) and at the end of the schedule the two champs played for the title. Harry West was named last spring to serve as president of the Interclub council during the present year, but due to outside work he was unable to serve in that capacity. The purpose of the council is to organize the Barb men into an organization which will encourage them in taking part in campus activities, and to offer the Barb students some social life under the direction of a committee, the Barb council.

CAPACITY CROWD ATTENDS MESSIAH HELD ON SUNDAY

(Continued from Page 1.) people, including Governor and Mrs. Bryan, Chancellor and Mrs. Burnett, the university regents, the deans of the university and their wives.

A new stage platform, which provided for the seating of the entire chorus and the orchestra on the stage, added greatly to the effectiveness of the performance. The platform was designed this year by Prof. Harry Cunningham, chairman of the department of architecture.

Kirkpatrick Directs. For almost thirty years the annual production of "The Messiah" was directed by Mrs. Carrie Bell

Raymond, when she made it one of the foremost musical presentations of the state. Since her death, it has been conducted by Howard Kirkpatrick, director of the university school of music.

Last year, for the first time, members of the organization were selected by invitation of the director, opening new fields of talent for the production. The soloists and three hundred members of the chorus rehearsed for eight weeks preceding the performance this year.

An appreciative audience applauded the numbers of the oratorio enthusiastically, and the voices carried well in the exceptionally large auditorium. A special broadcast of the concert was made from the coliseum over radio station KFAB.

We Can Help Those Less Fortunate Than Ourselves....

And at little bother and no expense!

It's Christmas time! But Christmas to many will mean little more than any other day of the year. For it is they on whom fate has not smiled kindly.

In cooperation with Lincoln charity organizations, the Daily Nebraskan is conducting a campus-wide campaign for old clothes. Things for which you no longer have any use, will prove most useful to Lincoln needy during cold winter months.

Those old shoes you can't wear, which at the present time merely clutter up your clothes closet, may just as well be given to charity. That dress you thought had seen its last day weeks ago, will see many more when given to folks who never get to buy pretty new things.

So give and help somebody have a merrier Christmas. We'll be glad to call for even the smallest contribution. It's the little bits that eventually count. We can all do a little to help.
