CAMPUSOCIETY

IT'S CERTAINLY CONVENIENT to have people living in the house who aren't in school. We hear that several girls who don't go to the university and live in the houses are privileged to have keys to the front doors. This makes it very nice for the sisters who habitually arrive home late, because the keys can be easily passed around to accommodate everyone. The old stories about flat tires and running out of gas don't need to be dragged out of the moth balls any more to serve as possible reasons for late
