

CAMPUSOCIETY

IT'S THE LAST OF EVERYTHING as far as elections go this year. Today the polls are open for voting for the junior and senior men, who will choose the candidates for innocents, and the women had their final filing yesterday, when they voted for members of the A. W. S. Board. With Ivy Day only a little more than two weeks away, everyone is practicing on their singing, wondering who will be chosen May Queen, and worrying about their prospective candidates for the senior honoraries.

THE INITIATION of sixteen pledges and three associate members to Sigma Delta Chi will take place at 5 o'clock this evening at the Lincoln hotel. Following the initiation a Founders day banquet will be held. Dick Moran, president of the organization, will preside, and Dr. H. W. Stoke will be the principal speaker. Professor Gayle S. Walker will give a short talk. Larry Hall and Bruce Nicoll are making the arrangements for the affair. The new initiates will be Lamoine Bible, Burton Marvin, Don Sigler, Bill Fisher, Henry Bostrom, Eugene Dalby, Robert Bulger, Art Bailey, Jim Steward, Carlisle Myers, Harley Case, Jack Fischer, Leonard Tangney, Wayne Patten, Ralston Graham, and Richard Dier.

LEAVING TODAY is Mrs. John W. Pease of Cincinnati, Delta Zeta president-elect, who arrived Sunday to stay at the Delta Zeta house.

THE NEW Delta Gamma president is Jean Brownlee; vice president, Lois Rathburn; secretary, Phyllis Jean Humphrey; house treasurer, Jean Martin; chapter treasurer, Louise Comstock; and social chairman, Elsa Swift.

A BUFFET supper at the house was given by the D. S. L. auxiliary

BIZAD FIELD DAY IS SCHEDULED FOR MAY 4

Picnic, Ball Game, Dance On Program of Annual College Event.

Bizad field day will be held Friday, May 4, at Antelope park, it was learned Thursday. The program will include a picnic at 12 followed by a ball game; a tea dance from 3:30 to 5:30 with Leo Beck's orchestra, and a group of specialty numbers presented by Wally Marrow's dancing studio.

The event is under the auspices of the Bizad executive council of which Edgar Huddleston is president. Those representatives in charge of the program are: Max Nusham, picnic arrangements; Albert Ross, sport events; and Rex Clemmens, selection of the orchestra. The various clubs represented on the board will handle the sale of tickets.

In case of rainy weather the event will take place in the coliseum. Last year's plans were ruined by an unlooked-for deluge.

Former Students' Work Is Placed on Display

The first annual art work exhibit by former fine arts students opened at Morrill hall Sunday afternoon with the display of nearly fifty pieces of art work representing twelve different mediums of expression.

Outstanding among the pieces are air-brush commercial designs by Don Jameson, woodcuts by Ben Albert Benson, and water colors by John Sanvall, all Chicago artists. Dwight Kirsch is in charge of the exhibit which will close May 15.

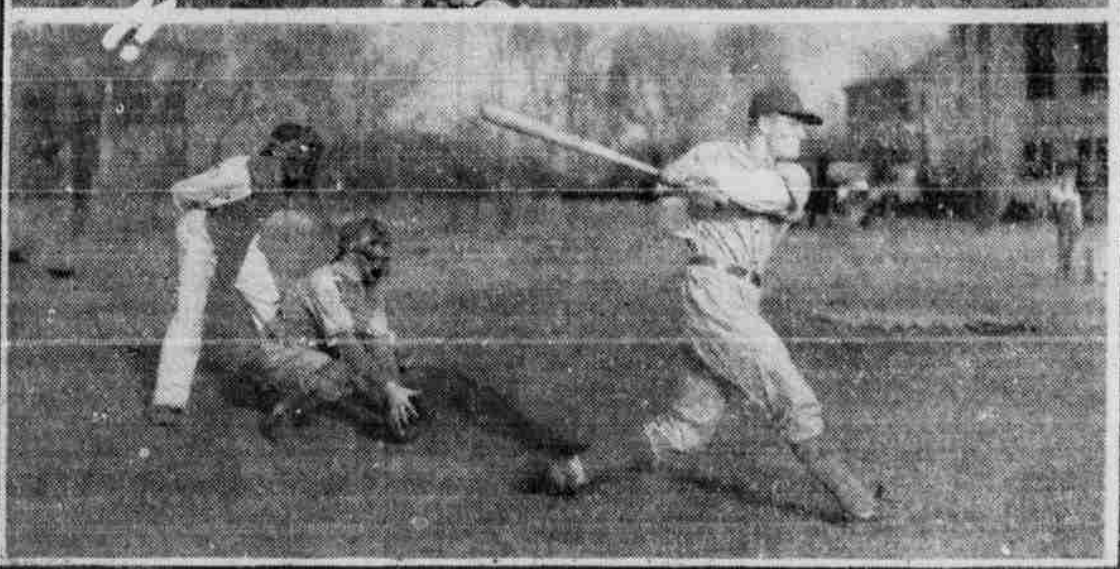

HIGH SCHOOL SENIORS JOURNEY TO CAMPUS
