

THE DAILY NEBRASKAN

Best Copy Available

Official Student Newspaper of the University of Nebraska

VOL. XXXIII—NO. 78.

LINCOLN, NEBRASKA, TUESDAY, JANUARY 30, 1934

PRICE 5 CENTS.

LATE PERMISSION IS GRANTED FOR BIRTHDAY DANCE

Proceeds Will Go to Warm Springs Foundation in Georgia.

AFFAIR IS INFORMAL

Salute to President by Military Groups Will Be Feature.

Tuesday night, January 30, will be a twelve o'clock night for all university girls attending President Roosevelt's birthday ball to be held at the university coliseum. Tickets for the affair, which will be strictly informal, are selling for one dollar per couple and may be bought at the door. Both the orchestras of Leo Beck and Eddie Jungbluth will play.

Arrangements are almost completed and the party promises to be one of the outstanding events of the winter season. Loud speakers will be installed in the coliseum in order that everyone may hear the president's talk and the radio program from 10:15 o'clock to 11:15 o'clock. Proceeds of the ball go to the foundation at Warm Springs, Ga., for the treatment of infantile paralysis. Stanley Maly, general chairman for the affair in Lincoln, urged support of the general public since it is for such a worthy cause.

Tickets Checked Out. Workers in the ticket drive have checked out 2,600 tickets, and although no definite checkup has been made on the amount sold, a very favorable reception has been

YORK CHURCHES HEAR UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

Representatives of Campus YM and YW Comprise Deputation.

ADDRESS YOUNG PEOPLE

A deputation from the city campus Y. M. C. A. representing the student attitude on religion went to York Sunday to speak at young people's meeting and at church services.

Those who appeared at the meetings were: Norman Guidinger, Meredith Nelson, Morton Spence, Roberto Mario, Beverly Finkle, Harold Soderlund and Sarah Louise Meyer, a member of the Y. W. C. A. P. C. Wade and William Molden, soloists, sang negro spirituals. They were accompanied by C. D. Hayes, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

The deputation visited the United Brethren, Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist, and Congregational churches. "The purpose of the deputation," Mr. Hayes said, "is to give the young people of the other towns a conception of college students as religious young men and women."

The arrangements were in charge of Norman Guidinger.

ASSOCIATION OFFERS PRIZES FOR POSTERS

Residents of Nebraska Are Eligible to Compete in Contest.

Residents of Nebraska are again eligible to compete for $25 in prizes to be given by the Nebraska Art Association for the best original posters advertising the forty-fourth annual exhibition of the association. The exhibition will be held in the art galleries of Morrill hall, from Feb. 13 to March 18, and will include paintings by well known contemporary artists. Prize money for the annual contest is furnished from a fund set up by J. L. Teeters.

Nebraska people are the contestants for the three prizes: the first of which is $12, the second $8, and the third $5. According to the contest announcement, posters submitted must be 24 by 36 inches in size on heavy cardboard. Posters must show originality and there is no limitation as to the number of colors that may be used in the design.

Any style of lettering may be used, it was explained, but the following information must be included: Nebraska Art Association, Forty-fourth Annual Exhibition, Feb. 13 to March 18, Morrill hall, final date for posters to be received is Feb. 8. The board of trustees reserves the right to use posters submitted and such contest entrance posters should be sent to the Nebraska Art Association in Morrill hall. Name and address of the contestant should appear only on the back of the poster. Winners will be announced Feb. 11.

TALKS TO CONCORD CLUB

Dr. Pfeiler Speaks in Omaha On 'Hitler Germany and Her Neighbors.'

Dr. Wilhelm K. Pfeiler, assistant professor of Germanic languages, addressed the Omaha Concord Club recently. Speaking on "Hitler, Germany and Her Neighbors," his lecture was based, in part, on observations made last summer while he was traveling through Germany, France and Spain.

NO DECISION AS VARSITY MEETS DRAKE ARGUERS

Nebraska Contests Drake Debate Squad Over KFAB Monday.

Opening the debate activity for the second semester Irving Hill and Eugene Pester met the Drake university team in a radio debate over station KFAB Monday afternoon on the affirmative side of the proposition: Resolved: That the Powers of the President of the United States should be enlarged. There was no decision.

This was the first work of the year because of changes made in the schedule at the request of the opponents, according to Prof. H. A. White, debate coach. Arguments with Morningside and Iowa State colleges are postponed to Feb. 7 and Feb. 8 respectively.

Affirmative Against Ames. Nebraska will have the affirmative against Iowa State in the debate on Feb. 7 tentatively scheduled to be held on the campus. The speakers for Nebraska will be Charles Steadman and Jack Pace, Irving Hill and Dwight Perkins will be the debaters on the affirmative side against Morningside on Feb. 8 in a tentatively arranged broadcast from station KFAB.

Hill and Perkins will again be the affirmative speakers for Nebraska in the appearance before the Knife and Fork club on Feb. 8, arguing with representatives from Maryville State Teachers college.

List Future Debates. Later debates have been arranged for with Grinnell college on Feb. 23 and with the University of Denver on the 28th. The engagement with Grinnell will be before the Forum of Lincoln high school and for the debate with Denver the arguers were invited to appear before the Community club, of Ithaca, Neb. Nebraska upholds the affirmative in both of these arguments with Charles Steadman and John Stovor speaking in the first and Steadman and Jack Pace in the second.

ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP TEA SET FOR SUNDAY

Women With Average of 80 Percent to Be Honored By Mortar Boards.

Honoring women of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes with a scholastic average of 80 percent or above, Mortar Board, senior women's honorary society, has issued 397 invitations to attend their annual scholarship tea to be given in Ellen Smith hall Sunday afternoon.

The time, originally set for 3 to 5 o'clock, has been extended to 5:30 in order that girls attending the Lincoln symphony concert on the same afternoon, may also attend the tea.

Miss Alice Geddes is general chairman of the event and Valentine Klotz is in charge of decorations. Martha Hershey is in charge of refreshments and Jane Boos, publicity and music.

In the receiving line at the tea will be Mrs. F. D. Coleman, national president of the Mortar Board society, Dean Amanda Hopper, and Willa Norris, local president of the Mortar Boards.

Four students will be recipients of Panhellenic awards at the tea. They are, Donna Davis, senior, Jane Boos, senior, Mary Helen Davis, junior, and Evelyn Diamond, senior.

Three Former Students

Visit Campus Past Week

Among the former student visitors thru the week at the university are: Oliver T. Joy, who attended school here in 1925 in the geology department, and who is now living in Houston, Texas; Carl W. Mengel, a graduate of the engineering college in 1910, who is now engineer examiner for the state advisory board of the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works at Chapel Hill, N. C.; and Waldo H. Mengel, an engineer graduate of 1922, who is with the state bureau of roads and irrigation.

Dr. Bell Addresses

Honorary Fraternity

Dr. Earl H. Bell, assistant professor of anthropology, addressed the Omaha chapter of Alpha Kappa Delta honorary sociology fraternity, Monday, Jan. 22. Using as the topic for his discussion "The Long Road from Savagery to Insanity," Dr. Bell outlined some of the costs of civilization such as the loss of individualism, development of class lives, increase of misery among the masses, and the increased crime.

Business Manager

Bernard Jennings, Lincoln, was reappointed to serve as business manager of the Daily Nebraskan during the second semester of the present school year, after having held that post during the first semester. He is a senior in the college of business administration.

ENROLLMENT FOR SEMESTER SHOWS SLIGHT DECREASE

Registration Drops But 168 From Fall Mark; Expect 5000 Attendance.

With 3,669 students registered, but 15 less than for the same time a year ago, second semester classes at the university started Monday morning. The second semester figure showed but 168 fewer students than at the same time during the first semester. It was but half as great a lag between semesters as was felt last year when there were 334 fewer students the second semester than the first and the 1931-32 lag of 423 students.

The total collegiate resident registration for the first semester of this year was 5,090 and for the second semester of last year it was 5,130. For the current semester the registration of graduate students, medical college students and those entering late will swell the total toward the 5,000 mark.

WIMBERLY ANNOUNCES JUDGES FOR CONTEST

Students May Enter Short Stories in Nationwide Competition.

Dr. L. C. Wimberly, professor of English and editor of Prairie Schooner, Nebraska's internationally recognized literary magazine, has just announced the names of the Prairie Schooner associate editors who will act as local judges in the nationwide $150-prize short story contest sponsored by the magazine, Story.

Frederick L. Christensen, assistant in the department of English, Pearl Joan Cosgrave, graduate student from Lincoln, and Paul Barren, sophomore in the Arts and Sciences college, whose home is in Scottsbluff, will judge the contest entries from the university.

Open to All Students.

This contest is open to all registered students of colleges and universities throughout the entire United States. The two stories declared best by the judges will be forwarded to the editors of Story where they will then compete with the two best stories from other campuses for final decision.

The story winning first prize nationally will be published by Story, and its author will receive a prize of $100 cash. The author of the story taking second place will receive a $50 cash prize. Stories of unusual merit, even though they are not prize-winners, will be considered for possible publication in Story.

"Judging by the interest already shown in the contest," declares Dr. Wimberly, "we may expect some worthwhile stories." Dr. Wimberly states that all entries from Nebraska must be received in the editorial office of Prairie Schooner by Feb. 15, 1934.

PATTERSON TO SPEAK AT Y.M.C.A. MEETING

Group Will Discuss Support Of Christian Position on Social Issues.

Dr. E. H. Patterson of the department of philosophy, will lead the discussion at the Y. M. C. A. meeting to be held at the Temple Wednesday night.

"Should the Y. M. C. A. take a more definite stand on the campus in support of the Christian position on social issues," will be the topic for discussion. This discussion a continuation of a discussion held last semester.

All men in the university are invited to attend the meeting whether they are members or not.

KLINGER RESIGNS POSITION; TAKES GOVERNMENT JOB

Alexis Announces Departure Of Assistant Professor Of German Monday.

IS NEBRASKA GRADUATE

Former Instructor to Work In New Mexico on Soil Erosion Project.

Resignation of Bruno Klinger, for two and one-half years assistant professor of Germanic languages, to be effective from the beginning of the present semester, was made known yesterday by Dr. J. E. A. Alexis, chairman of the Germanic languages department.

Mr. Klinger will immediately take up his duties with the government as assistant director of range studies, with headquarters in Gallup, N. M. The work is one of several government projects in erosion control. Although known on this campus through his graduate studies and his teaching in Germanic languages, Mr. Klinger has for five summers been associated with the Alpine Laboratories, a botanical experimental station, under the direction of Dr. F. E. Clemens of Manitou, Colo. Dr. Clemens is governmental adviser for the New Mexico project, which will attempt to determine the plants most profitable to grow for the prevention of soil erosion in that state.

Graduates Take Duties. Graduate students will take over (Continued on Page 4.)

INTERFRATERNITY BALL TICKETS GO ON SALE TUESDAY

Greek Council Will Discuss Arrangements for Annual Dance at Meeting.

Tickets for the annual Interfraternity Ball, second of the three traditional events of the winter formal season, will be checked out to members of the Interfraternity council on Tuesday night and will go on sale immediately, according to an announcement made yesterday by Norman Prucka, chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the ball.

Bob Thiel, president of the Interfraternity Council, has called a special meeting of the council for this evening at 7:30 in Morrill hall to facilitate the distribution of tickets and to discuss plans for the ball. Members of the committee will be called upon for reports on their work in connection with the ball so far, he declared.

Jimmy Joy Will Play. Announcement was made last week by the music chairman, Leslie Rood, of the signing of Jimmy Joy and his orchestra to play for the Interfraternity Ball. The orchestra, which has recently played engagements in Kansas City and Minneapolis, has attracted much favorable attention lately.

Members of the Interfraternity Council will be in charge of the sale of tickets within their respective houses, Prucka stated. The dance is open to non-fraternity members as well, however, he added. Tickets will sell for $1.50, including tax.

ANNOUNCE NEXT AG MIXER

Will Be Saturday, Feb. 3; Filley Is Chairman of Committee.

An Ag Mixer will be held next Saturday, Feb. 3, at 8:30, in the Activities building, according to Vernon Filley, chairman of the committee in charge. Other members of the committee, which is composed of Barb men, are Elver Hodges and Elmer Heyne. A Lincoln orchestra will play for the affair.

SWAP SHOP WILL BE OPEN THRUOUT WEEK

Y.W.C.A. swap bookshop in the Temple theater will be open every day this week from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. The shop sells new and old books, and also takes in used books from students who wish to sell them.

Teaching Applicants Will Meet Thursday

All students desiring teaching positions for the school year 1934-1935 are requested to meet in the Social Science Auditorium, Thursday, February 1st at 5 o'clock.

Students who desire the assistance of the Department of Educational Service in securing a teaching position and who have not yet registered may do so on any Monday or Thursday. This should be attended to without delay.

Nebraskan Editor

Bruce Nicoll, Casper, Wyoming, senior in the college of arts and sciences, and the school of journalism, will serve as editor of the Daily Nebraskan during the second semester. During the first semester he was managing editor of the publication.

IOWA PROFESSOR IS SPEAKER FOR HONOR ASSEMBLY

Convocation Committee Sets April 18 as Date for Annual Event.

Dr. Norman Foerster, director of the school of Letters and Professor of English at the University of Iowa, will make the principal address at the university honors convocation April 18, according to an announcement made by the convocations committee. Dr. Foerster has been director in the Iowa school since 1930, and is widely known for his academic and literary work. Among his later publications are: American Poetry and Prose, The Reinterpretation of American Literature, and American Critical Essays.

Altho complete arrangements have not yet been made for this sixth annual honors meeting, the committee again plans to announce the names of the 10 percent of each class who rank highest in scholarship. At this time it has been the rule in the past to name the student organizations which are recognized for highest

(Continued on Page 2.)

LITERARY SOCIETY INSTALLS OFFICERS

Francis Johnson Elected New President of Delian Union.

Installation of officers for the coming semester was held by the Delian-Union Literary Society at their regular business meeting Tuesday night, Jan. 23, in Delain-Union hall. Formal initiation and pledging ceremonies were also held.

The newly elected officers are: Francis Johnson, Lincoln, president; Angelyn Kvetsnsky, Omaha, vice-president; Wallace Findley, Graham, Missouri, secretary; and Leonard Westbrook, Lincoln, treasurer elected for the whole school year.

Miss Joan Bicknell, Lincoln; Bohumil Rott, St. Paul; Paul Lemmon, Lincoln; Ruth Kuehn, Murock; and Eunice Bingham, Lincoln, were formally initiated as new members of the society. The society also announces the pledging of Helen Kunz, Elmwood; Theodore Schroeder, Omaha; Eugene Dalby, Omaha; Belle Graves, Lincoln; Olive Seibold, Papillion; and Lillian Seibold, Papillion.

The officers during the last semester were: Alice Doll, Dannebrog, president; Wilma Bute, Lincoln, vice-president; and Dorothy Gerhard, Lincoln, secretary.

SEVENTEEN ETCHINGS GIVEN TO UNIVERSITY

Group Is Presented by Will C. Gregg, Student in 1884.

Seventeen etchings by well known contemporary American artists have just been presented to the department of fine arts by the university in 1884, and who is now a resident of Hackensack, New Jersey. A connoisseur of art, Mr. Gregg several years ago established in the fine arts department a permanent exhibition of prints known as the Gregg collection, to which he adds from time to time.

The etchings just received were selected by him from the eighteenth annual exhibition of the Society of American Etchers held at the National Arts club in New York City. Among them are etchings by Gifford Beal, Albert L. Groll, Frank Benson, F. Luis Mora, and Carl Rungius. This collection is exhibited in the corridor on the third floor of Morrill hall.

REV. JOHNSTON TO SPEAK

Will Be Heard by Students at Vespers Services This Afternoon.

Rev. Paul Johnston will speak at Vesper services this afternoon at 5 o'clock at Ellen Smith hall. Rev. Johnston has spoken at Vesper services many times before and is well known to university students.

Elizabeth Rowans will have charge of this service, a feature of which will be special music arranged by the Vesper choir.

RALPH JOHNSON WILL SPEAK AT MEETING TODAY

Special Convocation to Be Held in YM Rooms at 11 O'clock.

Ralph Johnson, student lecturer and exchange student from the University of Hawaii, will speak at a special convocation in the Y. M. C. A. rooms in the Temple at 11 o'clock today on the subject "The World of Tomorrow From the Youth of Today." Mr. Johnson will also discuss the undeclared war in the Far East at a convocation at the Agricultural college at 12:15.

Mr. Johnson's talks should be interesting and should indicate student thought in the countries of Europe and the far east which he has visited and studied, according to C. D. Hayes, university Y. M. C. A. secretary. At the close of the academic year at Hawaii Johnson visited China, Japan, Manchuria and Philippines as a representative of the National Student Federation in the Orient.

Lived With Students. He lived with the students absorbing their customs and thoughts and depicting to them the ideals and beliefs of the United States. He was also able to visit the university in Moscow because of his connection with Voks, the Russian organization for international relations. Similar advantages were given him in France, Germany and England.

Mr. Johnson has not only had contact with student life but has had the opportunity to meet political and governmental leaders in the countries he visited and thus has gained a knowledge of the internal problems of the various nations. The sessions of the Fourteenth Assembly of the League of Nations were opened to him and he attended both council and committee meetings.

Student at Redlands.

Mr. Johnson, a student at Redlands university, was awarded the California-Hawaii scholarship, the purpose of which is to promote better understanding of the conditions confronting the nations bordering the Pacific.

Monday night Johnson lectured at the University club on "The League: Dawn or Twilight." The program was sponsored by the League of Nations association, the American Association of University Women and the League of Women Voters.

BARBOUR IS JUDGE IN STATE MAP CONTEST

Competition to Promote and Advertise Resources of Nebraska.

Dr. E. H. Barbour, of the geology department has been named as a member of the official state judging committee of the "Know Your County" map contest which is being conducted in the primary schools of Nebraska.

This contest, designed to promote and advertise the resources of Nebraska and gather valuable information of an historical and geographical nature about the state, is one in which the students compete for prizes in digging out and recording interesting facts and points of interest to be found within their own county and Nebraska.

Eighteen Counties Entered.

Schools in eighteen counties are already represented in the early entries, and the movement is rapidly attaining full momentum. Several of the schools entered have listed their entire enrollment in the competition. All of the twenty-six students in one Sheridan county school are working on the contest.

The state judges will work together to select the students who have contributed the most valuable material. Serving with Dr. Barbour on this committee are Dr. A. E. Sheldon, State Historical Society, Chas. Bowers, secretary of State Teachers association, Jesse F. Correll, Lancaster county superintendent of schools, Mrs. G. H. Wentz, State Day originator, Dr. G. E. Condra, Nebraska survey department, and Harry Coffee, congressional candidate, Alliance.

Baptist Students to Hold Waffle Supper

The student group of the First Baptist church is sponsoring a waffle supper to be held Thursday evening, Feb. 1, at the Student House, 1440 Q st. The committee in charge is Miss Clair Rhodes and Mr. Vincent Broady. Students and their friends will be served between 5:30 and 8 p. m.

GRANT UNIVERSITY DEGREES TO CLASS OF 136 SATURDAY

No Commencement Exercises As Mid-Year Graduates Receive Diplomas.

TO LESS THAN YEAR AGO

Miss Catherine M. Lieneman, Miss Vera E. Rigdon Take Ph.D.

One hundred thirty-six degrees were conferred by the university Saturday at the close of the first semester's work. The group included 21 different degrees, including two persons who received the Doctor of Philosophy degree. No special commencement exercises are held for those who graduate from the university at mid-year, they having the privilege of taking part in the June commencement exercises. Last January 146 degrees were granted.

Included in the graduates were two, Miss Catherine M. Lieneman of Greensboro, North Carolina, and Miss Vera E. Rigdon, of Lincoln, who received the Ph. D. degree. Miss Lieneman took her graduate work in botany and Miss Rigdon took her work in geography.

Following is a complete list of those who received degrees and certificates:

GRADUATE COLLEGE. Master of Arts. Rosario Tolentino Adlam, Lincoln. Lester Miller Beck, Lincoln. Carlos Alfred Elkins, Rushville. Elmer Julius Brantman, Lincoln. Claire Belle Hicks, Seward. Paul Christian Jensen, Lincoln. Louis Henry Lakert, Lincoln. Mabel Margaret McGinnis, St. Paul. Russell John Meiberg, Dalton. Ernest Miller, Ridge, Mo. (Continued on Page 2.)

NEW STAFF POSITIONS OPEN ON CORNHUSKER

Magee Asks Students Make Applications to Him During Week.

ANNOUNCEMENT SUNDAY

A number of new positions on the staff of the Cornhusker, university annual, are now available. All students who are interested in doing this kind of work are urged to apply any time this week, until 3 o'clock, Friday, Feb. 2. Between ten and fifteen new positions have been created with the beginning of the new semester, and between five and ten vacancies will also be filled at this time.

"There is an opportunity for freshmen, who have made a high scholastic average the first semester, to gain valuable experience so that they may get better positions next year," according to Woodrow Magee, editor of the publication. "Also there is a need for sophomore men to fill positions as assistant managing editors, and security girls wanting activity points may find work at the Cornhusker office."

The new positions will be announced next Sunday. All applications should be made personally to the editor.

Select Grop Editors. Men and women organization editors, along with several assistants will be selected. These will have charge of getting write-ups of the various organizations. Also assistant studio editors are needed, to help schedule the pictures of the various organizations.

Assistant managing editors will be selected from among the sophomore men. Girls interested in working for W. A. A. may apply for positions as women athletic editors. As there will be several chosen to fill each position, everyone applying will probably find a position of some sort.

Students having snap shots of well-known people on the campus, or pictures taken around the various fraternity houses are urged to bring them to the Cornhusker office as soon as possible, for use in the year book. The feature section has always been a most popular one, and the staff tries to get pictures of as many activities represented as possible. However, if all organizations are to be represented it must be with cooperation of the student body as a whole. Hence all pictures will be considered in the make-up of this section. bisP -agx.ainoUehk

Y. M. C. A. TO CHOOSE OFFICERS WEDNESDAY

Polls Will Be Open From Eight Thirty Till Five O'clock.

The city campus Y. M. C. A. elections will be held Wednesday, Jan. 31, at the Y. M. rooms in the Temple.

Those nominated are: Charles Hulac, for president; Joseph Nuquist for vice president; and William Newcomer and George Wilbush for secretary.

The polls will be open from 8:30 to 12, and from 12:45 to 5.